Tickets will be on sale Sept. 10 to 15th inclusive. Sheriff John Dunn of Red Lodge was in the city last night on his way to Big Timber. He says the Carbonado mine was to resume today with a full force. It is said that Henry Burrell, former manager, has taken the mine on a lease. Ira L. Whitney, clerk of the school board, received a telegram this morning from R. Howard Daniels, assistant principal of the Billings high school, stating that he was unavoidably delayed and would not arrive here until Sunday morning. Prof. H. M. Brayton and Harry Segur left the city yesterday and by this time are bagging game with a vengeance in the neighborhood of Lake basin. They are expected to return tomorrow night, burdened with geese and antelope. Persons in search of purchasable cattle were in the city this week. Among those who wanted to buy were: W. B. Compton of Tacoma, Neb., and Jesse Reeves of Waterloo, Iowa, and J. M. Dismore and B. F. Jones of Gaynor City, Mo. Cheap rate of one fare for round trip via the Northern Pacific to the Yellowstone county fair in Billings, Sept. 12, 13, 14 and 15. This applies to all stations on that road or its branch lines in Montana. Tickets on sale Sept. 10 to 15th inclusive.

The Billings Furniture & Carpet company has added undertaking to its business. Will Sperry has gone to Butte to accept a position as baggage man in the passenger depot of the B. A. & P. railroad. The family of Geo. Treischman, who have been at Fort Yellowstone, Wyo., the past summer, will return to Billings to reside. They will take possession of their residence in north Billings in a week or two. Edward F. M. Heide and Christine B. Soenksen, both of Absarokee, Mont., were married at the home of Carl Hansen in this city Wednesday night by Justice Fraser. Following the ceremony a fine wedding supper was enjoyed. The Gazette has been furnished with the following item through the mails: "Married, in Bozeman, Aug. 23, at the parsonage of Rev. Hutcheson, Douglas A. Hall of Minneapolis, to Evelyn, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Woodward of Anoka, Minn. No cards." The state Sunday school association is desirous of holding its convention in this city next May and has written the church workers asking if they would take charge of it. It is more than likely that the convention will be held here. Some thirty or forty delegates will attend. Sam Simonsen Cortson wants to become a citizen of this glorious republic and has accordingly made declaration of his intention before Clerk of the District Court Williams, in which he renounces all allegiance and fidelity to every other nation, etc., and especially that of Emperor William of Germany. Pat Healey of Ogden, a prominent sheepman, who is interested with a Mr. Patterson in Wyoming and Utah, spent a couple of days here this week. He bought two cars of bucks, one each from John T. Murphy of Merrill and L. Leifeldt of Lavius, which he shipped today to his ranges south of Sheridan. E. M. Hungerford, who is stringing the wire for the Billings & Musselshell Telephone company, phoned in yesterday afternoon from Five Mile, asking that four bundles of wire be sent him, as some poor fellow, who had neither money nor conscience, had stolen that many bundles and he could not continue his work for a time. The Bittner theater company, which gave such unbounded satisfaction here last spring, will appear again at the opera house fair week. During this company's engagement of six weeks at the Auditorium theatre, Spokane, Wash., many changes were made, the favorites being retained and others added, until now the company is the strongest in the west. Dr. Merriweather, late of the North Shoshone Indian reservation, arrived at Crow Agency yesterday to relieve Dr. Portus Baxter as government physician, the latter having received transfer orders to the former's post. Dr. Baxter, however, declined to go to the North Shoshone reservation and it is understood he intends coming to Billings to locate. The preliminary hearing of George Shepard, charged with assault in the first degree on the person of Richard Jones of Flatwillow, was held in Lewistown last Friday. Jones, who had been in this city for a couple of weeks, was present at the hearing. County Attorney Smith of Fergus county appeared for the state, while Cort & Worden had been retained by Shepard. Shepard was bound over to await the action of the district court, which meets soon. Two young men waiters and the day and night clerks at the Cottage Inn got on a high lousome night before last and were run in by the night police. When brought before Police Judge Mann one of them pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness, while the other three stood trial, which resulted in their being declared guilty. They were each assessed a fine of $5 and are out today hustling the money with which to pay it. Landlord Driscoll has dispensed with their services. County Attorney W. M. Johnston was called to Columbus yesterday to prosecute three men on a charge of grand larceny, who it was thought