ANACONDA, MONTANA, TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 9, 1902.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

SONS OF ST. GEORGE

They Will Picnic Next Saturday at the Future Capital.

SILVER BOW COUNTY'S Four Lodges of the Sons of St. George will give their grand annual picnic next Saturday at Bozeman. They chose Bozeman on the recommendation of a sub-committee appointed to visit that city and ascertain whether or not suitable grounds and accommodations could be secured there. The members of the committee were highly pleased with the facilities offered at Bozeman for picnic parties, and were very enthusiastic over the reception and attention accorded them by the citizens of the town.

Since their return all arrangements have been completed, and the picnic next Saturday, the 13th, promises to be the greatest outing event of the season, both as to the number participating and the enjoyment to be derived. It is estimated that over 4,000 people will take advantage of the opportunity to ride over the most picturesque line of railway in Montana, and to make a personal acquaintance with the beauties of the most delightful residence city in the mountain states.

At the Bozeman end of the line no pains will be spared to make the visitors feel at home and to give them a day of unalloyed pleasure. To lend interest to the occasion, the citizens will put up eight or more town lots to be raffled off at 50 cents a chance. Liberal prizes will be hung up for rock drilling contests, the purses aggregating $500. The Sons of St. George will manage the contests, as, in fact, they will everything else, the citizens of Bozeman merely advancing the funds and preparing the grounds, pavilion, etcetera, for the accommodation of the visitors. Athletic games and sports of every description will be features of the day, and a large dancing pavilion will be provided for those who wish to indulge in that delightful exercise. The Alice band will furnish the music for the occasion, and the famous Centerville Glee club will entertain the crowd with selections of vocal music.

The Northern Pacific company has fixed the fare at $2 for the round trip, tickets good to return on regular trains until Sunday evening. The specials will leave Butte at 7 a. m., 7:45 a. m. and 8:30 a. m., and will run through to Bozeman with as little delay as possible. Returning they will leave Bozeman at 8, 9 and 10:30 p. m.

While the excursion is gotten up for pleasure, many people will no doubt take advantage of the cheap rates and go to Bozeman on business. But it matters not for what purpose they go, they cannot fail to be impressed with the wonderful beauty of the city and the many evidences of prosperity and progress visible on every hand. They will find a city of beautiful homes, inhabited by contented and happy people. They will fall in love with the place at once, and many of them will feel a desire to purchase a home and remain there the rest of their days. Then, when they make their wishes known, they will be offered so many desirable bargains that they will be at a loss to know which to choose. But if they will permit us to give them a bit of advice they will know just where to go and will lose no time in an aimless ramble about the city.

The West Side Addition lies just west of the city park, and it embraces the best residence lots in Bozeman. It can be reached by the street cars, which run within two blocks of it. An inspection will convince anyone of the beauty of location and the excellence of the soil in this addition, and a glance at the new buildings recently finished, and those in course of construction, will show that the town is rapidly building that way. There is always a reason why towns build in one direction more than another, and the reason that Bozeman is building westward is because the ground on the west side is better adapted for residence purposes than that on the east. It lies higher, has better facilities for drainage, and presents greater opportunities for picturesque adornment. The better class of residences are all found here, and that in itself is a great recommendation, as all are desirous of getting into as good a neighborhood as possible.

The West Side Addition is desirably located, whether considered from a business or social standpoint. It is but six blocks from the new high school building, seven blocks from the court house, four blocks from Nelson Story's elegant residence, two blocks from the electric street railway, which conveys passengers to every part of the city. The lots here are offered at reasonable prices and on easy terms.

For particulars enquire of
IKE N. SMITH,
Who will be at Bozeman with the excursion, or address him at Room 4 Owsley Block, Butte.

THEIR STORIES TOLD

Witnesses for the Prosecution Conclude Their Testimony.

A SHOW FOR THE DEFENSE

Miners Will Tell Their Version of the Coeur d'Alene Trouble Now-Interest in the Case.

Special Dispatch to the Standard.

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 8.—The miners' union cases were resumed in the federal court this morning. John A. Finch, one of the members of the Helena & Frisco Mining company, was put on the stand. His testimony was mainly corroborative of other testimony previously offered.

