BUTTE CURRENT NOTES.

A. J. Hazlett of the Helena Independent is in the city.
Joseph Thomas, president of the Miner's union, left this afternoon for Castle.
J. M. Frank, a prominent and successful mining man of Wardner, Idaho, is in the city.
A United States patent was filed yesterday for the Barnard placer mine, issued to A. W. Barnard.
Mayor Valiton is suffering with an attack of rheumatism. He left yesterday for Gregson Springs to recuperate.
A. M. Moore has been promoted to the city editorship of the Miner, a position he has deserved by faithful, honest work.
The committee of arrangements on Miner's union day will meet this evening at Miner's union hall to settle up matters.
A meeting of the subscribers to the Mining exchange will be held this evening at the office of Casey, Holland & Co. to perfect organization.
Notices of location were filed yesterday of the Daisy lode by Lorin Wheeler et al; the Prairie Flower by J. L. Carner et al; and the Way Up by Lorin Wheeler.
Edith, the only daughter of Thomas and Ann Dunstan, died yesterday evening, aged 2 years. The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from the residence in Copper alley.
It is stated on good authority that Superintendent Baxter of the Utah division of the Union Pacific has sent in his resignation, to take effect on July 1. Vice President Holcomb's axe has fallen again.
Mrs. Aggie Frazer, wife of George Frazer, residing on Utah avenue, died yesterday morning. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Frazer was about 40 years old and the mother of several children.
A miner named McMurphy, employed in the High Ore, while walking down Main street last night, slipped and sprained his ankle. He was placed on board of a cable car and sent to his home at Walkerville.
Ah Siek, a laundryman, was fined $5 and costs by Judge Newkirk yesterday for permitting filthy water to run onto adjacent premises. The defendant had at once will have his wash-house connected with the city sewerage system.
Complaint is made of the condition of Utah avenue since the completion of the tracks of the electric motor and street car companies. Both tracks are much higher than the street, thus greatly impairing its usefulness and convenience as a street.
Upon opening his office yesterday morning, Judge Dingleton discovered that during the night some one had stolen his typewriter. After a short search by the police the machine was found in Pinewa's pawn shop, on lower Main street. The thief kindly left the case in the office.
A rehearsal of the Dorothy opera will be held at the high school building Sunday afternoon. The opera will be produced with complete costumes and scenery in about eight weeks. The opera is for the purpose of organizing a Philharmonic society. Will Howard is leader.
Late last night a messenger was looking for the county physician to attend Linneman, the Finlander who was badly sliced in the cutting off of last week. In rolling around in bed Linneman managed to reopen one of the wounds in his right arm from which the blood began to flow at an alarming rate.
A burglar broke into Ernest Lange's room, on West Broadway, last night at about 10 o'clock. The opportune arrival of one of the inmates of the house frightened the prowler away before he could secure anything. The man was seen to escape but owing to the darkness he was not recognizable.
Christ Rottman, a South Butte hotel man, was arrested yesterday and taken before Judge Cantwell for unlawful entry. O. Y. Rhinims, is the complaining witness and alleges that by virtue of legal proceedings he came into possession of certain premises formerly owned by Rottman, and which the latter now refuses to give up. The case will be tried next Tuesday.

After you have enjoyed a good lunch at Emil's beer hall you should step up to the showcase and take your choice from the finest assortment of imported and domestic cigars in the state.
Fined For Keeping an Opium Den.
By the Standard's Special Wire.
BUTTE, June 20.—Sam Kew, general manager of an opium joint, arrested a few days ago, was tried before Judge Newkirk this afternoon. The evidence worked up by the prosecution, proved sufficient as the attorney for the defendant was unable to find a loop hole for the escape of his client. A fine of $50 and cost was imposed and in default of the necessary shakels, Mr. Kew was sent to jail.
The case of Dave Kaufman, who was enjoying the pleasures of the "long draw," when the den was raided, was continued.
The only place in the state of Montana where it can be found—a fine business lunch at Emil's beer hall, from 11:30 till 3 p. m. and also from 10 to 11 p. m.

THE TWIN CITY VISITORS
Gentlemen From St. Paul and Minneapolis Enjoy Themselves in Butte.

