FIVE YEARS FOR PATCH

The Forger Sent to the State Penitentiary.

TO ASK FOR A NEW TRIAL

The Court Takes Occasion to Make a Few Remarks—Jury Excused Until Monday, When the Gambling Cases Come Up.

Everett J. Patch, who was on Friday found guilty of forgery by a jury in the district court, was yesterday sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary at Deer Lodge at hard labor.

Patch is the man who stands convicted of having forged the name of Edward Dugan to a certificate of deposit on Hoge, Daly & Co.'s bank for $60. The jury which found Patch guilty recommended that the court be lenient in fixing the punishment, and this recommendation no doubt had something to do with the fact that Patch did not get a heavier sentence than he did.

When Patch was brought into court his attorney waived the statutory time for passing judgment, and the attorney made a brief speech to the court in which he prayed the court to give the fullest consideration to the recommendation of the jury for leniency and also said that Patch was but 22 years of age and had always borne a good reputation.

The court said that he had thought the matter over thoroughly. He had made up his mind that, in case of conviction, he would ask for a sentence of six and one-half years in the penitentiary, but that upon the recommendation of the jury for mercy he would cut it down somewhat. The court thought that the jury that tried Patch on Nov. 19 and 21 for robbery had been in error in not finding the man guilty, for it was apparent that if he were guilty of forgery he was also guilty of the robbery. The fact that Patch was but 22 years of age was not very material. A young criminal was every whit as bad as an old one. The judge then sentenced Patch to five years in the penitentiary.

Attorney E. S. Thresher, in behalf of Patch, asked that he be granted 30 days in which to prepare a statement for a motion for a new trial. The request was granted.

Court then adjourned until next Monday, and excused the jury until that time. On Monday the first of the cases of the state against Griffin, Weatherill and Shannon will be put on trial. The charge is that of gambling in violation of the law. They are the men arrested in a raid made by the sheriff on the Reception saloon on Main street last fall.

THE FRAWLEYS.

Advance Sale Gives Indications of a Crowded House.

To-morrow and Tuesday nights Anacoda theatergoers will be given an opportunity to see two plays that have a world-wide reputation. They are "Shenandoah" and "Sue," two of the best pieces in the repertoire of the famous Frawley company.

The first play will be Bronson Howard's famous war drama, "Shenandoah," with all the scenic effects and special scenery that are used in their home theater at San Francisco. Manager Maguire says he has Mr. Frawley's word for this and we know that what he says is sure to transpire. "Indoubtly" "Shenandoah" is the greatest of all war dramas and the beauty of the production is in the pretty love tale that is interwoven with the incidents of the great struggle for supremacy between the North and the South.

On Tuesday night the Frawleys will produce Bret Harte's beautiful story of Bolinas Plains, "Sue." We take the great success that they made in New York and in San Francisco and the dramatic strength of the book into consideration when we say "Sue" must be one of the greatest of this season's plays.

The San Francisco press was particularly strong in its praise of the scenery and light effects of this beautiful story and compared it to that of "Alabama," which was undoubtedly one of the prettiest effects ever produced. It does not consist of gold and tinsel, but is a perfect picture of a Western home. The sale of seats commenced yesterday, and last night the sale had been so large that every indication points to an enormous audience. An order was yesterday received from Butte requesting that 14 seats be reserved.

The Union Family theater. This is the most expensive feature Manager Sutton has yet had at the Union. The performance of Adgie is wonderful. She not only sings and dances in and among the lions, but handles and caresses them like large dogs. The lions are quite domesticated and like to be petted. In addition to the lions the rollicking three-act comedy, "A Circus Girl," will be given the first part of the week with all the old favorites in the cast, Mr. Graham playing the comedy role, Hummingbird, and Miss Nanmary Rose Columbia. The rest of the cast will be in good hands, thus insuring a pleasing performance. The latter part of the week a scenic production of "Rip Van Winkle" will be put on with Mr. Lindon as "Rip." This ought to be a great week at the Union.

ONLY TWO DAYS ARE LEFT

Everybody Should Work for the Court House Bonds.

THE CROWDED CITY HALL

A Few Questions Propounded as to Where the County Officers Will Go When the City Needs All of the Room.

Only two days remain before the people of Deer Lodge county will be called upon to decide whether they want a court house or not. There need be no guessing what that decision will be—the court house will be built. During the two days that remain every man should pitch in and do what he can to roll up a majority that will be overwhelmingly in favor of the proposition.

Many people in Anaconda are so confident that the bonds will carry that they will probably not go near the polls. This is a mistake. It is a question of too much importance to the citizens of this community not to bestir themselves. That the bonds will carry by a large majority there is no question; yet, to make that majority as near unanimous as possible is what wants to be done. The larger the majority for the bonds the more eager will the bond buyers be to secure them and the larger will be the premium they will offer therefor. If the expression of the sentiment of the people in favor of the bonds is but faint, the capitalists will be chary. This fact was illustrated in the matter of bonding the school district a long ago. A little interest was taken in the matter that only a few votes were cast, and the result was that the trustees had a hard time in placing them. Let the verdict of the people be unanimous, and let it be given with a decision that can leave no shadow of doubt as to the real sentiment that prevails.

Deer Lodge county is in a remarkably healthy financial condition. Its assessed valuation is so great that but few counties equal it. Will any good citizen let it be said that Deer Lodge county is too poor to build a court house? The count on Tuesday night will show that the county is not too poor to own a court house.

