W. H. Virgin, of "A" company, Louisiana rifles, which acted as body guard to Rex 11 of the Ogden carnival, visited this city yesterday. Mr. Virgin's home is at New Orleans and his surprise at the condition of things in this part of the land was great. He returned South last night and with a most excellent opinion of Butte and its people.

The Miners' union has decided to give a picnic on August 24. The following committee is in charge: W. E. Deeney, Daniel Drew, William Jane, P. F. Boland, E. E. Kelley, Jas. H. Hall, Owen Holan, R. E. Williams, James Kerrigan, William Verran, J. W. McGraw, Ed. Shields, John Bolitho, Michael McKenitney, John C. Bondey, George Clark, Joseph Thomas, J. Eddy, J. W. Noble, James McCann and Treasurer Bryan.

A Deserved Promotion.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, July 9.—H. P. Clark, for several months city freight agent of the Northern Pacific has been appointed agent for the company at Missoula and will leave for his new post of duty to-morrow. Mr. Clark is an exceptionally bright young gentleman, possessing to a high degree the requirements of a first-class railroad man and his present promotion is but a step toward greater advancement. During his residence in Butte he made many friends and was one of the most successful freight men in the city.

Bozeman's Worthy Gift.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, July 9.—Judge A. H. Barret, president of the board of trade, received today a case of magnificent Bozeman strawberries. Accompanying them was a card reading, "Compliments of Bozeman." The berries are such as only Bozeman can raise, being healthy, vigorous, good-sized, generous, mountain berries, three times the size of any of her berries and as delicious in flavor as they are splendid in size. The gift was in appreciation of Mr. Barret's efforts to entertain Bozeman on the occasion of the recent excursion from that city.

THEY ALL WALKED OUT

Compositors of the "Daily Miner" go on Strike and Tie Up the Paper.

Statement of the Men's Grievances—They Demand the Discharge of Some Fellow Employees—The Management Refuses.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, July 10, 1 A. M.—All of the compositors of the Miner walked out of that office at 7 o'clock this evening, and as a consequence no paper will be published to-morrow and probably not for several days. The difference which resulted in the walkout arose some two weeks ago. It culminated this evening when a committee of four walked in on Manager Haig and handed him the following:

Resolved, That we demand the resignation from the Miner of Messrs. Hall, Gawley and Kloune from their respective positions of telegraph editor, foreman and proof-reader, for causes obnoxious to the union.

Signed: THE CHAPEL.

The communication was the subject of a long discussion between Mr. Haig and the committee. No agreement was arrived at, however, and at 7 o'clock the 17 compositors, together with nearly an equal number of "subs" walked out.

At 8:30 o'clock it looked as though there might be a settlement, as Messrs. Hall and Gawley resigned their positions in order to relieve the office from its embarrassment. Before the compositors had again gone to work, however, W. A. Clark, the proprietor of the paper, appeared at the office and refused to accept the resignations. He considered that the union had no right to interfere with the personnel of the editorial staff, and if need be he would shut down the office for a week or even a month. Negotiations were then broken off.

Manager Haig said to-night: "We will not publish to-morrow and perhaps not for three or four days. We will issue a circular to our subscribers stating the reason for our non-appearance and will distribute them in the morning. I believe that the interference of the union with an editorial staff is without precedent and will not be sustained by the union. A meeting of the union was held to-night at the Inter-Mountain office, and I am told it was a very stormy session. I am also told that Mr. Peck, president of the union, does not sustain the action of the Miner chapel and has telegraphed to Helena, Anaconda and Denver for men and also to Mr. Plank, president of the International union to come on at once. I am confident that Mr. Plank will not sustain the action of the local union, but I suppose we can do nothing until his arrival. He is now in Indianapolis.

