

OCTOBER. Table with columns S, M, T, W, T, F, S and rows of dates.

TRAVELER'S GUIDE. Table with columns for destinations and times.

Arrival and Departure of Mails. Table listing mail routes and times.

THE WEATHER. The daily record of the thermometer in this city is reported by A. T. Flynter...

Subscriptions to the Standard will be received at the business office, or at the store of Crockett & King, Main street.

ABOUT THE CITY. Hundreds of visitors called at the democratic headquarters yesterday to get official figures...

The alarm bell in the tower of the new engine house has been connected with the electric fire alarm service...

Judges and clerks at the special election to be held in this city on Thursday of next week will be the same as those who served at Tuesday's election.

Except the Kabin case, there was no business in police court yesterday. The town came out of the election business in excellent order.

The county commissioners expect to receive the assessment rolls from Assessor King tomorrow. They have been waiting for them for weeks.

At a late hour last night the complete returns for the whole ticket voted in this city could not be secured. The precinct officers have a long siege with them.

More deputy marshals turned up in Anaconda yesterday to look after the returns, which the republicans believe to be quite unsafe in the hands of residents of this city.

The flag aloft over the Montana fluttered to the breeze whenever bulletins favorable to democrats came in, and dropped perceptibly when the other side got a lift.

The family of John S. Dougherty welcomed to their home, Monday afternoon, a little daughter, which, according to latest returns, is safely estimated at ten pounds.

United States Marshal Irvin spent several hours in this city yesterday. The latest returns show that the marshal got very cold comfort from republicans with whom he talked regarding his appointment of deputies for election day.

Kabin is held. Nicholas Kabin was arraigned before Judge Fitzpatrick yesterday for hitting his wife in the head with an ax last week Monday. Mrs. Kabin was able to appear against her husband. Mr. Kabin admitted having hit his wife. From his actions he seemed not entirely right in his mind, giving the impression that he is slightly demented. He was held under $7,000 bonds to await the action of the grand jury, and not being able to furnish the bonds he was taken to jail.

To House upholsters. Look at the D. J. Hennessy Mercantile Co. ad. on carpets, house furnishings, etc. This house is moving to the front with the progress of our city. Call and look them over. They carry the latest styles in all the goods they represent and give courteous treatment to all.

Loose & Maxwell are agents for the celebrated Red School House shoes. Every pair warranted.

Coal. The Montana Lumber & Produce company are now receiving large consignments of Lehigh, stove and nut, Colorado, anthracite and Rock Springs coal selected especially for family use, which they are prepared to furnish to consumers at below prices, in small lots or by the car load.

Look at the bargains in underwear at Loose & Maxwell's.

Notice. Disolution of copartnership heretofore existing between J. E. Parker and Charles Lemley, merchant tailors, is this day dissolved. J. E. PARKER, CHARLES LEMLEY.

Go to Anderson & Thomas for sash doors, glass mouldings and finishing lumber.

Look at bargains in hosiery at Loose & Maxwell's.

DEER LODGE ALL RIGHT

Every Name on the Ticket Carried by the Democrats.

Good Majorities Scored By All the Candidates—Official Figures of some of the Candidates on the State Ticket.

All day yesterday the count went slowly forward at the five precincts in this city. The fifth precinct was the first to finish, completing its work yesterday afternoon. The first and second precincts closed up at an early hour last evening. Precinct number four was completed at 1 o'clock this morning and the inspectors at precinct three were still at work, but close to a finish at 2 o'clock. The judges and clerks were completely worn out, have scarcely left the precincts since Tuesday morning. Toole goes out of Anaconda with 485 majority. Major Maginnis did not keep pace with the balance of the ticket, his majority in town being 339.

From a large number of districts in the county returns were received yesterday afternoon on a portion of the ticket. They show that the majority for Toole in Deer Lodge is about 400 and for Maginnis 153. For the office of sheriff Quigley's majority will hardly fall short of 500. It appears to be an even race for the legislative delegation as solidly democratic. There are variations in favor of one candidate or the other, but the entire delegation is undoubtedly safe.

It was talked yesterday that more marshals had been turned loose on the town, and that they were preparing affidavits to file against a large number of voters, although nothing definite was reported regarding them. Special deputies were sent to the polling places to look after the count.

