

Local News.

From the Daily of Tuesday.

The railroad fare between Butte and Deer Lodge will be four dollars.

The largest house we have ever seen in Helena Opera House great of the appearance of the Nellie Boyd Dramatic Company in "Fanny" last night.

In all well regulated cities special provision is made for the preservation of the remains of unknown persons, which become the subject of a coroner's inquest.

Four ox teams, each containing seven yokes, passed through the streets yesterday with wood or the Anacostia-haft house.

The Nellie Boyd band treated the residents and passers-by on West Park and Main streets to a serenade yesterday.

The District School at Walkerville has an attendance of over ninety scholars.

Mr. I. P. Young has a very little retreat near Deer Lodge on the Pacific Steamer in Helena where the weary can find rest and refreshment.

Wm. Harris and David Isaacs were arrested Monday for disturbing the peace, having indulged in a little fistfight at the corner of Main and West Broadway.

Dan Wagner, the popular restaurateur, is preparing for a visit to relatives in Europe, whom he has not seen for more than twenty years.

Mr. Ignace Miller, of Helena, has a legion of friends on the West Side who cannot pass his fine place on Main street without stopping in to sample the excellent goods which he dispenses with such pleasing abundance.

Those who recollect the delightful parties given last winter under the auspices of the Bullion Club, will be gratified to know that the club will give another series of their recherches during the coming season.

From the Daily of Tuesday.

GRAND OPENING.

At R. L. Bonner & Co's. Mammoth Store.

When Aladdin pronounced the magic words "open sesame" and the barrier to the wonderful cave yielded to his attempt to enter, his astonished gaze rested upon a no more beautiful display of costly and magnificent articles than was exhibited yesterday at the mammoth store of E. L. Bonner & Co.

The late residence of Sam. Page is now Thomas Martin's home since his return from Lion City.

The Republican Precinct Convention will be held in Meila's hall, on Saturday evening, October 14.

John Moore has moved into the MacIntyre house.

The unoccupied store on West Main street, built by the Finger Bros., has been leased for one year by Mrs. G. G. Earle.

A Bossman Chinaman was shot and killed last Saturday morning.

The assessment of Jefferson county will this year foot up about a million and a half.

From the Daily of Tuesday.

Glendale Funerals.

Three snow storms this week, each quickly followed, however, by warm sunshine.

Tom. Jones one of the best smaller men, and Democratic candidate for Constable, is visiting in the valley.

Samuel Callerton, Esq., died from the effects of lead and typhoid fever, and was buried on Saturday.

Ben. Mahan has established a lumber yard near the Methodist church.

Ben. Chester, formerly of the butcher shop at Melrose, has opened a new meat market in the building formerly occupied by Mrs. White's Restaurant.

The residence of Thomas Martin, in Highland Park, has been purchased by Mr. Wilson.

Mrs. John McCarrie has established a dairy here, all the others having been stopped by the bad weather.

The nomination of Dr. H. Smallman, for representative under the new apportionment, by the County Central Committee, meets with the approval of all the Democrats.

The Republican Precinct Convention will be held in Meila's hall, on Saturday evening, October 14.

Harry Bowyer is still sick in the hospital, but recovering. There are also two patients from Lion City.

Mrs. W. F. Parkes, who formerly resided in Butte, has with her son Frank, gone to Omaha for medical treatment, and will spend the winter in that city.

The Cleaves Dramatic Combination played to a fair audience Saturday night.

John Moore has moved into the MacIntyre house.

The unoccupied store on West Main street, built by the Finger Bros., has been leased for one year by Mrs. G. G. Earle.

A Bossman Chinaman was shot and killed last Saturday morning.

The assessment of Jefferson county will this year foot up about a million and a half.

The assessment roll of Beaverhead county for this year will run up to nearly $2,000,000.

John Moore has moved into the MacIntyre house.

By a dispatch received yesterday.

Obituary.

Thomas M. Pomeroy died of pneumonia, in that city, at 4 o'clock p. m. yesterday.

First National Bank vs. J. M. Bowen et al.; debt; default as to defendant Bowen; case dismissed as to defendant Bowen and referred to Commissioner to compute interest and assess amount due.