"Mr. Gawley gave me perfect satisfaction as foreman and the committee of the chapel could assign no definite reason for demanding his release." A committee of the Miner chapel called at the STANDARD office with a request that their side of the matter be given to the public. According to the statement of the committee the present difficulty had its beginning several weeks ago in a request sent by the manager of the Miner to Denver asking that 15 compositors be sent on at once. Before any attention was paid to the request the Denver union telegraphed to the local union asking what the trouble was and a reply was telegraphed back that no men were needed and not to send any. Immediately following this a meeting of the Miner chapel was held and the matter thoroughly discussed with the conclusion that a demand was made upon the manager for the discharge of Frank Hall, the foreman, between whom and the compositors the best of feeling has not existed for some time.

A proposition was submitted by Mr. Haig that Theodore Gawley, telegraph editor, be allowed to take charge of the composing room, while Hall was to act as successor to Gawley for a week or until another man could be secured. The proposition was accepted and the change made, but contrary to promise, the committee claimed, no attempt was made to discharge Hall as agreed. This failure on the part of the manager to adhere to his agreement is one of the causes of the trouble. Another source of dissatisfaction is the manner in which the committee claimed Kloune, the proof reader acts. The committee charged him with incompetency and a total disregard for all "style," division of words, spelling, etc., making it impossible for the compositors of the office to follow any "style," either as dictated by the office or general use. These matters and the action of Gawley—by the way, a union printer—in sustaining the manager in his determination to allow Hall to remain in the employ of the office after his discharge had been promised, precipitated to-night's walk-out.

After the chapel had fully decided to strike, a meeting of the union was held at which President Peck presided. The Miner chapel presented its grievances and the union decided to sustain its action. While the union was in session a messenger appeared with a note from Mr. Haig, manager of the Miner, notifying the union that he had accepted the resignations of Gawley, Kloune and Hall.

Prior to the receipt of this communication the union voted to declare the Miner an unfair office, and all union men who consented to work there during the enforcement of this resolution as unfair men.

With the receipt of the communication the vote declaring the office unfair was rescinded, and the men decided to return to work. In a few minutes, however, another communication was received from Mr. Haig withdrawing the first one, thus allowing the matter to assume its original form. The union then again passed a resolution declaring the office unfair and adjourned.

The committee of the chapel considers it doubtful if Mr. Plank will come to Butte to act as arbitrator. The committee says that the telegram to Mr. Plank was not sent by the Union but by the Miner office.

They are on the Way.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, July 9.—General Manager Mullen and Superintendent Kimberley, of the Northern Pacific railroad, left St. Paul on Tuesday on their way to this city. They intended to start a day or two earlier but were detained. They are expected in this city to-morrow or on Friday, the object of their visit being to arrange about the through train service over the Butte and Bozeman short line.

A Pretty and Clever Dog.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, July 9.—J. W. Murphy's St. Charles spaniel, "Dick," is among the latest arrivals in Butte. "Dick" is lately from Salt Lake formerly of Tacoma and more recently of Minneapolis. He is a tourist dog in favor as they are splendid in size. The gift was in appreciation of Mr. Barret's efforts to entertain Bozeman on the occasion of the recent excursion from that city.

CIVIL SUITS ON TRIAL.

Cases That Were Heard in the District Court Yesterday.

BUTTE, July 9.—The attention of the district court during most of the time to-day was given to the case of Sands & Boyce vs. Bowes. The suit was brought to recover the amount of a note given in 1886 by J. M. Bowes. The note amounted to about $500. Thompson Campbell appeared for the complainants and G. W. Stapleton for the defendant. Counter claims to the amount of the note were made by the defendant. Among these was the profit supposed to have been derived by Sands & Boyce through the sale of some furniture consigned to the former by Mr. Bowes. This claim was disputed, but another to the amount of $155 was conceded. Messrs. Bowes, Boyce and others were called on the stand. Mr. Bowes could not clearly remember all the transactions of the time, and had been so unfortunate as to have his books destroyed by fire.

