

MOTHER'S CLOCK.

What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?

HALF A DREAM.

I stood one night in front of the Lycium,
while a drizzling rain was falling,
and the canopy of fog and mist seemed settling down closer every minute.

What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?

What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?

What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?

What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?

What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?

What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?

What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?

What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?

What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?
What makes her clock so slow?

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

J. B. Caron, of Eureka, Nevada, was thought to be a foolish man when he paid $5,000 for an old pig pen near that city a few months ago.

Angus Westfield, a prominent young shipping merchant of Baltimore, who was to have been married to Miss Julia Swall, was accidentally drowned by falling from a ferryboat in the forenoon of the wedding day.

The death is announced in New Orleans of Mr. Adrien de Leon, representative of one of the oldest Creole families of that city.

The ways of a love sick Vermonter are peculiar. A M. M. Slicker young lover of a town farm housekeeper, a farmer called there recently after a housekeeper and stopped over night.

Governor Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, in answer to a letter of inquiry addressed to him by a lady friend in Washington, wrote, recently, that he was in his usual good health.

James E. Anderson, formerly of Louisiana, where he achieved notoriety as a gambler, died in New York City.

Mr. Jerome G. Kidder, whose death has been announced, was born in Waterville, Me., in 1808, and at sixteen years of age came to Boston.

John B. Stickey, United States district attorney of Florida, died at Washington in the Providence Hospital on Sunday morning, after an illness of two or three days.

Mr. Thomas Beaver, of Danville, Pa., has given to Dickinson college, through his present, $30,000 for the increase of its permanent endowment.

Daniel Murphy, the largest land owner in the world, has just died at San Jose, Cal. He went to California in 1844 and engaged in cattle raising.

Major Gen. Richard Arnold, who died on Wednesday on Governor's Island, Rhode Island, was born April 12, 1823.

NEW YORK HARBOR LAST WEEK.

On the occasion of the marriage on the U. S. ship Minnesota of Miss Mary Irvin Alexander, the sister-in-law of Capt. J. H. Gill, the U. S. flag was hoisted on the ship.

The sale of the Nahobah estate, near Memphis, recalls the fact that it was once the property of Fanny Wright, an accomplished, elegant, and eccentric woman.

Washington letter: The marriage on the U. S. ship, of Miss Alexander to Frank E. Sawyer, a master in the navy, is claimed to have been the first ceremony of that kind ever performed on board a man-of-war in this country.

Several years ago the Franklin was the flagship of the Mediterranean squadron. The admiral's aid, Ensign Ward, met at one of the balls of the season, Miss Willis, the eldest sister of Mrs. Emery and Mrs. Brodhead.

A senator of the Mexican States, a successful stock raiser, in the prime of life, sold his sheep and gambled away the proceeds of the sale.

Mr. Jerome G. Kidder, whose death has been announced, was born in Waterville, Me., in 1808, and at sixteen years of age came to Boston.

John B. Stickey, United States district attorney of Florida, died at Washington in the Providence Hospital on Sunday morning, after an illness of two or three days.

Mr. Thomas Beaver, of Danville, Pa., has given to Dickinson college, through his present, $30,000 for the increase of its permanent endowment.

Daniel Murphy, the largest land owner in the world, has just died at San Jose, Cal. He went to California in 1844 and engaged in cattle raising.

Major Gen. Richard Arnold, who died on Wednesday on Governor's Island, Rhode Island, was born April 12, 1823.

Mr. Thomas Beaver, of Danville, Pa., has given to Dickinson college, through his present, $30,000 for the increase of its permanent endowment.

FIELD AND FARM.

A few simple remedies. For croup administer a teaspoonful of strong alum-water; repeat the dose every fifteen minutes until free vomiting occurs.

Remedy for chilblains—Take a piece of linen the size of your double fist; put it in warm water and soak the feet in it as long as it can be borne for half an hour.

For a scald or burn, apply immediately pulverized charcoal and oil. Lamp oil will do but lard is better. The effect is miraculous.

For chapped lips mix two tablespoonfuls of clarified honey with a few drops of lavender water and rub over the lips, and anoint the lips frequently.

To make good sticking plaster, put two spoonfuls of balsam of Peru to six of lavender water, and mix well together, and anoint the lips frequently.

Home cheerfulness. Be cheerful at home. The admission is one that all may heed, for who in this respect is without blame?

Man and Animal. London Nature. There can be no doubt that dogs associate with barking in certain tones special emotional states in their companions.

Personal Gossip. Mr. Thomas Beaver, of Danville, Pa., has given to Dickinson college, through his present, $30,000 for the increase of its permanent endowment.

The Emma Abbott Kiss. Emma Abbott, who is now in Louisville, gave a reporter of the Courier Journal some points. We quote from an interview:

English Wreck Register for 1880 81. The Wreck Register for 1880-81 recently issued under the sanction of the Board of Trade shows that the number of wrecks and collisions on the coast of the United Kingdom was 1,656 in excess of those of 1879.