Henry Jacobs et al. vs. A. J. Davis; to quiet title; demurrer to supplemental complaint sustained.

W. H. Young et al. vs. D. Spraker et al.; foreclosure; judgment by default.

Carrie E. Graham vs. Robert Graham; divorce; same entry.

Territory of Montana vs. Robert H. Hopkins; grand larceny; conviction.

Territory of Montana vs. Louis Heinbucke; assault to injure; judgment for trial and additional venire of jurors ordered.

Adam Farsday vs. W. A. Clark et al.; partition; defendants' motion to strike complaint from file overruled, plaintiff granted leave to amend complaint, and defendant granted until Oct. 16th to answer.

Territory vs. L. Heinbucke; assault to injure; verdict of not guilty.

A representative of the MINER while at Helena recently was shown some specimens of ore from the Malden Mining District, Meagher County, which indicated the presence of great mineral wealth in that young camp.

The end of the Northern Pacific track from the west is now within 125 miles of Missoula.

The Northern Pacific Company has sunk three artesian wells at Fairview, each about 130 feet deep, and now has an abundant supply of good water at that point.

Uncle Rufus Hahn says there ought to be 100,000,000 bushels of wheat carried by the Northern Pacific next year.

The bridge of trestle work at Marquette gulch, fourteen miles below Missoula, when finished will be quite an elaborate affair.

Herman Trent, general land agent of the Northern Pacific, says that his late sales have mostly been of lands west of the Missouri, and that the inquiries at his office indicate that the American migration to the country southwest of us is strongly turned to the Montana country now being opened by the Northern Pacific.

The distance between Silver Bow Junction and Deer Lodge is 23 1/2 miles. According to the surveys the altitude at Silver Bow Junction is 5,267 feet, and of the Deer Lodge depot 4,720 feet, making a rise of 547 feet in the distance.

Col. Chas. B. Lamborn, land commissioner of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, whose weekly car, traveled over the entire belt of country belonging to the road, is reported to have said, on reaching St. Paul, that the country along the entire line of the Northern Pacific railroad, from Lake Superior to Puget Sound, is much better than that traversed by any other trans-continental line.

Col. Chas. B. Lamborn, land commissioner of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, whose weekly car, traveled over the entire belt of country belonging to the road, is reported to have said, on reaching St. Paul, that the country along the entire line of the Northern Pacific railroad, from Lake Superior to Puget Sound, is much better than that traversed by any other trans-continental line.

From the Daily of Tuesday.

DISTRICT COURT.

A. W. Bernard vs. Wm. Ousey; debt; judgment by default.

First National Bank vs. J. M. Bowen et al.; debt; default as to defendant Bowen; case dismissed as to defendant Bowen and referred to Commissioner to compute interest and assess amount due.

Henry Jacobs et al. vs. A. J. Davis; to quiet title; demurrer to supplemental complaint sustained.

W. H. Young et al. vs. D. Spraker et al.; foreclosure; judgment by default.

Carrie E. Graham vs. Robert Graham; divorce; same entry.

Territory of Montana vs. Robert H. Hopkins; grand larceny; conviction.

Territory of Montana vs. Louis Heinbucke; assault to injure; judgment for trial and additional venire of jurors ordered.

Adam Farsday vs. W. A. Clark et al.; partition; defendants' motion to strike complaint from file overruled, plaintiff granted leave to amend complaint, and defendant granted until Oct. 16th to answer.

Territory vs. L. Heinbucke; assault to injure; verdict of not guilty.

A representative of the MINER while at Helena recently was shown some specimens of ore from the Malden Mining District, Meagher County, which indicated the presence of great mineral wealth in that young camp.

The end of the Northern Pacific track from the west is now within 125 miles of Missoula.

The Northern Pacific Company has sunk three artesian wells at Fairview, each about 130 feet deep, and now has an abundant supply of good water at that point.

Uncle Rufus Hahn says there ought to be 100,000,000 bushels of wheat carried by the Northern Pacific next year.

The bridge of trestle work at Marquette gulch, fourteen miles below Missoula, when finished will be quite an elaborate affair.