Frank M. Higgins testified that on the morning of the 11th he saw five men back of Dixon's saloon armed with rifles. Later on he saw Guard Bean killed. The man who fired at Bean stood near Dixon's saloon. He saw Bean fall. When he was hit he started convulsively whirling around, threw up his arms and fell. He was facing Dixon's saloon. He saw O'Brien at this time and he was armed with a rifle. He (the witness) was at Mission on the night of the trouble there. He was in the hotel when a gang of ruffians rode into the hotel and commenced shooting. He looked out of his window and saw William Black with a mob shooting at the non-union men who were unarmed. When Black fired at them, the men scattered. They were told to halt. Some did so, but others ran. When it became dark the miners jumped through the window of the hotel and escaped.

Witness Walker saw Guard Bean on the morning of July 11. He saw a large man back of Dixon's saloon point a gun at Bean.

Phillip Stanbaugh testified that on July 11 he was at Gem acting as fireman of the Milwaukee Mining company. He saw many armed men walking up the railroad track. On the 11th of July he saw armed men behind Dixon's saloon. He heard a shot and bullets struck near him. He went to the Gem hotel, and while there saw arms given to men in front of Godfrey's saloon. He saw Eaton, Paynter, O'Brien, McGee and others with guns on that occasion. He was at Mission on the evening of July 11. He saw William Black on horseback riding through the hamlet firing and yelling at non-union men.

John Moynahan, superintendent of the Gem mine, was at Gem on the morning of July 11. He saw O'Brien and others. Bushnell, attorney for the Miners' union, told him he must leave, assuring him that he and his men would be protected. He got his wife and son and daughter and left for Wallace. Next day Pettibone told him that he had better leave the country. He went as far as Mission. Here the counsel offered certain affidavits, to which the counsel for the defense objected. The objection was overruled. One affidavit was by J. P. Steel. He saw the blowing up of the Frisco mill and was at Mission. The man who acted as a leader at Gem, a union man, came to him there calling him a vile name and told him to run. He saw the man run and jump into the river and this Gem leader, a fat-faced fellow, shot at the man in the river. He thought the man was killed. He judged that there were 200 shots fired at Mission. The other affidavits were mainly corroborative.

John Ward stated in his affidavit that while he and others were being paid off by John A. Finch, Pettibone came in and said that if the "scabs" did not get out before the union men came back from Gardner they would be butchered. His testimony as to the Mission affair was important. He said he was seated in a car after supper, when some one said that the union men were coming. "I started down the track," he said, "when four or five Winchester were aimed at me and bullets commenced whizzing around me. They struck the ground like hailstones. I ran and when near the landing fell as if shot and rolled down the bank and got under the wharf. Finally two men came up. One was on horseback. He said: "You bet your life a horse is the thing to run the fellows down with."

The witness said that he saw one man covered with a six-shooter and robbed of a watch and chain and $24 in money. He heard one man say: "There goes Moynahan; catch him, we want to kill him."

G. M. Edwards said that he saw a union man loading up the Frisco penstock with giant powder. There were about 25 men in the mill at the time of explosion. He said that the union men did the shooting at Mission. When the firing started he ran and jumped over one man in the grass whom he believed was dead. He heard the man begging for his life. He heard the man talking about how many men they had killed. He saw Black who was on horseback. The witness said Dallas and O'Brien were at Frisco at the time of the fight there. He heard O'Brien say: "If they do not surrender, go up there and put some giant powder in there." At Mission he heard union men threaten to kill the non-union men if they did not tell them where Moynahan was.

William Hennan said that he was robbed of $20 at Mission and shot at several times. He saw a man robbed of a watch and chain. The man who shot at the witness wore a heavy mustache, was of good size and would weigh about 180 pounds. He said to the witness after robbing him: "Where is Moynahan?" The witness said he didn't know. He then said: "I will kill him if I see him."

A. Somer testified that Peter Breen came up the tunnel where the witness was in hiding and demanded his surrender. He described Breen as a tall fellow with a dark mustache. Other affidavits were introduced, but they were merely of cumulative character.

Judge Beatty said he would admit the affidavits in evidence and would consider such portions of them as he deemed pertinent. Photographs of the scene of the riots, together with a map of the district, were presented, whereupon the prosecution ended.

The presentation of evidence seems to cover all points and public curiosity is satisfied to know how the defendants can break the chain of evidence against them. The defense at this point introduced a motion of non-suit for the discharge of certain parties on the ground that they were not a party to the suit and that there was no evidence against them. They named Joseph Dailey, David McGee, George Smith, L. Nelson, Quinn Sullivan, S. H. Brochman, H. McFadden, J. Nicholson, Andrew Magnus, J. Fitzgerald, William Gaughan and Thomas Whalen. The court said as to some of those mentioned, there was evidence against them; as to the others he would examine the records. The motion of non-suit was overruled. As the counsel for the defense wished time for consultation before they commenced to introduce testimony, the court adjourned till Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

PUTTING THEM UNDER BONDS. A Number of Prisoners at Wallace Released Temporarily.

