REACHED THE LIMIT

The Attendance at the University Larger Than Was Expected.

THERE WILL BE 100 BY OCT. 1

People of Missoula Are Willing to Assist in Beautifying the Permanent School Grounds—Now is the Proper Time.

Missoula, Sept. 15.—The state university has rounded out the first week of its existence and an examination of the situation leads to the most encouraging conclusions. The most liberal estimates of attendance made last spring place the enrollment for the opening term at from 60 to 75. This latter limit has already been reached and before Oct. 1 there will be 100 students enrolled at the university.

But there are yet many things in connection with the welfare of the new school which demand the care and attention of the people of Missoula. The citizens should be tireless in their efforts to advance its interests, and because it is well started there should be no abatement of interest. The liberal policy which Missoula has manifested regarding the school should be continued until the University of Montana shall be recognized as the leading institution of learning in the Northwest.

One of the first points which should receive attention, perhaps the very first, is the improvement of the grounds which will be the site of the permanent university building. These grounds should be fenced this fall or early in the spring, and when the next winter comes it should be set out along the streets leading to the university site and the grounds themselves should be transformed into a grove. All this can be done easily and without much expense and it must be done by the people of Missoula.

During the past few days a Standard reporter has called upon a number of leading business men in connection with this matter and every one of them has expressed his willingness to assist in the plan suggested. Water can be conveyed to the grounds for irrigating purposes and so distributed as to cover nearly the whole of the large campus with little expense. If this is done next spring the grounds will be in splendid condition when the university building is erected, and its beautiful grounds will be a source of pride to the people of this city, but in order to accomplish this everybody must contribute something and some plan should be agreed upon as soon as possible.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Missoula, Sept. 15.—Officials of the board of trade in correspondence with the Northern Pacific authorities to see if an exhibition car can be secured to display Missoula and Bitter Root valley products in Eastern Montana, Dakota and Minnesota.

The mineral land commissioners have moved camp from the Flathead country to Thompson Falls, where they will remain until they are informed that their work must cease for this year. The last information received from the interior department was that the appropriation would be exhausted between Sept. 15 and 20. As soon as the telegram is received the commissioners will start for their homes and no more work will be done this year.

Mrs. Keith has arrived from St. Paul to take charge of the trimming department of Mrs. Backett's millinery store. The indications are that she will add to the already great popularity of this establishment.

Mrs. Keith came in from the East last evening. She will leave to-morrow for Hamilton, where she will reside.

Col. John Lynch, of the Spur, is in the city to-day.

The Abernethy is still out at Corlan, superintending operations on the placer mines there. The reports that he sends in have been favorable until within a day or two. The sudden change in the tenor of his reports caused an immediate investigation and the directors ascertained that two days ago the men at work on the new flume uncovered a nest of rattlesnakes. Since that time he has refused to leave the cabin and has lost all track of the mining work.

Sheriff McLaughlin sold yesterday under foreclosure proceedings in the case of Cynthia W. Libby vs. J. B. Van Patten, lots 7 to 11, and 13 to 16, block 25, Park addition, for $500; in the case of the Industrial Trust Company vs. John McElvry et al., lots 14 and 15, block 27, School addition, for $743; in the case of the Industrial Trust Company vs. W. H. Dickinson et al., lots 18, 19 and 20, block 10, C. P. Higgins' addition, for $6,776.61. In each case the plaintiff was the purchaser.

The Physicians' Duty. Missoula, Sept. 15.—One provision of the new codes seems to be escaping the notice of the parties most concerned. The law requires all physicians to register with the county clerk all deaths and births up to date. The record books in the county clerk's office that are provided for the fulfillment of this law are blank, no record having been made by any physician. The importance of this law is great. It is a matter of surprise that it had not been enacted years ago. But now that it has become a law it should be followed, as the statistics of births and deaths are of inestimable value to any community.

Dates of the Three Fairs. Missoula, Sept. 15.—For the benefit of those unfortunate whose memory is so short that they forget dates before they know them the information is given once more that the Stevensville fair show will be held Sept. 19 and 20, the Missoula fair will occupy the dates Sept. 24, 25 and 26, the Hamilton fair will attract attention Oct. 1, 2 and 3.

