HOSTILITIES AT LOGAN CONTINUE WITH 5,000 MEN ARMED IN FIELD

Despite Order of President Harding, Insurrectionists Do Not Disband and Return to Homes.

SURGEONS AND NURSES SENT INTO DISTRICT

One Deputy Sheriff Has Been Killed, Another Is Missing and Armed Man Has Lost His Life.

Logan, W. Va., Aug. 31.—Logan authorities tonight announced that a telegram had been sent to Washington stating that unless troops were sent at once the county would be attacked by 4,000 and 6,000 men. Sheriff Chafin, in a statement to newspapermen, said that "there have been more or less continuous firing today" at Beach Creek, Blair, Crooked Creek and Mill Creek.

Logan, W. Va., Aug. 31.—Hostilities continued today between forces of armed men who had taken to the mountains, and the Spruce Fork ridge and the thousand or more deputy sheriffs and volunteers who had been called to aid officers of Logan county. Despite President Harding's proclamation asking the armed men to disperse, one deputy sheriff was killed, another is missing and one armed man lost his life when outposts clashed.

Additional reports received by Sheriff Don Chafin of Logan county and Sheriff Bill Hatfield of McDowell county that three other men had been killed at Mills creek.

Other developments included the announcement that the invaders had advanced their lines two miles today and on the Logan side were only four miles from the county forces.

At Peck's Mill, headquarters of the McDowell men, six miles of rough mountain country were said to separate the outposts. Through this wild section scouting parties from both sides passed during the day, and it is assumed that here the entire conflict occurred. Soldiers and nurses were sent to Peck's Mills, where a field hospital was established.

Volunteers continued to come to Logan from all over the southern part of the state, en route to the front.

The situation confronting the people of Logan county is the direct outgrowth of the long controversy between organized and unorganized miners. All of Logan county east of Spruce Fork ridge is unorganized, but the little section between the eastern base of the mountains and the Boone county line is filled with union miners.

These men last week prepared to join the march of other union men from Marmot to Mingo, to protest against the enforcement of martial law in the Mingo county strike zone. The march was stopped at Madison, county seat of Boone county, where the invaders of Mingo workers, who acted on the advice of Brigadier General Bandholtz, U. S. A.

Twenty-four hours after the halt of the marching column had been turned back from Madison it became known that the miners in the unorganized section of Logan county had not abandoned their intention to move on Mingo. Many of the miners who had abandoned the march are said to have retraced their steps and started for Jeffrey, where the union miners of Logan were gathered. Tonight it was estimated that fully 5,000, if not more, men were in that region.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT LETS CONTRACTS ON EIGHT MORE ROADS

Santa Fe, Aug. 31.—The highway department let contracts for eight projects covering 107.69 miles. Highway Engineer Gillett announced today. The bids total $503,869.54 and include bridges.

The bids fell nearly $120,000 below the estimates, which, however, were based on the lowered prices of the last letting largely because of decreased construction costs, including labor and kept competition low.

The contractors for the eight projects. The figures follow: 54—O. C. McElair, $22,205.83. Navajo Canyon—Grench & Harvey, $25,436.24. 1 D—Atlas Construction company and A. P. Atchison, $40,002.93. 55—J. V. Striker Construction company, $30,713.48. 60 B—Peterson, Shelby & Gunther, $133,168.24. 67—Morrison, Sheets & Morrison, $23,436.30. 48—Duvall, Johnson & Sappington, $67,453.26. The prices include 10 per cent for engineering, inspection and contingencies, which, according to Gillett, is largely saved.

TARIFF ON HIDES ASKED OF SENATE FINANCE GROUP

Cattle Men Ask Committee for 20 to 25 Per Cent Duty Instead of 15 Per Cent Refused By House.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The fight for a tariff on hides, a provision of the Fordney bill, killed by the house, was opened today before the senate finance committee.

Cattle men, through Frank B. McClain, Lancaster, Pa., vice president of the National Livestock Exchange, asked the committee for a tariff of 20 to 25 per cent instead of the 15 per cent duty voted down by the house.

Asked whether a 25 per cent duty would increase the cost of shoes to the consumer, the witness thought it ought not to raise the price 5 cents a pair.

He followed this with a charge that shoe manufacturers were making exorbitant profits, declaring that "shoes to fit a 3-year-old child cost the farmer more than he gets for the hide from his 1,300 pound steer."

