

LATE NEWS FROM BUTTE

Registry Agents Divided on the Question of Keeping Open To-Day.

Some of Them Declare that They Will Close Up Tight, While Others Will Allow Voters to Register as Usual.

Special to the Standard.

BUTTE, Sept. 14.—There is every probability of endless trouble arising out of the registry law in this city. Notwithstanding the opinion of the attorney-general that registration to-morrow (Sunday) is legal some of the republican registry agents here have resolved to close their books at 10 o'clock to-night and to refuse to open to-morrow. John Kirby, agent at No. 3 district and comprising all that part of the city south of Park and west of Main streets and the Centennial Brewery precinct, told a STANDARD reporter that he would close his work of registering voters to-night at 10 o'clock, and if half the district was disfranchised he would not open to-morrow. Kirby says he is satisfied Sunday registration is illegal and he will not be a party to it. He maintains that if it is right to keep the registry offices open to-morrow it was also right to keep them open on all previous Sundays since the registry books were opened. Kirby says he, as registry agent, is made judge and interpreter of the registry law and he cares not for the decision of the attorney-general or any other lawyer. Kirby is evidently determined to follow out the course, and, as a result many parties who reside in that district and who expect to register to-morrow owing to the attorney-general's decision will be disfranchised.

Mr. Potter, registry agent in No. 4 district, when asked by THE STANDARD reporter what course he intended to follow, said he had not decided. He said the law was to him contradictory upon the matter and he felt like coming to some understanding with the other registry agents in the city whereby all the offices would be kept open or all closed. He would not decide definitely until he had a chance to consult the other registry agents after closing to-night.

Mr. Gleason, agent at No. 2 district, says he has maintained from the first that the law requires the registry offices to be kept open on the 15th, and as this view has been endorsed by the attorney-general, Mr. Gleason says he will keep his office open and will register voters to-morrow. Kirby says if Gleason does not close his office steps will be taken to compel him to do so. The county commissioners published a card in the evening paper stating that they have no jurisdiction to order the registry agents to close their offices or to keep them open. The chairman of the commission, Mr. Jack, states that he personally prefers to see the registration offices closed finally to-night, but adds that the agents must use their own judgment in the matter, and thus the matter stands. The prospects are that to-morrow morning one man will be entitled to register his vote whilst his next door neighbor will be denied that right. Patti Ross, actress, who will play "Margery Daw" and "Love and Duty" in Butte next week. Her engagement here lasts three nights. Patti is supported by an unusually brilliant company, amongst whom is the great comedian Bert Haverley.

The Emmet Guard, Company B, N. G., will give a grand military ball in the "Meadow" on the evening of Friday, September 27, prior to their going into encampment.

The county commissioners will meet on Monday to hear parties who object to their present action in some under-standings.

Secretary of State Walker was in town to-day on official business.

Cards are out for the wedding of J. J. McHatton and Miss Rosalie Morier. The ceremony will be performed in the Catholic church next Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

Argument, of course, in the case of Mary Regal, the prostitute who was charged with having stolen $400 from Nord Jubenville last Monday night while the latter was taking in the sights on Galena street, was heard to-day by Judge Newkirk. The judge reserved his decision until Monday. Charles Flamant, who was charged with complicity in the robbery, was discharged. Messrs. Forbis and Booth defended the prisoners in an able manner, whilst Mr. Scallan conducted the prosecution.

One Cameron and a McQueen got into a fight in the California brewery, and Cameron was fined $20 and while McQueen's bail bond was forfeited.

B. Stevano got hilarious and rode his horse into a saloon on east Galena street. He paid $5 and costs into the police court for his fun.

Henry J. Rathemiller to-day obtained a license to marry Lizzie Kauk.

In the matter of the estate of John J. Nixon, James H. Lynch was appointed administrator.

In the estate of Mary Powell, petition was filed to-day with the public administrator for letters of administration.

