ABOUT THE CITY.

A prairie fire appeared two or three miles west of the city yesterday afternoon, the flames attaining a height of several feet. The rain which fell at 6 o'clock came opportunely.

The Montana Union Railroad put into effect yesterday this new schedule for passenger trains: Leave Anaconda 8:00 A. M., 3:20 P. M. and 7:10 P. M.; leave Butte 10:35 A. M. and 5:20 P. M. A detailed statement of the trains and their connections is given in the STANDARD's guide.

Judge Lars M. Rand will address the Scandinavian democratic club of this city at Evans's opera house to-night. He is a most eloquent orator, and will speak both in Scandinavian and English.

Vote for Maginnis, the true and tried friend of Montana.

WHERE TO VOTE TO-MORROW. List of the City's Polling Places Arranged by Precincts.

The polling places of the city to-morrow will be: First precinct, comprising the lower end of the First ward, at the California House, Front street.

It is a long ticket—take pains to make no mistakes in making the crosses.

OVER IN MISSOULA

Congressman Reed Tries it on Electors in that Town and Falls. Special to the Standard.

MISSOULA, Sept. 28.—The flickering hope to which the republicans of Missoula county are clinging, was stimulated this evening by what the hand bills announced would be "a monster demonstration." The monster party was lacking when compared to the ovations Toole, Pemberton and Maginnis received when here. The opera house was fairly filled, a large number of ladies being in attendance. There had been such a grand military display of their troops over Mr. Reed's coming that it was thought the affair would be really huge, but the whoop did not arouse the enthusiasm which the republicans hoped for.

Take care of the legislative ticket and make sure of a majority.

What He Could Do. From the Washington Capitol.

"What do you want, my boy?" said the public official as he looked up from his writing. His visitor was a thin, young lad, whose general appearance suggested want and hardship.
