

GORMAN LIKELY TO BECOME THIRD VICE PRESIDENT

Kendrick Will Undoubtedly Take Kenna's Position.

GENERAL SHAKE-UP AMONG SANTA FE'S HIGHER OFFICIALS

Within a short time it is expected that an announcement will be made by E. P. Ripley, president of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway company, which has been made necessary by the resignation of Edward D. Kenna as first vice president.

Under ordinary conditions someone would be named merely as the successor of Mr. Kenna, but the conditions are not ordinary. When Mr. Kenna became general solicitor of the Santa Fe he did so under the stipulation that he be made a vice president, and this was done. This was one of the few instances in the railroad history of the country when one of the legal force had been named as one of the high executives of the road. Some months before Mr. Kenna finally severed his connection with the company he had been relieved of the duties of general solicitor and acted in an advisory capacity as first vice president. Gardiner Lathrop, of Kansas City, was named as general solicitor in his place. But it is understood that there is no intention on the part of the executive committee and President Ripley to name another member of the legal department as first vice president. They have other plans, and these, it is said, include the elevation of J. E. Gorman, freight traffic manager, to a vice presidency.

As things stand now, George T. Nicholson, the third vice president, is in charge of the entire traffic, freight and passenger, of the system. This is really more work than one man ought to be called on to do. Mr. Nicholson's great success as a railroad man has been made in the passenger department, and it is proposed to allow him to devote all his energies to this sort of traffic.

J. W. Kendrick, at present second vice president of the company, in charge of the operation of the road, is to be moved up a peg and will be made the first vice president. Mr. Nicholson will be named as second vice president, and as the gossip around the Santa Fe offices has it, Mr. Gorman is to be named as third vice president, and will have charge of the freight traffic of the road.

Mr. Gorman has been with the Santa Fe for about twenty years and is looked upon as one of the brilliant freight traffic managers of the country. Some eight or ten years ago he severed his connection with the Santa Fe to engage in commercial pursuits, but seven years ago he returned. Mr. Gorman had been general freight agent of the company with headquarters at Chicago for a number of years and was promoted to the position of freight traffic manager when W. B. Biddle severed his connection with the company to take the third vice presidency of the Rock Island last spring.

In the event of Mr. Gorman's elevation to a vice presidency, F. B. Houghton, assistant freight traffic manager, would probably take his place and this would leave a vacancy for which J. R. Koontz, general freight agent of the road, whose headquarters are in Topeka, will be in line for promotion.

GETS FORTY DAYS FOR BROILING THE HARVEY HOUSE CHEF

John Reddy Pays Full Penalty of Law in Prescott.

SAD AND SORROWFUL SEQUEL TO TRAGEDY AT ASH FORK

Forty days for forcibly seating a man on a red hot stove, is the sentence pronounced upon John Reddy for throwing the Ash Fork Harvey house chef on top of his own red hot range Thursday afternoon last, as exclusively announced in the Morning Journal.

This will serve as a warning to all future employees of the Harvey system who are fired and want to get even with the company by coming back and quitting the cook.

The sad sequel to the chef-roasting came in Prescott Saturday when Reddy appeared before the court hours to answer to the heinous charge of trying to serve up Charles Jordan medium well done to the patrons of the refreshment stand at Ash Fork.

Reddy had little to say, aside from disclaiming any intention to commit the crime, his action being taken in the heat of the moment and the stove being the only object handy against which to dash the offending culinary artist. The court upon thinking the offense over, came to the conclusion that forty days and nights behind the bars was a light enough punishment for such an act of atrocious barbarity and the luckless Reddy was sent below.

It will be a comfort to him, however, in his confinement to know that the chef in eating his meals in an erect position and will be unable to go away back and sit down for some days to come.

It was brought out in the testimony that the way the waitresses bolted for the door and shrieked when the fragrant odor of the frying chef was borne to their nostrils was a sight for gods and men.

THE ECONOMIST

Albuquerque's Brightest and Busiest Store

An Inclusive Christmas Invitation!

Whether to Admire, to Buy, to Examine or Compare—the Invitation Includes Everybody.

THE TIME UNTIL CHRISTMAS DAY is very short and we would impress you that early looking makes easy choosing. From every manufacturing center on earth we have secured their best—of fabrics, neckwear, handkerchiefs, lace, women's outer garments, hosiery, lingerie, book art needlework, toilet articles, stationery, and what not. We have insisted upon the finest qualities, the most artistic designs, the most refined and harmonious colorings; in short, the things that are the most pleasing to the senses—not in mean assortments but in quantities that are amazing. These are reasons enough why we should invite you and why you should come. It is this practical and scientific consideration of the public's wishes and needs that not only places the Economist store high on a plane by itself, but makes it of the highest usefulness to the people.

Millinery Department Clearance

Fine Trimmed Hats—An Opportune Sale

An immense range of styles was necessitated in our displays of High Grade Millinery to supply the demand of the past few weeks. Our desire to close out the remainder of our imported models resulted in interesting price reductions of these splendid Hats. This opportunity will appeal especially to late choosers. The prices that will rule this most exceptional trade event are absolutely the lowest ever offered—in most instances less than one-half, after one-third and one-quarter actual value.

Hats that were $20.00, now $12.50; Hats worth up to $15.00, now $9.00; Hats that were $12.50, now $7.50, and about 25 Hats worth up to $7.50 reduced to $3.98.

Pure Linen Handkerchiefs at Prices .... Worth Profiting By....

In gauging Economist Handkerchief offerings by others, remember that ours are always on a pure linen basis; and that even then, by virtue of our large distribution, our prices are lower than those based on the part-cotton handkerchiefs, cunningly mislabeled, that are so generally sold. Of course, cotton has to be used for embroidery; and most of the lace used on handkerchiefs is cotton lace; but the cloth of the handkerchiefs we sell is pure linen—unless it's part or all silk, or we state cotton. That statement applies not only to the following offerings, but to our entire stock. (And our regular prices, by the way, on staple lines of handkerchiefs, are low enough to merit an interesting story by themselves.)

Women's Laundered Handkerchiefs, hemstitched, embroidered Irish linen, ..... 20c each; 3 for 50c
Hemstitched or Scalloped Hand-Embroidered Irish linen, at 25c, 30c, 75c, $1, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00
