THE WEATHER.

The daily record of the thermometer in this city is reported by A. T. Playter, druggist, First street. The record for yesterday was: 7 a. m., 21 degrees; 12 m., 53 degrees; 4 p. m., 57 degrees; 8 p. m., 33 degrees.

Subscriptions to the Standard will be received at the business office, or at the store of Crockett & King, Main street. Advertising notices can be inserted at the business office, Standard Building, corner of Main and Third streets.

ABOUT THE CITY.

Mrs. Lizzie Schilling gave birth to two bouncing boys last night. In the police court yesterday Joseph Carabe was fined $10 and costs for disturbing the peace.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Stebbins has returned from Garrison, to which place he was called on Wednesday in anticipation of trouble among the striking railroad men. There was no trouble.

Rev. S. E. Snider, presiding elder of the M. E. church, will preach in the M. E. parsonage Monday evening next, and at the close of the public service will preside over the quarterly conference.

Charles Collins went skating on Thanksgiving day. The ice broke and he very narrowly escaped drowning. A pole was thrust into the water, and he succeeded in grabbing it. He was drawn out with difficulty, but finally landed safely on terra firma.

The lecture of Rev. Dr. McLaughlin next Thursday evening for the benefit of St. Paul's church will be one of the treats of the season, and adherents to other than the Catholic denomination will find Father McLaughlin a profound thinker as well as a brilliant and captivating orator.

Jessie Couthou, the famous elocutionist, will appear at the Presbyterian church on the evening of December 10 for the benefit of the public school library. Her power of mimicry are very wonderful, and she is in every way worthy of the flattering press notices she everywhere receives.

FRENCH CHOP HOUSE CLOSED.

Mr. Hughes' butchers insisting upon the settlement of their bill. In Justice Aspling's court yesterday an attachment was issued against Frank Hughes & Co., proprietors of the French chop house on First street. The plaintiffs are Hunsinger, Burnett & Burnett, the butchers. Their bill from July 22 to Nov. 25 was $139.21, of which they claim that $300 is still due. Upon the service of the papers, Constable Thomas Hernon took possession of the cashier's desk, and remained in control of the place until it was closed in the evening. Mr. Hughes is a young man and has many friends who will sympathize with him in his present financial embarrassment.

All members of Copper City Council No. 373, National Union, are requested to attend a meeting to be held in Daly's Hall, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 3, 1898. All those who subscribed their names for charter membership, also those who have not had medical examination are requested to do so, and appear at the lodge room on above date. Charter rates expire by limitation Dec. 4, 1898. By order of council, F. A. WYMAN, Secretary.

Estes & Connell's $3.00 ladies' cloak is worth $9.00. McCallum & Co. have a large stock of turkeys and chickens, at bottom prices. A. T. Playter has just received a large stock of paints and window glass.

Visiting cards neatly written, at Tripp's Institute. Mrs. Warren has neatly and tastefully refitted the Oakland House on East Second street, formerly known as the Saratoga Hotel. Desirable rooms can be had on reasonable terms.

At Estes & Connell's the cheapest all wool hosiery every offered for sale in Anaconda. Drink Bohemian or Hofbrau beer at Beck's Charlemain's, the only place in the city to get it.

All shades of plushes at Estes & Connell's for 25 cents. Loose & Maxwell are closing out their clothing, and offering same regardless of cost.

AN OFF DAY AT HELENA

No Quorum in the Lower House and No New Developments.

The Senators Hire a New Hall and Adopt Resolutions—A Scheme to Unseat a Democratic Senator—The Mineral Land Convention.

Special to the Standard. HELENA, Nov. 20.—The house of representatives met this afternoon, but as no quorum was present an adjournment was taken until 10 a. m. to-morrow. Representative Comly's resolution of Wednesday will again come up for general discussion, in which it is expected that the majority of the representatives will participate. The republican senators met this evening, went through the usual formality and adjourned until to-morrow.