Below is given a table of the returns for Deer Lodge county on congressional and governor's race returns being official in regard to 30 precincts and estimated for 10 others. The majorities estimated are 470 for Toole and 154 for Maginnis. The full returns, it is believed, will not cause these figures to vary much. Below is the table of majorities:

Table showing returns for Deer Lodge County, including candidates like Toole, Maginnis, and Quigley across various precincts.

The following table shows the official vote in four of the five precincts of this city, and in Elliston:

Table showing official vote in four of the five precincts of this city and in Elliston, listing candidates and their respective votes.

Table showing returns for Precinct No. 1, listing candidates and their respective votes.

Table showing returns for Precinct No. 2, listing candidates and their respective votes.

Table showing returns for Precinct No. 3, listing candidates and their respective votes.

BUTTE'S USUAL BLAZE

The Odd Fellows' Hall Falls a Victim to the Scourge.

The Fire Thought to Be Incendiary—A Loss of About $7,000—Maguire's Opera House Also Damaged.

Special to the Standard. BUTTE, Oct. 2.—Fire broke out this evening in the Odd Fellows block on West Granite street, next to Maguire's opera house. The fire department quickly responded, and by hard work the building was saved from total destruction, though greatly damaged. The building was occupied by the Odd Fellows, the P. O. S. A. the A. O. F., the Daughters of Rebecca, and Crusade Encampment I. O. O. F., and the G. A. R., as a lodge room. The lower floor was occupied by M. G. Cohen & Co., commission merchants. The fire broke out in the room occupied by the P. O. S. A. and the origin is a mystery as the room was supposed to have been locked since last Wednesday. No fire was used in the building. It is believed that the fire was deliberately started. The building which was a fine one is insured for $12,000. It cost the Odd Fellows more than $4,500 to furnish the rooms a year ago. The loss to-night will probably amount to about $7,000. Considerable damage was done to the opera house adjoining. The firemen filled the rooms with water and smashed the windows. Maguire is also insured.

A NEW ADDITION—A chance to double money in a short time by purchasing a well situated addition to Butte within city limits at a bargain. Evans, Nichols & Co., 62 East Broadway, Butte.

A Cat at the Show. From the New York Sun. During one of the most interesting situations in "Clover" at the Palmer theater on Saturday evening a large tiger-marked cat, which belongs to the stage doorkeeper, walked on the stage, just inside the footlights. The cat proceeded leisurely until it came to the center of the stage, and then it turned towards the audience, at the same time directly facing the musical director, Herr Nowak, and began solemnly to stroke his whiskers. The house was crowded and the scene in the opera absorbing, but this was too much for the audience, and a ripple of laughter began to spread. Herr Nowak's fat sides began to shake with suppressed merriment; De Wolf Hopper looked at Eugene Oudin as if he would have given a thousand dollars for one good shot of laughter; Marion Manola took refuge in her black lace veil, while plump little Annie Myers grew rozier and rozier until she seemed about to have an apoplectic stroke. Von Suppe was forgotten; all eyes were on the cat. Suddenly with a bang the kettledrums rattled, the violins shrieked in unison, and with a great start Herr Nowak gave a vigorous sweep of his baton, the singers recovered themselves, and the cat, with tail in the air and each individual hair on its body standing erect, turned and cleared the space to the wings with one leap. The doorkeeper says the cat is the same that was so great a pet of old John Gilbreath during the latter days of the Wallack stock company, and that it very often sought the comedian on the stage to the amusement of the audience.

THESE $800 IS THIN? Found in a Bundle of Rags and Waiting for an Owner. From the New York Sun. Ex-Chief of Police John Keron of Elliston is the disgraced stakeholder in as odd a dispute as ever bothered a court. He hopes that the judge who holds the October term of the court sitting next week in Elliston will relieve him of the custody of $800 which for more than three years has been lying in bank as a special deposit in his name, bearing no interest, and waiting for some proof of ownership. The money was found on August 29, 1888, by some wandering August 29 boys near the track of the Pennsylvania road, just outside the city. One of the boys, named Crawford, picked up a bundle of rags, the contents of which he playfully showed to the other boys about by one and another until it fell to pieces, when a big wad of greenbacks came to view. There were more money than the five little fellows ever saw in their lives. They tried to count it, but the eldest was less than 11 years old, and they couldn't make out the figures, which they had learned fit the case. They were rather frightened by the possession of so much wealth, and, like good, honest boys, they decided to deliver the money to the parents of the boy who lived nearest. This was done, and later in the day Mrs. Crossman, the mother of one of the lads, delivered the money to her young wife, until the question of ownership could be settled. The money was all in small bills, most of them much worn, and the amount was a trifle more than $800.