They Are Shown the Sights of the Greatest Camp and Express Surprise and Satisfaction Thereat —Who They Are.

By the Standard's Special Wire.
BUTTE, June 20.—The Twin Cities, as St. Paul and Minneapolis are familiarly known, are well represented to-day in the "greatest mining camp on earth." In number and importance the excursion is only second to that from Boston yesterday, and the greatest interest is felt in it, as it will certainly prove one of the best advertisements Butte has ever received. The interest is reciprocated, the visitors are fully as much impressed and pleased with what they have seen here as are their entertainers pleased to have them with their guests.
The train which brought the excursionists was delayed considerably, and arrived about an hour late. Carriages were at the depot in waiting, and, as soon as possible, the visitors were taken in charge by the board of trade reception committee and driven up town. The first thing on the programme was to take them to the Alice, Lexington, Silver, Bow and Parrot mines and reduction works, through which they were taken under the guidance of Messrs. Hall, Rueger, Tibbey and Grant, the superintendents. Everything of interest was pointed out and explained to the visitors, and that they were surprised would but express their real astonishment mildly. "Knocked out" would describe it better.
After having seen the process of mining and reducing silver and copper ore, the excursionists scattered themselves about the city and viewed the sights which they thought they had never seen before. Those of their number engaged in the wholesale trade took advantage of the opportunity to make themselves acquainted with the merchants, and it is safe to say that the jobbing trade of St. Paul and Minneapolis will not be any loser thereby. Deviating from the original programme at the express request of the visitors themselves, the formal reception which was to have been tendered them was omitted and instead the reception committee made such preparations as it could to better facilitate every opportunity of enabling the strangers to become acquainted with the city, its advantages, surroundings and resources.
As a representative body of the energy and enterprise of the two cities from which they hail, the visitors could not be excelled, being fine-looking men, whose every look and action betokens intelligence, pluck and business sagacity.
The party is composed of about seventy persons and travels on a special train composed of five sleepers, two special cars, a dining and baggage car. In charge of the excursion are the following Great Northern Railway officials: A. L. Mohler, general manager; W. S. Alexander, general traffic manager; F. P. Shelby, assistant traffic manager; C. W. Case, general superintendent; G. L. Bonney, superintendent of dining and sleeping cars; W. B. Green, assistant superintendent of the Montana Central, and B. H. Langley, general freight and passenger agent of the Montana Central. Among the excursionists whose names could be obtained are: Hon. A. Schaffer, J. H. Rice, Daniel Moon, D. W. Baygart, F. H. Semple, Capt. D. M. Gilmore, F. H. Rasson, John Dunham, A. F. Kelley, Clinton Morrison, A. W. Cooper, W. M. Baker, E. S. Stacey, C. Col. A. R. Robinson, R. J. Mendenhall, J. B. Bassett, W. G. Northup, Judge Isaac Aterator, A. R. Broderick, J. H. Stanton, William Hagericks, Charming Scaburg, H. W. Wagner, H. F. Lillybridge, E. C. Whitney, Major C. A. Canny, H. F. Brown, A. R. Bristol, T. H. Sherlin, A. Kellogg, C. M. Way, D. Bassett, S. M. Carey, W. L. Nott, C. G. Goodnit, Samuel Hill, Hon. H. Kelly, and Hon. E. F. Drake.
The evening the visitors were given an informal reception at the Silver Bow club rooms. Fifty-five of the St. Paul and Minneapolis gentlemen registered there and were introduced to most of the prominent men of Butte.

THEY'LL RUSTICATE AT HELENA.
Societies Which Will Spend the Fourth of July at the Temporary Capital.
By the Standard's Special Wire.
BUTTE, June 20.—The executive committee of the P. O. S. of A. appointed to arrange matters in connection with the camp's visit to Helena, July 4, met at the office of President Marsh this evening. Mr. Marsh presided and the first business transacted was to empower him to engage a band to escort from the depots, the Anaconda, Dillon, Deer Lodge and Boulder delegations, all of whom will assemble in this city and join the local camp in the excursion. A special train has been chartered from the Montana Central to carry the excursionists both ways.
The chair was also authorized to appoint a marshal of the day for the Butte division, and F. M. Barrett was appointed a committee of one to oversee the decorations of the train, banners, etc.
The extremely low rate of $3 for the round trip has been fixed and a general invitation is extended to all good people to take part in the excursion and to assist the people of Helena to celebrate. Invitations have been issued by the Helena camp of P. O. S. of A. to all civic and military organizations of this city to participate. The Miners' Union, uniform division, K. P., and militia companies, received theirs yesterday.
Montana circle No. 1, Brotherhood of the Union, decided to-night to accompany the P. O. S. of A. to Helena on July 4. The circle will turn out in full force. A committee of W. E. Headings, James Brown, John Swinton, J. B. Knight and F. B. Cutting was appointed to make the necessary arrangements.