The rump met again to-day. A resolution on mineral lands similar to that which the house was refused on Wednesday was adopted and arrangements were concluded for moving into rooms in the Granite block. They have finally secured Rev. F. T. Webb, of this city, for chaplain. The latest political rumor is that W. H. Watson, of Lewiston, the unsuccessful opponent of Senator McNamara, will ask that the latter be refused on the ground of disqualification. Mr. McNamara is a partner in a post-trading establishment at Fort Maginnis, on a government reservation. It is held by the republicans, that living on the reservation, he is not a resident of the county and consequently not qualified to be a senatorial seat. Senator McNamara has the best legal authority for stating that this nonsensical scheme will fail to work. In any event the republicans will gain nothing, for the senate being the only judge of the qualifications of its members, cannot be organized without the consent of the democratic senators.

Senator McNamara is a heavy taxpayer in Fernan county, and there need be no fears that he will lose his seat. The Herald this evening says that Ex-Gov. White's private secretary, Benjamin Webster, notified Governor Toole immediately after his inauguration that the certificates found a few days ago were incomplete, and should be sent to Ex-Governor White. Concerning this matter Governor Toole says that the statement is false, and that he never heard of nor saw the certificates until they were found by his own private secretary, Mr. Lacroix.

The mineral land convention was called to order to-day by Hon. Louis Mantle, who delivered an address outlining the situation, stating what had been accomplished by the committees formerly appointed and urged a prompt and fearless action on behalf of the miners and other people of the state against the aggressions of the Northern Pacific. There was a large and enthusiastic attendance. Dr. A. M. Mitchell of Deer Lodge was elected president and Hon. John W. Baskett of Jefferson, secretary.

FIRE IN THE ROW.

Belle Riley's Disreputable House Wiped Out of Existence.

The inmates of Belle Riley's disreputable house, on Hickory street, between Front and First streets, spent Thanksgiving night somewhat hilariously, and as a consequence did not rise very early yesterday. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon two of them were still sitting down to breakfast, while a third had not yet completed her toilet. The Chinese servant suddenly burst into the dining room with the information that the house was all afire. So quickly did the flames spread that the three girls, Belle Riley, Lottie Lockwood and Ida Bates, barely had time to make the escape. The fire broke out in the scene managed to drag out of the blaze two trunks and the parlor furniture, a set superbly upholstered in old gold plush, which was completely destroyed. An alarm was sounded and the firemen responded with amazing alacrity. The Standard Hose Company, led by the boys' organization, had a stream on the fire in no time, Captain Canovan directing them with the aid of a veteran. The Alert Hose Company had the fire under control within a few minutes after they began operations. It looked at one time as if the jail on the north and the house on the south, a place of the same character as the Riley house, were also to be destroyed, but very little wind was stirring and the work of the firemen was sharp and effective.

The house was completely gutted. It was owned by Ernest Yaeckel. About three weeks ago Fitz Patrick & Aspling canceled a policy of $1,000 which they had been carrying on the house. The Riley woman had no insurance on her property. The loss on the house is estimated at $700, and on the furniture at about $300. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to be due to the carelessness of the Chinaman.

WITHDRAWING THEIR SUIT.

Ah Teo and Ah Sing Conclude to Keep Out of the Mexican man's Courts. All Chinatown was in a ferment of excitement yesterday morning, when the great case of Ah Teo versus Ah Sing was to be tried before Judge Fitzgerald. There are two sets, or two companies of Chinamen in this city, between whom a bitter and lasting rivalry exists. Ah Teo is a leading representative of one side and Ah Sing is a conspicuous member of the other party. The differences between the two factions involve religion, politics and pretty much everything else of a celestial nature, and date back several thousand years.

Ah Teo claimed that Ah Sing owed him the sum of $80, failing to collect which he thought he would test the efficacy of American courts. On the other hand, Ah Sing preferred a criminal charge against Ah Teo, claiming that the latter drew a knife with intent to slay him and offer him a living sacrifice to Ah Teo's infernal gods.