WALLACE, Aug. 8.—This morning Robert Neil, one of the men under bonds to appear for preliminary examination, approached Commissioner Huffman and inquired where the court would sit. The reply was that no provision had been made for a suitable room here and that he was seriously considering the advisability of taking all the prisoners to Coeur d'Alene city. Mr. Neil then went and hired and paid for Utley's hall and notified the commissioner that the prisoners were prepared to do business. The commissioner then continued the cases of those already under bond. He also brought about 50 other prisoners before him and set their bonds for appearance before the court at Coeur d'Alene city in sums ranging from $500 to $7,500. Twenty-one furnished the required bond and it is very likely that most of the others will do so soon as they can communicate with their friends.

Those released to-night were: Charles Isaacs, Richard Thomas, R. A. Wise, Mike Conroy, Thomas McWilliams, J. N. Gillis, John S. Shanahan, Ed. Curtin, Thomas Ferguson, Mack Coy, Ed. S. Kelly, William Mills, Mike Creaney, Henry Maloney, Charles Flynn, Ed. Kelleghan, John J. Malloy, Frank Doyle, James McKay, Louis Floodstrom, James Mills. As the prisoners left the court room they were met at the door by their friends and warmly congratulated on their deliverance. Two more prisoners escaped last night and were seen across the Montana state line this morning. It is understood not to be the intention of the authorities to attempt to capture them as they were not bad men, but had evidently tired of confinement.

SHOOTIST DEACON'S CASE.

He Will Sue for a Divorce From His Unfaithful Spouse.

PARIS, Aug. 8.—The case of Edward Parker Deacon against his wife, whom he accuses of adultery with Abelle, has been postponed until October. The public prosecutor has refused to intervene in the case, saying that Deacon had better lay the affair before the court himself. The attorney general alleges that there is not sufficient grounds to presume adultery. The question was not submitted at the trial of Deacon at Nice, which resulted in a verdict of guilty against Deacon for killing M. Abelle at Cannes, and his sentence to one year's imprisonment. Deacon, hearing it would be recalled, declared that he would take no action against his wife under the French criminal law, contenting himself with procuring a divorce from her. He had taken the child from his wife's custody, and it was her attempt to regain possession of it by legal means that caused Deacon to change his mind and led him to institute proceedings against her for adultery.

COBDEN CLUB REPORT.

It Deals With Salisbury's Speech and the Tariff.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—The annual report of the Cobden club is largely devoted to Salisbury's evasive speech. The report laments the effect that Salisbury's language must have on European countries having a high protective tariff, and which were hanging out signals of distress at the very moment Salisbury hoisted the protection flag. The report says the speech will also have a beneficial effect on free trade in the United States.

At Brighton Beach.

BRIGHTON BEACH, Aug. 8.—One mile and a furlong—John Cavanaugh won. Long Dance second, Sandstone third. Time, 1:57 1/2.

Six and a half furlongs—Waiterson won, Inferno second, Ruth third. Time, 1:29 1/2.

Looks Bad For Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 8.—Hot winds continued in Kansas today to the great injury of the corn crop. Grain men here have advised from the state which lead them to the belief that only half a crop can be harvested now even under good conditions for the rest of the season. The continuance of hot winds will still further reduce the crop.

Two Records Broken.

HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 8.—Two Canadian bicycle records were lowered here today by Zimmerman of New York, as follows: The mile record from 2:15 4/5 to 2:12 2/5; the quarter-mile record, 39 5/8 down to 39 seconds.

SIR KNIGHTS AT DENVER

Twenty Thousand of Them Partaking of Colorado's Hospitality.

GRAND STREET PARADES

California's Mounted Corps Give a Gorgeous Drill—Indians and Cowboys Receive the Distinguished Visitors.