PLATS AND CELLS.
These Were the Things That Occupied the County Commissioners Yesterday.
By the Standard's Special Wire.
BUTTE, June 20.—The board of county commissioners to-day considered at length the matter of accommodations in the county jail. It was also represented to the board that the boilers heating steam for the court house are in such a position that no flues can be built large enough to accommodate all the smoke, it was ordered that D. F. McDevitt submit plans for an annex to the court house, the basement to be used as a boiler room and the upper stories for wards for female prisoners. Mr. McDevitt was also asked to submit an estimate of the cost of such annex.
The plat of the lawler & Kemper addition was approved.
A bill of Thomas Kelly for extra pay as juror was disallowed. The board adjourned until Monday.

A KANSAS LIAR.
Story of a Man Who Didn't Like Butte and the Cause of His Hatred.

By the Standard's Special Wire.
BUTTE, June 20.—A recent number of the Kansas State Journal, published somewhere in the "grasshopper state," has a most villainous slander on Butte, the author of which is one F. B. Dawes, a lawyer of Clay Center, Kansas. Mr. Dawes states that he recently visited Butte and found it to be one of the hardest towns on the continent, and without a blush calmly asserts that he saw 53 drunken men lying in the gutter in front of one saloon. The article in question being shown to a STANDARD reporter, he concluded to investigate matters a little and ascertain the cause of the Kansas gentleman's venom.
In this the reporter was eminently successful, and he found just what he expected, to that effect that was prompted by a disappointment.
Recently Mr. Dawes visited Butte in the capacity of an attorney for a banker of Clay Center whose son occupies the rather unenviable position of defendant in a seduction case. The object of his visit was to induce a young man named Fred Silver, employed in a Main street grocery store, not to appear as a witness against his client, it appearing that the testimony of Silver was very important to the prosecution in order to establish the date of a rather pertinent occurrence. This Silver refused to do and instead, at once left for Clay Center so as to be present when the trial occurred. The refusal on the part of Silver no doubt caused Dawes some disappointment and to get even he decided to give Butte and everybody it contained as hard a reputation as possible.
The strangest part of Mr. Dawes' indignation is the fact that he did not call to visit the many den of infamy which the city contains, according to his story.
On the contrary, he asked Silver to "show him the sights," and if the STANDARD'S information is reliable none escaped him, not even the dives on Galena street, in fact he seemed to have a particular charm for the gentleman from Kansas.

AGENT ADAMS PROMOTED.
He Was Not Long a Resident of Butte But Made Many Friends There.
By the Standard's Special Wire.
BUTTE, June 20.—A. W. Adams, who was recently appointed general agent of the Union Pacific, vice J. A. Lewis, resigned, has been advanced another notch in the scale of promotion. Official information was received to-day announcing his appointment as general freight agent of the company for Colorado. This division includes all Union Pacific lines proper in that state as also the "Pan handle" of Denver, Texas & Fort Worth, of which road the Union Pacific secured control some months ago. The position is one of the most lucrative as well as important connected with the company and the appointment of Mr. Adams is the highest compliment that could be paid him as a railroad man.
Although young Mr. Adams has been in the railroad service for many years, and his success in that calling is best exemplified by the rapidity of his rise and promotion. Of a genial disposition, quick and alert, and thoroughly conversant with the details of railway traffic, it is safe to say that his present promotion is only in the line of still greater advancement.
Mr. Adams will leave Butte for Denver next Monday, and while his friends rejoice at his promotion they regret that circumstances compel him to leave the city permanently. The office which he goes to accept has been filled for some time by H. A. Johnson, formerly first assistant general freight agent of the company, who has been recalled to Omaha to accept a position supposed to be in connection with the general management of the road. Who will be the successor of Mr. Adams is not yet known here.

