

BUTTE NEWS.

DOGS CAUGHT BY A DOG

A Hot Chase After an Escaped Prisoner.

A CROWD IN THE PURSUIT

All kinds of wild rumors were flying about the fugitive who had been held up the first National Bank.

Cries of "Stop thief, stop thief," coming from an old gray-headed man in the pursuit of a fugitive along Granite street, greatly excited the upper end of town yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock and caused the usual alarming rumors to fly about that find circulation whenever any little excitement occurs.

The First National bank had been robbed in broad daylight, the old man who was seen in pursuit had been held up in the outskirts of town by a highwayman and had chased the robber all the way to the city, and half a dozen other equally as foolish and exciting reports were handed about, people gathered by hundreds at Main and Granite streets and discussed the robbery and allowed themselves to be tremendously excited, and all because a miser who didn't want to serve out a life for drunkenness at the city jail had tried to make his escape.

Night before last Jack Cutler, a well-known miner, was gathered in by the police among the usual round-up of drunks. Yesterday morning he was fined $5. He represented to Jailor Boyle that he had to go to shift at the mine where he is employed in the evening, and said if he could be allowed to go to Hennessy's or the Silver Lake house he could get the amount of his fine.

As he was supposed to be all right, William Roxford, an old man, who earns his board and lodging by keeping the city jail clean, was sent out with the prisoner to enable him to get his fine and get out of jail. They went to Hennessy's, but could not raise the $5, and then went to the Silver Lake. Cutler was again denied and the old man started back to the jail with the prisoner. On the way Cutler watched his chance and gave the old man the slip on Main street between Broadway and Granite. He ran back up Main to Granite and turned west. When Roxford saw the man getting away, he set up his cry, "Stop thief," and pursued as fast as he could go, shouting at the top of his voice. Some one asked, "What has he started for?" and another supplied the information by saying he had robbed the First National bank. This ran through the crowd faster than the fugitive, and in a twinkling several other people had congregated and the most alarming stories were handed about. In the meantime, Cutler was making his way along Granite as fast as he could and several pedestrians hearing the cry of "Stop thief," put themselves in the runner's way. He put his hand to his hip pocket as though to draw a gun and the would-be captors stepped aside. As the fugitive reached the Silver Lake building a dog came to the pursuers' assistance and caught Cutler by the leg and tripped him, and Officer James, who had joined the chase, was upon him before he could get up. The prisoner was marched back to the city jail, where he will serve out his sentence and another for trying to escape as well. The incident served to illustrate how small matters will work up a big excitement in Butte.

Mrs. M. A. Logue, manager of the ladies' department of the Butte Grain and Stock Exchange, 47 West Broadway, will hold a reception on Saturday for the ladies of Butte. They are invited to the morning session, commencing at 9 o'clock, for the purpose of seeing the quotations on the board as they are received every five minutes from Chicago and New York exchanges. The afternoon reception is for the purpose of instructing the ladies who may wish to trade in the speculative market. All ladies of the city are invited to attend. Ladies' private entrance, 197 Hamilton street.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

That is the charge on which Con Sullivan was arrested. Con Sullivan, a miner, was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued from Justice Trapp's court, charging him with cruelty to animals. He was accused of hiring a horse of Liverman Rice and nearly driving the horse to death. Sullivan was arraigned before Justice Trapp and took 24 hours to plead. He was released on bonds.

The case of malicious mischief against Peter McDermott, for pulling up plating stakes on property, the ownership of which is disputed between him and Passmore Bros., was transferred from Justice Trapp's court to Justice Laurandau's court yesterday afternoon on a change of venue.

Reward—$25 to any person proving we do not use the best main springs manufactured. Watches cleaned, $1.50. Main springs, $1. Mayer, 40 W. Park.

