

Start the Day Smiling!
"BRINGING UP FATHER"
 appears every morning in the
 Albuquerque Morning Journal

ALBUQUERQUE MORNING JOURNAL

Albuquerque, New Mexico, Sunday, March 12, 1922.

Be a Kid Again!
"REGULAR FELLERS"
 is a week-day comic in the
 Albuquerque Morning Journal

RATON

The City Federation of Women's clubs will give a musical program in the First Methodist church on Tuesday evening. A nursery will be opened in the basement of the church for the accommodation of the little ones.

Mrs. Elbert Stott was hostess to the Esperanza Literary club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Barber, the president, occupying the chair. Roll call was answered by "Incidents in the Life of Washington." Mrs. Campbell gave an interesting paper on "Early Egyptian Architecture," which was followed by an excellent paper by Mrs. Phillips on "The Religion of the Egyptians." At the close of the program a pleasant social hour was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Thaxton will be the hostess at the next meeting, which will be held in the public library.

An opening tea and reception was given by the ladies of the Holy Trinity guild on Tuesday afternoon in their new Guild hall. A large number of persons called during the afternoon and a liberal silver offering was made. Delicious home made cookies and tea were served. It is the plan of the ladies to hold their regular weekly meetings from now on in the guild room Thursday afternoons. They plan to hold a tea or luncheon once a month in the same place.

The Coudre club held a line party at the Eltato theatre last night after which they adjourned at the home of Mrs. Mollie Bartlett, where they were served luncheon. Those enjoying the entertainment were Mesdames Dave Langston, Jack Shortley, Ed Smith, Alex Stewart, Sol Varner, Ed Wheeler, William Rhor, Fred Clarkston, Al Leggett, Frances Campbell, Robert Bennett, Walter J. Reed, Maude Andrews, and Mollie Bartlett.

After the play last Tuesday night the Business and Professional Women's club entertained the faculty of the high school who took part in the play and the high school orchestra at a supper in the club rooms. The tables were decorated in black and orange, the high school colors, candles being used to light the room.

The regular meeting of Division No. 4 of the Methodist Pastor's aid will be held next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Ferguson, 425 1/2 Grande avenue. There will be an election of officers for the coming year and a good attendance of members is urged.

Miss Edith Botsford will entertain at auction bridge Saturday afternoon in honor of her niece, Mrs. Charles F. Campbell, a bride of last month.

Mrs. J. L. House of 520 South Second street will be the hostess to the Presbyterian Ladies' aid on Tuesday afternoon. There will be an election of officers and all members are urged to be present.

Self-dental week will be observed by the First Presbyterian church from March 19 to 26, to raise additional missionary funds. The Sorority club met in regular session at the public library on Friday afternoon. An unusually interesting meeting was enjoyed by the members, the leader being Mrs. E. Love, assisted by Mrs. Warren Hartman and T. C. Looney. The general subject was "Current Events," and the ladies touched upon many interesting topics.

The tea given last week in the Columbian school by the Parent-Teachers' association was one of the most successful meetings of the association. In spite of the inclement weather over 75 persons were in attendance.

The Colfax County Shrine club held a box supper and dance at the Masonic temple on Friday evening of last week. Music by the high school orchestra was a feature of the evening.

The ways and means committee of the Red Cross chapter of Colfax county was organized last week. This committee is formed from the executive board and meets monthly to receive reports and care for business that need to come before the organization. The following persons are members of this committee: Mrs. J. K. Hunt, Miss Evelyn Shuler and Messrs. Samuel Magill, Joe Dillido, J. J. Connelly, J. L. McDermitt, C. C. White and the secretary, Mrs. Emma T. Kerel. The following standing committee chairman for the coming year were appointed: Manteen, Mrs. Wm. Arkell; home service, Samuel Magill; publicity, Evelyn Shuler; membership, H. P. Roseberry; junior Red Cross, Lily Henningan; auditor, Arthur Johnson.

