NEW STATES HONORED

How the Senators Fared in the Making of Committees.

Senator Morgan's Plan for Settling the Negro Question—Nominations Considered by the Senate—The Democratic Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The republican senatorial caucus this afternoon adopted the report of Platt's committee upon the reorganization of the committees. The new committees are as follows: On immigration (standing)—Chandler, Hale, Everts, Squire, Pettigrew.

Quadracentennial celebration of the discovery of America (special)—Hiscock, Sherman, Ingalls, Cameron, Hawley, Farwell, Stanford, Wilson, of Iowa.

Indian depredations (special)—Moody, Paddock, Chandler, Allen. The new senators give memberships are as follows: Chandler, immigration (chairman), naval affairs, epidemic diseases, Indian depredations; Dixon of Rhode Island, post officers and postoffice matters, revolutionary claims, additional accommodations for the library; Moody of South Dakota, Indian depredation (chairman), mines and mining, pensions, immigration; Squire of Washington, coast defense, public buildings and grounds, executive departments, transportation routes to seaboard, immigration.

To provide these places the caucus committee had in the first place vacancies on several committees, some of the older senators resigned from others, and the membership of committees were increased, none of the more important committees being changed.

In the Senate. WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The senate finance committee reported back adversely the bill to provide for the organization of national banks with less capital than $50,000. The consideration of the bills introduced to-day were the following: By Mr. Chandler, to amend the laws relative to elective franchise and providing under certain contingencies for the conduct of elections by federal officers, on the petition of a certain percentage of voters that they believe an election will be unfairly held by the postoffice, etc.; by Mr. Spooner, making it the duty of proper officers of the treasury and interior department to adjust and settle the claims of any state against the United States for all lands disposed of by the United States; by Mr. Squire, for the erection of public buildings at Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane Falls, Washington, each to cost not to exceed $300,000; by Mr. Spooner, a memorial signed by 20 of his former constituents praying that banks, saloons, betting shops and other mercantile bodies and individuals be prohibited from fixing the value of the produce of American farms by sales for future delivery.

The resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Turpin as to trusts, was taken up and Mr. Turpin proceeded to address the senate upon it. He said that the trusts of this age and generation. The trust was a nuisance, open and notorious, but it could not be grappled with and suppressed as other nuisances had been.

Legislation on trusts in bills introduced by Messrs. Sherman and George. The senate this afternoon confirmed the following nominations: Robert C. Johnson, New York, general land officer of the census; Lewis A. Groff of Nebraska, commissioner of the general land office; Wm. M. Stone of Iowa, assistant commissioner of the general land office; James M. Townsend of Indiana, recorder of the general land office.

Senator Morgan's Plan. WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The democratic members will meet in caucus shortly to arrange the minority representation on committees so they can be reported to the senate before the adjournment for the holiday recess.

Senator Morgan of Alabama was asked to report by an associated press reporter the purport of a resolution offered by him yesterday regarding trade and commerce with the free state of Congo, etc. The senator said, "When the convention of powers met in Berlin to fix the status of Congo state the United States did not accept the conclusions of the convention and therefore has no political right in that country. I do not know that it has ever been brought to the attention of Mr. Blaine but I am anxious it should and that the United States should secure its just political power in Congo. My reason for desiring this is that it may be able to encourage the progress of this country who have wealth and enterprise but have not standing and never will have here to engage in trade in that country. Ultimately I have in view the general emigration of negroes from the United States to Congo. They came from that country and should return. Here their civilization is wanted, there it might be developed to building up a government and country that shall be a credit to them."

They Want a Memorial. WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—An adjourned meeting of the governors of the original 13 states was held to-day to take some decisive action looking to the erection in Philadelphia of a suitable memorial structure commemorative of the achievements of this nation during 100 years of independence and constitutional government. A bill was adopted for presentation to congress.

Burned in a Hall Room. LONDON, Dec. 10.—At Gravelier, Silens, Saturday night, a large chandelier holding petroleum lamps fell in a crowded ballroom. The lamps exploded and a number of men and women was set on fire. In most cases the flames were extinguished, but two ladies were burned to death. Several of the injured ones will be marked for life.

Cholera in Bagdad. ALEXANDRIA, Dec. 11.—A revival of cholera at Bagdad has caused a panic and utmost distress.