DISTRICT COURT.
Hearing of a Number of Criminal Cases Yesterday.
By the Standard's Special Wire.
BUTTE, June 20.—The district court was occupied to-day with the trial of four young men charged with grand larceny in stealing old iron from the Lexington mills about April 15. R. P. Gist, Henry Roberts and Richard Talbot were first tried, Attorney Cotter prosecuting and Attorneys Pemberton and Wines for the defendants. The case was concluded and given to the jury early this afternoon.
The trial then began with John Deering, charged with connection in the same offense. Attorneys Shropshire and Wines appeared for the defendant, while Mr. Cotter prosecuted.
In the case of the First National bank vs. John Maguire, the demurrer was withdrawn and until July 7 granted in which to file an answer.
In the case of C. W. Goodale vs. J. W. Barnes the demurrer was set for to-morrow.
In the case of Thomas German vs. Edward C. Collins, the demurrer was set for to-morrow.
The case of R. F. Ingersoll for arson on the second indictment was set for June 26.
The jury in the case of Gist, Roberts and Talbot for grand larceny, found the accused guilty of petit larceny and sentenced them to pay a fine of $150 each or serve the equivalent in jail.
At 11:30 o'clock to-night the jury in the case of John Deering agreed on a verdict and Judge McDevitt was sworn. The verdict was guilty of petit larceny with recommendation to the mercy of the court. Attorney Wines, for the defense, waived the delay in sentence, and Judge McDevitt fined Deering $50 and costs.
The 12 jury was sworn in the case of Thomas Bryant, accused of murder, have been cited to appear before the court at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Winnipeg Held Up.
By the Standard's Special Wire.
BUTTE, June 20.—This morning at about 2 o'clock, "Winnipeg," the hackman, was returning from a trip to Walkerville. When on top of the summit a man suddenly sprang into the middle of the street and caught one of the horses by the bridle. The horse began to jump and plunge until it broke its harness. All this time "Winnipeg" was endeavoring to persuade the man to get go, but the fellow hung on until the driver drew a bead on him with a revolver, when he took to his heels and disappeared in the darkness. What his object was cannot be conjectured, unless it was to hold up the outfit.

A New Express Company.
By the Standard's Special Wire.
BUTTE, June 20.—The completion of the Butte & Bozeman road gives the Northern Pacific a direct entrance to Butte and also an additional express company—the Northern Pacific. Superintendent Hay visited the city a few days ago and arranged for the establishment of an office here. By an agreement with the Pacific Express company, Carroll Smith, agent of the latter in the same city, the capacity for the Northern Pacific, the two companies maintaining a joint office. Already considerable business is being done over the new route.

TO CREMATE OR NOT
Officials Agitated Over the Question of Garbage Destruction.

Mayor Valiton Declares a Crematory For the Burning of Offal to be Necessary For the Protection of the City's Health.

By the Standard's Special Wire.
BUTTE, June 20.—To cremate or not to cremate is the question which is agitating the minds of city officials at present. The cremation in question does not refer to dead bodies, but to the refuse garbage, night soil, etc., of the city of Butte.
At the last council meeting the offer of the Engle Sanitary & Crematory company of Des Moines, Iowa, to put in a cremator, was referred to the health committee. The matter is now under consideration. The cost of the cremator will be $7,000. What the advice of the health committee will be is not known, but the proposition is regarded favorably by many. Mayor Valiton was to-day asked his opinion and said:
" We need one. We have no dumping ground and I don't know where we can get one. It is an imposition to dump dead animals and refuse in the southwestern part of the city as at present. We are liable at any time to be enjoined from doing so, for there are inhabitants in that locality, buildings are being erected there every day, and the property is becoming very valuable. It is difficult to see how we can get along without a cremator longer. It will soon be an absolute necessity.
The cremator could soon be made self supporting. Residents pay $1 for the removal of a dead horse or cow, and $1 for a dead dog. They could be made to pay this to the city instead of to an outside party. The removal of garbage and night soil can also be charged for. The city can take charge of the whole matter, and the cremator is likely to pay for itself very soon. Of course, it will cost $7,000. But what is $7,000, expended for sanitary purposes?"
Health Officer Roberts said: "A question that has been agitating us is, where will we find dumping ground for all the refuse that is to be collected under the new sanitary regulations. The cremator would solve this problem. The cremator is, I believe, the best one in existence. There is no stench, and it could be located at the corner of Main and Broadway with no one knowing that anything unusual was going on. One fire consumes another, and thus there is no stench whatever."
The work of collecting the garbage of the city will start next week. There will be a general cleaning up. The sanitary policeman has not yet been appointed. The office will need a mighty good man and the authorities should not let expense stand in the way of obtaining a thoroughly competent and efficient officer.

