

SUNOL IS THE QUEEN

Senator Stanford's Filly Lowers the Record for Three-Year-Olds.

Astell's Record Beaten by One and One-Half Seconds—Other Records Broken by Thoroughbreds in California Yesterday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 9.—Senator Stanford's filly Sunol broke the three-year-old record at the Bay District track this afternoon. She trotted a mile in 2:10 1/2. This lowered the three-year-old record of 2:12 recently made by Astell. During the last four weeks horsemen have been greatly interested in the test of Sunol's capabilities, and when the filly was brought out this afternoon there was a fair crowd present to witness her performance. She was accompanied by a runner during the trial. The start was made with the latter about a furlong behind. Sunol reached the quarter in 32 seconds, she went a half in 1:05, and it then seemed certain that barring a break she would succeed in lowering the record. Her time to the third quarter was 1:37 1/4. The runner pressed her closely down the stretch and Marvin, her driver, applied the whip, but the colt did not make the slightest skip and passed under the wire in 2:10 1/2.

When time was announced there was wild cheering among the spectators and the enthusiasm continued several minutes. Von Wilkes' yearling stallion record of 2:38 1/2 was also lowered this afternoon by Count Valoisius Faustus, who trotted a mile in 2:35. A third record lowered at the Bay District track today was by Regal Wilkes, who started to beat Astell's two-year-old stallion record of 2:25, 2:23. Regal Wilkes trotted a mile with out a skip in 2:23 1/2.

Stamboul also trotted today to make 2:12 on a wager made some time ago that he would accomplish the feat before the close of the year. His time today was 2:13 1/2, which lowered his own record by one second.

Fate Alton started to beat the stallion record of 2:12 but he broke badly on the stretch and finished in 2:12 1/2.

Last Day at Nashville. NASHVILLE, Nov. 9. Today was the last day of the races at West Side park. Two year olds, four furlongs—Nathie P. won, Kenilworth second, Revival third. Time 52 1/2.

Seven furlongs—Somerset won, Consignee second, Katie S. third. Time 1:39 1/2.

Free handicap, mile—Rival won, McMurrie second, Argenta third. Time 1:48 1/2.

Same conditions as third—Hornup won, Montu Hardy second, Queen of Trumps third. Time 1:49 1/2.

Free handicap, for two year olds, five furlongs—Sisolee won, Zulfala second, Armit third. Time 1:37.

Same conditions as fifth—Basil Duke won, Cecil B. second, B. Fred third. Time 1:36 1/2.

Five furlongs—Dunlop won, Weekes second, Phobus third. Time 1:37 1/2.

Five furlongs—Tom Karl won, Robin second, Germanie third. Time 1:36.

Winners at Elizabeth. ELIZABETH, N. J., Nov. 9.—Six furlongs—Blue Rock won, Puzzle second, Bradford third. Time 1:39.

Mile and one-eighth—Dunboyne won, Heyday second, Theogorus third. Time 2:35.

Six furlongs—Crackman won, Harrisburg second, Radiant third. Time 1:27.

Six furlongs—Freedom won, Arab second, Royal Carter third. Time 1:23.

Nine and one-half furlongs—Regan Colt won, Gunwad second, Veronica third. Time 1:24.

Mile—Bravo won, King Idle second, Gelett third. Time 1:52 1/2.

Sent to Prison for Life. SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 9.—Harry Ginn alias Jim Huff, a native of Virginia, Frank Curran alias Chiram Turin, a native of Iowa and Jason of Alabama, who murdered the superintendent and robbed the San Pedro coal company's office of $5,000 at Carthage, in May last was brought here today and placed in the penitentiary to serve life sentences. They were captured last June at Matador, 65 miles west of Childress, Texas and when arraigned in the district court at Socorro last week pleaded guilty. They formerly were Texas cowboys and are under 15 years of age.

Colonel Goodloe's Condition. LEXINGTON, Nov. 9.—Col. Goodloe, at 4:40 p. m. underwent an operation, who was under the influence of an anesthetic. His physicians fear he will not recover, as alarming symptoms set in this afternoon. Dr. Whitney at 12 o'clock to-night said: "Col. Goodloe is in a critical condition. If there is any change he has rallied slightly in the last two hours." The hotel lobby was crowded all day by persons anxious to hear the latest bulletins from the wounded man.