MOTHERS, LOOK TO YOUR GIRLS. The American girl is by no means backward about coming forward. Even when not absolutely rude she too often manifests an unthinking pertinacity in pushing her way everywhere and at all times, which resembles nothing so much as the disagreeable familiarity of a pet lamb.

FIELD AND FARM.

A few simple remedies. For croup administer a teaspoonful of strong alum-water; repeat the dose every fifteen minutes until free vomiting occurs.

Remedy for chilblains—Take a piece of linen the size of your double fist; put it in warm water and soak the feet in it as long as it can be borne for half an hour.

For a scald or burn, apply immediately pulverized charcoal and oil. Lamp oil will do but lard is better. The effect is miraculous.

For chapped lips mix two tablespoonfuls of clarified honey with a few drops of lavender water and rub over the lips, and anoint the lips frequently.

To make good sticking plaster, put two spoonfuls of balsam of Peru to six of lavender water, and mix well together, and anoint the lips frequently.

Home cheerfulness. Be cheerful at home. The admission is one that all may heed, for who in this respect is without blame?

Man and Animal. London Nature. There can be no doubt that dogs associate with barking in certain tones special emotional states in their companions.

Personal Gossip. Mr. Thomas Beaver, of Danville, Pa., has given to Dickinson college, through his present, $30,000 for the increase of its permanent endowment.

The Emma Abbott Kiss. Emma Abbott, who is now in Louisville, gave a reporter of the Courier Journal some points. We quote from an interview:

English Wreck Register for 1880 81. The Wreck Register for 1880-81 recently issued under the sanction of the Board of Trade shows that the number of wrecks and collisions on the coast of the United Kingdom was 1,656 in excess of those of 1879.

MOTHERS, LOOK TO YOUR GIRLS. The American girl is by no means backward about coming forward. Even when not absolutely rude she too often manifests an unthinking pertinacity in pushing her way everywhere and at all times, which resembles nothing so much as the disagreeable familiarity of a pet lamb.

FIELD AND FARM.

A few simple remedies. For croup administer a teaspoonful of strong alum-water; repeat the dose every fifteen minutes until free vomiting occurs.

Remedy for chilblains—Take a piece of linen the size of your double fist; put it in warm water and soak the feet in it as long as it can be borne for half an hour.

For a scald or burn, apply immediately pulverized charcoal and oil. Lamp oil will do but lard is better. The effect is miraculous.

For chapped lips mix two tablespoonfuls of clarified honey with a few drops of lavender water and rub over the lips, and anoint the lips frequently.

To make good sticking plaster, put two spoonfuls of balsam of Peru to six of lavender water, and mix well together, and anoint the lips frequently.

Home cheerfulness. Be cheerful at home. The admission is one that all may heed, for who in this respect is without blame?

Man and Animal. London Nature. There can be no doubt that dogs associate with barking in certain tones special emotional states in their companions.

Personal Gossip. Mr. Thomas Beaver, of Danville, Pa., has given to Dickinson college, through his present, $30,000 for the increase of its permanent endowment.

The Emma Abbott Kiss. Emma Abbott, who is now in Louisville, gave a reporter of the Courier Journal some points. We quote from an interview:

English Wreck Register for 1880 81. The Wreck Register for 1880-81 recently issued under the sanction of the Board of Trade shows that the number of wrecks and collisions on the coast of the United Kingdom was 1,656 in excess of those of 1879.

MOTHERS, LOOK TO YOUR GIRLS. The American girl is by no means backward about coming forward. Even when not absolutely rude she too often manifests an unthinking pertinacity in pushing her way everywhere and at all times, which resembles nothing so much as the disagreeable familiarity of a pet lamb.

A STAR DREAM.

There was a night when you and I looked up from where we lay, when we were children and the sky was our window bar.

We looked toward the deep dark blue beyond our window bar, and into all our dreaming days, the spirit of the stars.

We did not see the world asleep—We were already there, in a very joyful mood, and as if we were climbing that stair.

And faint at first and finally, They sweet and shrill and near, We heard the eternal harmony That only angels hear.

And many a hue of many a gem We found for you to wear, And many a gem of many a gem We found for you to wear.

We saw beneath an faint and far The little cloudlets strewed, And I became a wandering star, And you became my moon.

And you became my moon, And you became my moon, And you became my moon, And you became my moon.

And you became my moon, And you became my moon, And you became my moon, And you became my moon.

And you became my moon, And you became my moon, And you became my moon, And you became my moon.

And you became my moon, And you became my moon, And you became my moon, And you became my moon.

And you became my moon, And you became my moon, And you became my moon, And you became my moon.

WHY SHE DID IT.

Mrs. Eveden was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

WHY SHE DID IT.

Mrs. Eveden was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.

She was noted among her husband's friends and her own as a very pleasant and agreeable woman.