Mr. Keron advertised in various ways for an owner, but no claimant who could produce the slightest proof of ownership ever appeared. At the end of a year Mr. Keron was ready to deliver the money to any finder, but he was met by a claim for the whole amount from the father of the Crawford boy, who first picked up the bundle of rags. The other boys naturally laid claims to one-fifth each. Mr. Keron believes in an equal division among the five, but he will yield to any decision that will restore his responsibility. To test the matter, a friendly suit has been brought against Mr. Keron, and he hopes the court will solve the puzzle next week.

One Way of Getting a Wife. From the Kansas Times. Among the passengers who boarded the Burlington express for Atchison Friday morning was a comely young German girl named Anna Schwartz. She has been living with a respectable family in this city for a number of years and bears an irreproachable character. In Orient, Kan., a well-to-do German farmer named Jacob Shillinger has sought for a number of months ago he wrote a letter to his old home in Germany, telling them that he was lonely and wanted them to send him a wife. His people cast about them and learned that a young girl of their village had come to America four or five years ago and settled in Kansas City. They obtained her address and sent it to Jacob Shillinger, who forthwith wrote to her. They had never seen each other, but knew each other's families, and the result was that Anna agreed to become Mrs. Shillinger and the mistress of a Dakota ranch. Jacob was too busy with his wheat and hay to come to Kansas City after the maiden, and yesterday morning Mr. Harry Orr of the Burlington sold the pretty German girl a ticket and saw her safely off for Orient, Dak. And he smiled and looked pleasant every time he spoke about the matter yesterday.

Outside the Breast Works. There is insubordination in the ranks of the New York republicans. It is worse than insubordination—it is rank rebellion, and the rebels are saucy about it, too. After the nomination of the state ticket in the Saratoga convention, in which Mr. Platt had every thing his own way, four old wharf horses of the party who had been slightly after nearly twenty years' service in the interests of the republicans, sent the following telegram to President Harrison: "We are outside the breast works with Warner Miller. Signed: John J. O'Brien, George J. Krause, John E. Brodsky, Henry B. Baker." But side the breastworks with Warner Miller means that five hard workers will not draw their swords in the coming battle. They may even show the enemy the secret passage into the republican fortifications. Altogether it looks as if a good democratic general would have no difficulty in securing the victory if he keeps his eyes and ears open.

BUTTE'S USUAL BLAZE

The Odd Fellows' Hall Falls a Victim to the Scourge.

The Fire Thought to Be Incendiary—A Loss of About $7,000—Maguire's Opera House Also Damaged.

Special to the Standard. BUTTE, Oct. 2.—Fire broke out this evening in the Odd Fellows block on West Granite street, next to Maguire's opera house. The fire department quickly responded, and by hard work the building was saved from total destruction, though greatly damaged. The building was occupied by the Odd Fellows, the P. O. S. A. the A. O. F., the Daughters of Rebecca, and Crusade Encampment I. O. O. F., and the G. A. R., as a lodge room. The lower floor was occupied by M. G. Cohen & Co., commission merchants. The fire broke out in the room occupied by the P. O. S. A. and the origin is a mystery as the room was supposed to have been locked since last Wednesday. No fire was used in the building. It is believed that the fire was deliberately started. The building which was a fine one is insured for $12,000. It cost the Odd Fellows more than $4,500 to furnish the rooms a year ago. The loss to-night will probably amount to about $7,000. Considerable damage was done to the opera house adjoining. The firemen filled the rooms with water and smashed the windows. Maguire is also insured.

A NEW ADDITION—A chance to double money in a short time by purchasing a well situated addition to Butte within city limits at a bargain. Evans, Nichols & Co., 62 East Broadway, Butte.