The evidence was nearly all in by the 12 o'clock adjournment. At 2 o'clock Mr. Bowes was called for a few moments, the books of Sands & Boyce were produced, and the case was given to the jury at 3:30. The jury returned at 4:30 p. m. rendering a verdict in favor of the plaintiff to the amount of $318.80 and costs.

Meantime the case of T. C. Jackson versus Utah & Northern railway had been called. McBride and Halderman appeared for the complainant and Shropshire & Wines for the defense. Suit is brought for the recovery of $180 damages to cattle belonging to complainant. It is alleged that twice in the winter of 1887-7 Utah & Northern trains ran on, and killed plaintiff's cattle in Big Hole canon. It is further claimed that this injury was done through negligence on the part of employees of the road. It is claimed by the defense that the carelessness was the plaintiff's in driving the cattle into the canon. This Jackson denied on the stand and his counsel endeavored to prove that the company made itself liable because section boss Sullivan had dressed the dead animals and sent the meat and hides to the company. Jackson claimed to have found one of his horses near the bosses' quarters. Jackson was still on the stand when the case was adjourned at 5:30 p. m.

DIDN'T PAN OUT.

Two Gentlemen Who Supposed Some Things and Had to Pay for It.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, July 9.—To file a complaint against a person, charging him with having committed an offense and then proving it on trial are two entirely different matters. Lyeurgus Orr and Simon Erickson are now fully convinced of this, no matter what doubts on that proposition they may have entertained heretofore.

A few days ago the former, who is a saloon keeper on South Arizona street, complained in Judge Newkirk's court that Thomas Connors had attempted to rob a man in his saloon. So positive was Orr that Connors was trying to forcibly pick a companion's pocket that he covered Connors with a revolver until a policeman was summoned to arrest him. When the case was tried to-day the case assumed an altogether different hue. Orr could not swear that he saw Connors take anything from the drunken man, neither could he testify to a little story concerning threats against himself made by Connors, which he previously related to the county attorney. On the other hand the defendant proved that he and the drunken man were partners and that he was simply trying to induce the latter to go to sleep in a room in rear of the saloon.

The court at once discharged the defendant, and as Orr was inclined to find fault with the action and also censured the prosecuting attorney for his manner of conducting the case, his honor assessed him with the costs, $21.70.

Erickson caused the arrest, Saturday morning, of John Lederman and Fred Leary for the purpose of recovering a ring and stealing $100. The case was tried this afternoon and so slight was the cause for action that Erickson was taxed with the costs, amounting to nearly $50.

JOHN ROBINSON MUST PAY.

He Pitched His Tent Upon Harris' Ground and Must Pay Rent.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, July 8.—The attachment suit of William E. Harris vs. John Robinson was tried before Judge Newkirk to-day. The case, it will be remembered, was instituted to recover the sum of $900 which plaintiff claimed as rent due him for the use of ground by the defendant. The defendant, proprietor of Robinson's circus, had caused his tent to be pitched on ground claimed by Harris, and when demand was made of him for rent he resisted payment on the score that Harris had no right to the ground whatever, never having acquired ownership.

On trial to-day Harris proved conclusive ownership and judgment for the amount prayed for in the complaint, together with costs, was rendered in his favor. Assistant County Attorney Cotter appeared for the plaintiff and Colonel McCutcheon represented the circus. No testimony for the defense was heard, decision being rendered on the showing made by the plaintiff.

A CONVENIENT WEDDING TRIP.

How Mr. Oppenheim Avoided Some Bothersome Bills.

Special Correspondence of the Standard.

BUTTE, July 9.—The name of E. M. Oppenheim has become familiar in this city owing to his contest with the city in regard to a license to run a labor agency. Owing to the many complaints that had been received regarding him from persons desiring employment, the city closed him up. Consequently, however, he was granted permission to conduct an office which he ran in Wyoming street opposite the McDermott.