"I don't know," Mr. McClain asserted, "there can be no normalcy, no dawn of a new day until the dollar of the farmer buys for him the same as the dollar which he takes for what he sells."

NEW YORK SOLDIER BONUS LAW IS HELD UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 31.—The New York state soldier bonus law is unconstitutional, according to a decision of the court of appeals handed down here today.

The opinion, written by Judge Andrews, held that the bonus law involved the gift of the state's credit, which is prohibited by article VII, section of the state constitution. Judges Cardozo and Pound dissented.

PHOENIX, ARIZ., AUG. 31.—Judge Albert C. Baker, justice of the Arizona supreme court, died this morning at Los Angeles, according to advices received here.

A SWEEPING MAJORITY

If the so-called independent-republicans are in good faith, they ought to be able to see that their course tends to discourage, instead of to encourage, decent government in New Mexico.

If the old Falls-Hawkins combine were still functioning in New Mexico and were lending their aid to Senator Bursum in this campaign, there would be a reasonable excuse for a protest movement inside the party and an effort to break that combine by helping the democrats, through dividing the republicans. Even the more sensible course would be the out-right support of the democratic candidate.

But the Falls-Hawkins crowd has lost its grip. They tried to defeat Bursum for the appointment; then for the nomination; and now are watching to see if a place may develop where there is no room for them.

The political ideals and methods of these men have been the great retarding influence in New Mexico. Their restoration would be the greatest political curse which could come to our people.

Senator Bursum has broken with them and is fighting this battle without their help and in the face of their quiet, but earnest opposition. He has taken his chances by running upon a progressive platform and relying upon progressive help to elect him.

In the face of this fact, it is unfortunate that any man who loves progress and decency will fall to come to Bursum's help and aid in proving that it pays to take the right position. It is certainly deheartening to see so-called progressives, in effect joining hands with the Falls-Hawkins crowd to prove that any one who breaks away from them is doomed.

If there ever was a time in New Mexico when progressive men and women of all parties should stand together to "put a damper on reaction," it is now. If Bursum wins by a big majority in the face of his program of service and progress, it will prove the political wisdom of serving the people and will give forever a black-eye to servile political loyalty to the special interests.

On the other hand, if Bursum should fall now, it may be a long time before any other candidate can be induced to stand on a platform of service to the people.

BELFAST AGAIN HAS REIGN OF TERROR DUE TO STREET FIGHTS

Death List Augmented By Six; Thirty Persons Were Injured During Day, Many of Them Seriously.

CASUALTIES FOR THREE DAYS FIGHTING ARE 15

Tramway Service Had to Be Suspended at Times; Many Workers Failed to Reach Employment Places

Belfast, Aug. 31 (By the Associated Press).—Although the truce between the discordant factions is being observed, throughout the remainder of Ireland, Belfast again today experienced another period of terror from gun and snipers. As a result the death list was augmented by six, while thirty persons were injured, many seriously.

Today's casualties bring the total death toll for the three days of rioting to fifteen. There probably have been 100 persons more or less seriously injured, of whom numbers were non-combatants.

With quiet intervals, resulting from the putting of snipers to flight, shooting persisted at various sections of the city from early morning until late this evening. Sometimes it became so dangerous that the tramway service, many workers could not reach their places of employment and returned home. In some districts districts manufacturing were compelled to close.

FINANCE COMMITTEE OF SENATE TURNS TO HOUSE REVENUE BILL

Washington, Aug. 31.—Tariff questions had their last inning for several weeks before the senate finance committee today, and the committee proposed to take up the house revenue bill tomorrow.

The tax measure will hold the central financial committee action in two weeks, although the plan contains plates only having the bill ready for submission when the senate reconvenes September 21.

No open hearings on taxes have been held by the committee, intending to work behind closed doors, discussing the subjects with treasury officials and tax experts. Secretary Mellon has been asked to be present September 7.

RAILROAD HEADS SAY FARMERS ARE NOT HIT HARDER THAN OTHERS

Washington, Aug. 31.—Agriculture is in no more serious plight than other industries as a result of the present depression, four vice presidents of western railroads declared today before the Interstate Commerce commission at its hearings on reducing freight rates on grain and hay. The officials were C. E. Spens, of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy; S. H. Johnson, of the Rock Island; J. E. Woodworth of the Northern Pacific; and Edward Chambers of the Santa Fe.

Freight rates, they declared, have but little effect on business generally and advances in rates have not resulted in a reduction of traffic. Grain producers have made no appeals to the roads for reduced freight rates, they added, all such appeals having come from governmental officials or agencies.

