

ANACONDA NEWS.

NEW YEAR APPROACHES

While the Yule Log Dies to Ashes on the Hearth.

BRAND NEW RESOLUTIONS

Will Be Made, Sooner or Later to Be Broken, Like New Toys—What Will Take Place in the Churches.

"Soon the yule log will be ashes; Christmas fast is ebbing by; and the Old Year's growing feeble, next will come his turn to die. Then, the New Year! Good Sir New Year, mind you not what be the weather. Though we've strayed o'er health and heather, pray you—bring us all together once again."

Outside the churches the ushering in of the new year promises to be quiet, with not a great deal of social observance in the immediate days to follow. Sunday night there will be the usual ringing of bells and making of loud noises that the death of the old year as well as the birth of the new year may not be unattended with at least some of that pomp which is their right due. New Year's day itself will be taken up largely, of course, with the making of excellent pledges, to be kept for awhile, like new toys, then broken in the scramble of every-day life.

The advent of the new year will be observed more or less generally by the churches throughout the city, though, naturally, not with the elaborate ceremony that attended the Christmas tide. In the Roman Catholic churches special music will be the feature of observance, while in the Protestant sanctuaries services appropriate to the occasion will be held to-morrow (Sunday), and the enjoyment of Monday as New Year's day will not be marked by much, if any, religious features.

At St. Paul's the regular Sunday services will be held, with the addition of midnight mass, beginning at 12 o'clock and continuing through the first hour of New Year's morn. The music at this service will be of an elaborate and specially prepared character and will be under the direction of Professor Kennicott. The sopranos and altos will be sung by Mrs. L. J. Baker, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Joseph, Wickle and Agnes Daly. The male voices will be those of Dr. Spelman, Mr. Vidrot, Mr. McMillan, L. J. Baker, J. J. McGuire and the chorists. It is probable that on New Year's morning mass will be celebrated at 8 o'clock, with high mass at 10:30. The evening service will be held at the regular hour, 7:30.

At St. Paul's the service for the ushering in of the new year will begin at 11:30 o'clock Sunday night. The music will be by the children's choir, assisted by the junior choir, and under the direction of Mrs. Burnham and Miss Mollie Hogan. The exposition of the blessed sacrament will continue until 1 o'clock New Year's morning. At 3 o'clock Monday morning high mass will be sung by the junior choir, assisted by some of the best musical talent of the city.

At the Presbyterian church the regular Sunday services will be held morning and evening, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Cleland, preaching. The discourses of the day will bear significance to the new year, and the music will be special, under the direction of Miss Macdougall, Mrs. Richardson, organist.

The regular night service at the Methodist church will begin with the regular Sunday evening service at 7:30 o'clock and will continue until the new year has been ushered in. It is probable that several out-of-town ministers will be present to take part in the service. To-morrow morning and to-morrow evening the quarterly meeting of the church will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. McLaughlin, pastor of the Helena district. At the close of the morning service the holy communion will be administered. This (Saturday) evening the regular quarterly conference will be held in church by the presiding elder. At this meeting the business of the last three months will be disposed of.

Sunday afternoon will witness the dedication of the Swedish mission, at the corner of Fifth and Main streets. The service will be held at 3 o'clock and will be participated in by all the Protestant ministers of the city. Ad-

"I have long thought it my duty to write you a few lines to let you know what Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done for me."

write Mrs. E. W. Falconer of Treat, Muskogee Co., Mich. "I am twenty-seven years old; have been married ten years. I am the mother of four children. My first two babies were still born, and I suffered terribly, and nearly died. My friends all thought I could never recover. I was reduced to a few pounds. When I was three months along for my third child, I was taken with hemorrhaging and came near having miscarriage from female weakness. For two months I was under the care of my doctor, but was getting weaker all the time until one day I sent and got three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and began to feel better. I continued to take your medicine until my baby was born, and he is healthy and all right. He is four weeks old. My baby girl is two years old. My health has been good ever since. I now weigh 75 pounds and when I began to feel badly I took 'Favorite Prescription' which always helps me. I always tell my neighbors what helps me and a good many have taken your 'Favorite Prescription' with good results."

