

MISSOULA MATTERS.

Suicide Near Frenchtown Trials and Sentences in the District Court.

Special to the Standard.

MISSOULA, June 24.—Drs. Billinger, Parsons and Crain received their commissions as pension examiners yesterday. Deputy Sheriff Lang arrived from the Flathead country to-day. He brought Bandmann's horses down as far as Rivalli. He will appear as a witness against the men under arrest for stealing them.

Grant Swaney, the attorney from Demersville is in the city.

A number of people went from here to Frenchtown to-day to assist in the celebration of St. Jean Baptiste's day, the great Canadian holiday.

Posters are out advertising a great Fourth of July celebration at Superior. The programme for the day will consist of reading the Declaration of Independence, an oration by Hon. Thomas Butler, music, horse racing, athletic sports, and in the evening fire works and a grand ball. Not content with one day the enthusiastic people will celebrate the 5th with a wrestling match between Dan Fraser of Butte and George Beaumont of Spokane Falls, a trapeze and tight rope performance, pigeon shooting and a base ball game between the Carter and Pardee teams.

Hiram Richards this afternoon brought in the carcass of a yearling cinnamon bear from Deer creek, seven miles east of here. The motion made by Fitzpatrick's attorney yesterday afternoon for his acquittal on the grounds of insufficient evidence having been introduced by the prosecution, was overruled. This morning the testimony for the defense was heard. The arguments were made this afternoon and at about 4:30 o'clock the case was given to the jury. At 5:40 no agreement had been reached.

The case of Rutherford vs. Clure et al., for foreclosing of a lien, was settled this afternoon. The plaintiff was represented by Marshall, Reeves & Marshall and the defendants by Woody & Webster. By consent of the council, Attorney Stiff was appointed to preside as judge, as Judge Marshall was interested as an attorney. The case was brought before the court and in about two minutes the plaintiff paid the costs and had the case dismissed.

This morning a man came in from nine miles below Frenchtown and called the coroner to go down there and hold an inquest over the body of a man found hanging there. The first report was that it was that of a Swede who had committed suicide. Later it was said to be that of the son of a prominent rancher of that neighborhood.

Amrose Burke, an attorney from Council Bluffs, Ia., has come to Missoula to engage in the practice of law.

Officer Houtchens this morning ran in a drunk who was lying on the sidewalk near the Rodgers house. The man's nose was smashed, and he claimed to have been struck by somebody. Bystanders said he had fallen down.

Henry Matson, the man who cut Aldo, a Findlander, in a saloon near the depot some time ago, plead guilty and was sentenced to two years and a half in the penitentiary. As he cannot speak English and there was no interpreter at the time, Judge Marshall has permitted him, at his own request, to change the plea to not guilty and stand trial. His case comes up to-morrow.

Coroner Myers returned from Frenchtown this evening. The story of the suicide as told by him is as follows: Charles Lammgren, a Scandinavian, 17 or 18 years old, has been working on the Northern Pacific and Montana road at Bilien camp about twelve miles below Frenchtown. On Sunday when the rest of the men went to work he stayed in the camp and washed his clothes, and then went fishing. Later he came back and read his Bible and catechism. When the men returned in the evening they joked with him about his not working and he returned their jokes and seemed as cheerful as usual. He has expressed dissatisfaction with this country and said he would return home when he got money enough. Sunday evening he went up in the woods near the camp. Monday morning he had not returned and a man was sent to hunt him. In the afternoon three men were sent out and as they were unsuccessful, after supper the whole camp turned out and soon found him hanging to a tree. He had doubled a tent cord, made a loop and put it around his neck and tied the loose ends to a branch four or five feet from the ground. When found he was sitting on the ground with the palms of his hands bloody from striking them on the ground in his struggles. The coroner was notified by telegraph and a man came for him. An inquest was held and the jury brought in a verdict of suicide. On the person of the deceased were found a certificate of deposit for $27 on the state bank of Duluth and a memorandum of a Northern Pacific time check left for collection at the Western Montana National bank of Missoula. Your correspondent learned that he had a satchel at the California house in this city but as the house is kept by a Chinaman and most of the guests are foreigners of recent arrival, nothing could be learned concerning his name or history.

About 8 o'clock this evening the jury in the case of the State vs. Fitzpatrick made known that they agreed. Court was called and they returned a verdict of guilty as indicted and fixed the sentence at one year in the state penitentiary. Notice of motion for a new trial was given.

ELECTRIC LIGHT FOR DILLON.

Acceptance of a Franchise Granted by That City to Butte Parties.

BUTTE, June 24.—C. S. Warren, acting for the Beaverhead Water, Light & Power company, to-day forwarded to Dillon acceptance of the franchise granted the company by the city council of that place to supply the town with electric lights. A franchise has also been granted to the same company to supply the city with water.

Acceptance of the latter franchise need not be signified before July 14. Upon completion, if necessary, preliminary surveys will be made and plans completed for active construction of the works. The company is composed of C. S. Warren, Lee Mantle, George W. Irvine, H. L. Frank, B. F. White and E. J. Carter.

PAUL DAVIS' IDEA.

He Will Erect a Huge Bathing Place at Columbia Gardens.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, June 24.—Among its many other metropolitan features and attractions, Butte is soon to have a first-class natorium. Ever since Paul Davis secured an interest in the Columbia gardens he has been wondering what to use to apply the large amount of water which gushes forth from innumerable springs within the grounds. Recently an idea struck him which he is now preparing to put into execution. He has decided upon the erection of a huge natorium, containing both plunge and individual baths. The building will be very ornate and supplied with all conveniences. As soon as the necessary preliminaries can be arranged work on the structure will begin.