CLOUDY FOR ALLISON.

His Knoxville Republican Friends Hunting Other Senatorial Timber.

DR. MORRIS, Ia., Dec. 10.—The name of Justice Hathcock of the supreme court has been mentioned in connection with the United States senatorship to succeed Allison. When approached by a reporter on the subject, he said: "I am not, and never have been, a candidate for the United States senatorship. I am attending to my official duties without thought of politics. When they ask me if I would take the senatorship should it be tendered me I simply say I am not seeking the position. However, should it be tendered me without any bargaining or any compromise of principle or honor, I don't suppose I would refuse it—few men would. Of course I can't tell now what complications may arise, and am not trying to play the role of a prophet, but there is no question, with me, and it is this, whatever complications may arise I shall be a party to nothing dishonorable, and would not accept a certificate of honor from the State senator unless it should come to me wholly free from association with dishonorable methods."

Nearly all the prominent republicans of Iowa have reached the conclusion that the senatorial lightning may strike them. This fact is a strong indication that the belief that Senator Allison cannot be re-elected has become a settled conviction among republicans who have hitherto refused to concede that such a result was within the range of possibilities.

Grasping at Straws. CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Forrest resumed his address to the jury this morning, claiming the stains and paint on the parlor floor of the Carlson cottage might have been put there by a reporter to get up a sensation among the jury. Forrest made an exhaustive analysis of the testimony of some of the prominent witnesses in the prosecution, reaching the conclusion that the Cronin faction of the Clan-na-Gael drilled witnesses to give false testimony and that all of the new evidence brought out since the meeting of the coroner's jury had been manufactured to strengthen weak spots in the case of the state. Regarding the matter of the knives found on Coughlin, Forrest declared that Cronin had sworn to the injury in swearing they belonged to Cronin. Forrest will probably conclude to-morrow, and the court will adjourn on Thursday, which is election day.

Buying Wyoming Oil Lands. CHEYENNE, Wyo., Dec. 10.—The opinion is gaining ground in Central Wyoming that the Standard Oil company is rapidly securing the ownership of much of the oil lands in nearly all of the oil-bearing strata in the different oil-producing districts. Where individuals sink wells and strike oil, for some singular reason the wells are plugged up and allowed to stand unproductive. The Northwestern well at Bessemer, which produced 100 barrels a day, the tools withdrawn and the workmen sent East. Experienced oil men say the well will be one of the most valuable in the region, and which will influence against the present stoppage of work. That the Standard Oil company is the influence is firmly believed by residents of the oil fields.

Willing to Sell Cherokee Outlet. KANSAS CITY, Dec. 10.—A special from Tahlequah, I. T., says: The commission appointed to confer with the United States Indian commission sent a communication to the latter yesterday informing them that they are ready to treat with the government for the sale of Cherokee outlet. The Indians requested the conference to be held under the first section of the act, under which the government commission was appointed, and which authorized them to buy the outlet at a figure not higher than $3 per acre. If the commission did not see fit to negotiate on that basis, the communication said, the Indians requested the commission to inform congress that the land could be had at $3 per acre.

They Secured His Transfer. WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Senator Pettigrew and Representatives Pickler and Hansbrough have been making a fight for a few days past upon Examiner Hall, of the frauds division of the general land office, and they have succeeded in having him transferred to another division. It is this man Hall who held up many proofs of western settlers upon the slight technicality. He was an appointee of Sparks, came from North Carolina and knew nothing of the west or its people, and a practical man has been found to take his place. Had he not been protected by the civil service rules his dismissal could have been insisted upon by the western members.

Blown Up by Nitro-Glycerine. BUTLER, Pa., Dec. 10.—This morning Butler was shaken by a nitro-glycerine explosion at the Butler Torpedo company's magazine, two miles south of town. Cans were being put into wagons at the factory. James O. Woods and William Medell and their wagon and team were blown into unrecognizable fragments. The works in the vicinity is being searched by hundreds for the remains of the men. The larger part of the factory buildings were demolished. It is supposed the men dropped a can of glycerine.

Cashier Silcott's Accounts. WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The committee investigating a affair of the office of sergeant-at-arms of the house this morning heard a statement from Representative Gear, of Iowa, relative to the forgery of his name to one of the drafts presented at the National Metropolitan bank and subsequently taken out by Silcott. Examiner Gear said that he had been notified since his retirement from congress, has used the sergeant-at-arms office as a banking house, endeavored to convince the committee that his money should be refunded.

