EDUCATION AND SUFFRAGE.

Two Lines in Which Women Have Accomplished Much During 1894. The year 1894 has been a busy one for women. Some of them have been actively engaged in praiseworthy pursuits...

ABOUT THE CITY.

Oregon apples at McKinnon & McKay's. Byron's complete works with the STANDARD. F. J. Brophy of Butte was in this city yesterday on business.

In the East, especially in New York, woman's political activity has been marked. The spring of 1894 saw a more popular demand for the suffrage than even the most ardent suffragists had expected to see.

Dr. Brown went over to Philipsburg yesterday for a short visit. The funeral of Andy Derby occurred yesterday at Hot Springs. L. E. Cassidy and C. H. Patton of Butte are guests at the Commercial hotel.

When the women of New York failed to obtain the right of suffrage they promptly went to work, says the New York World, to show how well they could have used that right and how well they could get along without it.

A meeting of the Masonic lodge will be held this evening, when there will be work in the first and second degrees.

Miss Helen Dortch of Georgia has borne up under the blow of having the Georgia legislature decide that a woman was ineligible to hold the office of private secretary to the governor.

Will Trathen, night clerk at the Montana, resigned yesterday and was succeeded by S. J. Smith, who takes the late shift behind the register.

Over in Onehunga, New Zealand, Mrs. Yates has shown a skeptical world what woman can do as mayor. Unfortunately, Mrs. Yates has shown it in such a way as to discourage the idea of feminine office-holding.

Henry S. Alward, business manager for "The New Boy," is in Anaconda arranging for the appearance of that company at Evans opera house Jan. 30.

Women have gained positions on school boards, noticeably in the case of Boston, where the achievements of Mrs. Emily Fifield on that body are pointed to with pride. Mrs. Fifield has managed to make the board pass an order which fills the hearts of juvenile Boston with despair.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. Lingo's, 117 East Third street, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. All members are requested to be present.

W. H. Burkhardt, the log breaker, has again been heard from, and as usual, he has a damage suit on hand. This time the victim is the Houston & Texas Central railroad. Burkhardt stepped from a train at Sherman, Texas, and his accommodating leg went out of joint. The officials are on to him, however, and have been looking up his Montana record which will not help Mr. Burkhardt's case any.

"The New Boy" The play of plays, the play that is natural and indescribably funny, is coming to this town. It will be at Evans opera house on Wednesday, Jan. 24. In London and other great cities it is running to enormous houses. In far away Australia it is the charming sensation of the year. It is all about a school boy and his ad-