SMOKE ROBERT MANTELL CIGARS

"Benevolent Methodism." The following programme has been prepared for Sunday evening at the South Butte M. E. church by board of education. It will open with song by school, "My Country 'Tis of Thee"; prayer; song, school, special music; recitation, "The Good Samaritan";

A PURE GRAPE CREAM OF TARTAR POWDER

"DR. BAKER'S" CREAM BAKING POWDER

Awarded Highest Honors, World's Fair Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair

GRADUATION DAY IN BUTTE

(Continued from Page Eight.)

any departure from American principles and institutions. He was in accord with the leading anti-slavery men. He was thoroughly American in his writings.

James O'Brien. James O'Brien spoke of "Gladstone's Political Integrity." No Englishman has won so much esteem in America as Gladstone. He was pre-eminently honest, orderly and God-fearing. The life of Gladstone is without parallel in English history. For 30 years all was prominent in English political life.

Miss Winnifred Bretherton. "Shakespeare's Women" was Miss Winnifred Bretherton's subject. She spoke of Portia, Isabella, Desdemona and others. In all the characters are there pictured three wicked women. Ambition led Lady Macbeth wrong. There is scarcely a play of Shakespeare which has not a perfect woman.

Miss Edith Tregliown. "Idylls of the King" was Miss Edith Tregliown's subject. "The Holy Grail" is in many respects the richest and best of all the idylls, but on account of the subject the most confusing.

Clarence Hopkins. Clarence Hopkins spoke of "The Study of Geology as an Aid to Practical Mining." Geology is the most important of the sciences. The student of geology must store his mind, not with words, but with facts. Observation must accompany book knowledge in the study of the sciences. Geology enables one to study mining intelligently, economically and successfully.

The Butte High School Guitar and Mandolin club then entertained the audience with very sweet music.

Miss Agnes Hanley. The next essayist was Miss Agnes Hanley, whose subject was "Longfellow." The poet of the American States, whose beauty of nature, Longfellow's beautiful life appears in all his works. His genius was almost feminine in its sympathetic qualities. What poet could better describe a ship in a storm? "The Shipwreck" and "Miles Standish" are the best productions of Longfellow. He is the poet of everyday life.

James Glover. "Navies of the World" was the subject of James Glover. England easily leads the navies of the world, having twice the strength of France, which is followed by Russia, Italy, United States, Germany, Austria and Spain. The speaker told of the great achievements of the American navy in every world. He spoke of John Paul Jones, Farragut, Lawrence and Decatur. The martyred John Paul Jones, Annie Weir Craig, Edward William Dicksey, Lulu Evans, James Glover, Mabel Stella Geenen, Alberta Alma Hammer, Agnes Hanley, John Helman, Hazel Norvella Hines, Jean Home, Clarence Victor Hopkins, Katharine Agnes Kehoe, Agnes Meade, Dewey showed at Manila what American ships and Uncle Sam's sailors are superior to an equal number in any other navy.

