

SUBLIME FAITH IN GOD SHOWN BY MISS CAVELL IN FACING DEATH

British Chaplain, Who Was With Teacher-nurse Hour Before Execution, Says She Was Cheerfully Resigned.

GLAD TO GIVE LIFE IN COUNTRY'S SERVICE

Heroism of Christian Martyr Characterizes Words and Actions of Woman Slain by German Militarism.

London, Oct. 22 (10:15 p. m.)—The British foreign office this evening made public the report of the Rev. H. S. T. Gahan, the British chaplain in Brussels, who visited Miss Edith Cavell just before her execution, and a letter from Grand Whitehead, the American minister in Belgium, in which he commends the American ambassador in London.

In his letter Mr. Whitehead says he requested that the body of Miss Cavell be delivered to the school for nurses of which she was the director, his request being referred to the minister of war in Berlin.

Miss Cavell Perfectly Calm. The Rev. Mr. Gahan in his report said: "On Monday evening the 11th of October I was invited by a special passport from the German authorities to the prison of St. Gilles, where Miss Edith Cavell had been confined for ten weeks. The final sentence had been given early that afternoon."

"To my astonishment and relief I found my friend perfectly calm and composed, but this could not lessen the tenderness and intensity of feeling on either part during that last interview of almost an hour."

"She said that she wished all her friends to know that she willingly gave her life for her country, and that she was not afraid to die."

"No Stranger to Death. I perceive no fear nor shrinking. I perceive a calmness of spirit that is not strange or fearful to me."

"She further said: 'I thank God for this ten weeks quiet before the end. My life has always been hard and full of difficulties; this time the rest had been a great mercy. They have all been very kind to me here. But this I would say, standing as I do in view of God and eternity, I realize that patriotism is not enough. I must have no hatred or bitterness towards anyone.'

"We partook of holy communion together and she received the gospel message of consolation with all her heart. At the close of the little service I began to speak in the words, 'Aide With Me,' and she joined softly in the end."

Sustained by Christian Faith. "We sat quietly talking until it was time for me to go. She gave me parting messages for relatives and friends. She spoke of her soul's needs at the moment and she received the assurance of God's words as only a Christian can do."

"Then I said good bye, and she smiled and said: 'We shall meet again.'"

A German military chaplain was with her at the end and afterward gave her a Christian burial. He told me: "She was brave and bright to the last. She professed her Christian faith and said she was glad to die for her country. She died like a heroine."

Whitlock's Letter. Mr. Whitlock, in enclosing the letter he wrote to Baron von der Lancken, the German governor, at the request of President Fisher, of the board of appeals in Brussels, and the president of the Belgian school for nurses, asking that Miss Cavell's body be delivered to the school for nurses, of which she was the director, says:

"I have not received a written reply to my note to Baron Lancken on the subject but he came to see me yesterday afternoon and stated that the body had been interred near the prison of St. Gilles, where the execution took place, and that under the regulations governing such cases it was impossible to exhume the body without written permission from the minister of war at Berlin."

"He added that he had no authority to ask for permission to exhume the body but that immediately upon the return of the governor-general he would request him to take the matter up."

"I shall hope to be able to tell you that we have at least been able to accomplish this small service."

TRIAL OF TALAS IS BEGUN IN NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 22.—The trial of Omnia Talas, 22, for the killing of Mrs. Elizabeth Nichols, widow of the founder of the firm of Austin Nichols & Co., began today, the work being confined to the selection of a jury. The prosecution will open its case Monday.

Talas was the houseboy in the home of Mrs. Nichols and, according to a confession credited to him by the police, he admitted three accomplices in the home of the wealthy widow on the night of September 8 for the purpose of robbing her of her jewels, valued at many thousands of dollars.

Mrs. Nichols became so frightened by the intruders that she died. The men thereupon fled after obtaining jewelry valued at several thousand dollars.

ITALY HAS SEIZED AMERICAN COTTON

New York, Oct. 22.—American cotton valued at approximately $20,000,000, shipped from the United States and confined to Germany, in possession of the Italian government, according to Capt. J. W. Hatchler of the Liverpool Salvage association, who arrived here today on the steamship Baltic from Liverpool. Captain Hatchler said he but recently came from Italy where he was engaged in looking after the cotton. For several months, he said, previously to Italy joining the allies, the cotton consigned to Germany through Italy was detained. One of the last protests was that there was a shortage of goods, and to overcome this difficulty sent to Italy a large consignment of rolling stock. Italy is in possession of both cars and cotton.

STEEL MEN MAY SPEND MILLION IN ADVERTISING

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 22.—A million-dollar advertising campaign, stimulating a demand for steel products and opening new selling fields, was urged as a cure for business depression by George H. Jones of Chicago, before the American Iron and Steel Institute in session here today.