DENVER, Aug. 8.—The population of the city was increased nearly 35,000 to-day, and still the rush continues. Probably a quarter of those present are knights, the majority of visitors are Americans, but the crowd is very cosmopolitan. The scenes about the union depot are lively beyond description. In many trains numbers of passengers stood for hundreds of miles. They were parked to the very doors. The depot yards and streets of the city were filled with marching knights all day. The visiting commanderies were escorted to headquarters by local knights, and the ceremonies gave the city a gay look. The crowds were well handled and everybody given good accommodations. Besides the cosmopolitan features, Denver had a typical western aspect today. Representatives of four tribes of Indians who are giving a "wild west" exhibition, roamed about the city, while prairie schooners occasionally passed through the streets. The occupants are supplied with camping outfits and will put up tents in the outskirts where they will live during the conclave. The picturesque cowboys are on hand and caused a sensation. Their leader carried a Winchester rifle instead of a baton and commands were given by the crack of this arm. A band of cowboys are doing escort duty all day. The decorations in the business districts were finished today, and the eye was greeted on every side by Knights Templar emblems and artistically arranged bunting. Rows of incandescent colored electric lights were strung across the streets, and when illuminated to-night presents a beautiful appearance.

Receptions were tendered the visitors at the various clubs and headquarters to-night. When St. Johns of Philadelphia arrived with Grand Master of the grand commandery, he was received with a salute of 21 guns, and escorted to the temple, where Grand Commander Carr of Colorado made the address of welcome. General Gobin made a response. Learning that the prize competitive drill had been arranged for, General Gobin expressed his disapproval and Commander Carr countermanded the order for the drill. The date of the parade is still unsettled.

The Californians do not let an opportunity pass to entertain their friends and enjoy themselves. This afternoon Sir Knights C. H. Wilson and J. L. M. Shetterly gave a joint birthday party, at which speeches were made and good wishes exchanged. Honolulu is represented by one delegate, Sir Knight Williams, who was enthusiastically greeted. The drill of the mounted California drill corps was held this afternoon, and the men did themselves proud. Taking this as an example, California will be one of the notable commanderies in tomorrow's parade. The drill corps was given a dinner this evening by Sir Knight Boetticher of Denver, and later on the entire commandery attended a reception given by Mrs. Christie of Denver.

It is estimated that nearly 20,000 knights are in town. Among the commanderies which arrived today were the Coeur d'Alene of San Francisco and the Waldmar of Montana.

OCEAN GREYHOUNDS.

Two of Them Will Be Built for the Red Star Line.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—According to the Brooklyn Eagle one of its reporters today asked Mr. Ballet, of the firm owning the Red Star line, about the rumor that the Cramps of Philadelphia had secured a contract to build two ocean greyhounds to beat the records of the City of New York and the City of Paris. He said: "The contracts are signed, I saw Charley Cramp at Philadelphia a few days ago, and he told me that the drawings and specifications had been made. The contract calls for two ships of 11,000 tons each, but it is understood three such vessels are contracted for." He said further: "I don't see how congress can admit Captain Watkins of the City of Paris to naturalization except by a special bill. It certainly will be very wrong to admit foreign vessels to American registry, and at the same time have them out-fleeted by Englishmen."

London Market.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—Mark Lane Express: English wheats weaker with an average fall in the London market of 6d. Crops of wheat and barley good, beans and peas promise badly. Potatoes promise a yield of 6,500,000 tons. This is likely to limit the demand for wheat. Foreign wheats are heavy. American winter cargoes have fallen 6d. Corn is steady, barley quiet. Beans and peas firm today. English wheats unimproved; foreign firmer. California, Indian and Australian 6d higher. Oats 3d higher. Good sale corn at 6d advance. Flour steady. Peas firm.

War Against Alcohol.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 8.—At Astrabad, Persia, the priests denounced the alcoholic liquor traffic as being the cause of the outbreak of cholera. The populace at once determined to suppress the liquor traffic and raided and plundered all dram shops. Mobs destroyed all goods.

The Ghastly Helles.

TANGIER, Aug. 8.—The sultan's troops have brought here three captured rebel-boss treasurers. The heads of three rebels who surrendered in the battle were cut off and the ghastly trophies of victory sent to the sultan. The situation is more and more threatening.

Flames at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 8.—A fire today consumed a large portion of John Chatterton & Co.'s furniture factory, Geo. & Co.'s brass works and Fleishman & Co.'s building. Damage $200,000.

HOUSES BLOWN DOWN.

Hail and Wind Causes Much Damage in Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 8.—Last night's hail and wind storm was very severe locally, but the greatest damage was done in other parts of the state. Full reports have not been received, but the loss is likely to reach $1,000,000. In Lincoln, Yellow Medicine and Lyon counties alone the damage is estimated at more than $500,000. A tornado passed over Marshall this morning, taking the same course as the one last Friday. Several buildings were destroyed. Among others the Icelandic Lutheran church and the residence of a man named Cummings, which had just been rebuilt after being destroyed last Friday. The handsome cathedral windows in the Congregational and Methodist churches were destroyed. Two are reported killed at Marshall.