It is understood that Armour and company, Pennington's former employers, will assist in his defense and possibly furnish bond.

WORKMAN FALLS 90 FEET FROM ROOF OF SHOPS

Carpenter Receives Serious Injuries in Fall From Top of New Santa Fe Shop Building Yesterday.

Dropping ninety feet from the top of the new Santa Fe shop building upon which he was working, Ray Pringle, a carpenter in the Nelson Construction company, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon. He is suffering from concussion of the brain and internal injuries, the extent of which is not yet determined.

The accident happened at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Pringle was working in a perilous position on the edge of the roof ninety feet above the ground. It is believed that he lost his footing while shifting his position and slipped from the roof. He landed on telegraph wires twenty-five feet above the ground, thus breaking the force of his fall. His body dangled on the wires for an instant and then dropped to the ground.

Pringle's ambulance was called to take him to the St. Joseph hospital where medical attention was given by Dr. E. T. Lasseter. The man has a concussion of the brain and internal injuries. He is seriously hurt from the fall but will recover, according to his physician. No bones are broken.

Pringle is a man of about 30 years of age and married. His wife, who is in Arizona at present, has been informed of the accident. X-rays will be taken today to determine the nature and extent of the internal injuries of the man. It is believed that striking the net of telephone wires lessened the force of the fall to the extent of saving the man from instant death.

SOUGHT THREE YEARS FOR MURDER; FOUND AT FARMINGTON, N. M.

Durango, Colo., Aug. 31.—W. A. Hadley, Pittsburg, Va., physician, sought for nearly three years on a charge of having brutally murdered his wife, in the Virginia city, was arrested today on a ranch three miles from Farmington, N. M., by Sheriff Win and Pinkerton Agent F. M. Ellis. The murder charge was preferred shortly after the body of the doctor's wife was found, mutilated and packed into a box in the Chickahominy river near Richmond, Va., Ellis said. Hadley was living under the name of Westwood, according to the affidavit but is declared to have readily admitted his identity. He said he would waive extradition.

WHISKEY RUNNER PUTS BULLET IN DEPUTY SHERIFF

Thermopolis, Wyo., Aug. 31.—The fact that his wife jammed probably saved the lives of a sheriff and a deputy, according to an alleged statement by E. L. Mellendore, whiskey runner who shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Ted Price and was himself probably mortally wounded in a gun battle with three officers near here early this morning.

Sheriff Fred Holdredge and Jack Palmer, a deputy with Price, were pursuing the supposed whiskey car. When the pursuit became too hot, Mellendore stopped and he and his companion, C. F. Powers, hid in bushes beside the road. Mellendore opened fire as soon as the officers came in sight, his first shot striking Price in the arm and entering the body, ranging downward to the heart. Then, he said, his rifle jammed when he had covered Palmer, whose first shot wounded him.

"I intended to kill the sheriff and both deputies," Mellendore is alleged to have written. "If you could talk to the officers after his capture."

SHAW DECLINES TO ADDRESS PICNIC OF CHICAGO LABORERS

Chicago, Aug. 31.—George Bernard Shaw, British author and playwright, has declined an invitation to address the Chicago Federation of Labor picnic on Labor day.

"I do not think your federation can gather a complete notion of European conditions from any one person," he wrote. "If you could obtain a series of three addresses from Kerensky, Lenin and from a capable czarist you would learn something about Russia."

"If you could get a similar series from England from Ramsay, MacDonald and a representative of the second international and from some equally able advocate of the third international, followed by Winston Churchill as the representative of the British imperialism, and by Sir Donald MacLean as a liberal non-interventionist (or George Washington), and so on through all the countries of Europe, hearing all sides and especially the side of the existing governing classes, which labor misdeeds and leaves contemptuous of their apostles," he said, "I would be glad to do so."

"The people have undertaken to suppress the age-long evil of the liquor traffic," the statement said. "When for the gratification of their appetites, bankers, merchants and manufacturers and social leaders, both men and women, scoff at this law, or any other law, they are aiding the cause of anarchy and aiding anarchy, violence, robbery and homicide."

"They are sowing dragon's teeth and they need not be surprised when they find that no judicial or police authority can save our country or humanity from reaping the harvest."

The statement was issued after a large audience had heard Chief Justice W. H. Taft urge measures to reduce delay in the courts. He (Continued on Page Two.)

