OWNER OF SAWMILL BAR LABORED SUNDAY. CHARGE OF OFFICER

Matt Reynaud, proprietor of the Sawmill saloon, will be placed on trial this afternoon in Justice John W. Wilson's court on the charge of violating the Sunday law. Under Sheriff R. L. Wootton, who made the complaint against Reynaud, said he had information that Reynaud sold drinks at his place last Sunday.
Reynaud was arrested previously on the same charge. The case was dismissed when witnesses, summoned to testify against him, said that they had not seen any drinks sold in the sawmill saloon on the Sunday mentioned in the complaint.

STATUTE FORCES COUNCILMEN TO CALL A TRUCE

Deadlock Ended Temporarily at Least to Make Preparations for Coming Board of Education Election.

The council met last night for the first time for more than a month. The meeting did not necessarily end the deadlock permanently owing to the fact that it was a special meeting called by Mayor Henry Westerfeld for one purpose only—to prepare for the board of education election.

A statute required the council to do this thirty days before election. The election, which will take place April 3, is less than thirty days away, but the fact that the council did not act sooner will not make the election illegal, members believed.

The council adopted the mayor's proclamation, appointed boards of registration, judges and clerks of election and designated the registration places and polls.
The places for registration follow:
First ward—New Mexico cigar store.
Second ward—Alvarado pharmacy.
Third ward—W. C. Thaxton's office.
Fourth ward—Westerfeld's cigar store.

Here are the registration boards:
First ward—L. L. Fredericks, P. Hanson and D. E. Wilson.
Second ward—C. E. Hinds, J. E. Elder and E. A. Bowman.
Third ward—Manuel Chavez, Y. Luna, Felipe Gurule and Leo Murphy.
Fourth ward—W. H. Burke, Alfred Thelin and Felix Baca.

Voting Places Designated.
The voting places follow:
First ward—Korber's garage.
Second ward—D. E. Emmons' store.
Third ward—W. C. Thaxton's office.
Fourth ward—City hall.

The judges and clerks:
First ward—Judges: C. E. Michael, J. T. Miller and C. P. Jones; clerks: G. J. Williams and John Tomba.
Second ward—Judges: G. W. Bixler, A. E. Bowman and S. M. Porterfield; clerks: C. E. Vaughn and E. Pinney.

Third ward—Judges: A. C. Calver, P. J. Mc Caffrey, J. A. Martinez; clerks: Misses Helen Wickham and Vernice Bowers.
Fourth ward—Judges: L. H. Chamberlin, W. H. Burke and H. Timms; clerks: Misses Mabelle Phillips and Elizabeth M. Gilbert.
The terms of three members of the board of education will expire next month. They are M. E. Hickey, O. N. Marron and Louis McRae. The other two members will remain in office for another two years. Members who are elected to fill the vacancies will hold office for four years.

FIREMAN'S CLOTHES CATCH FIRE AS ALARM COMES INTO STATION

A little thing like a sizzling fire in his pocket did not keep Capt. Harry Fredericks from catching the fire engine as it rolled out of the central station yesterday afternoon in answer to an alarm.

Fredericks humped into the corner of a table as he was running to the engine, lighting a bunch of matches in his trousers pocket. Fredericks kept on going. He put out the fire as the engine left the house. Fredericks was not burned. Only one perfectly good pocket was damaged.

The alarm came from 1292 South Fourth street, the home of Federico Sanchez. Sanchez' fence and wood pile were afire. Firemen could not learn how the fire started. The damage was small.

CHIEF FRED RUSSELL IS INJURED AT A FIRE

A fireman, swinging an axe at a fire yesterday afternoon, accidentally struck Chief Fred Russell under the right eye, cutting his cheek. The fireman was in the attic of a burning house. Russell crawled up behind him. The fireman, not knowing that Russell was behind him, swung his axe over his shoulder, striking the chief.

The fire was at the home of C. A. Tharp, 529 South Edith street. Whipped by a high wind, the fire threatened to make a complete wreck of the house and spread to adjoining houses. Firemen succeeded in confining the fire to the roof.
Both the highlands and central companies were called out.