Navassa Rioters Indicted. BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.—The United States grand jury today indicted eighteen of the 124 Navassa rioters for murder and being accessories before the fact, the penalty for which is death. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Collum Defends Himself. MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 9.—J. Frank Collum was placed on the stand today in the case in which he is defendant. He swore that his confession was made under the influence of great mental strain caused by anxiety to help Mr. Blaisdell out of his troubles. He said there was not one word of truth in the confession and that every note signed by Blaisdell was genuine.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

Germany's Educated Men. The number of highly educated men in Germany is increasing quite rapidly, despite the growing public opinion that there are already too many learned Germans. In 1869 97,631 students attended the universities, technical high schools, and schools of arts. Seven are charged as principals and eleven as having aided and abetted the murders. Thomas G. Hayes, United States district attorney, will ask for their immediate trial.

MONTANA NEWS.

Milton Conley has been appointed postmaster at East Helena, Lewis and Clarke county, vice H. H. Clark, removed, and C. R. Perry was appointed postmaster at Garrison, Deer Lodge county, vice John Gerber, resigned.

The Silver Mountain Mining Company have filed articles of incorporation, with a capital stock of $1,000,000, in 100,000 shares of $5 each. The incorporators are J. E. Richards, John Helshan, George Floerchinger, Philip A. Ganser, John Floerchinger and W. H. Nichols. The base of operations will be in Madison county, near Melrose, with principal office in Butte.

John Steinmetz, Morgan F. Lewis and Charles B. Garrett have incorporated the J. Steinmetz Jewelry Company with a capital stock of $50,000 in 500 shares of $100 each. The operations of the company will be carried on in Helena.

Franklin Newell, who lives on a ranch at Colorado gulch, brought in the news of a suicide there this morning and took out Coroner Follenius to look after the remains. The subject was Louis Weikert, better known as Soldier Louis, a German woodchopper about 45 years of age, who had returned to his cabin on Wednesday night after being on a protracted spree in Helena. He had been dissipating heavily, and it is supposed killed himself while crazed from the effects of drink. He was found dead in bed this morning with his brains scattered on the blankets, and an empty rifle standing beside the bed to tell the tale of self-destruction. The remains will probably be brought to Helena for burial. —Herald.

Dave Brooks and Dave Penwell, who were out in the vicinity of John T. Moore's one day last week for a hunt, shot at a wolf and immediately a bear leaped down from a tree and fled. The hunters made haste to pursue but were soon outstripped, and returning home procured horses and again took Bruin's trail, who, being chased by five large wolves, made good time. There were numerous evidences along the trail where the wolves attacked the bear and a desperate fight ensued. In the meantime Fred Lewis, who was hunting in the same vicinity, struck the trail, and overtaking the wolves, killed one and wounded another. But the remaining wolves, nothing daunted by the loss of numbers, continued to pursue the bear, and it is not known whether they overtook him or not. On examination of the tree where Bruin was started it was found that the bark was scratched where the wolves had endeavored to reach their prey. This is the first instance that we have heard of wolves attacking a bear. —Rocky Mountain Husbandman.

Petition has been filed with the district court by the St. Louis Mining & Milling company, of Marysville, asking for a survey of the underground workings of the great Drum Lammun mine, the property of the Montana company, limited. This is one of those cases so frequently met with in mining in which one company has reason to think that another company operating near them has run its underground workings into their domain and is taking out their ore. The claims owned by the petitioners are not extensions of those of the Drum Lammun, but lie along side of the latter, farther up the hill. The Lammun people claim that a survey will fail to show the slightest encroachment on the petitioners' property, while the latter maintain that the tunnels of the Drum Lammun have been driven across its ground in order to reach other ground beyond. The survey, in case the petition is granted, will be at the expense of the petitioner. —Herald.

Thursday evening about 8 o'clock a collision occurred on the motor line at the Muth siding. This is where the trains pass. The through train always backs onto the side track and leaves the main line clear for the incoming train. This was done as usual, but the conductor of the out train forgot to close the switch after he had backed on the siding. The incoming train pulled in at a high rate of speed and dashed right into the train on the side track. The shock was severe and the passengers in both trains were badly shaken up, but no one was injured. Both motors had their pilots smashed, but no damage was done to the engines. —Herald.

