IN THE DISTRICT COURT

Few Were in Attendance When Order Was Called.

ROCKEFELLER IS GUILTY

Jury Fixes His Punishment at One Year in the Penitentiary—Charged With Assault in the First Degree.

Missoula, Nov. 21.—There was a "Mauve Quatre Heures" at the opening of the district court this morning. There was no stenographer, no witnesses and no attorneys for the defense in the case of the state against Rockefeller. His honor issued a bench warrant for his son, the court stenographer, and court officers were sent scurrying about town for the other missing ones. When finally all hands were on deck an hour had elapsed and the court had a good text for a morning address to the delinquents.

The case against Allerton Rockefeller was called when things had been straightened out and a jury was secured as follows: George T. Bell, Henry Burkhouse, Joseph Thomas, William Mc Norton, Robert Johnson, William Pickens, H. C. Myers, Alexis Jett, Adam Lalonde, Henry Rehder, William Broderick and Emil Zaugg. Rockefeller was charged with first degree assault upon a Chinaman, the details of the alleged assault having been given at the time in the Standard.

The services of an interpreter were found to be necessary and Lewis Den was sworn to fill that office. Then the trial proceeded. The complaining witness testified that he was coming up West Front street and had reached a point opposite the Office saloon, when Rockefeller came up to him and proceeded to go through his pockets. The Chinaman said that he then knocked Rockefeller down and in the struggle that ensued the white man drew a knife, with which he cut him.

A second Chinaman, who is known here as "Lee Wintarsley," testified that he was attracted to the scene of the fight by the cries of the Chinaman, who claimed to have been assaulted, and he at once proceeded to give the alarm. He ran up the street looking for a policeman, but Rockefeller escaped before an officer could be found. He then took the assaulted Chinaman to the county jail and thence to the county physician, who dressed the wounds.

In defense Rockefeller said that he was coming out of the Office saloon, when the Chinaman brushed against him and swore at him. He knocked the Chinaman down and the latter drew a knife, which he used upon Rockefeller. Rockefeller succeeded in getting the knife away from the Chinaman and was proceeding to use it when bystanders told him not to and he returned it to the Chinaman.

Dr. McCulloch, Chief of Police Angevine and others testified to minor particulars of the affair. Rockefeller was found and arrested the next day after the fight. The jury retired at 3 o'clock to consider the case.

The jury returned a verdict this evening, finding the accused guilty of second degree assault and fixing his punishment at one year's confinement in the state penitentiary.

LOUIS BROOKS DROWNED.

Endeavored to Swim a River but Lost His Life. Missoula, Nov. 21.—Harry A. Lambert has received from Alex Demers the following information of the accidental drowning of Louis Brooks in the Pond d'Oreille river. Joe McDonald brought the news to the mission, McDonald, Brooks and others were driving cattle and had got to the bend across the river at the ferry above the mouth of the Jocko. After the cattle were across McDonald and the others took their horses down to the ford for a crossing for themselves.

St. Ignace took the cattle from his horse and started to swim at the point where the cattle had been crossed. His horse went down at the first jump and Brooks disappeared at the same time and did not show up again above water. His companions sprang into the stream to seize him in case he rose, but they waited in vain. Brooks had been cautioned about trying to swim the river at that point, but he did not heed the advice.

With every dollar's worth purchased at J. L. McBride's a ticket will be given that will entitle the holder to a chance for the grand range that will be raffled off Christmas.

Missoula, Nov. 21.—The following records were filed with the county clerk and recorder: Deed—W. J. Kendall and wife to Christine Anna Nelson, the west half of the northeast quarter of section 25 in township 14 north of range 21 west, containing 80 acres. Deed—George B. Wilds et al., as trustees of the Missoula Building and Loan association, a corporation dissolved, to Joseph M. Dixon lots 8, 9 and 19 of block 18, in Clinton addition, 320 1/2 acres.

Patent—United States to Alma Nyberg, lots No. 1 and 2 and the south half of the northeast quarter of section 2 in township 13 north, range 16 west. A large line of ladies' and children's felt shoes just received. The Golden Rule store. Children's coats at the Golden Rule store. $8c, $1.45, $1.95, $2.45 and up.

W. Schilling will launch into the men's furnishing business again, and will start in one of the stores in the Prosperity block on North Higgins avenue.

The goods are arriving and the store will have a grand opening by the first of the month. George Elliott, who recently sold his mining claims in the Wallace district, will open a tin shop in the room adjoining.

INDIAN HORSE THIEVES.

Tom and Antoine Admit Their Guilt of the Crime. Missoula, Nov. 21.—Deputy United States Marshal Melickjohn returned to Helena tonight, taking with him the two Indians, Tom and Antoine, who are charged with horse stealing and who this afternoon admitted to United States Commissioner Smith that they are guilty as charged. Tom is a Flathead and Tom is a Spokane. Each has given considerable trouble on the reservation and the pair is regarded as dangerous to the morals and safety of the Indian community. Mr. Melickjohn says that when he reached the agency he found both these Indians in irons in the agency jail. They wore heavy balls and chains and were handcuffed and tied to the floor. Antoine had been in the jail for nearly two months and Tom for two weeks. Antoine was originally arrested for a petty depredation of some sort on the reservation, but succeeded in getting away. He broke jail and carried his ball and chain with him. He was quiet for a short time and then escaped once more. This time he succeeded in ridding himself of the encumbrance of the ball and chain and was getting away in good shape when two horses were missed and it was at once suspected that he was the thief. It was found that he and Tom had each taken a horse and a suit of clothes belonging to some one and they were pursued and captured and thrown into jail, so tied and weighted that escape was impossible. This afternoon the stolen clothes were taken from them and they went to Helena to-night with none to much clothing to hide the bronze of their aboriginal skins.