There was, therefore, a great jabbering in Chinatown yesterday morning. Both sides seemed to be a little distrustful of the Mexican man's courts. They were fearful lest the law should be against them should be thrown into jail. Through the intervention of their lawyers they succeeded in settling the case, at least it was so announced by Judge Fitzgerald, and the trial was declared off.

For Rent.

This is the season for ladies to purchase a nice wrap. It will pay our lady readers to look at D. J. Hennessy Mercantile Co.'s advertisement of "Special Wrap Sale" for "one week only." This firm will keep their word in all statements they make.

AMUSEMENTS.

Several Good Theatrical Entertainments Announced for the Week.

The Hyper Sisters appear at Evans opera house next Monday evening in their clever and realistic play "Out of Bandage." This is a genuine darky play, with real darky actors, and they make more fun to the square inch than can easily be imagined. People who want to laugh themselves nearly into the grave have the opportunity before them.

The Grier-Davies combination which will present "The Tigris" at Evans opera house Tuesday evening comes highly recommended. Of the company the San Francisco Daily Report says: "The Tigris," a play in a prologue and four acts, was produced at the Bush street theater last night for the first time in San Francisco, and received the attention of a large and critical audience. The present acting version follows the book pretty closely, however, and is presented with a strong and fairly sustained account, the Italian adventurer, whom he makes an impressive character, very like the pulchritudinous figure in the book. Miss Plimbe Davies as the deceived and abandoned flower girl of the prologue and the governess of the play, has a role in which her best qualities find scope, and in which she is well supported by the remarkable power and intensity, Miss Isabella Archer, who plays The Tigris, comes near in appearance and manner to the "wildcat" herself. Bright dialogue, clever people, showy scenery, musical music and fetching costumes are the most important features which insure the success of Fraser & Gill's spectacular pantomimic burlesque, the "Spider and Fly," which appears at Evans opera house next Wednesday evening. The scenes are essentially a new and novel. Prominent among them is a gymnasium interior with its outfit of poles, bars, ropes, swings, trapeze fixings and other paraphernalia. A dozen handsome girls are at their various athletic, gymnastic and calisthenic exercises. The picture presented on the stage in this scene is entirely new and beautiful. Other scenes in the "Spider and Fly," are a cash girl's entry and chorus, and a railroad chorus, in which the girls are attired to represent the conductors of the best known local and transcontinental lines.

Next Thursday evening that favorite actor Maxie Rankin, will appear at the Evans opera house in "The Runaway Wife," a beautiful domestic story interpreted by a powerful cast including Miss Mabel Best, late leading lady of the California theater, and the wonderful child actress, Lillian Gish, who is now a star of 5 years of age. Mr. Rankin is well known here and no doubt will fill the opera house with his many friends who remember his part in "The Runaway Wife" as interpreted by Mr. Rankin and his truly famous company.

ECHOS OF THANKSGIVING.

A Day of Big Dinners and Quiet Enjoyment Everywhere.

Thanksgiving was spent by the people of this city without fuss or feathers, all fuss and feathers having been confined to the poultry yard. About 6 o'clock in the evening a great many people exhibited signs of internal distress, going around with their hands upon their stomachs as if endeavoring to prevent themselves from bursting. Time and the application of a little pepsin, however, allayed any fears in this direction, and the evening was spent at jolly parties or quiet soirees. The Episcopal church was busy all day endeavoring to prevent themselves from bursting. Time and the application of a little pepsin, however, allayed any fears in this direction, and the evening was spent at jolly parties or quiet soirees. The Episcopal church was busy all day endeavoring to prevent themselves from bursting. Time and the application of a little pepsin, however, allayed any fears in this direction, and the evening was spent at jolly parties or quiet soirees.

The New England dinner prepared at the parsonage by the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church well attended, and was thoroughly enjoyed. The net proceeds will reach at least $100. As was expected, the ball of the Select Knights A. O. U. W. was a splendid success. The programme of dances was carried out to the letter, and with the large assemblage of ladies and gentlemen present the evening was a most brilliant and fascinating appearance. At midnight a choice supper was served at the L. X. L. restaurant. Too much credit cannot be given to the orchestra which under the direction of Prof. Kennicot, furnished truly delicious music. It was demonstrated beyond contradiction that Anaconda is not without an orchestra of actual merit.