Miss Katherine Kehoe. "Art of the Ancients" was Miss Katherine Kehoe's subject. In Egypt art flourishes from very early ages. Art can art when in its bloom may be compared to a raging torrent, but in Greece the drawing may be compared to a placid river. The valedictory. The valedictory was Miss Lulu Evans, whose subject was "Beautiful Passages of the Aeneid." She said: "Vergil, of Publius Vergilius Maro, has always been the most popular of all the old Roman poets. His poems were a favorite study with his own countrymen even in his day, and for generations thereafter the young Romans studied their Aeneid at their mothers' dictation and with as much zeal as the modern student, and regularly wrote 'declamations' of some kind concerning its heroes. In the Middle Ages monks and philosophers delighted in Vergil's poetry, not quantity, and passages it were best to dwell. 'The great power of Vergil's style lies in the haunting music of his verse, in the rhythm and fall of his language. And this unfortunately can be reproduced in no English translation. Ten years in the world. On the Nineteenth Centenary of Vergil's Death,' writes thus: 'I salute thee, Mantorano, I that loved thee since my day began, wielder of the stately measure ever moulded by the lips of man.' 'Vergil truly loved for his own sake' and he never shows his individual genius more strongly than in his treatment of the external scenery amidst which his action lies. Homer tells of beauty, yet his heart is consoled with his characters. Not so with Vergil; with him we feel the cool breeze wafting to us the perfume of beautiful flowers, we see the glancing shadow of the trees on the river, we hear the flutter of the startled birds and the long splash of oars on the water. Sometimes are startled by the thunderbolt and terrified by the vivid lightning, as when— 'All in a moment, sun and skies, Against and from the Trojan's eyes, Black night is brooding o'er the deep, Sharp thunder peals, live lightnings leap. The stoutest warrior holds his breath And looks as on the face of death.' 'Then, like Aeneas, we would appease the gods in order once more to leave the realm of the sublime and enter the beautiful. 'Possibly no other passage will more clearly illustrate Vergil's delicate appreciation of Nature's beauties than this in which he describes Aeneas' first glimpse of Latium: 'The sea was reddening with the dawn. The queen of morn on high Was seen in rosy chariot drawn 'Against a saffron sky. When on the bosom of the deep The zephyrs dropped at once to sleep, And, struck with calm, the tired oars strain Against the smooth unmoving main. Now from the deep Aeneas sees A mighty grove of glancing trees. Embowered amid the sylvan scene Old Tiber winds his banks between, And in the lap of ocean pours His gulfy streams, his sandy stores. Around, gay birds of diverse wing, Accustomed there to fly or sing, Were fluttering on from spray to spray And soothing ether with their lay.' 'Passage after passage might be

Martin arrested for breaking down a fence. Fred Martin was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out in Justice Laurandau's court, charging him with malicious trespass. The warrant was issued on complaint of Herman Uymari, who claimed Martin, in moving a house, broke down his fence. Warrants were also issued for four of Martin's employees.

Mrs. French Denies It. To the Editor of the Standard: I see by your paper this morning that I have been accused of sending obscene letters to the mail. I deny the charge. The letters that have been sent to James McFadden and Carlo Donovan, obscene or vulgar, were never sent by me, nor did I have any hand in them. I have had insulting and warning letters of all kinds sent to me through the mail, which was printed on cards, all as was McFadden's and Donovan's. All of this has been done for spite to hurt me. I can prove that Mr. McFadden has been to my home and said and done many insulting things to me, and he said he would fix me so I would have to walk out of Walkerville without money enough to pay my fare to Butte. Why did not some of these people do some of these mean things before my husband and I went? (Signed) MRS. CASSIE FRENCH.

In Police Court. Yesterday was rather a light one in the police court, and the city treasury did not reap its usual trial day harvest. A one-legged unfortunate, who is known only as "Peg Leg," Judas Newgard, Charles Ely and Jack Cutler were fined $5 each as drunks. John McCarthy and C. Davis contributed $5 each for disturbance. The cases of Joseph McGovern, charged with assault; George Bean, charged with disturbance for offering an alleged insult to Mrs. Shafer on the street, and Thomas Smerage, accused of assaulting Andrew Koski, were dismissed. The case of Henry Miller, charged with violating a city ordinance by excavating in street without placing danger lights at night for the protection of the driving public, was continued.

Excursion to Denver. The Union Pacific announces a rate of $32 from Butte to Denver and return on account of meeting of American Medical association at Denver. Tickets on sale June 4th and 5th. Final limit June 25th. Also the same rate for meeting of the General Federation of Women's clubs at Denver. Tickets on sale June 18th and 19th, with a final limit of July 10th. These tickets are continuous passage in each direction, but can be purchased going via Union Pacific and returning via Rio Grande.

Excursion to Omaha. The Rio Grande Western Railway will on June 28 sell tickets, Butte to Omaha and return, at $40, account Montana day at the Trans-Mississippi Exposition. A dustless ride through the Rockies, passing directly through Salt Lake city, Glenwood springs, Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver, and America's greatest scenery. Tickets good 15 days. For maps of route, etc., call on or write, W. C. McBride, general agent, 21 East Broadway, Butte.

