

LUNA PREFERS NOT TO TELL HIS JOINTURE VIEWS

Until After Congress Takes a Whack at the Bill.

NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN IS NON-COMMITTAL ON SUBJECT

In view of this year's unusual developments in the fight of New Mexico and Arizona for admission to the union there has been much curiosity in the public mind regarding the position on the statehood question of Senator Luna, for years a republican leader in New Mexico politics and member of the national republican committee.

Mr. Luna returned Saturday night from an extended visit in Washington, where he had several conferences with the president on subjects vital to New Mexico. Mr. Luna was interrogated yesterday at the Alvarado by a Morning Journal reporter as to his position on the statehood question.

"Just at this time," said Mr. Luna, "I would prefer not to state my position in regard to joint statehood for New Mexico and Arizona. I would rather wait until the bill is acted on by congress. It will be time enough to say then what my position is."

"Just what the chances of statehood will be, one cannot find out by a visit to Washington, and only those who have made a decided fight pro or con, will make a positive statement in regard to it," continued Mr. Luna. "I, myself and the balance of the party who were in Washington, used our best efforts to get as favorable a statehood bill as possible and I believe we have made arrangements for enough land to go with the bill to pay the railway indemnity bonds, which will be a big aid to the new state should one be formed of the two territories. My visit to Washington was not in the interest of joint statehood, but as a member of the republican party of the territory. We were quite successful in having members of the party appointed to federal positions in all offices, except the governor, which appointment had been made before we arrived.

"The principal object of my visit was in regard to the Gila forest reserve, which the government intended enlarging on the north. This was successful in blocking and we also had pasturing rates reduced for government reserves from 8 cents per head on sheep and 50 cents on cattle, to 5 and 30 cents, respectively. The limit law for cattle aboard trains in transit, will also be extended from 28 hours to 36 hours."

Mr. Luna was accompanied on his return by H. O. Bursum, superintendent of the penitentiary at Santa Fe, and Colonel W. H. Greer.

Swiped School House Fuel.

A few weeks ago the school board caused to be built what they fondly hoped would be a burglar proof woodshed, and that the job of furnishing free wood would be over, says the Lordsburg Liberal. The door next the street was locked on the inside, and the other door had a padlock on it. Last week it is supposed that some scholar, whose home was short of wood, unlocked the door next the street, and the next morning the school was short of wood. More wood was immediately ordered, also a padlock for the street door, but before wood could be procured the children had to pick up all the chips in the yard, to keep school going. The school board is in the market for a guaranteed burglar proof woodshed.

PROVE IT ANYTIME.

By the Evidence of Albuquerque People. The daily evidence of citizens right here at home supply is proof sufficient to satisfy the greatest skeptic. No better proof can be had. Here is a case. Read it: Mrs. J. Hall, of 519 South First st., says:

"One of my daughters suffered from backache for about eight months or a year. Sometimes it was so bad that she was completely prostrated for an day or so at a time. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our Albuquerque newspaper and thought they might help my daughter and so purchased a box. It is remarkably short time the medicine took effect and a little longer stopped the backache. We are pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.