The plea is made by a scant few in far-off districts that county officers have "commodious quarters" at the city hall. Have these people ever seen the crowded condition of the city hall? Have they ever seen the office of the county treasurer, where hundreds of thousands of dollars are each year handled; where a great number of voluminous books are kept, and where a force of three or four and sometimes more clerks are working in a room that is no larger than a bedroom? Have they ever seen the office of the county clerk and recorder, where the records of the county are kept, and where, for want of room, two men must intrude themselves into the room of the county commissioners and pile their books and stack their papers in every nook and cranny? Do they realize that the judicial business of this district will soon become so great that it will require the presence of a judge here continuously, and then where will the enormous business of the district court clerk be transacted?

In the two years that it will take to build the proposed court house the business of the city of Anaconda will have increased to such an extent that the city will say to the county, "We require all the room the city hall affords, and you will have to move out." Then where will the county officers go, if the court house is not built in a room that is stuck into different buildings in all parts of town and the records and papers will be strewn from one end of the town to the other. As it is, the city needs nearly all the room in the city hall right now. More than half the city officers have no office at the city hall at all. The city treasurer is fortunate in being the proud possessor of an ante room off the police court, and one is compelled to go through the court room to find it. The chief of police has no office; the police court room is the only place where he can keep his papers and he consults with his men on the stairs. The city clerk has no room, and the street commissioner carries his office under his hat.

There was a time, and it was not so very long ago, when the houses that were available at the city hall, was considered to be more than ample for the needs of both county and city officers. But the increase in city business has kept crowding and crowding, and the volume of county business has also kept crowding and crowding and soon there will be a collision. The papers, books and records that will accumulate from the transfer of county business in two years alone make a big houseful. It is not right that the two sets of officials should be crowded together. It is no more right for the city to do it than for the county to do it. Therefore it is that Deer Lodge county needs a court house, and when the insignificant increase in taxation that will result is taken into consideration, it is hard to understand why people should show a lack of interest in this important matter.

The form of the ballot that will be used at next Tuesday's election is this:

For the Loan. X

Against the Loan.

Be sure to mark your ballot with the cross opposite "For the loan," as indicated above.

The stores will be closed on Tuesday from 12 o'clock noon until 6 o'clock in the evening. The city officers may have an opportunity to cast their ballot for the bonds.

The polling precincts in the city of Anaconda are located as follows:

First Ward—Lycum hall.

Second Ward—No. 509 East Commercial avenue.

Third Ward—Southeast corner of Third and Birch streets.

Munyon and Money

Not More Dollars But the Satisfaction of Helping Mankind.

"I have enough money," says Professor Munyon. "I shall spend the rest of my life in working for my fellowmen. I shall not be able to half repay the debt which I owe to God for my happiness and success, but I shall do the best I can as long as I live.

Money enough! Even Solomon in all his wealth and wisdom was not great enough to say that. To heal the sick! To enable the struggling millions to doctor themselves with intelligence and marvelous results! To be the acknowledged authority of the medical world and the possessor of its greatest discoveries! The things are certainly more than riches.

Munyon's success is based upon an intimate knowledge of the laws of science and strict conformity thereto. Munyon has a separate specific for fevers, rheumatism, Typhoid, Catarrh, Kidney Complaints, disease of the Liver, asthma, and fifty other complaints. A Decision Made in a Dispute Over Land Near Anaconda.

Special Dispatch to the Standard.

Helena, Jan. 22.—The Helena land office today rendered a decision in a contest involving 129 acres of land a short distance west of Stuart and about five miles east of Anaconda. The land involved is described as the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter and the north half of the southwest quarter of section 27, township 4, north range 19 west, and the land of the Colorado Thomas Harris and Charles W. Edwards vs. the Northern Pacific Railroad company and Henry Williams. The history of the case shows that the land was owned by the grant and Edwards made application to have his entry reinstated. In the meantime, however, Williams had bought the land from the Northern Pacific and had made application with the department for the land under the provisions of the act of March 3, 1887. Edwards instituted a protest and the evidence was heard by Commissioner John Garity of Anaconda. Upon this testimony the land office based its decision. The office decided in favor of Edwards, the original entryman. As the land is reported to be quite valuable, Williams will probably appeal within the 30 days allowed by law.

A NEWSPAPER ILLUSTRATOR.

Miss C. L. Goodwin Wins Remarkable Success in Depicting Women.

Caroline L. Goodwin was the first woman artist to draw lifelike pictures of women suitable for newspaper reproduction. She is noted for speed in her work and of late her drawings of Paris fashions have attracted much attention.

Miss Goodwin came to New York from Savannah, Ga., five years ago, with money enough to live on for a year. She did not want any more, because, as she explained to her father and mother, "if there is anything in me it will come out by that time."

But it came out all less than that time. Syndicates began to employ her. The New York papers heard of her, magazines took her up and fashion periodicals appeared in vain for her services. She began by drawing for a pattern firm, but worked at it only for two months.

The second year she went to Munich, and the third year she returned to New York to make arrangements for living abroad. On her way to Paris she stopped in London to sign papers with two London periodicals for sketches every week. After a few days her main work abroad is portrait painting. Her specialty is children's portraits. She is now at work on a group for the June salon. Her forte lies in black and white work, and she is anxious to continue it, in spite of commissions to paint.