The "Favorite Prescription" has cured more women than all other medicines for women combined. It is the only preparation of its sort devised by a regularly graduated physician, a skilled and experienced specialist in the diseases of women.

Other medicines are sometimes sold on the plea that they are "just as good as the 'Favorite Prescription.'" Don't believe it. Don't be imposed upon. Counterfeits are never as good as the genuine.

Over 250,000 women have endorsed "Favorite Prescription." They say there is nothing "just as good" and they know. Would you rather have the say-so of one dealer who makes an extra profit on the substitute, than the provable words of 250,000 women whose only object in recommending the "Favorite Prescription" is their desire to help their suffering sisters?

addresses will be made by the pastor, the Rev. G. Nelson; by the Rev. Mr. Cleland, pastor of the Presbyterian church; by the Rev. Mr. Chatterjee, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, and by the Rev. Mr. Jenkins of the Baptist church.

The Swedish mission is a neat frame edifice, built by the 30 members of the Free Swedish church in Anaconda, a denomination which sprang up in Anaconda about two years ago and corresponds in doctrine with the Congregational church in America. The mission was built at a cost of $3,900, of which $2,000 was raised by the members and a gift of $1,000 is to be received from the denomination in Chicago, which when received will wipe out the cent of indebtedness and leave the church on a sound financial base. The corner stone of the new mission was laid Oct. 6, 1899. Services will be conducted each Sunday.

Take Your Choice. "From the Atlantic to the Pacific" or "History of the Spanish-American War" is the premium given by the Anaconda Standard when you pay $10 in advance for one year's subscription.

CLUBS ARE AT WAR.

Smallpox Scare Widens Breach Between Whisker and No-Moustache Societies.

Great is the strife nowadays between the Whiskers club, of which George S. Miller is president, and the No-moustache club, over which Jack Hamill presides. When a case of smallpox was discovered Tuesday night in a Main street barber shop the Whiskers club knew no bounds. The anti-shavers exulted over the shavers and pointed out to them the evil into which they had run.

"It should prove a lesson to the degenerate who shave," said President Miller of the Whiskers club. "Bearded men run no risk of catching smallpox, barbers and other infectors will wipe away that one may contract by having a man shave him. I believe the lesson has sunk in, for we are receiving stacks of applications for membership. We, however, have found the club so popular that we have determined to make the membership exclusive, and are not letting in every scoundrel convert to our theory. We demand that the repentance of the convert be sincere and genuine and that he give some guarantee to walk hereafter in our straight, narrow but whisker-scented path."

Without a doubt it was a blow to the No-moustache club, and caused some of the members to grow weak in the cause. President Hamill's faith, however, is as strong as ever. He refuses even to admit that any member has wavered.

"Weakness? Not in a thousand years," said he. "The fact that a barber is snitten with smallpox can have no bearing on the theories we advocate. People in other walks of life get smallpox."

The fact that contagion is rife is an added argument in favor of the great principles we uphold. Disease is bred from microbes. A clean-shaven man offers no abiding place for the flying microbes, while a bearded one carries a veritable microbe trap on his face. What is more foul than the atmosphere and catching every microbe that comes within its radius? On sanitary grounds alone, no one should wear hair on his face, and especially in those places where there should be particular care to have his face cleanly shaven."

POLICEMAN FINED FOR ASSAULT.

Albert Truedell Used Too Great Violence in Attempting an Arrest.

At the close of a three-hour trial in Justice Deane's court yesterday afternoon, Merchants' Policeman Albert Truedell was found guilty by a jury of simple assault and battery, and was recommended to the district court. The justice imposed a fine of $1 and costs of prosecution, together with some words of censure to the defendant. Truedell was tried on the charge of assaulting with a club, one Matt McDonough, an employe of the lower works, on Christmas night, in the Klondike saloon.