There is talk of notifying the gang of loafers who live with disreputable women in various parts of the city, and who have no visible means of support, to leave the town. A few years ago a gang of this class of gentry were waited upon by a vigilance committee and invited to leave town. They were huddled together and marched to the outskirts of the city and headed east and told to leave. They left, and for a time the city was comparatively free from that class of citizens. But of late they have become unpleasantly thick again, and the criminal docket increases accordingly.

Mrs. Hopkins, wife of Judge Hopkins, has been dangerously ill for some days, but is now improving in health.

C. J. Farlin and L. Wilson to-day filed notice of location of the Clipper lode mining claim in the Black-tail district.

Policeman Carroll appeared upon the streets this morning wearing an unusually bright smile. The arrival of a young son at the Carroll mansion yesterday is the cause of his beaming joy.

THEY DECIDE TO CLOSE.

Butte Registry Agents Finally Come to an Agreement.

Special to the Standard.

BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 15, 2 a. m.—At a late hour to-night the registry agents of this city held a meeting and came to the conclusion to close all the registry offices in this city to-morrow. Advice was received late to-night by one of the agents here from Attorney General Clayberg. The contents of the message could not definitely be learned. But its import was that the registry agents should be the judges of how to act. The impression seems to prevail that there will be a legal contest over the affair whether the registry offices are kept open or closed to-morrow. The decision to close will undoubtedly work hardship upon some who expected to be able to register to-morrow. The total vote as registered in the county of Silver Bow when the registration books closed at 10 o'clock to-night, was about 8,284, as follows: District No. 1, Walkerville, 778; No. 2, West Park street, Butte, 1,147; No. 3, West Park street, Butte, 947; No. 4, Northern Pacific office, Butte, 1,171; No. 5, East Park street, Butte, 1,384; No. 6, Meadville, 546; No. 7, South Butte, 673; No. 8, Burlington (estimated), 400; No. 9, Silver Bow, 100; No. 10, McCune's, 170; No. 11, Peely's, 50; No. 12, Melrose, 75. The total vote cast in the county last fall was 7,225. The registered vote this year therefore exceeds that polled last year by 1,169. Besides a great many legal voters were undoubtedly disfranchised by the remarkable ruling of some of the registry agents. John Kirby a registry agent at district No. 3, in this city was particularly rank and many people who were entitled to register in his office, and numbers who were legally entitled to register in that district, were refused the privilege upon trivial technicalities by the magnate whom the commissioners appointed to act as registry agent.

Kirby to-day had a young man named Rowan arrested upon a charge of perjury. Rowan went into Kirby's office to register and signed the relation subscribed to the necessary oath, wherein he declared himself a citizen of the United States. When Kirby went to enter the name upon the register he asked Rowan if he was in the States. Rowan replied in the negative. Kirby then asked him for his papers. Rowan replied he never had taken out papers of naturalization, as he considered himself a citizen of the United States because he had lived here since he was eight years of age and his father was a naturalized citizen of the United States at the time of young Rowan's birth abroad. Kirby immediately flew into a passion and declared he would teach him a lesson. Kirby called an officer and ordered Rowan's arrest. Rowan was taken to jail and Kirby rushed around town to find some magistrate who would issue a warrant for the arrest of the man who was already in jail. The warrant was finally obtained from Judge Ross but not before Rowan's friends had obtained a writ of habeas corpus. The matter was finally settled for the present by Rowan being released upon a five hundred dollar bail. The opinion prevailed here that Kirby has been entirely too fast in this matter.

Patched Up Their Differences.

Special to the Standard.

BUTTE, Sept. 14.—The man Kimball and his wife have settled their difficulties and are again living together in apparent peace and harmony. Shinn, the bad man who caused the trouble in the Kimball household, has been recommenced by the woman. Kimball and Shinn were both arraigned in police court to-night and plead not guilty to the charge of attempting to use deadly weapons. Their trial is set for Monday at 3 o'clock. All three have been released on bail.

WHAT JUDGE DE WOLFE DID SAY.

He Disproves Any Movement Tending to Create Class Distinction.