The J. U. K. club and friends enjoyed a hike to Coyote canyon on Sunday, where good eats were the feature of the day. Those who participated were Misses Freese, Vickers, Grevman, Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Sylvia Phillips; Messrs. Kendrick, Stewart, McDaniel, Schmidt, Harper and Payne.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. C. Larkin were the hosts to a delightful evening party at their home on Fourth street on Thursday evening. The evening was spent at bridge, at the close of which a three-course lunch was served. The decorations of red flowers and the artistic home of the Larkins formed a charming setting for the evening's pleasure. The guests were Mesdames and Messrs. Morgan Maghee, E. R. Humphreys, Arthur Johnson, H. E. Hoke, C. B. Elliott and J. Van Houten.

The Monday Progress club met at the home of Mrs. R. C. Haner last week. Miss Nellie Scanlon read Shaw's "Arms and the Man," which was much enjoyed. Miss Mary Ann Gillespie, Miss Glenn and Miss Virginia Payne were guests of the club. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. H. Crebbin of Denver has been the inspiration for several small functions during the week. Mrs. Frank Van Buskirk entertained on Thursday afternoon at bridge. The following ladies were present: Mesdames J. Leahy, Kate Hartzell, E. B. Humphreys, D. Dwyer, Joe Calloway, A. E. Hobb and Miss Helen Dwyer and the guest of honor, Mrs. J. VanHouten was hostess on Friday afternoon at a bridge foursome. The players being Mrs. Crebbin, Mrs. D. G. Dwyer, Mrs. Joe Callahan and Miss Helen Dwyer. Mrs. Crebbin was also the guest of the Professional and Business Women's club at its meeting on Wednesday.

The regular meeting of Division No. 4 of the Methodist Pastor's aid will be held next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Ferguson, 425 1/2 Grande avenue. There will be an election of officers for the coming year and a good attendance of members is urged.

Miss Edith Botsford will entertain at auction bridge Saturday afternoon in honor of her niece, Mrs. Charles F. Campbell, a bride of last month.

Mrs. J. L. House of 520 South Second street will be the hostess to the Presbyterian Ladies' aid on Tuesday afternoon. There will be an election of officers and all members are urged to be present.

Self-dental week will be observed by the First Presbyterian church from March 19 to 26, to raise additional missionary funds. The Sorority club met in regular session at the public library on Friday afternoon. An unusually interesting meeting was enjoyed by the members, the leader being Mrs. E. Love, assisted by Mrs. Warren Hartman and T. C. Looney. The general subject was "Current Events," and the ladies touched upon many interesting topics.

The tea given last week in the Columbian school by the Parent-Teachers' association was one of the most successful meetings of the association. In spite of the inclement weather over 75 persons were in attendance.

The Colfax County Shrine club held a box supper and dance at the Masonic temple on Friday evening of last week. Music by the high school orchestra was a feature of the evening.

The ways and means committee of the Red Cross chapter of Colfax county was organized last week. This committee is formed from the executive board and meets monthly to receive reports and care for business that need to come before the organization. The following persons are members of this committee: Mrs. J. K. Hunt, Miss Evelyn Shuler and Messrs. Samuel Magill, Joe Dillido, J. J. Connelly, J. L. McDermitt, C. C. White and the secretary, Mrs. Emma T. Kerel. The following standing committee chairman for the coming year were appointed: Manteen, Mrs. Wm. Arkell; home service, Samuel Magill; publicity, Evelyn Shuler; membership, H. P. Roseberry; junior Red Cross, Lily Henningan; auditor, Arthur Johnson.

The J. U. K. club and friends enjoyed a hike to Coyote canyon on Sunday, where good eats were the feature of the day. Those who participated were Misses Freese, Vickers, Grevman, Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Sylvia Phillips; Messrs. Kendrick, Stewart, McDaniel, Schmidt, Harper and Payne.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. C. Larkin were the hosts to a delightful evening party at their home on Fourth street on Thursday evening. The evening was spent at bridge, at the close of which a three-course lunch was served. The decorations of red flowers and the artistic home of the Larkins formed a charming setting for the evening's pleasure. The guests were Mesdames and Messrs. Morgan Maghee, E. R. Humphreys, Arthur Johnson, H. E. Hoke, C. B. Elliott and J. Van Houten.

