

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

Rube Burrows, the notorious Alabama outlaw, has again escaped and is hiding in the mountains. The business portion of the village of Dunmore, Pa., has been partially destroyed by fire. The loss is $40,000. Lord Wolsey has accepted an invitation to be present at the unveiling of the statue of General Lee at Richmond, Va. William Henderson, one of the best known theatrical managers in the country, died Sunday at Stockbridge, Mass., of pneumonia. He was 98 years of age. Twenty or more gentlemen representing the various cracker manufacturers of the northwest met at Jackson, Mich., Saturday and reorganized the cracker trust, which will fix the schedule of prices. Samuel W. Miller, cashier of the American bank at Findlay, O., was fatally stabbed Sunday night by F. W. Stokes, his father-in-law. Stokes has been acting queerly for some time and it is thought he was out of his mind. He is in jail. It is thought in Boston that the Union Pacific and Northwestern traffic alliance may hasten the consummation of a greater railroad alliance between the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and the Chicago, Burlington & Northern and the Manitoba west of Chicago with the Pennsylvania railroad system east of Chicago. The New York World's Florence, Italy, correspondent gives a statement by the physicians who attended Mr. Blaine in 1884 to the effect that he was partially paralyzed with cerebral paralysis and melancholia, and for that reason wrote the letter declining to be a candidate for the presidency. The firm of Millman & Reilly, Detroit bookmakers, were awarded out of nearly $15,000 last week by sharp sports who had a telegraph operator for a confederate. The operator cut the wires near the city and would hold the bookmakers at bay until the confederates in the city had time to place their bets on the winning horses, whose names they would receive direct from the track. A mob surrounded the Lincoln county (W. Va.) jail Friday night, forced an entrance, took out Green McCoy and Milton Haley, and hanged them. The two men are Kentuckians, and allied to the McCoy and Haley families whose murderous feud with the Hatfields is familiar to the public. McCoy and Haley were concerned in the recent killing of Al Beumfield and the wounding of his bride. The young man in prison at Philadelphia supposed to be Tascott, but who gives the name of Albert Sutherland, admits this is not his right name, but declines to reveal his identity. He declares he will not go to Chicago if he can help it, giving as a reason that public sentiment will convict him whether he be Tascott or not. The authorities here are strongly impressed with the belief that the prisoner is sought for murder. The Case of Consul Lewis. WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The hearing of the charges against W. R. Lewis, United States consul to Morocco, by Secretary Blaine, was concluded today. M. Bonezuli, the Fox merchant, and Ramon Azogue, formerly Lewis' interpreter, were examined at length. The finding of the department will be announced in a short time. A Prisoner Shot While Escaping. ALEXANDRIA, La., Oct. 28.—John B. Green, colored, was convicted Saturday of rape, the jury bringing in a verdict of "guilty, without capital punishment." While the sheriff was conveying him back to the jail the prisoner attempted to escape and was shot and killed. North Carolina Lynchers Arrested. RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 28.—About two weeks ago Robert Berry killed his mother-in-law at Lexington, N. C., and on being captured, was lynched. Solicitor Long has made an affidavit before Judge Phillips on which twenty of the lynchers have been arrested. Some of the ringleaders have fled. New York Wins Again. BROOKLYN, Oct. 28.—The eighth world's championship game was played today and resulted in an easy victory for New York. New York..... 5 4 1 2 0 3 0 0 1-16 Brooklyn..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-7 Base hits, New York 15; Brooklyn 5. Errors, New York 4; Brooklyn 4. Batteries, New York, Crane and Ewing; Brooklyn, Terry, Foutz and Visser. Umpires, Gaffney and Lynch. Fatal Wreck at Rahway. RAHWAY, N. J., Oct. 28.—A freight train on the Pennsylvania railway jumped the track at Main street here tonight. Several persons who were waiting for the train to pass were injured by the flying debris, three of them fatally. One car ran into the residence of John Wilson, penetrating to the parlor. Wilson's family narrowly escaped. Fifteen loaded cars were wrecked. Shot By a Political Tough. WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Edward Blunt, a well known lawyer and gentleman steed chaser and owner of several race horses was shot and seriously wounded this afternoon during an altercation in a saloon by George Monte, formerly proprietor of a notorious saloon in this city, but a non-political mover in Maryland. They Still Hold the Fort. PINEVILLE, Ky., Oct. 28.—Judge Lewis and posse are still in possession of the court house. Wilson Howard has not been seen since last Tuesday's battle, and it is generally believed he has crossed into Virginia. All the wounded in the fight are doing well, and will probably recover. Tenants' Defense League. DUBLIN, Oct. 28.—At the convention of the national tenants' defense league today at Thurlock, Lord Mayor Sexton and several members of parliament spoke. The objects of the league were approved, and those present promised to subscribe to the fund. Death of Guy A. Brown. LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 28.—Guy A. Brown, state librarian and reporter for the supreme court, died at his home in this city yesterday morning. He was a prominent man in the state and had done much to advance the interests of the protestant Episcopal church in the west. Five Persons Killed. LONDON, Oct. 28.—The general Trans-Atlantic line steamer Ville De Brest burst her boiler today. Five persons were killed by the explosion. Failed to Agree. DUBLIN, Oct. 28.—The jury in the case of Gallagher charged with being implicated in the murder of Police Inspector Martin at Gweedore failed to agree and were discharged. Foundered at Sea. LIVERPOOL, Oct. 28.—The British ship Ben from Calcutta for this port was foundered at sea. Thirty-three lives were lost.