The funeral of James Selkirk, the unfortunate switchman, was held yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the B. A. & P. employees. Every care was taken and a long cortege followed the hearse to the graveyard on the hill. The service at the grave was simple, but perfect in appointment. Rev. George W. Hayes, of the Presbyterian church, conducted the service, made a few appropriate remarks and offered prayer. A choir consisting of Messrs. Thomas and Healy, Misses Clara Trathen, M. J. Jones and Florence Redmond sang "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and "Nearer, My God to Thee" very effectively. Floral tributes were beautiful.

The arrivals at the Montana yesterday were: B. W. Freer, Cleveland, Ohio; D. M. Duffee, Phillipsburg; H. B. Allays, John V. Petritz, city; G. B. Hendson, Cleveland, Ohio; A. Surtan, Butte; George Power, Escanaba, Mich.; D. J. McDonald, city; Mrs. M. Cox, Medina, Butler, H. Anderson, H. W. Ericker, Bayou Paul Johnson, Salt Lake; T. Mittenberger, Omaha; James W. BROOKLYN BRIDGE.

Some Facts About This Large and Famous Structure From Harper's Round Table. For nearly five years I have been going over the Brooklyn bridge night and day, and it seems to me that every few days I see something in the arrangement of the details of the structure that I never saw before. It is a constant delight to watch the bridge under the varying conditions that affect it from day to day. One can see, for example, the carefully wired for the electric lights are strung. They are almost within reach of any person walking across the structure, and yet there is absolutely no danger from them. It is interesting to watch the tracing of the structure, how the big and little stays slope now this way and that, and to note just where they change in the slanting direction. It is also interesting at the dead of night to see the workmen apply one of the car cables, taking out some broken strand and waving in another.

I was talking with one of the guards recently, who had been on the bridge since the day it was opened. He said that early in the morning in the air high wind that came after the opening, he looked over to the New York side and apparently saw one of the biggest chimneys in town bending this way and that, and he started to run. He fired, waiting for it to fall. It didn't fall, although it bent far over, and he thought it must be wonderful mortar that could hold so many bricks together. Suddenly he noticed that the chimney was actually in line with one of the vertical cables, and he saw at once that it was the bridge and not the chimney that was swaying. The guard was unprepared for such a situation. Of course, the bridge was only moving a few inches from side to side, but when this man measured by a chimney a mile away, it seemed to move as much as the chimney had apparently been moving.

Resembled a Criminal. The Bavarian minister at Berne is likely to feel a good deal of natural resentment against the Swiss police force for some little time to come. He went the other day to Winterthur, the Swiss Biele, where the national rifle festival was being held, and was enjoying himself in a quiet, Teutonic fashion when suddenly he was seized by detectives and hauled off to the nearest lock-up. His demand for an explanation was met by the confident assertion that he was no other than a notorious criminal, who had been "wanted" for many months. The detectives were so sure they had the right man that they were not until a high government official had identified the unfortunate diplomat that they consented to his release. They had a portrait of the malefactor which closely resembled the features of the minister.

No essay recitation. First Desperado—"Bill, is the front gate propped open and have you got some red pepper all ready to throw at the dog?"

Second Desperado—"Yes, go ahead." First Desperado—"I'll bet you're a moment later, protected by coat-of-drum, baseball catcher's mask and major's bearskin cap—I am taking orders, sir, for the Authorized Edition of the Hor-Harvey debate on the Silver Question, sir.—Chicago Tribune.

IT IS NOT APPROVED

How the Public Generally Look at the Clark Verdict.

MAY GO TO SUPREME COURT

Remarkable Testimony of the Erring Daughter, Mary Stewart, Against Her Mother—It Was a Sad Spectacle Indeed.

Missoula, Sept. 15.—The conviction of Edward and Anna Clark of murder in the second degree has been the subject of much discussion to-day and the general opinion is not one of approval. The numerous expressions which have been heard to-day by the Standard's reporters may be summed up in this statement: The evidence certainly warranted the conviction of the accused of murder in the first degree or nothing. The interpretation of the instructions of Judge Woody to the jury were interpreted by the majority of the audience who heard them to convey the information that the jury must either find a verdict of guilty for murder in the first degree or else acquittal. There could be no compromise. Hence, the remarkable verdict brought in by the jury occasioned much surprise, which does not abate as the case is discussed.