To Builders and Contractors. The contract for the erection and completion of a two-story brick building at the Women's Exposition, for Mitchell & Munsigbrod, according to the drawings and specifications prepared by H. M. Patterson, architect, Butte, Mont., will be let Friday, June 24, 1896, to the lowest responsible bidder. Plans and specifications are to be seen at H. M. Patterson's office, Butte, or at Warm Springs. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. MITCHELL & MUSSIGBROD.

Women's Club Denver Excursion. The Rio Grande Western Railway, America's scenic route, will sell round-trip tickets to Denver on account of biennial meeting of the General Federation of Women's clubs, at $32. Tickets will be on sale June 18th and 19th, good until July 10th. Delegations from the Northwest and Utah will leave Salt Lake, via this route, at 7:40 p. m. Sunday next. W. C. McBride, general agent, 21 East Broadway.

Excursion to Omaha. The Oregon Short Line will run an excursion to Omaha, leaving Butte June 26. A rate of forty dollars ($40) for the round trip will be made on account of Montana day at the Omaha exposition. For further information call on M. W. Bacon, General Agent, No. 19 East Broadway, Butte, Mont.

Light weight fishing boots for $3.50, at the shoe sale, John Tassell's, 25 West Park.

GRADUATION DAY IN BUTTE

(Continued from Page Eight.)

any departure from American principles and institutions. He was in accord with the leading anti-slavery men. He was thoroughly American in his writings.

James O'Brien. James O'Brien spoke of "Gladstone's Political Integrity." No Englishman has won so much esteem in America as Gladstone. He was pre-eminently honest, orderly and God-fearing. The life of Gladstone is without parallel in English history. For 30 years all was prominent in English political life.

Miss Winnifred Bretherton. "Shakespeare's Women" was Miss Winnifred Bretherton's subject. She spoke of Portia, Isabella, Desdemona and others. In all the characters are there pictured three wicked women. Ambition led Lady Macbeth wrong. There is scarcely a play of Shakespeare which has not a perfect woman.

Miss Edith Tregliown. "Idylls of the King" was Miss Edith Tregliown's subject. "The Holy Grail" is in many respects the richest and best of all the idylls, but on account of the subject the most confusing.

Clarence Hopkins. Clarence Hopkins spoke of "The Study of Geology as an Aid to Practical Mining." Geology is the most important of the sciences. The student of geology must store his mind, not with words, but with facts. Observation must accompany book knowledge in the study of the sciences. Geology enables one to study mining intelligently, economically and successfully.

The Butte High School Guitar and Mandolin club then entertained the audience with very sweet music.

Miss Agnes Hanley. The next essayist was Miss Agnes Hanley, whose subject was "Longfellow." The poet of the American States, whose beauty of nature, Longfellow's beautiful life appears in all his works. His genius was almost feminine in its sympathetic qualities. What poet could better describe a ship in a storm? "The Shipwreck" and "Miles Standish" are the best productions of Longfellow. He is the poet of everyday life.

James Glover. "Navies of the World" was the subject of James Glover. England easily leads the navies of the world, having twice the strength of France, which is followed by Russia, Italy, United States, Germany, Austria and Spain. The speaker told of the great achievements of the American navy in every world. He spoke of John Paul Jones, Farragut, Lawrence and Decatur. The martyred John Paul Jones, Annie Weir Craig, Edward William Dicksey, Lulu Evans, James Glover, Mabel Stella Geenen, Alberta Alma Hammer, Agnes Hanley, John Helman, Hazel Norvella Hines, Jean Home, Clarence Victor Hopkins, Katharine Agnes Kehoe, Agnes Meade, Dewey showed at Manila what American ships and Uncle Sam's sailors are superior to an equal number in any other navy.