Orders have been sent to the agents of the Union Pacific road to the effect that the company will do no through business in connection with the Manitoba system. This will cut off the Montana Central from its Spokane Falls business, as it does away with the contract recently made by which a through line was established from St. Paul to Spokane. Passenger Agent A. E. Vezio of the Union Pacific has been advised by a circular issue by his company that on and after October 10, 1889, all traffic arrangements with the Montana Central and Manitoba railways cease. On that date the Union Pacific will discontinue the sale of through tickets and through checking of baggage and also through billing of freight. Several men were seen yesterday and the opinion seems to be that this move is caused by the Northwestern road, with which the Union Pacific has a contract or combination to haul all freight and passengers west of the latter's Omaha line, and therefore could not make any contract via St. Paul by which any other road could handle the Chicago business. The same men say there may be other reasons, and that the one given above may be wrong but it is their idea. —Journal.

Sheriff Dan Heyfron arrived from Missoula county yesterday and spent a portion of the day in serving subpoenas on Helena parties who are wanted as witnesses in the cases of Wintinger and Allen, who are confined in the Missoula jail, charged with the poisoning of Joseph Schryver, about the middle of October. Ex-Governor Leslie is one of the witnesses and went to Missoula yesterday, and several other Helena parties went today. The case is a peculiar one. Wintinger, Allen and Schryver, the latter the victim, were ranchmen in the Flathead Lake country. Schryver came past the Wintinger ranch one day and was invited to go to dinner. The invitation was accepted and after the meal the three men went hunting. After being out awhile Wintinger invited Schryver to take a drink from a bottle of brandy. Schryver did so and died in an hour, after a number of horrible convulsions. Allen is held more as a witness than as a principal in the crime, but the chain of evidence against Wintinger seems to be complete. Sheriff Heyfron goes to Great Falls after more witnesses. —Journal.

Estes & Connell have received their new fall stock of clothing.

WRECKED HER LIFE.

Pathetic Romance of a Young Girl Who Was Duped by Her Supposed Husband.

From the Detroit Free Press. "A strange and peculiarly interesting romance came to my notice a few days ago," remarked a Central Division detective yesterday. "Thirteen years ago a very attractive young maiden of 17 was a favorite member of a troupe of singers and bell ringers which was composed almost entirely of members of the family to which the young woman belonged. The troupe traveled the country from sea to sea, meeting with the most flattering success wherever they offered an entertainment. Our 17-year-old heroine, by her beauty, her grace of manner, her amiability, and her accomplishments as a singer, musician, and dancer, won the admiration of many. Among her most devoted and persistent admirers was a fine appearing and cultured man of 45, who laid siege to the maiden's heart with such ardor and unremitting perseverance that finally she capitulated. He was a man of ample fortune, had one child, a young son, and told his fiancée that he had been a widower some five years or more. At his earnest entreaty she resigned her position and married him. Things moved on pleasantly for six years, when her husband was stricken with paralysis, and to the care and comfort of the family and spouse this good woman consecrated the rest of her life. She was constantly by the sick man's side, caring for him as she would a babe. Finally word came to her care of the wonderful healing powers of the Mt. Clemens mineral waters.

"Straightway she journeyed to that refuge of the lame and halt, filled with the hope that the healing powers of the famed waters would relieve him, if they did not restore him to perfect health. Arrived at Mount Clemens, she might be seen day after day, month after month, wheeling the paralyzed and emaciated form of her invalid husband from their boarding house to the bath house and back again. Every one commended the fidelity of this beautiful woman to her helpless charge.

"One afternoon she chanced to be looking over a stack of old letters, and while thus engaged found one addressed to her stepson, and signed 'Your affectionate mother.' Filled with wonder and amazement, she went to the youth and asked him what it meant. He hesitated, and, after a moment, faltered out the explanation that his mother was alive when his father married the second time, but died six months later. Not satisfied with this, she went to her husband and demanded to know of him whether his first wife was dead. The paralytic was forced, under a rigid questioning, to admit that so it was. No, I was alive and residing in Syracuse, N. Y. From her he had never been legally separated, never had even quarrels with her, but being taken captive by the charms of the heroine of this tale, had forgotten his wife and his allegiance to her, and had wooed and won her with the aid of a doctor who had been through years of helplessness and pain.

"The deceived and horror-stricken woman, who found herself with no wife at all, made no scene, but calmly accepted the situation, resolved to make the best of a bad matter, wrote to Syracuse, ascertained the address of the genuine wife, and, who placed she had innocently married, informed her just how matters stood, insisted that she come to her long-lost husband, and, she never again was heard of bringing about a reconciliation between the parties. She made it clear to them both that they owed it to their son as well as to themselves to spend the remainder of their lives together, and so, not long ago, she set out with them for their eastern home, accompanying them as far as Rochester, where there was a most interesting and successful scene enacted. The broken and miserable man sobbing and crying as if his heart would burst as he gazed for the last time on earth into the eyes of the one woman he had loved.