Prize Potato Crops. NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The grand prize of $500 offered by the American Society for the best acre of potatoes has been awarded to Charles B. Coy of Arrostook county, Me. His crop was 728 bushels. The second prize was given to Alfred Rose of Penn Yan, N. Y., for a crop of 669 bushels. Similar prizes are offered for the coming year.

IN HONOR OF THE DEAD

Great Throngs Pay Their Last Respects to Jefferson Davis.

Completing the Arrangements for the Funeral Services—To Be Buried With Military Honors—A Relief Fund for Mrs. Davis.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 10.—Thoughts of people seemed to pour through the city hall during the morning. Many distinguished gentlemen from the south and leading citizens of this section were among the visitors. Gen. Stephen D. Lee of Mississippi, Governor Lubbeck of Texas, and Gen. H. B. Young, cavalry leader in the confederacy, paid their respects. The funeral will be the largest ever seen in the south. Every benevolent organization in the city, the military schools, athletic clubs, commercial bodies, shipmasters, fire department and clergy will be largely represented. The route will be about 10 miles long. The funeral ceremonies will be conducted in front of the city hall by Bishop Gallagher of Louisiana, Willner of Alabama, and the choragons of various denominations. At the grave ceremonies will be conducted by Bishop Gallagher and Hugh Miller Thompson of Mississippi. Minute guns will be fired all day and at the grave there will be guns and bugle calls as becomes a military funeral. Visiting military organizations will come from Mississippi, Alabama, Texas and the country parishes of Louisiana.

The committee on raising a fund appointed by the governor, met last night and Associate Justice Fenner, at whose house Mrs. Davis died, was made chairman. It was stated for Mrs. Davis that she would refuse to accept donations, but had no objection to the completion of the wish of the Davis family, the company of Jackson. The latter was organized with a view to raising $100,000, to purchase some 6,000 acres of land in Arkansas for the committee in charge the following telegram was read:

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Dec. 9. Commander Grand and Vice-Commodore of the grand chief. Your record on the field will stand for ever. Mrs. Davis died at her home in Morris Schaff, Member G. A. R.

Owing to the fact that it was virtually the last day upon which Mr. Davis' remains could be viewed, many people crowded the city hall to-day. The number of people who were present was estimated at 70,000. The funeral to-morrow will be a grand affair. The city is decorated on a grander scale than ever before in its history. The funeral to-morrow will be a grand affair. The city is decorated on a grander scale than ever before in its history. The funeral to-morrow will be a grand affair. The city is decorated on a grander scale than ever before in its history.

Attacked by a Female Prisoner. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Dec. 10.—Yesterday morning Mollie Brown, a prisoner in the women's ward at the penitentiary, struck P. S. Hawks, one of the guards, on the head with a hatchet inflicting a mortal wound. The woman was unruly and had driven the matron out of the ward. Hawks entered to subdue her and received the wound in the struggle which ensued.

Death of Mrs. Harrison's Sister. WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Scott Lord, sister of Mrs. Harrison, died this morning at 8:30. Nobody outside of the family in the house where she is stopping was present when Mrs. Lord died. It was known the case was not a serious one, but death was not expected so soon. Mrs. Harrison and Dr. Scott are now at the house with the remains.

Race Trouble in Alabama. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 10.—Late Friday night, at a negro festival near Lawrence, Bud Ouagham, white, quarrelled with a negro named Griffin Jones, and began firing at him. Another negro named Brown killed Ouagham with an axe. Both negroes were jailed and were to have been tried to-day. A large number of men came to town with the intention of lynching the negroes. The sheriff telegraphed to the governor for aid and the city hall and almost every society in the city will turn out. Dispatches from all points indicate that memorial services will be held to-morrow in almost every city, town and village in Mississippi and Louisiana and very generally through the south.

Drowned Near Seattle. SEATTLE, Dec. 10.—Dr. T. T. Minor, a well known physician and politician, Geo. Morris Haller and Louis Cox, prominent attorneys, are supposed to have been drowned while hunting on the waters of the Lower sound. They left Seattle Thanksgiving evening and were to have returned home last Wednesday. A boat was found to-day floating in the bay near Whilby island and also a pair of oars. The boat is believed to be the one belonging to the missing parties. The general belief is that the gentlemen endeavored to cross the sound in a small boat and were capsized and drowned.