The case presents one phase which is the saddest spectacle ever witnessed in the Fourth District court—the willing testimony of an erring daughter given against her mother. No more brazen, repulsive, degraded person ever occupied the witness chair in this court room than Mary Stewart. She smilingly testified to acts of her own that it seemed that no human being would acknowledge. That much of her testimony was not entitled to consideration is the opinion of nearly all who heard it. But she told her story and the state will take no action against her on the indictment returned by the grand jury. It is said, further, that the case now pending against Dr. Crain, another state witness, will not be prosecuted. The conviction of the Clarks certainly involved some powerful concessions.

The attorneys for the Clarks will move that it is not justified by the evidence. The case will probably be taken to the supreme court.

A Standard reporter learned this evening that the jury on the first ballot stood five for murder in the first degree and seven for murder in the second degree. At no time was there any vote for acquittal. This is surprising, as the general opinion was that a majority would be in favor of acquittal.

FROM OLD VIRGINIA.

Happenings That Attracted the Attention of People Over There. Special Correspondence of the Standard. Virginia City, Sept. 13.—A dissolution of one of the largest stock firms in the state took place last week. The firm name of Farrell & Varney has been doing business for the past twenty years in Madison county and was supposed to be the most extensive horse breeders in the state. Mr. Farrell has purchased the right, title and interest of all the horses, which is in the neighborhood of 2,000 head, and Mr. Varney is sole owner of the cattle, nearly 1,000 head. Mr. Varney moved his family to the ranch last Saturday.

Geysers parties are still inclined to go to the park, the latest being Mr. Closson and family of Twin Bridges. Quite a number of people visited the fair at Twin Bridges last week. Among those from this city were W. W. Cheely and wife, Mrs. Byrd, Mrs. Code, Miss Edna Thomas, Irene Trilby French, T. P. Pollard, P. H. Gohn, M. B. McLean, D. Hall, John Thomas and William Comley. They state that nature poured her blessings on the fair for several days as usual.

Mrs. Annie Hall and sons, accompanied by Miss Edna Thomas, left for Des Moines Saturday. D. W. Vickers and wife arrived from Monroe, Neb., Saturday. They will make their home with their parents in this city this winter.

Mrs. William Comley and child arrived from Missouri last evening and will make Virginia City their future home. William Comley, who has been seriously ill with a gripe for the past few months, is again able to be out and spin tales with the old veterans.

D. R. Beck left for Butte and vicinity last Thursday. D. R. is rustling for the Banker's Life of Des Moines, and has nearly written up policies to the amount of half a million.

The telephone line from this city to Sheridan is delayed on account of the boxes not being here. The Virginia City High school will open next Monday with the following teachers as instructors for the ensuing term: Principal, Prof. L. D. Hall; Intermediate, Miss Josephine McCloud; primary, Miss Janetie Day. The enrollment of the three departments will be about 100.

The county commissioners met in regular session last week and discussed the affairs of the county. W. C. Gilmer of Ennis was appointed game and fish warden for the county of Madison. Mr. Wilhart and family of Twin Bridges passed through this city en route for the park Wednesday.

Frank Metzler of Puller Springs was in the city this week.

Gayeties and Grassities.

One of the few sights more mournful than an old woman trying to appear young is a very young man trying to look old.

Bachelors are going to be mighty lonely in heaven. A home without children is like a garden without flowers.

Now it is the bicycle woman who has to wait while her husband completes his toilet.

We have a feeling of warm regard for the bloomer girl, because she does not care whether her cap is on straight or not.

"First love," said the elderly man, meditatively, "is a good deal like a mug of soda water. Each fizzes up mightily lively for about a minute."

"This world would be a paradise for each of us and a hell for all the others if each of us had all he thinks he ought to have."

Few things are more ludicrous than bogus dignity. Spain, in crushing truth to earth in Cuba, forgot to look out for the rebound.

General Campos, being knocked down and tied in a knot, is willing to spare his enemy's life. Our Lutheran brethren may not care to school the flag on top of all their tear houses by order of the legislature, but their conduct from 1861 to 1865 prove that they wear its image in their hearts.—Chicago Times-Herald.