Back to Michigan and Detroit came this deeply wronged woman, and with a courage that nothing could daunt began life anew, relying on her own unaided efforts to secure a livelihood. As a dressmaker she has supported herself comfortably, and never again has she been heard of to murmur or cry out at the cruelty of fate. A week ago she left this city for Nova Scotia, where I understand she has been assured a comfortable home.

"If lovely and attractive at 17, she now at 34 is regally beautiful, and perhaps the soft tinge of melancholy that casts but the suspicion of a shadow on her fair face helps to render more striking a beauty that even age cannot wither."

Rutherford is Rattled.

A slender little man, whose tuft of gray whiskers was sprinkled with gray and who is an ex-mayor of the town, says a Rutherford, (N. J.) letter to the New York Sun, stood on the depot platform this morning and related to a crowd of interested listeners his adventures of the night previous.

"I was going home last night about 6 o'clock, when I saw a big black and white one walking slowly up the planks in front of me. My, but he was a big one! I was going to give him a light, and began to feel around for a couple of stones, when I happened to remember that I had a new suit of clothes on. That settled it. I shinned over the fence and flew over the fields like a cannon-ball. It took me an hour to get the mud and dirt off me, but I was not at all tired. I found all the windows of the house closed. It was like a Turkish bath.

"Why don't you have some air in your house?" "Because they are around again to-night thicker than ever, and I prefer to have the air all on the outside," said my wife.

"I thought so, too, and I staid home last night."

The whole town is rattled. It is a somewhat peculiar case. Yet the man and even the women see them prowling about at night. The temperance people, who at first tried to lay the blame on the two or three saloons and the houses where they had to take water because they have seen them, too. It is a strange state of things for a modest little village like this, only nine miles distant from the great metropolis.

Husbands who have been in the habit of spending their evenings at the club have suddenly become simply scared, and they do not care to run the risk of meeting one late at night.

Every night windows are closed as carefully as though a tremendous storm were brewing, and in fact a big storm is making itself felt. Something will have to be done, and that soon, or Rutherford after sundown will be a dead town.

The Grand Duchess Vladimir, who is lying dangerously ill at Peterhof, is to be made the subject of a curious surgical experiment if all the other resources of modern science fail. Prof. Reiter, who has charge of the case, will, as a last resort, try the operation of transfusion, but not by using the blood of any other animal organization. He will instead employ artificial blood, made by himself for the purpose, composed chiefly of an albumen, iron, and salt solution.

Underwear,

Hosiery,

Gloves,

Hats,

Caps,

For Men.

Lowest Prices Guaranteed.

Geo. B. Temple

Montana Hotel.

New Blacksmith Shop,

One Block West of Estes &amp; Connell's.

ALL KINDS OF REPAIRING DONE

On short notice. Carriages and sleighs. Trained in the Best Style at Lowest Possible Prices.

Horseshoeing a Specialty

By FRANK HAMILL,

Who thoroughly understands all the diseases peculiar to the feet.

Trotting, Running and Training Plates made in the most approved style. Give us a call and learn our prices.

R. P. BURCH.

Goldberg's JEWELRY PALACE!

The Finest Establishment in the Northwest.

DEALER IN

Fine Watch

Repairing a Specialty.

Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry and Silverware.

DAVE GOLDBERG,

12 Main St., Butte, Mont.

M. S. L.

The MONTANA STATE LOTTERY will hold its Fourth Monthly Drawing, Class "D," in public, at Butte City, Saturday, Nov. 16, 1889.

Tickets $1.00 each, 11 tickets for $10.00.

This lottery gives more and larger prizes in proportion to the number of tickets issued than any other lottery in the world. AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE. If you have not been lucky in other lotteries try the Montana State. For tickets, circulars and other information, address

J. J. JACOBS,

Butte City, Mont.

We pay express charges on all orders for tickets of $5.00 or over.

Just received at

TH. EHRET'S

One Carload of Spring, One Carload of Mattresses, 100 Bedroom Suits.

One Carload of the Finest Parlor Furniture ever brought to Montana.

A FULL LINE OF OFFICE DESKS, Bookcases and Secretaries.

D. G. BROWNELL, PROPRIETOR.

Buggies, Saddles and Horses for Hire.

Also proprietor of Passenger, Baggage and press line. Connection made with all trains.

Office and Stable First street, Anaconda, Mont.

Office and Stable First street, Anaconda, Mont.

Office and Stable First street, Anaconda, Mont.