Miss Katherine Kehoe. "Art of the Ancients" was Miss Katherine Kehoe's subject. In Egypt art flourishes from very early ages. Art can art when in its bloom may be compared to a raging torrent, but in Greece the drawing may be compared to a placid river. The valedictory. The valedictory was Miss Lulu Evans, whose subject was "Beautiful Passages of the Aeneid." She said: "Vergil, of Publius Vergilius Maro, has always been the most popular of all the old Roman poets. His poems were a favorite study with his own countrymen even in his day, and for generations thereafter the young Romans studied their Aeneid at their mothers' dictation and with as much zeal as the modern student, and regularly wrote 'declamations' of some kind concerning its heroes. In the Middle Ages monks and philosophers delighted in Vergil's poetry, not quantity, and passages it were best to dwell. 'The great power of Vergil's style lies in the haunting music of his verse, in the rhythm and fall of his language. And this unfortunately can be reproduced in no English translation. Ten years in the world. On the Nineteenth Centenary of Vergil's Death,' writes thus: 'I salute thee, Mantorano, I that loved thee since my day began, wielder of the stately measure ever moulded by the lips of man.' 'Vergil truly loved for his own sake' and he never shows his individual genius more strongly than in his treatment of the external scenery amidst which his action lies. Homer tells of beauty, yet his heart is consoled with his characters. Not so with Vergil; with him we feel the cool breeze wafting to us the perfume of beautiful flowers, we see the glancing shadow of the trees on the river, we hear the flutter of the startled birds and the long splash of oars on the water. Sometimes are startled by the thunderbolt and terrified by the vivid lightning, as when— 'All in a moment, sun and skies, Against and from the Trojan's eyes, Black night is brooding o'er the deep, Sharp thunder peals, live lightnings leap. The stoutest warrior holds his breath And looks as on the face of death.' 'Then, like Aeneas, we would appease the gods in order once more to leave the realm of the sublime and enter the beautiful. 'Possibly no other passage will more clearly illustrate Vergil's delicate appreciation of Nature's beauties than this in which he describes Aeneas' first glimpse of Latium: 'The sea was reddening with the dawn. The queen of morn on high Was seen in rosy chariot drawn 'Against a saffron sky. When on the bosom of the deep The zephyrs dropped at once to sleep, And, struck with calm, the tired oars strain Against the smooth unmoving main. Now from the deep Aeneas sees A mighty grove of glancing trees. Embowered amid the sylvan scene Old Tiber winds his banks between, And in the lap of ocean pours His gulfy streams, his sandy stores. Around, gay birds of diverse wing, Accustomed there to fly or sing, Were fluttering on from spray to spray And soothing ether with their lay.' 'Passage after passage might be

Martin arrested for breaking down a fence. Fred Martin was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out in Justice Laurandau's court, charging him with malicious trespass. The warrant was issued on complaint of Herman Uymari, who claimed Martin, in moving a house, broke down his fence. Warrants were also issued for four of Martin's employees.

Mrs. French Denies It. To the Editor of the Standard: I see by your paper this morning that I have been accused of sending obscene letters to the mail. I deny the charge. The letters that have been sent to James McFadden and Carlo Donovan, obscene or vulgar, were never sent by me, nor did I have any hand in them. I have had insulting and warning letters of all kinds sent to me through the mail, which was printed on cards, all as was McFadden's and Donovan's. All of this has been done for spite to hurt me. I can prove that Mr. McFadden has been to my home and said and done many insulting things to me, and he said he would fix me so I would have to walk out of Walkerville without money enough to pay my fare to Butte. Why did not some of these people do some of these mean things before my husband and I went? (Signed) MRS. CASSIE FRENCH.

In Police Court. Yesterday was rather a light one in the police court, and the city treasury did not reap its usual trial day harvest. A one-legged unfortunate, who is known only as "Peg Leg," Judas Newgard, Charles Ely and Jack Cutler were fined $5 each as drunks. John McCarthy and C. Davis contributed $5 each for disturbance. The cases of Joseph McGovern, charged with assault; George Bean, charged with disturbance for offering an alleged insult to Mrs. Shafer on the street, and Thomas Smerage, accused of assaulting Andrew Koski, were dismissed. The case of Henry Miller, charged with violating a city ordinance by excavating in street without placing danger lights at night for the protection of the driving public, was continued.