The Monday Progress club met at the home of Mrs. R. C. Haner last week. Miss Nellie Scanlon read Shaw's "Arms and the Man," which was much enjoyed. Miss Mary Ann Gillespie, Miss Glenn and Miss Virginia Payne were guests of the club. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. H. Crebbin of Denver has been the inspiration for several small functions during the week. Mrs. Frank Van Buskirk entertained on Thursday afternoon at bridge. The following ladies were present: Mesdames J. Leahy, Kate Hartzell, E. B. Humphreys, D. Dwyer, Joe Calloway, A. E. Hobb and Miss Helen Dwyer and the guest of honor, Mrs. J. VanHouten was hostess on Friday afternoon at a bridge foursome. The players being Mrs. Crebbin, Mrs. D. G. Dwyer, Mrs. Joe Callahan and Miss Helen Dwyer. Mrs. Crebbin was also the guest of the Professional and Business Women's club at its meeting on Wednesday.

The regular meeting of Division No. 4 of the Methodist Pastor's aid will be held next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Ferguson, 425 1/2 Grande avenue. There will be an election of officers for the coming year and a good attendance of members is urged.

Miss Edith Botsford will entertain at auction bridge Saturday afternoon in honor of her niece, Mrs. Charles F. Campbell, a bride of last month.

Mrs. J. L. House of 520 South Second street will be the hostess to the Presbyterian Ladies' aid on Tuesday afternoon. There will be an election of officers and all members are urged to be present.

Self-dental week will be observed by the First Presbyterian church from March 19 to 26, to raise additional missionary funds. The Sorority club met in regular session at the public library on Friday afternoon. An unusually interesting meeting was enjoyed by the members, the leader being Mrs. E. Love, assisted by Mrs. Warren Hartman and T. C. Looney. The general subject was "Current Events," and the ladies touched upon many interesting topics.

The tea given last week in the Columbian school by the Parent-Teachers' association was one of the most successful meetings of the association. In spite of the inclement weather over 75 persons were in attendance.

The Colfax County Shrine club held a box supper and dance at the Masonic temple on Friday evening of last week. Music by the high school orchestra was a feature of the evening.

The ways and means committee of the Red Cross chapter of Colfax county was organized last week. This committee is formed from the executive board and meets monthly to receive reports and care for business that need to come before the organization. The following persons are members of this committee: Mrs. J. K. Hunt, Miss Evelyn Shuler and Messrs. Samuel Magill, Joe Dillido, J. J. Connelly, J. L. McDermitt, C. C. White and the secretary, Mrs. Emma T. Kerel. The following standing committee chairman for the coming year were appointed: Manteen, Mrs. Wm. Arkell; home service, Samuel Magill; publicity, Evelyn Shuler; membership, H. P. Roseberry; junior Red Cross, Lily Henningan; auditor, Arthur Johnson.

The J. U. K. club and friends enjoyed a hike to Coyote canyon on Sunday, where good eats were the feature of the day. Those who participated were Misses Freese, Vickers, Grevman, Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Sylvia Phillips; Messrs. Kendrick, Stewart, McDaniel, Schmidt, Harper and Payne.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. C. Larkin were the hosts to a delightful evening party at their home on Fourth street on Thursday evening. The evening was spent at bridge, at the close of which a three-course lunch was served. The decorations of red flowers and the artistic home of the Larkins formed a charming setting for the evening's pleasure. The guests were Mesdames and Messrs. Morgan Maghee, E. R. Humphreys, Arthur Johnson, H. E. Hoke, C. B. Elliott and J. Van Houten.

The Monday Progress club met at the home of Mrs. R. C. Haner last week. Miss Nellie Scanlon read Shaw's "Arms and the Man," which was much enjoyed. Miss Mary Ann Gillespie, Miss Glenn and Miss Virginia Payne were guests of the club. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. H. Crebbin of Denver has been the inspiration for several small functions during the week. Mrs. Frank Van Buskirk entertained on Thursday afternoon at bridge. The following ladies were present: Mesdames J. Leahy, Kate Hartzell, E. B. Humphreys, D. Dwyer, Joe Calloway, A. E. Hobb and Miss Helen Dwyer and the guest of honor, Mrs. J. VanHouten was hostess on Friday afternoon at a bridge foursome. The players being Mrs. Crebbin, Mrs. D. G. Dwyer, Mrs. Joe Callahan and Miss Helen Dwyer. Mrs. Crebbin was also the guest of the Professional and Business Women's club at its meeting on Wednesday.