A Cat at the Show. From the New York Sun. During one of the most interesting situations in "Clover" at the Palmer theater on Saturday evening a large tiger-marked cat, which belongs to the stage doorkeeper, walked on the stage, just inside the footlights. The cat proceeded leisurely until it came to the center of the stage, and then it turned towards the audience, at the same time directly facing the musical director, Herr Nowak, and began solemnly to stroke his whiskers. The house was crowded and the scene in the opera absorbing, but this was too much for the audience, and a ripple of laughter began to spread. Herr Nowak's fat sides began to shake with suppressed merriment; De Wolf Hopper looked at Eugene Oudin as if he would have given a thousand dollars for one good shot of laughter; Marion Manola took refuge in her black lace veil, while plump little Annie Myers grew rozier and rozier until she seemed about to have an apoplectic stroke. Von Suppe was forgotten; all eyes were on the cat. Suddenly with a bang the kettledrums rattled, the violins shrieked in unison, and with a great start Herr Nowak gave a vigorous sweep of his baton, the singers recovered themselves, and the cat, with tail in the air and each individual hair on its body standing erect, turned and cleared the space to the wings with one leap. The doorkeeper says the cat is the same that was so great a pet of old John Gilbreath during the latter days of the Wallack stock company, and that it very often sought the comedian on the stage to the amusement of the audience.

THESE $800 IS THIN? Found in a Bundle of Rags and Waiting for an Owner. From the New York Sun. Ex-Chief of Police John Keron of Elliston is the disgraced stakeholder in as odd a dispute as ever bothered a court. He hopes that the judge who holds the October term of the court sitting next week in Elliston will relieve him of the custody of $800 which for more than three years has been lying in bank as a special deposit in his name, bearing no interest, and waiting for some proof of ownership. The money was found on August 29, 1888, by some wandering August 29 boys near the track of the Pennsylvania road, just outside the city. One of the boys, named Crawford, picked up a bundle of rags, the contents of which he playfully showed to the other boys about by one and another until it fell to pieces, when a big wad of greenbacks came to view. There were more money than the five little fellows ever saw in their lives. They tried to count it, but the eldest was less than 11 years old, and they couldn't make out the figures, which they had learned fit the case. They were rather frightened by the possession of so much wealth, and, like good, honest boys, they decided to deliver the money to the parents of the boy who lived nearest. This was done, and later in the day Mrs. Crossman, the mother of one of the lads, delivered the money to her young wife, until the question of ownership could be settled. The money was all in small bills, most of them much worn, and the amount was a trifle more than $800.

Mr. Keron advertised in various ways for an owner, but no claimant who could produce the slightest proof of ownership ever appeared. At the end of a year Mr. Keron was ready to deliver the money to any finder, but he was met by a claim for the whole amount from the father of the Crawford boy, who first picked up the bundle of rags. The other boys naturally laid claims to one-fifth each. Mr. Keron believes in an equal division among the five, but he will yield to any decision that will restore his responsibility. To test the matter, a friendly suit has been brought against Mr. Keron, and he hopes the court will solve the puzzle next week.

One Way of Getting a Wife. From the Kansas Times. Among the passengers who boarded the Burlington express for Atchison Friday morning was a comely young German girl named Anna Schwartz. She has been living with a respectable family in this city for a number of years and bears an irreproachable character. In Orient, Kan., a well-to-do German farmer named Jacob Shillinger has sought for a number of months ago he wrote a letter to his old home in Germany, telling them that he was lonely and wanted them to send him a wife. His people cast about them and learned that a young girl of their village had come to America four or five years ago and settled in Kansas City. They obtained her address and sent it to Jacob Shillinger, who forthwith wrote to her. They had never seen each other, but knew each other's families, and the result was that Anna agreed to become Mrs. Shillinger and the mistress of a Dakota ranch. Jacob was too busy with his wheat and hay to come to Kansas City after the maiden, and yesterday morning Mr. Harry Orr of the Burlington sold the pretty German girl a ticket and saw her safely off for Orient, Dak. And he smiled and looked pleasant every time he spoke about the matter yesterday.

Outside the Breast Works. There is insubordination in the ranks of the New York republicans. It is worse than insubordination—it is rank rebellion, and the rebels are saucy about it, too. After the nomination of the state ticket in the Saratoga convention, in which Mr. Platt had every thing his own way, four old wharf horses of the party who had been slightly after nearly twenty years' service in the interests of the republicans, sent the following telegram to President Harrison: "We are outside the breast works with Warner Miller. Signed: John J. O'Brien, George J. Krause, John E. Brodsky, Henry B. Baker." But side the breastworks with Warner Miller means that five hard workers will not draw their swords in the coming battle. They may even show the enemy the secret passage into the republican fortifications. Altogether it looks as if a good democratic general would have no difficulty in securing the victory if he keeps his eyes and ears open.