Excursion to Denver. The Union Pacific announces a rate of $32 from Butte to Denver and return on account of meeting of American Medical association at Denver. Tickets on sale June 4th and 5th. Final limit June 25th. Also the same rate for meeting of the General Federation of Women's clubs at Denver. Tickets on sale June 18th and 19th, with a final limit of July 10th. These tickets are continuous passage in each direction, but can be purchased going via Union Pacific and returning via Rio Grande.

Excursion to Omaha. The Rio Grande Western Railway will on June 28 sell tickets, Butte to Omaha and return, at $40, account Montana day at the Trans-Mississippi Exposition. A dustless ride through the Rockies, passing directly through Salt Lake city, Glenwood springs, Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver, and America's greatest scenery. Tickets good 15 days. For maps of route, etc., call on or write, W. C. McBride, general agent, 21 East Broadway, Butte.

To Builders and Contractors. The contract for the erection and completion of a two-story brick building at the Women's Exposition, for Mitchell & Munsigbrod, according to the drawings and specifications prepared by H. M. Patterson, architect, Butte, Mont., will be let Friday, June 24, 1896, to the lowest responsible bidder. Plans and specifications are to be seen at H. M. Patterson's office, Butte, or at Warm Springs. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. MITCHELL & MUSSIGBROD.

Women's Club Denver Excursion. The Rio Grande Western Railway, America's scenic route, will sell round-trip tickets to Denver on account of biennial meeting of the General Federation of Women's clubs, at $32. Tickets will be on sale June 18th and 19th, good until July 10th. Delegations from the Northwest and Utah will leave Salt Lake, via this route, at 7:40 p. m. Sunday next. W. C. McBride, general agent, 21 East Broadway.

Excursion to Omaha. The Oregon Short Line will run an excursion to Omaha, leaving Butte June 26. A rate of forty dollars ($40) for the round trip will be made on account of Montana day at the Omaha exposition. For further information call on M. W. Bacon, General Agent, No. 19 East Broadway, Butte, Mont.

Light weight fishing boots for $3.50, at the shoe sale, John Tassell's, 25 West Park.

quoted showing Vergil's great delight in the beauty of nature. But he is not merely a landscape artist, picturing glowing tints or gloomy grandeur. As a dramatist he holds our unceasing interest in the fortunes of his heroes. The fate of Diado and Fallas has drawn tears from successive generations. Who has not grieved over the fall of Priam and the sufferings of the Trojans, nor been stirred to pity by Aeneas' pathetic farewell to Helenus: "Live and be blessed 'tis sweet to feel Fate's book is closed and under seal. For us, alas, the volume stern Has many another page to turn. Yours is a rest assured; no more Of ocean wave to sack the ear, No far Ansonia to invade, Still flying, flying from the view." "Vergil as a man was gentle, tender and sympathetic; and his poetry reflects his disposition. Of a delicate and refined nature, noble in thought and spotless in character, he was, as Bacon says: 'The choicest poet and royalist Vergilius Maro, that to the memory of man is known.'"

"Standing with reluctant feet Where the brook and river meet." "Thus stands the class of '98. Before us is life-life with its joys and sorrows, defeat and victories. "When for the first time we entered the high school we were delighted to think we had attained such a position in the great world of education, and now we are proud to think we have completed our high school course. "The days gone by in the dear old school rooms were a source of pleasure to each and every one of us; and it is hoped that the future will dawn in all brightness, and that each one will perform his duty. Frances Anne Kemble tells us: 'A sacred burden is this life ye bear; look on it, lift it, bear it solemnly, stand up and walk beneath it steadfastly. Fail not for sorrow, falter not for sin, but onward, upward, till the goal ye win.' "As we bid farewell to our school days, we wish to say to our teachers, to whom we are indebted beyond words, we thank you. To our superintendent and board of education we tender our sincere thanks. Kind friends, the class of '98 bids you farewell, thanking you for your aid and support in our school days, and the good we shall accomplish remains to be seen, for— "Behold! we know not anything: I can but trust that good shall fall At last—far off—at last, at last, And every winter change to spring." The Diplomans.