They Want to Handle the Cash. WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—At a special meeting of the Woman's National Industrial League of America, the Silcott defalcation was considered and a resolution adopted that all disbursing agents of the government in Washington should be removed. It was also decided to enjoy their ill-gotten money abroad with ease, but no temptation is strong enough to induce an American woman to exile herself. Congress is now passing law giving preference to women hereafter.

Murdered by Unknown Persons. CROWELL, Neb., Dec. 10.—Some unknown person or persons shot and instantly killed C. T. Pulsifer, a grain dealer in Crowell, Neb. He was going to his office in his residence, about half a mile west of town. There is no clue to the assassins, whose purpose is supposed to have been robbery.

Burglars Make a Good Hunt. KOSCIUSCO, Miss., Dec. 10.—The safe of J. W. Carter and J. D. Lee was robbed last night, the sum taken being between $25,000 and $25,000. There is no clue to the robbers.

Jack Kilrain in Mississippi. PURVIS, Miss., Dec. 10.—The case of the state vs. Jack Kilrain went over till Thursday.

GETTING IN A HURRY.

Mr. Oakes Wants the Matter to Take Hold of the Irrigation Question.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—T. F. Oakes, president of the Northern Pacific railroad, was in this city last week, accompanied by General solicitor McNaught, and General Manager Hanniford, to discuss with the western members of the senate and house, a plan to be laid before congress at this session, for the irrigation of the arid lands of the west. Oakes proposes that congress give to each of the western states the arid lands within its borders. The Northern Pacific will lend its aid to irrigation, companies to be formed under the authority of individual states for the improvement of these lands. The proposition to take the irrigation problem out of the hands of the general government is based on the claim that the proposition to appropriate millions necessary to carry out the scheme of irrigation will meet with strong opposition in the east and also on the fact that congress will take 15 years to accomplish what the state legislatures might do in five.

Divorced from a Millionaire. CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—On Saturday last, it was learned, that a divorce was granted to Mrs. Wilson Waddingham from her husband, the millionaire cattle king, well known throughout the West, and the foundation of whose fortune was a land grant obtained in Mexico. It is said that Mrs. Waddingham objected to her extravagant style of living and that when her husband began the erection of a palatial residence in West Haven, ten years ago, which has since been completed at a cost of $855,000, she protested loudly. Six years ago their relations became strained and it was mutually agreed to separate. Having agreed to a yearly allowance of $25,000 to his wife and $10,000 to each of his children, Waddingham left the family. His wife began to sue for divorce in Chicago court last summer. The decree carries with it all previous allowances.

A Pioneer Abolitionist. BROOKLYN, Dec. 10.—Oliver Johnson, the veteran editor and abolitionist, died this afternoon at his home in this city. With Johnson's death there departs from this world, almost the last figure of what was the greatest movement for the emancipation of mankind. With the aid of William Lloyd Garrison he organized the New England Anti-Slavery society in 1833. This society led to the foundation of the American Anti-Slavery society with its affliating auxiliaries, causing the public agitation which ceased only with the abolition of slavery. He was mobbed once in Pennsylvania for lecturing on slavery, and narrowly escaped being tarred and feathered. Mr. Johnson has been connected with various prominent papers in New York, besides publishing papers at different points in Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and other states in which he advocated abolition.

An Officer Shot by Burglars. CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Officer William Davis was shot and probably fatally injured by burglars this morning. Officer H. C. Thomas in attempting to arrest the assailants of Davis, was wounded in the arm. The condition of Davis is critical. William Secrest has been identified as the man who did the shooting. He is a man who has served two terms in the penitentiary.

Charged with Embezzlement. CINCINNATI, Dec. 10.—Richard D. Kyle, late president of the Anderson Hays Carriage company, was arrested to-day charged with embezzlement. A few weeks ago he had a rupture with the company and embezzled a large sum. Kyle paid the company $20,000 and supposed all charges were withdrawn but the books in the meantime have been examined and it was said the amount of his embezzlement is about $40,000.