Something Like it.

From Balyhood.

One of our neighbors, a little boy of nine years, had learned his verse at Sunday school, "I have planted, Apollon watered." The next Sabbath the verse was called for; no one in the class could remember it. Our little friend, however, had a glimmer of light, and holding up his hand, said: "I can't remember exactly what it was, but I know it was something about apollinaris water!"

TO TAKE NO CHANCES

Superintendent Carroll Will Not Open the Anaconda for Some Days.

The Experiment With Dogs Will Not Be Tried for Another Week—A Man Who Was Missing Turns Up All Right.

Special to the Standard. BUTTE, Nov. 20.—The Anaconda mine has not yet been opened and nobody really knows what may be the condition of things below the surface. Between 8 and 11 o'clock last night five explosions were heard by people of Butte, who thought they were in the Anaconda mine. Superintendent Carroll declared emphatically to-night that no explosions took place there and hence the explosions are unaccounted for. Superintendent Carroll says to-night that he has decided not to try the experiment of lowering dogs into the mine for at least a week yet. Meantime steam will continue to be turned into the mine in full force.

A STANDARD reporter to-night investigated one of the rumors which are prevalent regarding more men being dead in the mine than has been reported. One of the men said to be lost is John Williams. His friends say he worked at the Anaconda mine and has not been seen since the disaster. A STANDARD reporter, learning that Williams' mother lives at 409 West Mercury street, near the Catholic church, went there and found Williams himself in the house. Williams said he had worked on night shift at the Anaconda mine and the last night he worked was the one before the fire. He immediately afterward began working at a brick yard, which accounts for the fact that he was missed by his comrades. Another man said to be missing is Sullivan, another one of that name besides the one known to be in the mine. Nothing authentic can be learned regarding his disappearance. It is a week now since the Anaconda disaster and Lyons is still unemployed. He is very low and hopes of his recovery are faint.

This evening Leonard Macleay, a Finlander, went into Johnson's saloon on East Park street, brought one dollar worth of drinks and for payment presented a check which purported to be for $2,000 or for $30.30, according to the way one looked at it. The latter sum mentioned on the face of the check and the former sum was named in the figures on the margin. Macleay said he got the check from Green & Keefe but the check looked suspicious. A man as could be made out it was signed Lou Armour and made payable to Leja Keefe. Macleay was socked up to await investigation. It is thought by some that the check has been passed on him and he has been made a dupe.

Considerable excitement was created to-day in the vicinity of Butte by a man who was passing from place to place and inquiring in ghostly accents, "have you seen two spirits pass this way?" Everybody recognized the speaker as Hutchings, a woodchopper, who lives in a cabin near Brown's gulch. He inquired of everybody in Brown's gulch if they had seen the spirits around the gulch but all were too frightened to answer him. He was looking, he said, for the spirits of his sister and his aunt. He was sure they were somewhere in that region and he stated that they had been hidden. Not finding the spirits at Brown's gulch, he started to go to Butte and reached here to-night. He started the citizens of Butte in a panic by inquiring: "Have you seen any spirits around here to-night?" Officer Leyden arrested Hutchings and took him to the county jail to await examination as to his sanity.

McManus, accused of stealing an overcoat, was to-night sentenced for 90 days and $100 fine, with costs.

Two overcoats were stolen from No. 311 North Main street to-night by some unknown parties.

The St. Andrew's eve ball of the Benevolent Society to-night at Benbow Hall was a signal success. To the music of the bag-pipe 200 lads and lasses participated in the grand march. The Scotchmen were in the majority at the time rendered the ball room a picturesque scene. The ball was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. Messrs. McGregor, Cameron, McKensie, Ross, Tull and Gregg were members of the committee of arrangements.
