JOHN ALLPORT DEAD

Another Old-Timer in This State Passes Away.

HIS HOME WAS IN BASIN

He Has a Nephew in Montana and a Large Circle of Warm Friends - Funeral Arrangements Later.

John D. Allport, who came to Butte in 1863 along with Joe Ramsdell, died at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the McDermott hotel. Mr. Allport was one of the best known of Montana pioneers. He spent most of his time the past few years at Basin, but came to Butte a few weeks ago as a witness in the Mantle-Large suit. After the trial he went back to Basin, but felt poorly and on Friday returned to Butte. He went at once to the McDermott hotel, was assigned room 200, and did not leave again, sinking slowly until death came.

Mr. Allport had been ailing since last May, but his illness was not considered serious. In May last at Basin the buggy in which he was riding was struck by a locomotive, and he was thrown some distance, landing on his stomach and breast against a bowlder with great force. He never quite recovered from that injury. His death probably was caused by internal injuries received at that time, as he suffered often from internal hemorrhage.

Mr. Allport was unmarried. Although one of the first to reach Montana, he had no home of his own. During the past few days of his life he was, however, given every care by old friends, James A. Talbot, Lee Mantle and others were with him a great deal, and before leaving for the East Monday evening Mr. Mantle gave instructions for every care to be taken of the invalid. At the time of his death Mrs. Talbot and William Owsley were with him. Mr. Allport was about 64 years old, was born in New York, but was raised to manhood in Ann Arbor, Mich. During his residence of 32 years in Montana he acquired considerable property. He owned about half the townsite of Basin, had considerable ranch and mining property in Deer Lodge county and much mining property in the vicinity of Butte. He had money in the First National bank of Butte, in the banks of Helena and Boulder, and was a principal owner in the smelter at Boulder. His only known relatives save George J. Allport of this city, a nephew, and Mrs. George W. Kelly of Denver. Arrangements for the funeral will not be made until Mrs. Kelly is heard from.

Murphy Suspended.

San Francisco, Nov. 26.—R. M. Welch, who is in charge of L. A. W. racing matters in California, to-day received the following telegram from Chairman Gideon of the L. A. W. racing board: "Murphy permanently suspended. Stop his riding. Next man gets prize." This refers to C. M. Murphy, the crack class B man now in Southern California, and is the result of the protest filed against him for throwing a race in St. Louis in September last.

Jem Smith Wins.

London, Nov. 26.—At the Bolingbrook club to-day in a 20-round contest for £700 between Jem Smith and Dick Burge, Smith won in the seventh round.

They Quickly Retired.

Abbeville, S. C., Nov. 26.—An unsuccessful attempt was made this morning by a mob of 30 or 40 men to lynch the prisoners now in jail here charged with the murder of Nellie Bagwell, the young white woman whose body was almost cremated in the building burned near Hedges Tuesday night. But for the coolness and discretion of Jailer Nance and his father, the sheriff, the murderers would have been hanged. The mob came to the jail and aroused the jailer, saying they had a prisoner under commitment. The jailer suspected all was not well and immediately left the jail through the back door and notified the sheriff, who summoned the Abbeville rifles. The tread of the soldiers and the voice of Sheriff Nance were too much for the men who were thirsting for blood and they quietly went away.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Explosions of Cartridges Kill Many People and Destroy Property.

Madrid, Nov. 26.—Sixty-two bodies, of which 27 were women, have been recovered from the ruins of the cartridge factory at Palma, Island of Majorca, which was blown up yesterday. It is now said the explosion was caused by a workman who had been dismissed. Barcelona, Nov. 26.—Eighty persons, most of whom were women, were employed emptying old cartridges outside the walls of the town, when one of the cartridges exploded shattering the masonry and 14 men were instantly killed; 25 women and five men seriously injured.

New York, Nov. 26.—Joseph W. Wyant, engineer, was instantly killed and Andrew Muggins, engineer, fatally injured and several others severely scalded by the explosion of a steam pipe in Oscar Hammerstein's new theater and music hall to-day. The damage to the theater building is small.

The Indians are said to be killing and stealing cattle daily and the settlers are in a state of alarm. Several men are reported killed. A CONFESSION.

Young Montgomery Says He Killed His Parents.

