THE WEATHER.

The daily record of the thermometer in this city for yesterday, as reported by C. W. Brandon, was as follows: 7 a. m., 6 degrees above; 12 m., 32 degrees above; 4 p. m., 31 degrees above; 8 p. m., 26 degrees above.

ABOUT THE CITY.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hawes a son, on Feb. 1.

It is understood that L. O. Leonard will remain permanently in Fort Wayne, where he now is.

Mrs. T. N. Brown of Rumsey, Mont., came to this city to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss May Keith.

Frank M. Leonard, the rustling civil engineer and reform newspaper man, was in the Copper City for a few hours last night.

William J. Gallagher and Miss Annie Corrigan were married Monday evening at St. Paul's church by Rev. Father De Seire.

Miss Ida Keith has accepted a position in a millinery store with her sister, Mrs. R. J. Osborn of Blackfoot, Idaho. She will go there March 1.

Rev. F. P. Tower, D. D., of Helena, president of the Montana University, will lecture at the Methodist Episcopal church next Monday evening, his subject being "Lack vs. Pluck." Dr. Tower is one of the best pulpit orators in the West, and his lecture will certainly be a treat.

A very bad man from the Wood River region in Idaho struck this city a few days ago and announced that he was a fighter from a land where men have to fight or get out. He was big and husky looking, and the rabble eyed him as they would have eyed John L. Sullivan.

Of the "Devil's Auction," which will be presented at Evans opera house Monday, Feb. 8, the North American says: William J. Gilmore brought one of his own attractions to his own theater last night, and showed to a large and boisterous audience what he could do in the line of spectacular shows.

Seovil-Keith.

Last evening at 8 o'clock, at the residence of the groom, 512 Cedar street, John Seovil was united in marriage to Miss May Keith, both of this city.

The bride was attired in a handsome cream silk trimmed with lace, draped with orange blossoms. The bridesmaid wore a drab cashmere trimmed in lace and beautifully draped with flowers.

Only near relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present. After the ceremony, and congratulations had been extended from all present all repaired to the dining room, where a splendid repast was served; then to the parlor, where a few hours were passed in social chat.

Mr. and Mrs. Seovil will live in this city.

IN THE NECK.

The Mormon Kid Is Safe for Sixty Days at Least.

The "Mormon Kid," whose Sunday name is Howell, was tried in Judge Rockwell's court yesterday upon a charge of having knocked an invalid named William Lemmon senseless. When the complaint was read to him and he was asked to plead he whispered, "I don't know nuthin' to say."

"Are you guilty or not?" "I give it up."

Two witnesses, Blake and Canovan, were called and testified that they were present at the time the bad man from Zion knocked Lemmon senseless. They swore that Lemmon asked "the Kid" for a chip to get a drink and was called some very bad names in reply. They both declared that the assault was entirely unprovoked; that Lemmon had used no bad language or threats but that he was talking to a man when the disciple of Brigham Young struck him a vicious blow on the mouth.

"Was Lemmon knocked senseless?" asked Prosecuting Attorney Winston.

"Knocked stiff as a poker and didn't know what hit him for 10 minutes."

"Have you any questions to ask the witnesses?" inquired the court of the prisoner.

"No; they have told more than I knew about it myself," sorrowfully replied the Kid.

"Yes, they have given me some information upon the subject too," replied the judge.

The court then sentenced the prisoner to 60 days in the county jail at Deer Lodge. The sentiment of the crowd who heard the testimony, was that he should have been hanged.

YARD'S CROOKEDNESS.

How He Was Involved in the Keystone Bank Failure.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 2.—At the hearing today of Henry H. Yard, who is involved with Bardsley and Marsh in the wreck of the Keystone bank, some evidence was introduced by United States Attorney Reid which created a decided sensation, and promises to unravel the mystery of the disappearance of the bank's entire capital. Government Expert Barrett testified that Yard's indebtedness at the time of the bank's closing, March last, was $493,785, including overdrafts of $78,661, of the remainder there are many certificates of deposit, and in no instance did Yard make a deposit to meet the certificates. Four of them, amounting to $20,000, were not charged against him. There were also notes outstanding amounting to $119,000. In the ledgers of the bank for 1888 and 1890 leaves were torn out where Yard's individual account would be. Yard was held in $20,000 bonds for trial.