THE KANGAROO COURT.
Sheriff Discusses the Code of the Court Carried on by Prisoners.
By the Standard's Special Wire.
BUTTE, June 20.—Sheriff Lloyd has received the following letter from Sheriff Quigley of Deer Lodge:
SHERIFF'S OFFICE, DEER LODGE, June 17.—John E. Laver, Sheriff of Missouri, writes me: "Dear Sir: As I have had more or less trouble with what the inmates of the jail term a 'Kangaroo' court, I write you to find out if the prisoners of your jail have such a court, and if they have what manner of punishment do they inflict on those who break the rules of the court. So to ascertain from you, whether it is customary with them to fine prisoners who may have some money in the hands of the jailor, and if when the party fined gives the jailor a written order for the money, whether the jailor honors the order, also the limit of the money fine you permit them to impose. If you will kindly furnish me a correct statement of how your prisoners conduct their court, I will be thankful. Yours Respectfully, JAMES T. QUIGLEY, Sheriff."
Sheriff Lloyd turned the matter over to the inmates of the county jail with the result that he received to-day a code of rule of the Kangaroo court to be sent to Deer Lodge. Judge Cummings is at present the presiding officer and prepared the code.
According to this code, the first thing to be done when a man is brought into jail is to search and then arraign him before the court. Here he is accused of breaking into jail, and if found guilty is fined $2.50 to $5.00 according to the size of his deposit with the sheriff's office. If he refuses to pay the fine he receives the full penalty of the law, 50 cobs well laid on. If he has no money he is made to sweep floors and clean up generally for seven days this being the police work of the jail and the sentence is called a sentence "to the floor." The court is very particular about the respect shown him and woe betide the man who shows the least disrespect. The men are all requested to wash their hands and faces before each meal, and to wash their clothing once each week. The cells must be scrubbed twice per week. The rules regarding cleanliness are especially severe and strictly enforced. Listening to the private conversation of others and making a loud noise after 9 o'clock are two of the pleasures which are strictly prohibited.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT.
A Workman Hurt in the Butte Reduction Works, Where Parkison Was Killed.
By the Standard's Special Wire.
BUTTE, June 20.—Mike Turck, employed in the concentrator of the Butte Reduction works, met with an accident this afternoon very near the place at which William Parkison was killed Monday night. Turck, who is a foreigner and speaks but little English, was removed to the St. James hospital after the accident, where he was seen by a STANDARD reporter. As near as could be made out from his broken account of the accident, Turck was called upon to assist in repairing a broken belt connected with the elevator. In attempting to reattach the belt after it had been repaired, his left leg was caught by another and larger belt and drawn against a pulley, near which he was standing. Both bones of the leg were broken a few inches above the ankle. Dr. Cummings was summoned and ordered the man taken to the hospital, where he set the broken bones.

TREW THEMSELVES.
Two Teams That Turned the Thoroughfares Into a Circus Ring.
By the Standard's Special Wire.
BUTTE, June 20.—Two runaways occurred almost at the same instant about 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. A team attached to a scraper, working at the court house, ran away down Granite street, turned into Wyoming, and finally threw themselves violently against the front door of the McDermott hotel. A pane of glass was smashed and one of the horses was cut, not seriously.
The team attached to Tuft's job wagon ran down Main street at a furious pace at the same instant. The driver turned his horses into East Park street. One horse fell down in turning, thus preventing greater loss than some cut harness and a few bruises.
