Capt. William E. Hall Meets Death in a Shaft.

TIDINGS FROM ROSSLAND

The Well-Known Superintendent's Body Found Crushed.

HE HAD LOST HIS FOOTING

After Making His Usual Round of Inspection Captain Hall Reached the Surface and Was Just Stepping from the Shaft When He in Some Way Missed His Hold and Plunged Down the Shaft—Death Came in an Instant. His Mutilated Form Brought to the Surface—A Sketch of His Career and of His Years of Service at the Alice Mine in Silver Bow County—His Remains Will be Brought to Butte for Burial.

Last evening a telegram from Gen. C. S. Warren, dated at Rossland, B. C., informed the Standard that Capt. William E. Hall, while coming up the shaft of the Le Roi mine and in stepping from the skip, fell 600 feet and was instantly killed. Later in the evening a press dispatch said that Captain Hall was killed Wednesday morning, that he fell from the surface to the 600-foot level, and that his body was crushed beyond recognition. The dispatch added that Captain Hall had been making his daily round of inspection of the mine and that, coming to the surface, he stepped from the skip to a narrow beam dividing the double compartment shaft. He lost his footing and plunged down to death.

The only witness of the tragedy was the engineer. He saw Mr. Hall stumble and fall, catch desperately at the timber-work, and then he saw him working on the 200-foot level near the shaft heard a cry and saw a fleeting glimpse of the falling form. The alarm was given and the men descended immediately to the 600-foot level. The body had fallen across a skip and was mangled beyond recognition. Officers of the Le Roi company in Spokane bore the body to the mine in charge of the superintendent. The daughters, Pearl and Rose, aged 18 and 19, who were the father's pets, were prostrated, and medical attendance was necessary.

Captain Hall was 61 years old. He was born in the north of Ireland, but he was reared in the Cornwall mining district. At the age of 21 years he came to America. During eight years he worked in the mines in the Lake Superior district. He had his share in varied experiences. Years ago, in company with his wife and children, he was a passenger on the Penobscot, a lake boat which, on a bright moonlight night, came in collision with another boat and went down before the rescue of many of the passengers was possible. Captain Hall happened to escape. His wife and children perished. All his earthly possessions were on board and everything was lost.

In a later year Captain Hall concluded to come West and he entered the service of Salt Lake City, where he represented them at some of their properties before coming to Butte, or rather to Walkerville, where he took charge of the Alice properties. In 1878, Captain Hall had been married, his wife to Miss Ella Drosser. All told he was with the Walker Brothers 20 years. He was in charge of the Alice mine during that property's most busy years, when the price of silver was high. In connection with the mine and the operation of its mills.

Captain Hall gave to the property the most faithful attention and he attested his ability as a mining superintendent by the splendid results which, during many years, were the product of his management. With the decline in silver operations at the Alice mine were Captain Hall's hopes of a better future. He was drawn into operations in British Columbia, first in the capacity of experting or inspecting properties that were discovered in that comparatively new mining field. About a year ago he became superintendent of the Le Roi mine at Rossland. In the ownership of that property, residents of Spokane are interested. It has been reported that under Captain Hall's management the property was developing finely, and talk has been heard of its proposed sale to a foreign syndicate.

During the years of his residence in Silver Bow county Captain Hall attached to himself many hundreds of the citizens in the county. He became one of the best-known men in Butte and its suburban towns. He was popular with the miners under his charge, he dealt with them in kindly spirit, he was the helpful friend for those of them who suffered from sickness, accident or other misfortune, and his work of assisting them in trouble or distress was always generously shared by his estimable wife, who, like him, is pleasantly remembered in Walkerville. He had large responsibilities during many years and these he discharged with marked fidelity.

Captain Hall took an active interest in political affairs. He was a republican presidential elector for Montana in 1882. He was a moving spirit in the incorporation of Walkerville, and he served as that city's first mayor. He held during several terms the office of county commissioner. Captain Hall leaves a wife and five children. He has two grown sons. His eldest daughter is Mrs. D. M. Newbro, of Butte. Two younger daughters are, with their mother, at the family residence in Spokane. Mr. Newbro leaves for Spokane this morning to accompany the family to Butte, where the remains will be brought for burial. In the Butte cemetery are the graves of children of Captain and Mrs. Hall. The funeral will be held next Saturday or Sunday.

MINERS BADLY BRUISED.

A Cave-In in a Winston Mine Injures George Berryman.

Helena, Jan. 5.—George Berryman, a miner working in the Agua Fria mine at Winston, was brought here to a hospital today suffering from a double fracture of the bones of the wrist, leg and several body bruises as the result of a cave-in that occurred in the face of the mine yesterday afternoon. Berryman, a local miner, was working in a tunnel when a mass of rocks and earth, which he had been completely buried by the mass; the third man was uninjured. He gave the alarm and several miners hastened to the rescue. They were unable to dig out and found the miner unconscious. Both were terribly bruised, but George was the only one having any broken bones.

MOST VICIOUS INDIAN.

A Red Brute Murders and Outrages a Woman in Her Children's Presence.