WELL KNOWN IN HELENA.

The Woolston scandal creates a big sensation in Helena. BOSTON, Oct. 28.—The publication of the Woolston scandal created a sensation in this city where Mr. and Mrs. Woolston are so well known. Mrs. Woolston has received many letters from sympathizing friends. Investigation in this city shows that last summer Mr. Woolston refused to leave the Wells woman, when urged to do so by Mr. Turner of the Wisconsin Construction company. It was necessary to get Mrs. Woolston's signature to the legal transfer of the Helena (Montana) Waterworks plant to the city. It stood in Mr. Woolston's name, and could not be transferred without his wife's consent. The property aggregated more than $1,400,000 in value, and Mr. Woolston's personal share was $100,000. Mrs. Woolston refused, in the presence of her husband and Mr. Turner, to sign the paper unless Mr. Woolston would promise to abandon his mistress. He refused, saying he would sooner give up his share in the water works, and rather than subject him to such a loss Mrs. Woolston signed the document. It was stated by one or two of Woolston's friends that he started for Helena about two weeks ago.

Belief for Dakota Sufferers.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 28.—The board of trade this morning appointed a special committee to serve through the winter, whose business will be the collection and distribution of supplies in several counties in North and South Dakota. Additional reports have been received here concerning the distressing condition of things, and it is said at least 1,000 families in South Dakota are in a state of destitution. The county commissioners of South Dakota have authorized the purchase of coal, but can do no more. WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Representative Hensbrough of North Dakota, the new congressman, called upon Secretary Proctor today in the interest of the residents of Ramsay county. Crops have been bad the past two years and they are in a destitute condition as winter is approaching and they are not able to purchase fuel. Mr. Hensbrough has asked Secretary Proctor to permit the settlers to cut firewood from the timber tract on Devils Lake reservation. The secretary not being certain of his authority in the premises promised Hensbrough an answer to-morrow. He feels inclined to grant the request.

The Connors-Marshall Case.

DENVER, Oct. 28.—The jury in the famous Connors-Marshall case, wherein the defendants are charged with conspiracy to rob a Rio Grande express train near Gunnison last April to-night returned a verdict of guilty in all five counts. A considerable interest was manifested in the case as the defendants are well-known men. Jim Connors was at one time first lieutenant of the Denver police and Marshall was proprietor of one of the largest gambling halls in Kansas city. This is the second trial. The first resulted in a hung jury. It is understood that a motion will be made for a new trial. Gilmore Jubilee at Denver. DENVER, Col., Oct. 28.—The opening performance of Gilmore's concert to-night at the new Metropolitan theater proved the most successful affair of the kind ever held in this city. The enormous building was packed to the utmost, even standing room being at a premium. The enthusiasm was so great that Gilmore on several occasions was compelled to respond three or four times before he could continue the programme. The participation of a local chorus of 250 proved an additional treat. Perhaps He is Tascott After All. CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—A despatch was received by the police late to-night from Philadelphia authorities saying that the prisoner Sutherland, now under arrest on suspicion of being Tascott, has admitted to the police that he knew Tascott and played billiards with him in Chicago. This is taken by Chicago officers as tending to confirm the belief that the real Tascott has at last been captured. Photographs of the suspect have not yet arrived. Government Employees Assessed. WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The old dominion republican league, undismayed by the threat of prosecution which Civil Service Commissioner Thompson said would be brought against all persons soliciting political contributions of government employees, to-night appointed a committee to take to the departments next Friday and receive money solicited in their political assessment circular. Clearing House Exchanges. BOSTON, Oct. 28.—A dispatch from the managers of the clearing houses in the United States and Canada shows the total gross exchanges for the week ending October 26, were $1,192,893,382, an increase of 8.6 per cent, compared with the corresponding week last year. Shot in a House of Ill Fame. GUTHRIE, I. T., Oct. 28.—In a quarrel in a house of ill fame to-night Charles Taylor, a butcher, shot and killed Sergeant T. C. Karon of company D, thirteenth regiment infantry. The excitement among the soldiers is great. Parties of them are searching for Taylor, and if caught he may be lynched. Big Blaze in Koenigsberg. BERLIN, Oct. 28.—The docks in Koenigsberg were burned today. An enormous amount of damage was done. A Sudden Rise. From the Boston Courier. Englishmen—Men rise suddenly in this country I have been told, especially out west. American—They do that, you bet. "Yes sire, I knew a man who got to the top of the tree and there so quick that he had hardly time to say a prayer. He stayed there, too, until they cut him down and buried him. Great country this, sir." He Wished It Wiped Out. From Texas Sitings. Friend (to veteran editor)—Have you ever written a line that you would wish to wipe out? Veteran (sadly)—Yes, once. When was that? When I indorsed a friend's note and had to pay it. A Time for Everything. From Harper's Bazar. Mother—Come, Johnny. It's past time to get up. Johnnie—Then I'll lie abed till it comes round again. No Money in It. From Puck. Smartee—Hullo, Sharppe! How's Christian Science doing? Sharppe—Oh, I've got up Christian Science an' gone back to plain bunko.