In a letter addressed to the editor of the Helena Journal regarding a recent controversy, Judge De Wolfe makes the following statement:

In your paper of to-day's issue I observe a communication from Mr. W. A. Buswell of Anaconda, in which he denies certain statements attributed to me by a writer of the Independent in regard to what was said by certain speakers at a banquet of the Patriotic Order of the Sons of America, held in Anaconda in the month of July last, and which I attended by invitation of some members of the order. Mr. Buswell assumes in his communication that I have been correctly reported, and thereupon accuses me of stating what is not true. It might, I should think, have occurred to Mr. Buswell that newspapers as "reliable and truthful" as the Independent sometimes report me incorrectly; and that a reporter was as liable to be mistaken in reporting an interview as I in stating an interview.

It is true I made some statements to a reporter on the Independent as to what was said on the occasion referred to, but I did not state or intimate to him some things attributed to me in his report. I certainly did not state that any of the speakers alluded to Catholics burning school houses, nor did I say anything which could be construed into an expression of the kind. I did state that one of the speakers alluded to some school (I think in Butte) which was conducted by a catholic, and then stated that he was unable to press over school. Without attempting to repeat the language used to the reporter, the substance of it was that, from the sentiments and utterances of most of the speakers on the occasion, I thought the tendency, if not aims, of the order was to create distinctions between native and naturalized citizens and to array one against the other, a movement, in effect, to revive the exploded doctrines of the Know Nothing party under a new and high-sounding name; that, being called upon, I expressed my dissent to the sentiments uttered by the different speakers who preceded me, and deprecated any movement having for its purpose the creation of distinctions between different classes of American citizens as to any political rights or privileges, a sentiment which I still hold, and wish neither to retract or qualify. I hesitate about publishing upon a newspaper a dissent to the sentiments of me as calculated to do me an injury in an official as well as private capacity, I deem it proper to correct them.

HELENA, September 6. S. DEWOLFE.

Nearly Two Thousand.

The registry books showed 1,970 names on the list, at the close of business last night. It is announced that the office will be kept open to-day. It is probable, however, that the number of names added to the roll will be small. It will be seen by this morning's dispatch that no agreement has been reached regarding the question of a Sunday registry. There were 575 names reported from Carroll last night.

Notice. All accounts due the Water Company must be paid at their office in the Standard building before the 15th of each month, for the preceding month or expense of collecting will be added, and the service stopped. Hereafter, the published regulations of the company including the foregoing, will be rigidly enforced. Office hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. D. F. HALLAHAN, Sec.

Coal. The Montana Lumber & Produce company are now receiving large consignments of Leligh, stove and nut, Colorado, anthracite and Black Springs coal, selected especially for family use, which they are prepared to furnish to consumers at bottom prices, in small lots or by the car load.

NOTES FROM PHILIPSBURG.

Col. Hawkins Sent to Jail—The "Irish World" Robbed.

PHILIPSBURG, Sept. 14.—The trial of Col. Hawkins for breaking into the mine belonging to the Philipsburg Mining and Milling company, occurred at Granite to-day, resulting in the Colonel being sentenced to thirty days confinement, and to pay a fine of $100. The morning after his arrest for the above offense, he preferred charges against the Philipsburg Mining and Milling company for disturbing him in his peaceful possession of the Vanderbilt mine, but the case went against him, and he was fined $80 and costs. The Philipsburg Mining and Milling company then charged him with burglary in breaking into their mine. The Colonel asked for a change of venue which was granted him, with the above results.

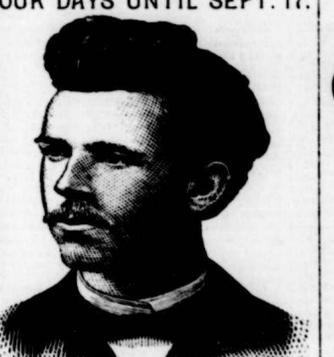

The house occupied by a woman known as "The Irish World," at Granite was broken into last night by some unknown party and robbed of two or three thousand dollars worth of valuables, consisting of some diamonds, two sealskin cloaks, one plush cloak, a set of silver ware and several trinkets. The identity of the burglars is unknown. The burglary was not discovered until this morning.