Wichita, Kan., Jan. 5.—Mrs. Julia Leard, a white woman, was murdered by a Seminole Indian yesterday evening four miles west of Maud, Oklahoma. The crime was committed in the presence of the woman's children. Earlier in the afternoon, Mrs. Leard had frightened the Indian away, threatening him with a rifle. Later she stepped out of doors, carrying her baby, and the Indian stole into the house, secured the rifle and attempted to shoot her, but the cartridge failed to explode. The Seminole then attacked her with the butt of the gun, striking her to death and ravished her body. He hurled the baby into the house through the open door. Several Indians have been arrested but the murdered woman's 8-year-old daughter, the oldest of the family, has been unable to identify any of them as the murderer. There is great excitement in the vicinity.

NO LICENSE TO FIGHT.

The New Greater New York Charter Committee With Athletic Club Rules.

New York, Jan. 5.—The fight between Sammy Kelly and Billy Ratchford of Chicago, scheduled for tonight at the Polo Athletic club, has been postponed. The club, through a misunderstanding of the new charter, failed to obtain a new license, supposing that a license obtained last month would run for a year. Today the police notified the club that the fight could not come off before a non-licensed club.

WHERE THE MONEY GOES

STEAMSHIP COMPANIES ANTICIPATING BIG ALASKA BUSINESS.

Several boats to be pressed into service and more are forthcoming if business warrants.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 5.—Superintendent Throwbridge of the Pacific Steamship company, announced today that his company will have five passenger steamships in the Tacoma-Alaska trade shortly after the start of February. He said that the company would also have a number of freight steamers in the same trade. The names of the new fleet are The Queen, The Victorian, The Cottage City, The Curacao and The Alki. The Alki is the only vessel that the company now has in the Alaskan passenger trade that will remain there after Feb. 1. These boats and those of other lines will give a departure from Tacoma for Alaska every few days.

The Queen has a carrying capacity of 500 people in the saloon and 500 second-class. The greater part of her time in the Tacoma-Alaskan excursion trade during the summer is especially fitted for the carrying of large parties in luxurious style. The Victorian is one of the fastest steamers on the Pacific coast and has a capacity of 500 passengers. The Curacao and Cottage City are en route to the coast, where they were recently purchased by the Pacific Coast company. The Alki has been in the Alaskan trade for a number of seasons. She carries about 200 passengers and 800 tons of freight.

Superintendent Throwbridge said that the Pacific Coast company may add more vessels to the Northern run if the trade later on warrants.

IN A STATE OF SUSPENSE

The Ohio Senatorial Contest the Feature in the Political World.

TUESDAY THEY'LL BALLOT

Hanna Will Take Advantage of Railroad Inaugural Rates to Bring Delegates to Protest Against the "Combine."

Columbus, O., Jan. 5.—Both branches of the legislature have adjourned Monday. But both sides of the senatorial contest remain in conference daily and nightly at the Neil house and the Great Southern hotel respectively. The suspense and secret work will continue until next Tuesday, when the two branches of the legislature will vote separately on the contest. The doubtful members made no move today. They still remain doubtful and they are receiving the united and untiring attention of the legislative steering committees and outside workers.

Next Monday Governor Bushnell will be inaugurated for his second term, but the exercises will not take place until the inauguration of the state senate. The anti-Hanna republicans expect all of their followers here Monday for a large demonstration. Although many republican clubs have cancelled their engagements for quarters on inauguration day, it is believed that the efforts of the anti-Hanna republicans to have as big a demonstration as usual will succeed. The Hanna men will take advantage of the excursion rates to have visiting republican delegations here on that day to protest against the combine.

The expected deadlock will not begin until next Wednesday when the two houses ballot jointly for senator. As the balloting may continue indefinitely, the republican members of the senate and visitors will remain to add to the chorus of bitter howling and counter cheerings, but some apprehend insulting demonstrations and even serious disturbances. The republican clubs are protesting republican clubs in all the counties of the governor and republican members who are cooperating with the combine are protesting with these messages and missives appeal to Senator Foraker to come to the relief of the party by declaring it to be the duty of republicans to stand by the decision of the state convention in supporting Hanna.

In replying to the reports about Secretary Sherman, Assistant Secretary of the Interior, Grosvener and others being made the republican nominees, Senator Hanna said today he would never retire. He says he was nominated by the Toledo state convention and he cannot retire in favor of any one. It is the responsibility for disregarding the decision of the state convention will rest on those who are now co-operating with the combine. Hanna, Mr. Kurtz and other republican nominees have a long struggle still ahead of them.

The standing committees have not been announced in either house and the combine is using the patronage to hold their men in line. In the senate today Senator Burke showed some tendency to co-operate with his republican colleagues. The democratic members support the committees but Senator Burke stopped it by saying he would vote with the republicans. Later in the day, he met in conference with Hanna, and he spent most of his time with the Hanna workers.