RESERVED HIS DECISION. Justice Houtchens Hears the Case of Mrs. Culp vs. Mrs. Rash. Missoula, Nov. 21.—Justice Houtchens this afternoon listened to the testimony in the case of Mrs. Jennie Culp against Mrs. Bertha Rash, now Mrs. Mellette. Mrs. Culp claims that Mrs. Mellette owes her $125 for services. Mrs. Rash contends that she had promised Mrs. Culp no wages except for services in assisting her to move her household effects. The remainder of the period for which it is claimed wages are due, Mrs. Rash says that Mrs. Culp worked for her on a voluntary basis, which she seemed to prefer to living with her relatives. The justice took over night to think about the case.

GOLD FROM CLEAR CREEK

Last Shipment Aggregates 1,000 Fine Ounces.

GROUND IS STILL RICH

Believed That There is Still Five Seasons of Work in Sight in the Old Diggings—$24,000 Taken Out This Year.

Missoula, Nov. 21.—Alphonse La Casse of the La Casse brothers today made the last shipment of gold for the season from the cedar creek placer mines, which are owned by the brothers. This shipment amounted to about 1,000 ounces of fine gold cast in bricks. Previous shipments have been made during the season that bring the total product of the diggings up to about $24,000 for the year. The gold is pure, ranging in the neighborhood of 850 fine. The five bricks that were sent today are handsome and have attracted much attention here in the city. The gold was taken out of a while before returning to their Bitter Root home. Dr. Haygard went in charge of the horses.

Intelligence has reached this city of the death of his home in Denver, Mo., of Dr. A. J. Watts, uncle of Assessor Watta of this county, and who visited in this valley for several months this summer. He was a sufferer from Bright's disease and his health failed rapidly this fall, warning him to get home before the end came. He reached home just five days before his death.

Nels Peterson, convicted of the murder of Andrew Nelson at the last term of court, sentenced to hang, and who has been respited for 60 days by Governor Smith in order that a motion for a new trial may be perfected, seems to be doing better. He is now in the Bitter Root. The next year we went to work for ourselves on Cedar creek.

The operations at the old placer diggings were not extensive this year. Mr. La Casse said that all had been worked before in the old boom days and about the best that the boys could do was to say expenses. They kept at it, however, and are now on top. Mr. La Casse said that in the early days of the early experience of himself and his brothers on this work: "We were discouraged and wanted to sell out, but could find nobody to take the ground. The only reason that we kept at it was because we could not get rid of the ground then. We would have sold out cheap, but there was nobody to buy."

All of the work that the brothers have done this year has been on the old ground that was supposed to have been washed clean once. On the ground that was washed this year the old miners took out $200,000 in the boom days. This old ground will last for a long time, longer on one side of the creek and for possibly three seasons on the other. Then the flame will be in virgin ground and the expectations are that this will contain the richest trenches yet. The boys are called by their friends, deserve credit for their perseverance and there is nobody who is not glad that they have done well this year.

SUNDAY'S SHOOT AT WALLACE.

Self-Action Handicap Introduced With Satisfactory Results. Wallace, Idaho, Nov. 20.—Yesterday was the third shoot for the season by the Wallace Gun club and the self-action handicap system came into action. All the shooting heretofore having been handicapped on the average for last year, while heretofore it will vary from Sunday to Sunday. The chances for next year will be on a level. The shoot was held from 4 to 6 o'clock. King from C to B. In the reverse pull, Van Dorn from B to A. Yesterday was also marked by a new shoot, to be known as the "Merone" shoot. The "Merone" shoot is a new angle event, the man winning the greater number of times during the season to be given a 1,000-mile ticket over either of the railroads running in here. The "Merone" shoot is the same as the other shoots. Yesterday's scores were as follows: Reverse pull—Scott, 5; King, 5; Van Dorn, 8; Galt, 8; Holohan, 8; Flohr, 7; Rogers, 8; Whitlaw, 8; King, 9; Van Dorn, 8; Galt, 9; Holohan, 9; Flohr, 8; Rogers, 10; Whitlaw, 9. Medal—Scott, 23; King, 23; Van Dorn, 20; Galt, 22; Holohan, 18; Flohr, 22; Rogers, 23; Whitlaw, 23; Cartwright, 23.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS.

Hamilton, Nov. 21.—The Daily palace stock car Hattie D left here by special to Missoula yesterday for the Bright's disease. The car was thronged with trotting mares and the thoroughbred stallions Tammany and Imp. Inverness, the stallions going to Milton Young's McDruthina breeding farm in Kentucky, where they will remain a while before returning to their Bitter Root home. Dr. Haygard went in charge of the horses.

PHILIPSBURG VISITOR.

Judge Durfee Sees His Family Comfortably Settled. Missoula, Nov. 21.—Philipsburg has been well represented here this week. Judge Durfee has been down to see how his family are settled in their new home. It is noticeable that the judge did not come home until all of the carpets were down and all of the hard work of moving had been finished. When he did get here, however, he had a great deal to say about the trials of moving. Judge Durfee expects to come down often now. He has one of the finest homes in Missoula, and he will like it here after he gets his bearings.

William Nea of Philipsburg has also been making a business visit to the Garden City. The object of his visit was the purchase of vegetables in carload lots for his store in the burg.