had stolen some goods during the fire in that place Monday. Mr. Johnston found that the evidence was not sufficient for a grand larceny charge and the men were prosecuted for petit larceny. He says the buildings burned down will be replaced at once by more substantial ones and that Columbus will forge right to the front. The new school building, which is a fine one, is nearing completion. To hit the foibles and fads of the day to touch with pungent satire and laughable joke, as well as to brighten with music and song, has been the purpose of the author of "Vanity Fair," Hill's newest travesty. For this very happy purpose unusual attention was given to the artistic material comprising the company, who number thirty people, whose various special acts have been warmly commended everywhere they have appeared this season. "Vanity Fair" is due here at the opera house on Wednesday, Sept. 6. The Big Timber races commenced yesterday and will continue over tomorrow. Dr. Selbrede has resumed his dentistry practice after a ten day's outing in and around Livingston. The open season for wild geese and duck, deer and antelope, began today and will continue until January 1, 1900. The Woman's club will hold a regular meeting next Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. J. McCormick. W. H. Ross and family have removed into the city from the Riverside dairy ranch, and taken possession of the Lynch house in South Billings. The ladies of the Congregational church have been treating their church to a general house cleaning this week, believing that cleanliness is a kin to Godliness. The Northern Pacific is having some exceptionally heavy east-bound passenger trains, occasioned by the park and western tourists returning home. The National park season closes Sept. 15. James Lavelle of Columbus fell in an epileptic fit this morning while having a tooth extracted in Dr. Allen's office. The man's life was despaired of for a time, but at this writing he is much better. T. M. Lawrence of Huron, Ark., a brother of Mrs. J. L. Harrington, has arrived in Billings to make this city his future home. He is a carpenter by trade and has accepted a position with R. R. Crowe. There will be a meeting of the board of trustees of the County Free High School in the county superintendent's office in Billings next Thursday, Sept. 7, at 10 o'clock a. m. for the purpose of organizing. Phil and John Beece went down to their grading camp this morning with a gang of laborers. The gentlemen have a contract with the Northern Pacific for widening the roadbed and are working in the vicinity of Miles City. Ben Hager, manager of the Montana Sandstone quarry at Columbus, brought one of the quarriesmen to Billings Monday night, the man having been injured by a falling rock. The patient is receiving the best of care at St. Vincent's hospital. The Chicago Times-Herald of Aug. 27, contained a full page account, together with illustrations, concerning the treaty made at Crow Agency recently with the Crow Indians. The article is from the pen of Fred E. Miller, one of the clerk's at the agency. John Beck, receiving clerk for the A. L. Babcock Hardware company in this city, has accepted a position as assistant manager in the hardware store of W. A. Talmage at Red Lodge, and will depart for that place tomorrow accompanied by his family. E. B. Carter and Leo Carper expect to take their departure today for the Musselshell country, where they will have charge of the Jos. Zimmerman band of sheep this winter, having leased the same. Visions of wealth are now staring the gentlemen in the face. Twelve cars of Washington range horses, owned by L. G. Powell, a brother of Finly Powell, who lost 300 head in this city four weeks ago by scour, arrived here Tuesday evening. Wednesday morning about a dozen head died from apparently the same disease. The horses were shipped out that day for Omaha. The new McCormick Mercantile company succeeded the Paul McCormick company this morning, with W. H. McCormick in charge as manager. Some improvements are being made to the interior of the store, which will afford more room and be more convenient. Elsewhere in The Gazette will be found the company's advertisement. The Miles City baseball fans are not such bad people after all. Col. Sam Gordon and Fred Kriedler wired congratulations to the Billings club on receipt of the news of the victory over Helena last Saturday, stating that their "hearts were right." Steward Teahdy replied in the same happy vein, stating that, while "the alkali flatters and pumpkin rollers fought each other, they were one against a common foe." It may be said that an evening at the theater can be no more enjoyably spent than in listening to the singing of trained artists, laughing at the comedians, wondering at the ability of the acrobats, delighted with the poetry of motion, as shown by the dances. All these features may be found in Hill's newest version of his extravaganza, "Vanity Fair," made up solely for amusement. It will be seen at the opera house Wednesday, Sept. 6.