The diplomas were then presented the graduates by Chairman Long of the board of trustees. There were diplomas for Walter Sherlock and Albert Tonkin, but they were not present to receive them. Those who received diplomas were: Maude Peters Beebe, Elizabeth Bennett, Kate Eloise Bortwick, Winnifred Bretherton, Fannie Bretherton, Frank Oswald Brown, John East, Corlette, Annie Weir Craig, Edward William Dicksey, Lulu Evans, James Glover, Mabel Stella Geenen, Alberta Alma Hammer, Agnes Hanley, John Helman, Hazel Norvella Hines, Jean Home, Clarence Victor Hopkins, Katharine Agnes Kehoe, Agnes Meade, James Francis O'Brien, Henry Hamlet Porter, Iva May Price, Theodora Knight Russell, Gertrude Rosenstein, James Roam Spencer, William James Schlorff, Edith Tregliown, Elmer William Trainer, Jennie Woodbury.

Our War Premium. Send us $10 in advance for one year's subscription to the Standard, or $6 for six months, and secure a copy of The American Navy, Cuba and Hawaii—the handsomest premium ever offered by a newspaper.

Change in Running Gallatin Valley Limited. Commencing June 29th, the Northern Pacific train, known as the "Gallatin Valley Limited," which runs between Livingston and Garrison will be discontinued between Helena and Garrison. On and after the above date the train will only run between Livingston and Helena.

Sunday Excursions to Gregson. The B. A. & P. railway will make a rate of $1 for round trip from Butte to Gregson and return, every Saturday and Sunday until further notice. Tickets good going on any passenger train leaving Butte between 5 p. m. Saturday and 5 p. m. Sunday. Returning, leave Gregson between 8:15 p. m. Saturday and 12 o'clock Sunday night.

Excursion to Salt Lake. The Oregon Short Line will operate a special excursion from Butte to Salt Lake Saturday, June 25th, at a rate of $15 for the round trip. For further information call on or write M. W. Bacon, General Agent, No. 19 East Broadway, Butte, Mont.

SMOKE ROBERT MANTELL CIGARS.

Flour IS DOWN The very finest made—"Quaker Flour"—is now $1.75 a sack or $3.50 hundredweight. We are always first to drop and give you the benefit of the market. Our Butter is the very finest in the market, always fresh and delicious; 2 pounds 45c; 5 pounds $1.10. Fresh, ripe Tomatoes, two pounds.....25c Fresh, ripe Tomatoes, basket.....45c Fresh Eggs, dozen.....15c 2 can extra grade Walnuts.....25c 2 can extra grade Pumpkins.....25c Excellent Corn, Peas and Tomatoes, 2 cans.....25c

Lutey Bros. CASH GROCERY 47 W. Park Telephone 68 BUTTE, MONT.

PARISIAN DYE HOUSE. French Dyeing and Cleaning. The only house in the Northwest that uses the French process. We guarantee our work to be strictly first-class. We have our solutions or dyestuffs on hand. All orders should be left at 60 WEST GALENA ST., BUTTE, MONT. PAUMIE, Proprietor.

Prices of Merit THAT Merit Your Trade

Table listing various goods and their prices, including White Checked Yainsook, Ladies' Plaid Silk Ties, White Hemmed Bedspreads, etc.

CASE GRANELLE AND BUTTE ERVING MONTANA.