The regular meeting of Division No. 4 of the Methodist Pastor's aid will be held next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Ferguson, 425 1/2 Grande avenue. There will be an election of officers for the coming year and a good attendance of members is urged.

Miss Edith Botsford will entertain at auction bridge Saturday afternoon in honor of her niece, Mrs. Charles F. Campbell, a bride of last month.

Mrs. J. L. House of 520 South Second street will be the hostess to the Presbyterian Ladies' aid on Tuesday afternoon. There will be an election of officers and all members are urged to be present.

Self-dental week will be observed by the First Presbyterian church from March 19 to 26, to raise additional missionary funds. The Sorority club met in regular session at the public library on Friday afternoon. An unusually interesting meeting was enjoyed by the members, the leader being Mrs. E. Love, assisted by Mrs. Warren Hartman and T. C. Looney. The general subject was "Current Events," and the ladies touched upon many interesting topics.

The tea given last week in the Columbian school by the Parent-Teachers' association was one of the most successful meetings of the association. In spite of the inclement weather over 75 persons were in attendance.

The Colfax County Shrine club held a box supper and dance at the Masonic temple on Friday evening of last week. Music by the high school orchestra was a feature of the evening.

The ways and means committee of the Red Cross chapter of Colfax county was organized last week. This committee is formed from the executive board and meets monthly to receive reports and care for business that need to come before the organization. The following persons are members of this committee: Mrs. J. K. Hunt, Miss Evelyn Shuler and Messrs. Samuel Magill, Joe Dillido, J. J. Connelly, J. L. McDermitt, C. C. White and the secretary, Mrs. Emma T. Kerel. The following standing committee chairman for the coming year were appointed: Manteen, Mrs. Wm. Arkell; home service, Samuel Magill; publicity, Evelyn Shuler; membership, H. P. Roseberry; junior Red Cross, Lily Henningan; auditor, Arthur Johnson.

The J. U. K. club and friends enjoyed a hike to Coyote canyon on Sunday, where good eats were the feature of the day. Those who participated were Misses Freese, Vickers, Grevman, Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Sylvia Phillips; Messrs. Kendrick, Stewart, McDaniel, Schmidt, Harper and Payne.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. C. Larkin were the hosts to a delightful evening party at their home on Fourth street on Thursday evening. The evening was spent at bridge, at the close of which a three-course lunch was served. The decorations of red flowers and the artistic home of the Larkins formed a charming setting for the evening's pleasure. The guests were Mesdames and Messrs. Morgan Maghee, E. R. Humphreys, Arthur Johnson, H. E. Hoke, C. B. Elliott and J. Van Houten.

The Monday Progress club met at the home of Mrs. R. C. Haner last week. Miss Nellie Scanlon read Shaw's "Arms and the Man," which was much enjoyed. Miss Mary Ann Gillespie, Miss Glenn and Miss Virginia Payne were guests of the club. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. H. Crebbin of Denver has been the inspiration for several small functions during the week. Mrs. Frank Van Buskirk entertained on Thursday afternoon at bridge. The following ladies were present: Mesdames J. Leahy, Kate Hartzell, E. B. Humphreys, D. Dwyer, Joe Calloway, A. E. Hobb and Miss Helen Dwyer and the guest of honor, Mrs. J. VanHouten was hostess on Friday afternoon at a bridge foursome. The players being Mrs. Crebbin, Mrs. D. G. Dwyer, Mrs. Joe Callahan and Miss Helen Dwyer. Mrs. Crebbin was also the guest of the Professional and Business Women's club at its meeting on Wednesday.

The regular meeting of Division No. 4 of the Methodist Pastor's aid will be held next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Ferguson, 425 1/2 Grande avenue. There will be an election of officers for the coming year and a good attendance of members is urged.