Suffering From Influenza. PARIS, Dec. 10.—The reported epidemic from which the employes of the Louvre are suffering is influenza, not fever as stated yesterday. Influenza is spreading widely throughout the city. One hundred and thirty employes of the Central telegraph office are now ill with it. There is great public alarm about it.

The Founder of the K. of A. LIMA, Ohio, Dec. 10.—A special train bearing the remains of Justus H. Rathbone, the founder of the order of Knights of Pythias, with an escort, to Utica, N. Y., left here at midnight. Stops will be made at several points to permit members of the order to view the remains.

A Novelist Sued For Divorce. NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Helen R. Salsus has brought suit for absolute divorce from her husband, Edgar Salsus, the novelist. Two co-respondents are mentioned and adultery is claimed as the ground for divorce.

Elections in Massachusetts. BOSTON, Dec. 10.—The municipal election to-day resulted in the election of Hart, republican and citizens' candidate for mayor, by a large majority. At Lynn the democratic mayor was re-elected, there being virtually no opposition.

Thinks His Firm Will Fail. NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The junior member of A. C. & Swartout, coal dealers, thinks the firm will fail Thursday. The liabilities are estimated at $300,000.

He Does Not Resigned. RHO JANEIRO, Dec. 10.—The report that Dr. Backhouse, minister of finance under the provisional government has resigned, is untrue.

Silcott Thought to be in Toronto. TORONTO, Dec. 10.—The police believe that Silcott is here, and are watching all the hotels and resorts.

13 KILLED IN A PANIC

Terrible Result of a False Alarm of Fire at Johnstown.

A Cry of Fire Raised in a Theater Caused a Fatal Panic—Many Others in the Audience Ruined by Injuries.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Dec. 10.—During a performance of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the opera-house here to-night a cry of fire was raised, resulting in a terrible rush for life down the narrow stairs. Thirteen persons were instantly crushed to death and probably 75 seriously injured. It was found necessary to turn a stream of water on the crowd from a fire-engine before the dead and wounded could be taken out. People rushed from the outside up the narrow stairs and were crushed by the crowd forcing its way to the street.

The following were found dead upon the stairs: LIZZIE CLAYBOUGH, A. FLEYSCHNER, ISAAC TOLER, JOHN MILLER, JOHN CARL, GEORGE STONAKER, CHARLES FRANT, GEORGE HORNER, MRS. NESTER, MISS CLARA BURNS, E. BIGLER, and two unknown women. Among the seriously injured were Charles Vaughn, Albert Owens and a man named Weiner. There are about 30 others injured, but their names cannot be ascertained to-night. The alarm was false and there are many threats against the unknown man who started it.

When the alarm was sounded the whole audience of 600 people jumped to their feet and made a dash for the stairway, and the terrible jam and crush was the result. When the jam occurred a large number of persons, thinking the fire was in the opera house, tried to get into the theater, making another jam, and it was necessary for the firemen to turn the hose on the crowd to get them away from the door. Screams were terrible and it was shocking to see small children knocked down by big men and trampled upon. This theater has never been noted as a death trap and was condemned 12 years ago, but the other one was washed away in the flood and this one has since been built. The manager tried to quiet the crowd but it was useless. One man jumped from a third story window and was seriously hurt.

Women and men alike were mad and there was a stampede on Main street while those inside were being killed. It was over two hours after the jam before the hall was fully cleared and the injured and dead removed. Excitement here is so intense that it is almost impossible to get at the particulars of the disaster. Everybody is excited and very few people have gone to bed to-night. The saloons were open until a late hour and considerable drunkenness was added to the other horrors.

A Kansas Bank Suspended. ABILENE, Kan., Dec. 10.—The First National Bank of this city has suspended business. Since the failure of the bank of Lebold, Fisher & Co., confidence in other banks has been somewhat shaken. Many Eastern depositors withdrew deposits from the First National, and yesterday the draft became so exceedingly heavy that enough cash could not be secured to transact to-day's business. The liabilities are placed at $100,000 and resources at $300,000.

Charged with Embezzlement. CINCINNATI, Dec. 10.—Richard D. Kyle, late president of the Anderson Hays Carriage company, was arrested to-day charged with embezzlement. A few weeks ago he had a rupture with the company and embezzled a large sum. Kyle paid the company $20,000 and supposed all charges were withdrawn but the books in the meantime have been examined and it was said the amount of his embezzlement is about $40,000.