The testimony of the prosecution went to show that he, without provocation, had beaten McDonough rather severely over the head and pulled a gun on him, then made an attempt to pull the man's arrest, but went his way.

The defense introduced testimony to show that the policeman had offered to place McDonough under arrest because the latter was using vile and abusive language and generally disturbing the peace by his boisterous conduct. Truedell was tried on the charge that thereupon Truedell had used his club to subdue the fractious man; that the officer had not pulled his gun until McDonough made the mistake to pull his own, and that, lastly, the arrest had not been effected because McDonough made good his escape from the saloon by a rear door.

The jury was out half an hour, and returned with the verdict already mentioned. In imposing sentence, Judge Devine censured the defendant for having used force that was unnecessary under the circumstances. He cited the law to show that it is the duty of a peace officer, in such cases, to call upon bystanders for assistance in making an arrest before using violence to subdue him.

ST. PETER'S BAZAR.

It Will Open Easter Monday and Continue One Week.

The members of St. Peter's parish at a meeting held this week decided to open their 1899 Fair, or bazaar, on Easter Monday, and continue it one week. At the meeting referred to the following officers of the fair were elected: President, Miss Mary Brennan; vice president, Miss Nellie Long; secretary, Miss Alice Montross; treasurer, Mrs. John Latrobe. Special committees will be announced as soon as they have been appointed.

HELD IN A BRITISH JAIL.

Rumor That Colonel O'Leary Has Been Caught at Rossland.

BUT IT IS ALL A HOAX

Simply One of the Humors of the Proposed Invasion of Canada—Unofficial Board of Strategy Is at Work.

Imprisoned in a foul British gaol—the don't have jails on British soil—in Rossland, charged with being a Fenian spy, the advance agent of the invasion of Canada, is Colonel T. O'Leary, according to the report that was abroad in Anaconda yesterday.

The report is of home manufacture. Colonel O'Leary is in the Coeur d'Alenes, in Idaho, and has not sought to get inside of Canada or a Canadian gaol. The story was started Thursday night at the same time that one of the effect that the Irish were drilling at Austrian hall for the invasion was poured into the ears of unsuspecting newspaper reporters.

But for all this there were some who really believed the story and many who pretended to. The latter class were armed with details. "Ah, ch' poor colonel; a foine man he is, to be sure. An' to think he's 'yin' these in a British jail—th' fine, brave old man. Did they catch him? To be sure they caught him, an' him wid his lather av instructions to make a map av the island in his pocket. Ah, it's a bad day for Orlend, it is ch' day."

And so it went. What Irishman can resist the temptation to spread a joke? They put it abroad over the town, and now and then would meet and howl with laughter at the recital of the anxious questions put by the colonel's friends.

The talk of the proposed invasion of Canada—and such talk is upon every tongue—is a mixture of seriousness and levity. Some look wise and mysterious, and are intimated by the talk of a board of strategy, and that other board of strategy which assembles in the Peritz block declares the two are preparing maps and routes and deciding upon objective points for a forward movement.

Chief of Police Jack White was credited yesterday with trying to organize among Canadian residents of Anaconda the Independent Order of Canadian Fenians, but he denies any such intention. "There are enough bad Canadians here to fight without going up the organization."

APPEAL IS TAKEN.

Legal Firm Objects to Verdict Against It in Justice Court.

An appeal was filed yesterday in the district court in the case of Duffy & Cicco against A. Cicco, wherein the defendant is sued for $50 alleged to be due for legal services in preparing the brief and argument on the exemption of Robert Nagler's homestead. When filed before Justice of the Peace Frank Kennedy Nov. 29, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant and taxed the costs, amounting to $22, to the plaintiffs. Hence the appeal.