Albany, Ore., Nov. 26.—Lloyd Montgomery, the 18-year-old boy under arrest for the murder of his father and mother and Daniel McKercher, near Brownsville Tuesday last, has made a full confession. He says he shot his father because he scolded him, and killed his mother and McKercher because they took his father's part.

HIS FIRST LECTURE

SENATOR HILL TALKS TO A MILWAUKEE AUDIENCE.

It Was an Elaboration Upon a Former Speech—He Defines True Americanism and Refers to "Titles."

Milwaukee, Nov. 26.—Senator Hill was greeted by an audience of about 400 people at his first appearance as public lecturer in this city to-night. The price of admission in the theater were too high, and that is given as an explanation for the small attendance. The audience consisted mainly of old-line democrats who entertained the senator during the day. The lecture was on the subject, "Liberty," its underlying idea being that the safest kind of liberty and government was that which did not interfere with individual liberty and did not attempt to legislate in matters of personal customs and habits. It was an elaboration upon a former speech of his delivered in New York, explaining why he was a democrat and why every true lover of liberty ought to be a democrat. He spoke at length of the Monroe doctrine, of which he showed himself to be a strong adherent, and proclaimed his sympathy with the Cubans in their present struggle for independence. He denounced the adoration for titles which was growing in certain quarters in America. True Americanism, as the senator understands it, was defined. Perhaps because it was his first lecturing effort, he required nearly an hour and a half to deliver his talk. Senator Hill was the guest of the Jefferson club after the lecture.

Miss Edith Is Married.

New York, Nov. 26.—Miss Edith Rockefeller was married to Harold H. McCormick at the Buckingham hotel to-day. The apartments where the ceremony took place were beautifully decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums placed against a background of palms. The bridal couple stood within a wishbone of white lilies and orchids, beneath a wedding veil of the same flowers. The guests comprised only the immediate relatives. Miss Alta Rockefeller, sister of the bride, was maid of honor; Rev. W. H. D. Faunce, assisted by Rev. Dr. John Hall, performed the ceremony. Immediately after the ceremony the bride cut the cake and distributed it to intimate friends, who returned to the Rockefeller mansion, No. 4 West Fifty-fourth street, where they were received by Mr. and Mrs. Rockefeller, and where a wedding breakfast was served.

Case in United States Court.

Special Dispatch to the Standard.
Helena, Nov. 26.—The trial of Henry R. Morris on the charge of perjury was commenced to-day in the United States court. Morris is accused of swearing falsely when making homestead entry before John M. Evans, register of the Missouri land office. The first evidence presented by the prosecution was a certified copy of the proceedings before the land office. To this the defense objected, but the transcript was admitted. The case may reach the jury to-morrow afternoon.

William Fogg of Kalspell was arraigned in the United States court to-day on the charge of unlawfully taking 5,000 cedar trees on the public domain. He will plead in a few days.

Boston Wool.

Boston, Nov. 26.—The prices of wool to-day were: Fleeces, steady with a moderate demand, while territory wool continues firm. Australian wool meets a fair demand and prices are fairly well maintained. Utah-Wyoming, etc., fine medium and fine, 10@11c; scored price, 28@30c. California wools: Northern, 11@12c; scored price, 33@35c; middle county spring, 11@12c; scored price, 29@30c.

The Deacon Moonshiner.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 26.—A special to the Times says: Reports from Union county, Tenn., say that revenue officers captured a still, 20 persons and 11,000 gallons of whiskey. The still was run near a church and a deacon of the church was the leader of the moonshiners.

AT THE AUDITORIUM

A Large Audience Sees Some High Class Evolutions.

SOME SPLENDID ARTISTS

The Pastime Athletic Club Gives One of its Delightful Entertainments—Dancing Follows the Exercises.

The Butte Pastime Athletic club gave an exhibition in gymnastics at the Auditorium last night and many of the exercises were the very best of the kind ever seen in the city, not barring professional athletes. There was a large audience present and it was well entertained. The first exercise consisted of evolutions on the horizontal bars by Messrs. Amos, Steele, Cole, Orton, Hill and Godefroy, and then followed exercises on the buck by a score of boys under 16 years of age. Professor Godefroy, the club's instructor, gave an exhibition of clever manipulations of the cannon balls, and performances on the parallel bars were given by Messrs. Steele, Amos, Orton, O'Brien, Foote, Lambrecht, Hansgen, Gallagher, Bovine, Rinehart, Evans and others.