His address and that of Judge Elbert M. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel corporation and president of the institute, who spoke on "Publicity in Business Methods," were well received by the steel manufacturers present.

Mr. Jones also urged co-operation among the various steel manufacturers, declaring that the day when competition was the life of trade had passed and that it now behooved men of the same line of business "to get together."

"The badge of sanity today is the ability to co-operate," he said. "Competition may be the life of trade once, but it is no longer. Competition is suicidal when the inventive genius of America devised machines that would manufacture beyond present economic means."

Judge Gary declared that he did not agree with statements that this country may expect a prolonged continuance of the great prosperity now experienced. He said he believed, however, that American industries would recover more quickly from the effects of the war than those of any other nation. He characterized the steel industry at present as "very prosperous."

"The public and corporations have known too little of each other in the past for the good of both," he said. "Publicity has never done as much harm as secrecy. The corporation which refuses to publish whatever facts were proper to be known has, without many exceptions, been treated justly."

SAME PAY FOR WOMEN AS MEN IN ENGLAND

London, Oct. 22 (10:15 p. m.)—In a statement issued today David Lloyd George, minister of munitions, announced that women eighteen years of age and others engaged in munition work receive a minimum wage of one pound weekly. When doing skilled work on tin or of pieces, women get the same pay as men, the announcement further states.

This official recognition of the right of women to receive the same pay as men for the same work is claimed as a great victory by militant suffragettes who have long been agitating the question.

BIG HOP FIELDS OF CALIFORNIA ARE RAVAGED BY INCENDIARIES

Fire Fighters on Horst Brothers' Ranch Find Wires Cut, Pumps Out of Commission and Other Interference.

Believed to be Work of I. W. W. Anarchists

Seek Revenge for Members of Organization Serving Time in San Quentin for Murder of District Attorney.

San Francisco, Calif., Oct. 22.—Marauders, continuing a campaign of arson across two states, started four fires early today in a big hop ranch across the American river from here and did damage estimated at $25,000. Fire fighters found telephone wires cut and pumps out of commission, and were threatened with death when seeking aid. The hop fields and packing plant were destroyed, press rooms and warehouses were saved.

The ranch is one of several owned by the firm of Horst brothers. One of the brothers, known as Baron von Horst, is in custody in England, where he was arrested as a German spy. He received his title from a minor continental dependency and efforts of his brother, Clement Horst, to have him released have thus far encountered little success.

I. W. W. IS BLAMED

Officials here charged tonight that industrial workers of the World started the fires, pursuing a campaign to get two of their number out of San Quentin penitentiary, where they are serving life sentences for murder in connection with hop riots at Wheatland in 1911. A few months ago an attempt to burn the hotel was frustrated.

The first fire was discovered in what was known as a hop-picking Theodore Eder, manager of the ranch, as he was returning from Sacramento. As Eder rounded the sharp, electric other workmen, three more fires broke out, one in each of two kilns and the third in the cooling room.

WAR USURERS IMPOSE BURDEN ON GERMANY

London, Oct. 22 (10:15 p. m.)—The Cologne Gazette is quoted by Reuters' correspondent in Amsterdam, saying that the economic condition of Germany is endangered seriously by burdens imposed by war usurers.

"Exasperation festers in the people," the Gazette is quoted as saying, "because the task of holding out in the long war is rendered difficult by those who see in the present economic conditions a wonderful opportunity to make money. War usurers reaped the harvest on the plain of blood and the responsibility of gradually producing in people who are self-sacrificing, enduring and conscious of victory a gloomy and exasperated feeling."

Summary of War News of Yesterday

The allied fleet in the Aegean sea which has been blockading the coast of Thrace has started its attack against the coastlands and bombardment from Deodachach westward to Porto Lagon, a distance of thirty-eight miles. How much result was obtained in the attack or what its effect upon the coast will be, is not known. It is said that the damage has resulted to Deodachach from the shells of the warships, but no mention is made of Porto Lagon nor any of the other places that the British fleet attacked.

While the Teutonic allies and the Bulgarians continue their operations against the Serbs and are steadily gaining ground in the little kingdom, the Serbs are still tenaciously resisting the advance of the invaders. The Serbs are being heavily killed, wounded and men taken prisoners having captured an aggregate of $4,000.

The allied troops landed at Saloniki and their hold on the Serbs have not yet, as far as is known, come in contact with the Bulgarian forces which have pressed their way across Serbian territory from the east and now control the railway station northward from the Greek border and up the Vardar valley to Sreb.

All the war correspondents of the grandiose enterprise are said to realize the critical situation of the Serbs and French and British troops are still being poured into Saloniki with the hope of ultimately changing the tide of battle.