Mr. Oppenheim is, however, at last out of the city. He was married some three weeks ago and went to Tacoma, ostensibly on his wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Oppenheim have not returned and it is learned that they are at Tacoma and intend to remain there. Their office here was left behind as were also a few small bills for which Mr. Oppenheim had no use. The office is now run by another firm.

The Brigade Didn't Meet.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, July 9.—No meeting of the Butte fire brigade was held to-night, a quorum not being present. The firemen unfortunately fell behind in their Fourth of July ball. Another meeting will be called in a few days to settle up the affairs of the ball and also to make arrangements for the tournament at Anaconda.

The Gold Boot, No. 16 West Park, and don't you forget it.

Notice.

Bids will be received on or before July 15, for the construction of two school houses. Plans and specifications may be seen by applying to A. L. Stone, superintendent. By order trustees.

FOR A NEW CITY HALL.

It Now Looks as if Butte Will Have a Respectable City Building.

To-Night a Special Meeting of the Council Will be Held to Consider the Question—A Site on Broadway.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, July 9.—It looks very much now as though Butte will have a city hall before many months have passed. To-day a committee of the council, headed by Alderman McDermott, has been busy looking for a site. The committee succeeded in obtaining a refusal of 10 feet of ground east of the lot purchased by the city a year ago on East Broadway. The lot is 30 feet front and with 10 feet additional would make a creditable block. The location is probably as good as can be obtained. Park street would be preferable, if a location could be obtained near Main, but the committee has been unable to find a location on that street except at ruinous prices. Granite street is considered too far up and consequently the location will probably be in Broadway.

A special meeting of the city council has been called for to-morrow night to consider the matter of putting up a city hall. In the last council there was too decided a division of opinion to permit of agreement on a site, the Broadway and Park street elements being nearly divided. With the present city hall bonds and the new ones that will probably be voted at the special election in August there will be ample funds to put up a hall that will be a credit to the city.

A FINE HAS NO TERRORS.

Loafers Who Are Fined Don't Have to Pay and Don't Care.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, July 9.—A money fine imposed upon the average "pinkie" when convicted of vagrancy has no terrors for those barnacles and in nowise deters them from continuing to be barnacles upon the community. Last night Officer Anderson arrested for vagrancy a notorious vagrant and loafer named McConoughy, who has been repeatedly before the police for the same offense. To-day he was arraigned and convicted and the usual fine imposed. He smilingly accepted the decision and motioning to the woman off whose shame he lives to follow him walked into the clerk's office and asked the amount of the fine and costs. When told he calmly replied, "There's nothing like having a roll ready for such times as this." The woman turned back, stooped down and when she had again recovered an upright position, handed the clerk the amount of her friend's indebtedness to this city.

To continue fining such creatures is but to levy an additional tax upon the poor, degraded women that support them. Nothing short of imprisonment to labor with the chain gang will rid the city of their presence. So long as they themselves are not compelled to earn money with which to pay fines, they are absolutely indifferent as to the number of times such fines are imposed, knowing well that the unfortunate women upon whom they prey stand ready to assist them.

Arrested for Larceny.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, July 9.—Deputy Sheriff McDonald, horse officer at the Comique arrested Lulu Howard, one of the waitresses to-night on a charge of larceny. James Green, one of the down-stairs patrons, accused the woman of stealing $4 from him by failing to return the proper change. Green alleges that he bought a bottle of beer and then a bottle of wine amounting in all to $6; that he gave Lulu $10, expecting $4 back, but that she failed to return the change and when asked to do so refused, saying nothing was coming to him.

Board of Trade Meeting.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, July 9.—President Barret calls a meeting of the board of trade to be held to-morrow evening at the court house. The meeting will be the regular monthly meeting. It is the wish of Mr. Barret to take action in regard to the Northern Pacific road and its treatment of Butte. A committee will probably be appointed to see the shippers of Butte and get them to unite in withdrawing patronage from the Northern Pacific. Action is also to be taken in regard to advertising Butte.