In St. Paul and Minneapolis a number of houses were struck by lightning and more or less damage by fire has followed, while the damage by wind and rain is very great. Similar reports have been received from other parts of the northwest.

THE NEW GANG.

Meeting of the Executive Committee of the People's Party.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 8.—The people's party national committee met here to-day. Only routine business was transacted. The Alabama committee was authorized to put a full electoral ticket in the field, it being agreed that the result of the recent election in that state argued well for the party's success this fall. A resolution was adopted to call a meeting of the national committee of the eastern states, at which will be arranged a vigorous plan for the campaign.

Chairman Taubeneck announced that 45 papers—17 democratic, the remainder republican—in Colorado had deserted the old parties and were supporting Weaver and Field. The Watson investigation in Washington was mentioned as having helped the party wonderfully. Treasurer Rankin announced that the people were responding liberally to the call for funds. Encouraging reports have been received from all over the South and West. The next meeting will be held here Sept. 12.

ORGANIZING IN TEXAS.

Garza, the Mexican Revolutionist, Again Heard From.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The Mexican charge d'affaires this morning showed the secretary of state a telegram from the president of Mexico, stating that it is rumored that the Garza revolutionists are reorganizing in Webb county, Texas. The war department at once ordered an investigation.

Four of Garza's Men Arrested.

RIO GRANDE CITY, Texas, Aug. 8.—Four more of the Garza revolutionists were arrested here to-day by United States Marshal Frick. The prisoners are Juan Garza, Vincente Garza, Felipe Salinas and Catend Sizondo, Mexican ranchers, under indictment in the United States court for violating the neutrality law. Federal officials here profess to know nothing of Garza's whereabouts, but it is probable they know more than they will tell.

MURDEROUS ITALIANS.

They Become Involved in a Fight and Use Knives With Fatal Effect.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Aug. 8.—While a number of young men, said to be railroad men, were walking down the Lehigh Valley railroad yards at Coxtown yesterday evening, they met a party of Italians with whom they began to quarrel. A few moments later the Italians drew knives and slashed right and left. Harry Beillette of Ashley was stabbed in the head and after walking down the railroad track about 50 yards, he dropped dead. Robert Williams was stabbed in the back, and is also reported to be dead. John Jones escaped with several cuts about the body.

STRYCHNINE THE CAUSE.

What a Post Mortem Examination in London Disclosed.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—The case of Thomas Neill, under indictment for poisoning Matilda Clover, was resumed to-day by Dr. Stevenson, government analyst, who examined the stomach of Marsh, Sirichel and the Clover girls, also supposed to be victims of Neill, testified that he had found strychnine in the organs examined and this was undoubtedly the cause of death.

STRIKERS LOSE IN NEW YORK.

Twenty Thousand Men Out of Work in the Big City.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—The general strike in the building trades, in sympathy for the locked-out non-union material deliverers, will probably end to-day. The walking delegates have met defeat in the strike, involving 30,000 laborers. This morning the Framers' union, comprising 2,000 men, gave up the struggle and returned to work.

FORTY-FIVE DROWNED.

A Pleasure Steamer Run Down Near a Finland Port.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—A dispatch from Nelsjogaard, Finland, announces that a terrible maritime disaster has occurred near there. A pleasure steamer was run down outside the harbor and 45 persons drowned.

Harrison at Loon Lake.

LOON LAKE, Aug. 8.—President Harrison spent the day in a quiet way. Last evening he attended with Mrs. Dimmock, a service in the parlors of the hotel. This morning he went driving. A fishing trip will be made to-morrow. Mrs. Harrison continues in good spirits.

To the Bottom of the Sea.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—Two torpedo boats attached to the British blue squadron while maneuvering near Portsmouth today came into collision. One was so badly damaged that she sank a few minutes after the accident. The other boat rescued everybody from the sinking vessel.

Allerton May Recover.

DEBUIQUE, Iowa, Aug. 8.—Dr. C. P. Whitwell, the veterinarian who attended Allerton at Davenport, stated today that he believes the famous horse will recover from his injury in time to trot again this year.

THE SONS OF VETERANS

Thousands of Them at the Annual Encampment at Helena.