D. J. Hennessy Mercantile Co

Anaconda, Butte and Missoula. CAPITAL, $250,000

Are now showing CARPETS!

The Very Latest Patterns in Moquets, Velvets, Body Brussels, Tapestry, Ingrains, etc., at prices the Lowest in the City.

Our Carpet Department, while not long in existence has come to the front so rapidly that now we lead competition in styles, qualities and low prices. We have

CURTAINS,

Lace, Turcoman and Chenille in the Best Styles and Lowest Prices. A full stock of Linoleums, Oilcloths, Shades, Wall Paper and House Furnishings.

SPECIAL FIGURES to parties furnishing houses. Call and examine our stock.

Respectfully, D. J. HENNESSY MERCANTILE CO.

Corner Oak and First Streets. Mail orders receive special attention. Express paid on all goods

S. HEYMAN New York Merchant Tailor. Just Received. Fall Goods and 1,000 - SAMPLES Of the Latest and Best Patterns.

I am agent for H. M. Marks & Co., leading tailors in Chicago and New York. Every suit guaranteed perfect fitting or money refunded. Prices for everybody. Yours truly, S. HEYMAN.

Cleaning, repairing and special dyeing done on short notice. Work guaranteed.

SAM PRAMENKO, DEALER IN Fresh Game, Oysters and Fish, Liquors, Cigars, Candies, Nuts and Fruits, Butter, Fresh Eggs, and COUNTRY PRODUCE

Warm Spring Livery Stable. The Finest Turnouts in Anaconda. New and Handsome

LANDAUS, BUGGIES AND CARRIAGES. FINE NEW HEADS. Our SADDLE HORSES for Ladies and Gents are the Finest in the West State.

CHAS. W. FRENCH, Proprietor. First street, West of Main, Anaconda, Mont.

FURNITURE. Just received at TH. EHRET'S 100 Bedroom Suits.

One Carload of Springs, One Carload of Mattresses, 100 Bedroom Suits.

One Carload of the Finest Parlor Furniture ever brought to Montana.

A FULL LINE OF OFFICE DESKS, Bookcases and Secretaries.

FRENCH CHOP HOUSE, FIRST STREET, ANACONDA.

F. B. HUGHES & CO., PROPRIETORS. Splendid meals served from 5 A. M. to 12 P. M., at prices from 25 cents up.

Good Lunches Served at any Hour of the Day or Night. Don't Forget the Place, First Street, Near Oak.

ESTES & CONNELL Mercantile Co.

Special Bargains for This Week.

PLUSHES. Silk Plush, 16 and 18 in. wide at 50c per yard, worth 90c and $1. 24 in. extra goods at $1 per yard, well worth $1.50.

SILKS. Black Faile Silk at 75c, for this week only. Colored Faile at 95c per yard.

Black Rhadame Silk for 87 1/2c per yard. This silk is actually worth $1.50. We cannot replace the same silk for $1.20.

Surah Silk in all the new evening shades at 49c per yard.

Newline of Colored Satens at 50c per yard.

NEW DRESS GOODS. Direct from Paris. All wool Tricot, 40 inches wide at 50c.

All wool Ladies' Cloth, 40 inches wide (a nice line of shades) at 50c per yard.

Fine all wool imported Ladies' Cloth, 54 in. wide, at 75c per yard.

Wool Surah in all the newest fall shades, 40 in. wide, at 50c per yard.

New goods arriving daily in every department.

ESTES & CONNELL MER. CO. First street, East of Main, Anaconda, Montana.

J. C. KEPPLER, Watchmaker and Jeweler, Dealer in DIAMONDS, All Grades of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Optical Goods, Silverware, Etc.

BIELENBERG & CO. Wholesale and Retail Dealers

Beef, Mutton and Pork, GAME, ETC.

J. P. DUNN, DEALER IN CHOICE GROCERIES.

HAY, GRAIN AND Produce of all Kinds.

W. C. HAYNES, LIVERY AND FEED STABLES.

First-Class Turnouts and Moderate Charges.

Transient Stock Carefully Cared for.

First street, East of Main, Anaconda, Montana.