While the Hanna men are still short three or more votes on the current deadlock, the republican combine is having its troubles in fixing some one who can command all the democratic votes as well as that of the dissenting republicans. The democratic leader from Cincinnati and the manager for John R. McLean, said to-night: "There will be no election before a long series of ballots. The democrats will accept the republican nominee, but they mean that the democrats will not be able to agree in their caucus on a candidate. The anti-Hanna republicans announce positively that under no circumstances will they vote for a democrat. They will continue the deadlock indefinitely rather than elect a democratic senator."

Senator Burke will deliver an address here next Sunday night at the Jackson day banquet, and his presence is anticipated with some anxiety. The Press is out with a sensational extra to-night, announcing that the democratic prospecting attorney presented the senatorial situation to the grand jury. In referring to this inquisition, the Press says sworn statements made by Representative and Mr. Kurtz of Union county, Representative George Schellmyer and Chris Menter of Cincinnati, Hon. N. R. Hynell of Columbus and other democratic members, are quite a stir over the gentle telegrams from Senator Brice advising democrats to vote for a democrat for United States senator and became an attachment to the hotting republicans on national issues.

Of the 65 democrats in the legislature, only three are said to agree with Brice on the financial question, and it is said they will not break away from the course that is agreed upon by their democratic colleagues. If these men should break away from the combine Hanna could be elected. The reports about Brice's taking part caused the democratic steering committee to talk about John R. McLean being the democratic free silver candidate, and if the "combine" did not go through on the first ballot, there would be a long deadlock, with votes cast for Hanna and Bushnell on one side and for McLean and Brice on the other. Representative Jones, one of the doubtful members, was his seat to-day, but remained at his hotel.

The legislature completed its sessions for the day this afternoon without the committee being announced. The preference given will not be given out as long as the senatorship is in doubt. Both houses this afternoon adjourned until Monday on account of the senatorial contest, and there will be no further action this week on the organization contests in either branch.

"ME TOO," THEY SAY.

More Women to Follow in Mrs. Griffith's Wake in Ohio's Circus.

Columbus, Jan. 5.—The Hanna men laugh at the attempt to cause indignation against certain workers and say that the men who are spending the money are the ones to raise the cry about the circus. The cry of the opposition has been that of a "bosses and a boodle" during the contest. At the anti-Hanna headquarters they are confidently claiming a new accession to-night, but their husbands are not the member. Senator Burke and several other members got away from the pressure to-night by returning to their homes.

Following close on the reports about Mrs. Griffith taking a deep interest in the vote of her husband on the senatorship comes a report that Mrs. Snyder, the wife of Representative Snyder of Greene county, is taking an interest in the contest and is favorable to the opposition. Mr. Snyder attended the republican house caucus last Saturday night, but the opposition was constantly after him to vote against Hanna. In connection with the reports about Representative Griffith, especially about the preference of Mrs. Griffith, there are reports of the wives of other republican members being listed in the contest. And there are reports that the wives of some of the democratic members are urging their husbands not to vote for any republican senator, but to stand out for a democrat. Mr. Kurtz and his associates are reported to be unable to control the anti-Hanna republican members for a democratic senator, and the McLean managers are believed to have some trouble to get all the democrats to support a republican for senator.

Governor Bushnell and members of his staff attended the theater to-night, and an incident occurred to cause much cheering for Hanna.

FOR DETAINING A LETTER

Postmaster Fuller of Canyon Ferry in a Peck of Trouble.

BUT HE PLEADS INNOCENCE

He Secures Bondsmen in a Short Time—Miss Sheriff is the Lady Who Didn't Get Her Mail When She Wanted It.

Special Dispatch to the Standard.

Helena, Jan. 5.—Frank Fuller, postmaster at Canyon Ferry, this county, was arrested today on the charge of willfully and unlawfully detaining a letter over 24 hours. He was brought to town by a deputy United States marshal this evening. Commissioner Kinsley releasing him on $500 bonds pending a hearing Friday afternoon. The warrant upon which he was arrested was sworn out before the commission in order to delay the divorce. The letter in question was addressed "Edith Sheriff, Canyon Ferry, Lewis and Clarke county, Montana, and was mailed at Hamilton by a relative. It claimed on the letter was received Dec. 13 at the postoffice. Miss Sheriff is said to have demanded it, and to have been refused. Under threats she obtained it. The matter got to the ears of the department and Fuller's arrest resulted. The letter bears the stamped mark "missent." This Fuller accounts for the delay between the time the letter was mailed and its having been sent to the wrong office. Against this claim the postal authorities cite the fact that the stamp in the letter was cancelled at the postoffice. Fuller's letters are indicated correspond to a hair with the impression upon the envelope, leading to the belief that Fuller or some one in the office used the stamp in order to delay the divorce. He says the affair is the greatest surprise he ever encountered, and that he will have no trouble in clearing himself of the accusation. The punishment for the crime of detaining a letter is found in section 391 of the statutes. It is a fine of not to exceed $500 or one year's imprisonment, or both.

Augusta, West and John Lavine, who were also arrested by Uncle Sam. They are accused of cutting timber on public lands. Both gave bonds to appear at a hearing.