DECISION BY SUPREME COURT OF MEXICO BELIEVED TO END U. S. FIGHT OF ARTICLE 27

President Obregon Supports Belief By Reiterating That Article in Question Was Never Intended to Be Retroactive; May Change American Attitude on Recognition.

Mexico City, Aug. 31 (By the Associated Press).—Local representatives of American oil companies declined today to express opinions concerning the action of the supreme court Tuesday night in unanimously granting an injunction to the Texas company enjoining the Mexican department of commerce and industry from denouncing rights to oil lands held by the Texas company prior to May 1, 1917. They said they preferred not to give their opinions until the text of the decision of the court is published.

It was the general sentiment here, however, that the non-retroactivity of Article 27 of the Mexican constitution has been definitely decided by the decision, and that supporting the supreme court's decision is President Obregon's recognition that the famous Article 27 never was construed by his government as being retroactive.

The question most frequently asked today was what would be the attitude of the United States toward recognition of Mexico if the supreme court's action is construed as the final word on the retroactivity of Article 27.

Persons who are not considered optimists and several newspapers opposed to the government asserted that the United States state department probably would maintain its insistence that President Obregon sign a treaty inasmuch as the supreme court's action, or even a congressional enactment, might be subject to revision or modification by any succeeding administration. One newspaper, the Omega, pointed out that the supreme court two years ago declared Article 27 to be retroactive. It is a matter of record that the Mexican foreign office six months ago officially informed the American embassy that the article was retroactive.

The next step taken by the Mexican government doubtless will be introduced in the chamber of deputies after the chamber convenes tomorrow.

May Settle 150 Cases. Mexico City, Aug. 31.—Officials of the Mexican department of commerce and industry have been enjoined by the supreme court from denouncing rights to oil lands held by the Texas company prior to May 1, 1917. This decision, handed down last night by an unanimous vote of the court, probably sets a precedent for the court's dealing with nearly 150 cases called into question the effect of Article 27 of the Mexican constitution.

DAUGHTERY HITS MOVE TO UPSET AMERICAN FORM OF GOVERNMENT

Says Commercial and Social Leaders Who Scoff at Federal Prohibition Law Are Aiding Anarchy.

TAFT ASKS MEASURES TO CUT COURT DELAY

Elihu Root Urges American Bar Association to Seek Higher Qualifications for Admission.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 31.—Theories of political philosophy now "advanced by those who either violate law or sympathize with law violators" in industrial conflicts, agitation by anti-governmental means and government and against enforcement of prohibition statutes are the greatest forces at work in the United States to undermine respect for the law, Attorney General Daugherty today told the American and Ohio bar associations.

Arguing equally against sentiment that regards a conviction of law by anti-governmental means as a "political prisoner," and that holds a bootlegger an exponent of "personal liberty" and sets the slogan of "human rights against property rights" in employment disputes, Mr. Daugherty asserted fallacy and danger lay in all.

The attorney general suggested a method of informing public opinion by semi-governmental means to obviate industrial conflicts, but advocated complete disregard for the theories advanced in the two other fields. He declared that the prohibition of "political prisoners" in prohibition enforcement had been advanced in the past by every champion of lawlessness who has sought excuse for unlawful conduct.

"Supremacy of the law is not undermined by the ordinary criminal who commits murder, robbery, larceny," he said. "To the contrary, every occurrence of crime tends to strengthen the respect for society the profound importance of law and its vigorous enforcement. The supremacy of the law is and has been challenged mainly in instances of legislation where there exists a difference of opinion as to governmental policy in enacting the legislation in question. At present among the forces undermining respect for law are the doctrine of so-called political offenses, erroneous conceptions of personal liberty, and false doctrine as to the rights of individuals and minorities."

Resentment of large corporations, of "persons and capital," against "interference of laws regulating them," he said, involved a "mischievous philosophy" which in order is the shield of business and its only security.

Commercial and social leaders who scoff at the federal prohibition law and aiding anarchy and promoting mob violence, robbery and homicide, it was declared today in a warning issued to the people by the judicial section of the American Bar association.

"The people have undertaken to suppress the age-long evil of the liquor traffic," the statement said. "When for the gratification of their appetites, bankers, merchants and manufacturers and social leaders, both men and women, scoff at this law, or any other law, they are aiding the cause of anarchy and aiding anarchy, violence, robbery and homicide."

"They are sowing dragon's teeth and they need not be surprised when they find that no judicial or police authority can save our country or humanity from reaping the harvest."