With Complacency. The White Front Grocery maintains its place in the lead of all competitors in the high quality of its goods and the bargains it gives patrons. It has long been conceded and is being emphasized every day that this store affords patrons the greatest inducement of any store in its line to obtain good of their choice at reasonable prices and with efficiency, promptness and faithfulness of service. Before buying elsewhere, call and examine goods and learn prices. WHITE FRONT GROCERY 308-310-312 N. Main Street, Butte. Telephone 185 If You Buy Your Groceries at the White Front Grocery They Are Good

New Line of Oil Cloths and Linoleums

Kennedy Furniture Co. 18-20 West Broadway - Butte, Montana. This Three-Piece Rock Elm Suit, bed, dresser and washstand, fine, bright antique finish, dresser top 19x43 inches, fancy shaped 22x28 German bevel mirror, bed 6 feet high, 4x6 slat, very heavy and strong; washstand 18x34, one long drawer, two short drawers and closet, splashback; regular $17.50. TO-DAY $15.00

Flour IS DOWN

ANACONDA COPPER MINING CO., LUMBER DEPARTMENT Manufacturers of and Wholesale Dealers in Rough and Dressed Lumber All Kinds of Mining and Bridge Timbers a Specialty Large Dry Kilns in connection with the mill. Sash and Door Factory. Sash, Doors, Mouldings, Cedar Shingles and Pine Lath; Interior Hardwood of Pine, Fir, Spruce, Redwood and Maple; Posts, Small Sawing, Turning and Fancy Branches. Over 2,000,000 feet of No. 1 Clear Finish in stock, either yard seasoned or kiln dried. Estimates and Price Lists furnished on application. BELLS AT HAMILTON, MONTANA. Offices and Yards—see Utah Avenue, South Butte, Montana. Offices and Yards—Cor. Birch and Front Street, Anaconda, Mont.

$1.00 Pipestone Springs AND RETURN Tickets on sale at up town or depot offices of the Northern Pacific Saturday and Sunday. GOOD TO RETURN MONDAY A Special Train Leaves Butte at 9 a. m. Sunday

Quick THE STANDARD'S Results WHEN YOU USE "WANT" COLUMNS

Send Us Your Next Mail Order We'll Fill it Satisfactorily

Table listing various goods and their prices, including White Hemmed Bedspreads, White Wool Flannel, Colored Lappet Swiss, etc.

There is No Cheaper Than the Cheapest of LOW PRICES

White Front Grocery. These are the cords of steel that bind the community to our store: Your dollar will bring the biggest value in our store. 5 pounds best Creamery Butter...$1.10 5 pounds good Creamery Butter... 1.00 15 pounds Pie Plant..... 25 1 bottle Extra Choice Catsup..... 10 1 package Parlor Matches..... 10 We cannot quote prices on strawberries on account of fluctuations in prices, but we are always the lowest.

Miners' Cash Grocery Corner Main and Galena, Butte. A. Booth. Mikado Restaurant It is a well-established fact that we set

The Best Table Board IN THE CITY Single Meals 25c Meal Tickets $1.00 Board by the Month $30.00 Your Patronage Solicited. Nesbitt Sisters, Managers 15 W. Granite St., Butte, Mont.

The OLD PLACE The original Whitley's Cafe under a new name. The Chequamegon Cafe At the old stand, 27 West Park Street, Butte. WITH OUR OLD MOTTO "Your Way is the Right Way" Under the Old Management DAVEY & HOLMES

PRIVATE DISPENSARY Dr. W. Todd Established in 1887 for the honorable and scientific treatment of all diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs, Skin and Blood, Syphilis and Venereal Diseases in every form. Nervousness, Weakness and Indiscretions of Young, Middle-Aged and Prematurely Old Men and all Private, Chronic and Special Diseases of Men and Women, Rupture, Stricture and Piles.

DRS. MURRAY & FREUND Hospital and Offices corner Quartz and Alameda streets, Butte, Mont. Telephone 9 and 115 for Ambulance. IF YOU DON'T TAKE THE STANDARD YOU DON'T GET THE NEWS.