Miss Edith Botsford will entertain at auction bridge Saturday afternoon in honor of her niece, Mrs. Charles F. Campbell, a bride of last month.

Mrs. J. L. House of 520 South Second street will be the hostess to the Presbyterian Ladies' aid on Tuesday afternoon. There will be an election of officers and all members are urged to be present.

Self-dental week will be observed by the First Presbyterian church from March 19 to 26, to raise additional missionary funds. The Sorority club met in regular session at the public library on Friday afternoon. An unusually interesting meeting was enjoyed by the members, the leader being Mrs. E. Love, assisted by Mrs. Warren Hartman and T. C. Looney. The general subject was "Current Events," and the ladies touched upon many interesting topics.

The tea given last week in the Columbian school by the Parent-Teachers' association was one of the most successful meetings of the association. In spite of the inclement weather over 75 persons were in attendance.

The Colfax County Shrine club held a box supper and dance at the Masonic temple on Friday evening of last week. Music by the high school orchestra was a feature of the evening.

The ways and means committee of the Red Cross chapter of Colfax county was organized last week. This committee is formed from the executive board and meets monthly to receive reports and care for business that need to come before the organization. The following persons are members of this committee: Mrs. J. K. Hunt, Miss Evelyn Shuler and Messrs. Samuel Magill, Joe Dillido, J. J. Connelly, J. L. McDermitt, C. C. White and the secretary, Mrs. Emma T. Kerel. The following standing committee chairman for the coming year were appointed: Manteen, Mrs. Wm. Arkell; home service, Samuel Magill; publicity, Evelyn Shuler; membership, H. P. Roseberry; junior Red Cross, Lily Henningan; auditor, Arthur Johnson.

The J. U. K. club and friends enjoyed a hike to Coyote canyon on Sunday, where good eats were the feature of the day. Those who participated were Misses Freese, Vickers, Grevman, Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Sylvia Phillips; Messrs. Kendrick, Stewart, McDaniel, Schmidt, Harper and Payne.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. C. Larkin were the hosts to a delightful evening party at their home on Fourth street on Thursday evening. The evening was spent at bridge, at the close of which a three-course lunch was served. The decorations of red flowers and the artistic home of the Larkins formed a charming setting for the evening's pleasure. The guests were Mesdames and Messrs. Morgan Maghee, E. R. Humphreys, Arthur Johnson, H. E. Hoke, C. B. Elliott and J. Van Houten.

The Monday Progress club met at the home of Mrs. R. C. Haner last week. Miss Nellie Scanlon read Shaw's "Arms and the Man," which was much enjoyed. Miss Mary Ann Gillespie, Miss Glenn and Miss Virginia Payne were guests of the club. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. H. Crebbin of Denver has been the inspiration for several small functions during the week. Mrs. Frank Van Buskirk entertained on Thursday afternoon at bridge. The following ladies were present: Mesdames J. Leahy, Kate Hartzell, E. B. Humphreys, D. Dwyer, Joe Calloway, A. E. Hobb and Miss Helen Dwyer and the guest of honor, Mrs. J. VanHouten was hostess on Friday afternoon at a bridge foursome. The players being Mrs. Crebbin, Mrs. D. G. Dwyer, Mrs. Joe Callahan and Miss Helen Dwyer. Mrs. Crebbin was also the guest of the Professional and Business Women's club at its meeting on Wednesday.

The largest spider in existence is the dog spider of Madagascar. It weighs about a pound, and each of its eight legs is as long and as thick as an ordinary lead pencil.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Copyright, 1921 by the International News Service. Registered U. S. Patent Office.

By George McManus

Every day sees the completion of remodelers' work in some part of Rosenwald's; every day brings the setting to right of some department; a finished unit in what, before very long, will be a Greater Rosenwald's. Prices are lower than they have been for several seasons; every penny's worth of our Spring Merchandise is new—the fire and the fire sale took care of that—and assortments, you will find, are more extensive than they have ever been before. Study our windows for authentic news of the season's latest arrivals.