The serpentine dance was cleverly executed by Mrs. Godefroy, wife of the professor, and later she also captured the audience with a graceful Spanish dance.

Guy Reed, probably the best fancy club swinger in the country, gave an exhibition of the ease and grace with which he can handle the clubs. Miss Rena Amos, a pupil of Mrs. Godefroy, executed a Highland fling and the Misses Amos, Gallagher, Noyes, Burlo, Knelly, Wathey and Upton gave a frill with dumb bells. What caught the house, however, were the boxing and wrestling matches. The first of them was a laughable set-to between two boys, Frank Boland and Charles Bretherton. They used soot-blackened gloves and every blow left its plain mark. After two rounds they were black enough to quit. A three-round contest between Dave Griffith and James McDonald was hot and lively and a three-round sparring match for points between B. R. Murphy and W. A. Smith closed the boxing.

The wrestling match between C. P. Foot and James Orton was decidedly clever exhibition, every point being beautifully brought out. After an exhibition in leaping, the exercises closed with an original pantomime by Cole, Godefroy and Bovine, three clever acrobats and remarkable contortionists. Dancing followed the athletic exercises and the members of the club and their friends danced in honor of "The Gymnasium," "The Mines," "Good Water," "Our Leather Kickers," "Good Times Coming," "Don't Worry," "Good Health," "Our Girls," "Our Athletes," "Our Motto, Silver," "The Butte Pastime Athletic Club" and "The Little Ones."

SELF DENIAL WEEK.

Salvation Army People Are Raising War Funds.

The Salvation Army in Butte, as everywhere else throughout the country, is now in the midst of their self-denial week, and every member of the army is exerting himself toward raising the army funds. Special collections are being taken up in the open air and indoor meetings. Collectors are also making a door to door canvass, and the army expects to raise a great deal of the sinews of war. The Salvation Army has opened two new food and other like depots during the past year, and their other institutions will soon be opened.

London Wool.

London, Nov. 26.—The sixth and last series of the colonial sales for the year opened at the wool exchange with an excellent attendance of buyers, both English and continental. There were also representative American buyers. The offerings contained a lot of new clips. The demand was strong, with competition spirited. As compared with the closing prices of the fifth series, best merinos and all cross-breeds sold at unchanged prices. Low grades of merinos, however, sold at 5 per cent. and Cape of Good Hope and Natal wools showed a decline of 5 and 7 1/2 per cent.

To Investigate Charges.

Indianapolis, Nov. 26.—The directors of the Childs-Drexel home for union printers decided to-day after the evidence before them had been carefully considered to send a committee to Colorado Springs to investigate the charges that have been preferred against Superintendent Schuman of the home. A Mob Wants to See Chisholm.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 26.—Governor Morrill decided to-day that he would not honor Judge Stone's requisition for the arrest and return to Warsaw, Mo., of Fred Chisholm, the colored man who eloped with a white woman and is now in jail at Lawrence. The requisition is shown to be irregular in form, and a telegram was given the governor stating that a mob of 400 men was waiting at Warsaw to lynch Chisholm should he arrive there.

Escaped From the Pen.

Canyon City, Col., Nov. 26.—Henry E. Clayton and A. J. Henderson, serving a 11-year term for robbery, and Tom Stimpson, a negro, serving 40 years for criminal assault, escaped from the penitentiary last night by sawing the window bars with a saw of their own manufacture. The Massacre.

London, Nov. 26.—The Times publishes an article written at Erzeroum dated Nov. 2. Copper-Plating Vessel Hulls.

The novel process of electroplating with copper the iron hull of a large ocean-going tug is being carried out in a Jersey City dry dock. When the plating is finished the inventor will be prepared to show that the vessel's bottom is perfectly protected from barnacles and covered with a homogeneous coating of copper, which is practically indestructible. The attention of the government has been called to the invention, and it is being closely watched by the agents of foreign countries. This invention, it is hoped, will solve the great problem which confronts all the builders of iron ships—how to protect the hull from barnacles and corrosion.