THE GOVERNOR'S WELCOME

Major Davis, Founder of the Organization, Present—Sixth Annual Meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Special Dispatch to the Standard.

HELENA, Aug. 8.—The eleventh annual encampment of the Sons of Veterans of the United States, and the sixth annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid society, began here to-day. There is an attendance of about 5,000. A number of the sons are expected from Butte and Anaconda to take part in the grand parade on Wednesday. A public reception was given the sons and the members of the Ladies' Aid at the auditorium this afternoon. Governor Toole and Mayor Curtin welcomed the delegates. Responses were made by Commandery-in-Chief Bartow S. Weeks, Major A. D. Davis of Pittsburg, the father of the Sons of Veterans organization; Josephine Mulholland of Bloomington, Ill., familiar to the sons and Ladies' Aid as "Queeney" and F. P. Sterling, on behalf of the Grand Army. A short business session of the commandery-in-chief was held after the reception.

In the evening a ladies' reception was given at the Broadwater. The Sons and Ladies' Aid will be here until Monday. A crack infantry composed of Sons of Veterans arrived today from Spokane. It is entered for the competitive drill, and will take down the $1,000 prize, as no other entries will be made. The Spokane company have been invited to go to Butte and give an exhibition drill. They will leave for Butte on Saturday. They have $1,000 which they will bet on themselves against anything in the state.

WILL TRY AGAIN.

Another Effort to be Made Toward Settling the Iron Scale Trouble.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 8.—To-morrow afternoon a committee representing the local iron and steel manufacturers and workmen will resume deliberations over the wage scale. The question of settlement is uncertain. It is generally understood that the men do not favor arbitration and that it will not be considered. The sensation of the day at the upper Union mills was the resignation to-night of the superintendent and puddling boss, Richard Nichols, who was one of the most trusted workmen about the mill. The acquisition of Nichols greatly encouraged the strikers.

Nearly 200 men were taken to Homestead to-day. The eleven men changed with rioting at Duquesne had a hearing to-day. Two were released and nine held in $1,000 bail each. The workmen will make no information for inciting to riot to-day, but it will be done some day this week. Among the men now working in the Homestead plant are four well-known and at one time wealthy oil brokers.

Streator Re-Elected.

HOMESTEAD, Aug. 8.—Lieutenant-Colonel Streator tonight was unanimously re-elected to his position in the Tenth regiment. His reelection is an endorsement by all the commands of the punishment meted out to him.

Old Employees at Work.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 8.—The Duquesne steel works started up this morning with nearly all the old employees at work.

STANDING BY YOUNG.

Friends of the Executive Clerk Come to His Rescue.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The executive committee of the Gridiron club has adopted a resolution regarding the case of H. P. Young, formerly executive clerk, citing that the Gridiron club, having a knowledge and experience of the methods by which the news of executive sessions of the senate is procured by Washington correspondents, and having absolute faith in the integrity and fidelity of Young, declares its total disbelief in the imputation against his character in the United States senate, and puts on record its abhorrence of the unmanly and uncreditable method in which he was treated by the senate, from which he was entitled to expect fair play and full justice.

IT IS FASHIONABLE.

Two High-Toned Young Collegians Meet in the Prize Ring.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 8.—A prize fight in upper ten circles took place on the fair grounds at Ballston Spa this morning. The principals were Daniel W. Shea of Boston, a Harvard college student and a member of the Harvard crew and foot ball team, and Sydney Smith, a son of a wealthy and prominent family. The fight was the result of jealousy. It was a hard one and for blood. Smith knocked Shea out in the second round. The dispute as to the time of the second round nearly precipitated a general fight. The battle was according to London prize ring rules.

Only a Ray of Hope.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 8.—Judge Greet, attorney for H. Clay King, left for Nashville to-night with a batch of petitions to lay before the governor, requesting a commutation of the death sentence to a life imprisonment. In the meantime the construction of the scaffold is in progress, and on Wednesday a death watch will be placed on King.

He Isn't Coming.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Dr. Schiaparelli replied to the offer of the proprietor of a weekly paper to bring him to this country to investigate Mars as follows: "I am very thankful for your proposal, but I cannot accept it. The planet is too low for good observation. In my opinion the next opposition will give better opportunities."

Pardoned and Re-arrested.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 8.—James Faulkner, the Danville bank wrecker, who was released on the president's pardon to-day, was re-arrested on a warrant charging forgery in the second degree in certifying to false accounts of the bank.