The promises made to Greece by the allies—the liberal of Cyprus and other considerations—for the participation of Greece in the war on their side have been rejected by the Hellenic government, at least for the present, and it will continue its policy of armed neutrality. Rumania has given its outward indications of any intention of changing her present course of standing aloof.

Outside of the Balkans the heaviest fighting has been in progress along the eastern front where Petrograd records successes in the capture of positions and gains from the Austrians and Germans. In the west in France and Belgium, little has been going on in the way of fighting except artillery bombardments.

King George has personally accepted for voluntary service in the British army "More men and yet more, the king says, are required to secure victory and enduring peace."

The British cabinet since October 1 have been 2,255 officers and 50,000 non-commissioned officers and men.

BIGGEST GUNS TO BE BUILT FOR COAST DEFENSE

If 16-Inch Size Should Not Be Ample More Powerful Artillery Is to Be Constructed by Uncle Sam.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Federal announcement of army plans in the national defense program to build large guns for the coast defense.

While the president has approved the plan, which calls for building of an array of more than 1,200,000 in all years, he has not yet had an opportunity to discuss it with all those members of the house and senate whose view he wishes to obtain.

Senator Charles McNary, chairman of the senate military affairs committee, now is en route to Washington from Oregon.

It was learned tonight that although it has been determined to re-organize the coast defense on both the Atlantic and Pacific, armed with sixteen-inch guns, final designs for these giant weapons have not been completed.

Army Ordnance experts say the sixteen-inch gun is no longer adequate for the coast defense, that the new design, if ships are built that can withstand the blow of sixteen-inch projectiles it merely is a question of building a bigger gun. For that reason the new coast defense guns will be designed only as they are authorized, so as to include latest ideas.

BATTLE EXPECTED NEAR AGUA PRIETA

Douglas, Ariz., Oct. 22.—Yankee troops under General Urbuleto have left Naco, which they occupied last night, to take possession of Agua Prieta, a place twelve miles west of Agua Prieta, toward which Carranza troops were marching today. The first battle between the Carranza and Villa forces in Sonora, therefore, probably will occur at that point.

General Calles, the Carranza commander, has ordered the southern Pacific of Mexico not to repair the bridges between Naco and Cananea, which were burned last night and the day before. This means it is believed, that the Carranza forces must close down in a few days, throwing out of employment approximately 2,000 men.

Senator Borah Speaks for "Ballots for Women," Pointing to Nineteen Years' Record in State of Idaho.

New York, Oct. 22.—Woman suffrage leaders predicted tonight that their parade on Fifth avenue tomorrow afternoon will be the largest demonstration for the right of woman to vote New York has ever seen.

According to the estimate the parade from Washington square to Central park will have 25,000 marchers, including several thousand women. Women from every state and from twenty-six foreign countries, showing flags, tabernacles, transportation streamers and banners, all asking support for "votes for women," will participate.

An estimate of the number of men who will appear, from 5,000 to 12,000, was based on promises made by the Men's League for Woman Suffrage.

The grand marshal will be Miss Ethel Stobbs. Miss With Wynne Madison will preside. New York is now in the front to vote for woman suffrage on November 2.

A feature will be a living flag, made by women representing twelve commonwealths where women vote, headed by Mrs. Winston Churchill and Mrs. Roosevelt. Another feature, the leaders estimated, there would be 3,000 bannerets, 10,000 bannerets and thirty-five bands.

Women suffragists held a campaign rally in Carnegie hall tonight. Mayor Mitchell, after delivering an address, called for the march on November 2 for woman suffrage on November 2.

U. S. GOVERNMENT SHOULD DEFINE WHAT INDIAN IS

Lake Mohonk Conference Says While Utes Are Worth $5,000 Each, U. S. Allows Them to Live in Squalor.

There is no indication here as to the replies of other members of the conference to the question of defining the word "Indian" in the statutes of the United States. The American Indian is developing slowly, but the plans are now fairly clear. The Austro-German forces are advancing down the Morava valley from Belgrade, while the Bulgarians have got across this valley to the south and command the Belgrade-Nish-Saloniki railway. The Austro-German forces have three other forces engaged, one in the northwest near Shabatz, one at Belgrade, and the third, which has not yet crossed the Danube, about Orsova.

OTHER ARMIES MOVING

The Bulgars also have other armies moving across the Balkans. One at Zlatar, Pirota and Nish and further south Rapt Palanka and Kuchane and claim to be already in Velece, on the Vardar river. It is this latter force the Anglo-French troops landed at Saloniki probably will first encounter.

Big Russian Victory.

The latest offensive by the Russians was assumed north of Tarnopol, where the carrying of Austro-German positions gave the Russian soldiers nearly eight thousand prisoners, two howitzers and a number of machine guns.
