A report was current yesterday in mining circles that a rich strike of brittle and ruby silver ore had been made in the Phoenix mine. All the 10-cent stock except a few private blocks were taken off the market in consequence.

Joseph McCaffrey and Pat Rogers became engaged in an altercation yesterday in the Shamrock saloon, which resulted in both being arrested. Rogers was drunk and abusive and finally made a pass at McCaffrey. Before they could be engaged in a fight, however, they were arrested. When arraigned in the police court the evidence showed that Rogers was at fault and he was fined $5 and costs.

It appears that yesterday morning he went into a house on the row and curled up on a sofa. One of the girls noticed the butt end of a revolver protruding from his hip pocket.

On still another occasion Dillon was arrested on a similar charge. Two guns were found in his pockets. In this instance he showed fight and had to be clubbed before giving up the weapons.

"Young People are Terrorists." From the New York Tribune.

This concise statement at least is made by a certain member of congress who represents a district not more than 100 miles distant from New York.

"Where is your wife?" "Somewhat amazed and decidedly embarrassed, the gentleman stammered forth:

"I don't know." "Don't know," persisted the enfant terrible; "why don't you know?"

"Finding that the child kept on asking troublesome questions despite the mild reproof of her parents, he concluded to make a clean breast of the matter, and gave it over at once. So he said with calmness:

"Well, we don't live together; we think as we can't agree, we'd better not."

"He stifled a groan as the child began again, and darted an exasperated look at her parents. But the precocious youngster would not be quieted, and at last she exclaimed:

"Can't agree? Then why don't you fight it out as pa and ma do?"

"I am unable to say what occurred subsequently."

She Didn't Object to Smoking. From the Scottish American.

Some Edinburgh students on a football tour to Glasgow wished to secure a carriage all to themselves. Just as the train was about to start up rushed an old woman, who sought to push her way into the carriage.

"My good woman, this is a smoking compartment, don't you know?" "Weel, weel," returned the old woman, "never mind, I'll mak it dae," and in she went.

"Smoke her out," was the word passed as soon as the train started. Accordingly all the windows were closed fast, every pipe was taken out, and soon the carriage was completely filled with a dense cloud of tobacco smoke.

"If ye are dune, sir, w' yer pipe, would ye kindly gie me a bit draw, as I forgot mine in my hurry to catch the train?"

MISSOULA CLEANINGS.

The Winger Case to Come up for Trial This Afternoon.

Special to the Standard. MISSOULA, April 10.—Among the recent additions to Missoula's mercantile establishments is the book and stationery store opened yesterday on Higgins avenue by D. J. Mulloy.

Abatine Deschamps, whose death was announced in yesterday's dispatches, was laid at rest to-day. The funeral was held at 9 o'clock at St. Francis Xavier's church with all the solemnity and solemnity for which the ritual of the Catholic church is noted.

The new Baptist church is progressing finely. If the weather continues good, the carpenters expect to have it finished in about 10 days. While not very large, it is a fine specimen of the modern style of architecture. It is 28x44 feet with 13 1/2 foot plates, and an addition in rear 28 feet wide and 26 feet deep, which will be used ultimately as rooms for Sunday school classes, but at present as a parsonage.

It is announced that Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Keith will live with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McLeod until their new home is finished. Workmen are busy getting a place ready for the location of the new Mascotte variety theater which is to be built in rear of the Exchange gambling house on Front street.

The last rites were performed over the remains of Miss Katie Mills this afternoon at the Presbyterian church. The edifice was crowded by a large number of loving friends.

W. S. JONES' ABSENCE.

Postmaster Evans Asserts That His Books Are All Right.

BUTTE, April 10.—W. S. Jones, assistant postmaster, has been missing since Saturday night, and to-day a rumor was current that he was short in his accounts. A STANDARD reporter called on Postmaster Evans this afternoon and made inquiries as to the correctness of the rumor.

Evans stated that he was positive it was groundless, and the only complaint he had to make was that Jones left work several weeks behind, entailing much extra work on others of the force in order to get the affairs of the office into shape up to date. He also further stated that while he had not yet made an examination of the books he felt satisfied that the accounts of Jones would be found all right and if short should be discovered it would be trivial and the discrepancy would be made up by the young man's folks, who are said to be quite wealthy.

WISHES TO AVOID LITIGATION. Erwin Davis Thinks Judge Davis' Estate is Over Estimated.

