WHERE ARE THE DEAD

Good People in Paradise, the Bad Ones in Sheol.

AWAITING THE JUDGMENT

So Says Dr. Brown at the Auditorium Meeting—To-Night at the Opera House—Crowds Greater Than Ever.

In the opening of his remarks last night Dr. Brown announced the removal of the revival meeting to-night to Evans opera house, temporary abandoning the Auditorium to the railroad boys, who have had it engaged for a dance for many weeks, for that date.

The meeting to-night, therefore, will be held in the opera house, but on tomorrow night the Auditorium will be rededicated by the church people. In passing Dr. Brown paid his respects to the dancers, for whom he could not sympathize, he said, as he had never danced but once.

"That was when I was a boy," he said. "I whistled on Sunday morning and father heard it and on Monday morning father and I went on a whaling voyage in the wood shed. He did the whaling, but I haven't cared for any more of it and I don't know why other people like to dance. I can see no attraction in it for Christians, but for those outside there may not be so much harm in it as there is in other things they do. The Mormons open their dances with prayer, close them with prayer, too, and I don't know of anyone who needs praying for more than a devotee of dancing. Let sinners dance and enjoy what pleasure there is in it; there is pleasure, no doubt, but it is of this world only, and those who can see no good in Christianity, in Jesus and religion will get all their pleasure here, they'll have none of it hereafter."

He then took up the discourse of the evening, the subject being: "Where Are the Dead?" Dr. Brown shook up theology and rattled old beliefs considerably, but he made one of the strongest addresses which he has yet made in this city.

"Heaven," said he, "is more real than earth to me and Christ more real than any existence."

He then quoted numberless texts from the scriptures which speak of the sheol of the Hebrews, the hades of the Greeks, the paradise of the Persians, of heaven and of hell. His theory seemed to be that there is an abiding place called sheol and paradise, and that sheol is somewhere in the bowels of the earth, "in the heart of the earth," as Christ located it.

When the Jews doubting asked Him for a sign, He said that they should have none but the sign of Jonah, directly referring thereby to his death and the three days and three nights which he spent in the tomb, corresponding to the time which Jonah spent in the belly of the whale or of the sea monster, which is the more literal translation. The prophet's soul did not remain in his body, but went down to sheol and Christ, while His body was in the tomb, went in His spirit to sheol, or paradise, and preached to the redeemed ones, waiting the keys of death and hell from the devil and took all his saints to the third heaven, where He now lives and reigns awaiting the judgment day.

The dead in Christ join Him there but the unbelievers, idolaters, and unrepentant sinners are remanded to sheol, a place of anguish of soul. After the judgment they will be plunged into the lake of fire mentioned in scripture, and typical of the final punishment.

The foundation for the discourse was the story of Lazarus and the rich man, with many corroborative texts. Christ on the tree told the thief "this day shalt thou be with me in paradise." He has spoken of his struggle with the devil and his triumph is mentioned variously by the apostles in the epistles. Paul entered paradise, the third heaven, and he wrote about it afterward. There are others who have done so and who saw "unutterable things." The spiritual body is like unto that of mortals. There is form and sense and those dear friends who are gone before are hovering over and around us. Christ is here and His angels are here to-night if we call but see them, and they are watching earnestly for the acceptance of His love by those who yet withstand His pleadings.

A very pathetic experience of the speaker's own life of the circumstances of the death of his only daughter, called forth tears from many eyes and the deepest feeling in all present. Half a dozen or more hands were raised at the request for any who desired the prayers of the Christians to so signify. The meeting to-night is in Evans opera house.

IN IDAHO.

Arid Lands and Some Very Large Mining Transactions.

Special Dispatch to the Standard.

Boise, Idaho, Dec. 11.—The first application for the setting aside of the arid land to be redeemed under the Carey act in this state was made to-day by a big Wisconsin company, of which Charles T. Palmer is president. The company has located the American Falls, on Snake river near Pocatello, and asks to have 100,000 acres set aside for reclamation under the Carey act. The company proposes to settle the entire tract with colonists who will pay but 50 cents an acre for the land and the cost of the water right. The cost of irrigation works is estimated at $200,000.

One of the biggest placer deals in the state has been consummated in the Cariboo district, Bingham county, the American Placer company selling its rich bars to Thomas & Sons of Chicago for $300,000. The bars have been worked for some time. This season's output was $40,000. The ground averages about one cent to the cubic yard. In the same district the Onieda and Nealon quartz mines have been sold to Colorado parties, through an agent, who does not disclose who he represents, for $50,000. A group of gold-bearing quartz claims, eight in number, the average value of the ore of which is only $9 a ton, has been bonded to Chicago parties for $120,000. The ledges are of phenomenal size and the ore is free milling. These deals are the biggest ever made in a single district in the history of the state. Mining men are said to be flocking to the district.

Dividends Declared.

Boston, Dec. 11.—The directors of the American Bell Telephone company have declared a regular quarterly dividend of 4 per cent, and 1 1/2 per cent extra. This makes a total of 15 per cent, declared this year.

New York, Dec. 11.—The Western Union Telegraph company declared to-day a regular quarterly dividend of 1 1/4 per cent, payable Jan. 15. The directors of the American Tobacco company to-day declared a regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent on preferred stock. The dividend on common stock was passed.

A Shilling Concession.

Glasgow, Dec. 11.—The great ship building strike has been settled. The masters agreed to grant the Clyde men a shilling a week advance immediately and another shilling in February. The strike has also been settled in Belfast where the men will get a shilling advance in February. The settlement was undoubtedly brought about by the fact that both the Clyde and other ship building firms were in danger of losing important contracts to build foreign warships, the orders for which have already been transferred to German concerns.

Resigned, but Still Alive.

Washington, Dec. 11.—W. W. Blackmore, president of the National Association of Railway Clerks, whose run in between Chicago and Detroit, has tendered the postoffice department his resignation. His action is a result of the recent order of Postmaster General Wilson directed against the organized efforts of employes to procure legislation. Blackmore says he will remain with the association and urge legislation.

Johannesburg Gold Fields Their Destination.

Fifteen well-known millwrights and carpenters were ticketed through to Johannesburg, South Africa, via the Great Northern railway, for the sailing of the new American Line steamer City of St. Paul, from New York, November 20th. Twelve of these men go to Johannesburg to work under a three years' contract at five dollars per day. The other three having implicit faith in their ability to secure employment at still better wages, chose to go on their own account. This is the largest number of men ever forwarded from Butte in a body destined to the South African gold fields. Persons ticketed through to South Africa are routed via England, where they are permitted to visit relatives and friends before re-embarking. Fare includes meals and sleeping accommodation, New York to Cape Town, unless passengers stop-over in England at their own request, where they will pay their own expenses. Other large parties are forming for sailings during November, December and January. Steamers sail from New York every Wednesday to connect with the Union and Castle lines, sailing from Southampton every Saturday. The Great Northern through ticket system has given eminent satisfaction to all of the many people who have been forwarded to South Africa from Montana and other western states, during a number of years past. Those contemplating the journey, should make application to the undersigned, who will be pleased at all times to furnish rates and full information concerning the Cape district. Street scenes in Johannesburg and Cape Town, also wall map of South Africa, and descriptive literature may be seen at the Great Northern ticket office, No. 41 North Main.
