MISSOULA MERCANTILE Co. MISSOULA, MONT.

MISSOULA NOTES.

Michael Pablo is in town from the reservation. C. T. Perry of Helena is registered at the Florence. E. T. Cameron of Vermillion is a guest at the Rankin.

Among the Montana people who came in are: T. E. Butler of the Standard, who is on a business visit; Walter S. Orton, Robert Tait and John Howard of Butte; Henry Neill of Helena, who is bound for the Bitter Root on land business; Massena Bullard, who has a case in the district court; R. A. Luke of Helena, who is here on insurance business; J. P. Woolman and Sol Ozanski of Helena.

Missoula, Feb. 3.—The Missoula valley had this morning the closest approach to a blizzard that it has experienced this winter.

Trains Were Late. Missoula, Feb. 3.—It is too bad that the Northern Pacific cannot in produce Western Montana weather all along its line.

Matched to Fight. Buffalo, Feb. 2.—C. C. Smith, the colored boxer of this city, and Peter Maher have been matched to fight 20 rounds at Sanger hall, Philadelphia, Feb. 15.

THE CURSE Of mankind-contagious blood poison—claimed as its victim Mr. Frank B. Martin, 926 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C., and the usual physician's treatment did him not the slightest good.

Stories of the Town

Missoula, Feb. 3.—Joe Dixon is telling an amusing story about one of the Chinamen who was mixed up in the street fight Tuesday. Mr. Dixon was retained by Sam Yung to defend him in the police court.

When Chinaman hittee you in my eye, and all his cousins take hold you to lettee him strike, church and amen all go to hellee.

Jacob Leiser is chuckling over an experience of Morris Schlossberg, which happened last Sunday, when Morris was starting for New York and Chicago.

Morris stopped and thought for himself a while, and then gathered up his grips and started down town to wait for No. 2.

If you ask Tom Cooney if he had a pleasant trip West the last time he came from St. Paul he will look at you to see how much you know about it.

THE CURE After all else failed, was at last found in S. S. S.—the greatest of all blood remedies. Eighteen bottles removed the disease permanently, and left his skin without a blemish.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable; and is the only known cure for this most terrible disease. Books free. Address, Swift-Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.

live stock was called. The following jurors were accepted and the trial proceeded before them: Joseph Thompson, A. A. Taylor, M. H. Pierce, Joseph Murphy, Ben Sullivan, M. Morgan, W. H. Harris, J. W. Wilson, Joseph Driver, Joseph Allen, Eli Williams, Adam Rhinehard. When court adjourned this afternoon the testimony was not all in and Deputy Sheriff McCormick left this evening for Lou Lou to secure additional witnesses.

IN SEATTLE. The Missoula Party is Outfitting for the Klondike. Missoula, Feb. 3.—The Post-Intelligencer says that: "The Lyon, S. W. Taylor, William Mix and Edward Mix are a party of Missoula, Mont., people in this city outfitting for the Klondike."

They are heading for some creek on Lake Teslin, the banks of which are supposed to be very rich. Mr. Lyon was seen at the Northern last night and said: "We will leave in a few days for Fort Wrangel and from there go into the Lake Teslin country. We have 20 trained dogs to carry our outfits and provisions to last a year, but expect to be three years in the interior if we find what we are going after. Our dog team is one of the best trained that has gone north for some time. A great many people will go north from Missoula and vicinity, but, of course, the biggest crowd from Montana will be from Butte."

Harry Stewart has received a letter from Lou Lyon, written at Seattle Tuesday. Lou says that he and St. Taylor and J. W. Ferguson, Mr. Ferguson expects to locate on the sound, Seattle. Mr. Lyon writes, is Klondike mad, and all of the merchants are dealing in miners' outfits. The prices charged are enormous and being as expensive as the only thing that is low on the sound is wages, which are ridiculously low. There are so many men there without means of support that laborers can be obtained at any price.