BUTTE, April 10.—Erwin Davis of New York, brother of the late A. J. Davis, says that he has come to this city for the purpose of avoiding litigation as far as possible and to carry out, if permitted, the known wishes of his deceased brother. He said that the value of the estate has been greatly over estimated, and he does not believe it worth much more than $1,000,000. He said that he knows nothing of T. J. Davis, who claims to be a son, and declares that there will be no compromise made with him. The matter will come up in probate court one week from Saturday.

The application of John A. Davis, the brother, who probably is related by the claim of T. J. Davis, who it is expected will maintain that his kinship as a son is nearer than that of John A. as a brother. It will then be necessary to decide whether T. J. Davis' claim of being a son is substantiated and in this way the case will, it is expected, will be brought into the courts.

TRYING FOR A MATCH

Mr. Black of Minneapolis Has a Man for Kessler.

Offering to Back a Young Pugilist Named Kimmick Against Butte's Favorite—The Matter in Abeyance.

By the Standard's Special Wire. BUTTE, April 10.—A party of sporting men arrived in town to-night, including J. L. Black of Minneapolis, J. W. West of St. Paul and Frank Doremus of Helena.

Mr. Black's chief object in visiting Butte was to extend an invitation to George Kessler to sign articles for a prize fight. Black was in the city to put up a forfeit at once for $500 to $1,000 a side, the fight to take place in any town Kessler might name. The challenge was made for Charles Kimmick of Minneapolis, young fighter. Black claims that Kimmick is only 22 years old and fights at a weight of 145 pounds. He has participated in three fights in his time.

Kessler referred Black to Evan Morgan and said that whatever Mr. Morgan said would be accepted. Morgan said that Kimmick is only 22 years old and fights at a weight of 145 pounds. He has participated in three fights in his time.

Some places in Idaho near Spokane have been suggested. It is desired to have the match take place in Butte, but the right ordinance passed against fighting will prevent its taking place within the city limits. According to the ordinance it cannot even take place under the auspices of an athletic club so long as a prize is offered for the fight.

Closing the Fair. By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, April 10.—The Episcopal fair closed at Henshaw hall to-night with a calico ball. The attendance was the largest of the three nights and pleasure reigned supreme. A majority of the ladies appeared in costumes made entirely of calico and looked more charming than ever. A large amount of fancy goods which remained over from the two preceding nights were disposed of as was also a goodly amount of lemonade and cigars. The fair was a complete success in every particular and netted the society handsomely. The proceeds will be used to decrease the church's indebtedness.

The Great "Objector." Judge W. H. Holman of Indiana is the economical freak of the house museum says the Washington correspondent of the New York World.

He has been here for 24 years, and during the whole of that time he has been cutting down the expenses of the government on every item. His knowledge of the cost of things is wonderful. He knows to a cent just how much every charwoman in the treasury gets, and he can tell you to a mill what every brick in the new pension building cost. He is known as the great "objector," and he has killed many a bill by slinging out his long finger at the speaker and saying, "I object." Judge Holman is six feet tall and a foot and a half broad across the shoulders.

His business clothes are hung upon his frame, and nature has been as stingy in her appropriation of fat to him as he is to the civil service in his giving out of the government funds. His beard is now turning to iron-gray, and his brown hair has many white strands. He is fond of tobacco and sits in his seat with his pencil in his hand and figures and chews all day long. He is fond of fine-cut, but when he makes his campaigns in Indiana he is said to carry a plug of pig-tail twist, which he offers to his constituents. He is too economical to allow his voice melody and fullness, and he rasps out as it strikes a knot. His gestures are in pump-handle style, and he is, in short, a statesman of the Blue Jeans Williams type. He is a kind-hearted fellow withal, and is as honest as the day is long. He is worth about $100,000, and has a fine farm in southern Indiana.

Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs. The specialist of the Liebig World Dispensary will be at the Montana, Anaconda, Saturday and Sunday, April 19 and 20; at Deer Lodge, April 14; Phillipsburg, April 15 and 16.

DR. A. C. STODDART, In charge of Montana Division of Liebig World Dispensary.

Notice. The board of county commissioners will meet in special session at 10 o'clock a. m. on Tuesday, April 15, for the purpose of arranging to bond the outstanding indebtedness of Deer Lodge county, and for the transaction of other business. By order of J. L. HAMILTON, Chairman.