Herman Trent, general land agent of the Northern Pacific, says that his late sales have mostly been of lands west of the Missouri, and that the inquiries at his office indicate that the American migration to the country southwest of us is strongly turned to the Montana country now being opened by the Northern Pacific.

The distance between Silver Bow Junction and Deer Lodge is 23 1/2 miles. According to the surveys the altitude at Silver Bow Junction is 5,267 feet, and of the Deer Lodge depot 4,720 feet, making a rise of 547 feet in the distance.

Col. Chas. B. Lamborn, land commissioner of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, whose weekly car, traveled over the entire belt of country belonging to the road, is reported to have said, on reaching St. Paul, that the country along the entire line of the Northern Pacific railroad, from Lake Superior to Puget Sound, is much better than that traversed by any other trans-continental line.

Col. Chas. B. Lamborn, land commissioner of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, whose weekly car, traveled over the entire belt of country belonging to the road, is reported to have said, on reaching St. Paul, that the country along the entire line of the Northern Pacific railroad, from Lake Superior to Puget Sound, is much better than that traversed by any other trans-continental line.

From the Columns of Our Exchanges.

TERRITORIAL NEWS.

Ten thousand five hundred bushels of oats were threshed by one machine on the Shonkin during the past season.

Doc. Zahl, a Glendive hunter, recently had his stock stolen from his camp by Indians. He followed and overtook one of the redskins had a personal interview with him.

According to the Times there is not a pound of flour for sale on Wood River. The article closes with the following: "If no flour arrives by tomorrow night it may be necessary, in order to avoid a famine, to start a light wagon out on each of the roads by which flour is expected, to bring in a few hundred pounds, so as to 'lengthen' out the stock on hand until fresh supplies are received."

A Pioneer Press reporter has been interviewing H. F. Douglas as to the privileges of the syndicate with which he is connected in the National Park.

Mr. W. Y. Pemberton, our next District Attorney, returned from Missoula last evening.

The Omrona as a Detective. Instantaneous photography is apt to catch the amateur's attention, for it is most interesting.

Thompson's Crossing, of Shannonsville, is now headquarters for railroad work on the Western Division of the Northern Pacific.

Three men were injured on the railroad grade near Hatley, Saturday, by premature explosions of powder.

Quite a lively town has sprung up at the Junction of the Bellevue branch of the Oregon Short Line railroad with the main line, on Little Wood river, known as the Junction, or Junction City.

Secretary Teller says he has not lessened the National Park, nor has he a right to do so.

Handicap race yesterday declared off. First race for three-year-olds, purse $150.

Second race—running; purse $200; handicap, three-quarter mile dash: Jockey, 1; Formosa, 2; Chantilla, 3.

Third race—running; purse $150; mile dash for beaten horses. Chantilla, 1; Formosa, 2; Jockey, 3.

In the case of Louis Heinbucke in the District Court yesterday, the Jury found a verdict of not guilty.

A good house again greeted the Nellie Boyd Company last night to witness the beautiful play of "Forget Me Not."

Mr. W. Y. Pemberton, who has just returned from a canvass of Missoula county, speaks enthusiastically of the political prospects in the garden county.

The livery stable of Connolly & Co. is on hand for business this morning.

G. B. Sarchet, M. D., homo pathic physician and surgeon; office Granite street, south side, near Main Residence, Quartz street, north side, west of E. Church.

From the Daily of Tuesday.

PERSONAL.

John W. Plummer, Esq., of the Broadway mine, is over from Silver Star.

G. V. Everick, Esq., of Dillon, an old Montanan, was in the city yesterday.

J. D. Sterrett, Esq., has opened his Occoia Club Rooms. They are cozy and comfortable.

Granville Stuart, Esq., accompanied by Mrs. N. C. Stuart, and Miss Kate Stuart, of Deer Lodge, returned from Iowa yesterday on their way home.

Capt. S. Pixley, of Abell, Pixley & Co., bullion brokers, London, and one of the famous Wimbledon team, passed through the city yesterday en route to San Francisco.

Mr. W. Y. Pemberton, our next District Attorney, returned from Missoula last evening.

Instantaneous photography is apt to catch the amateur's attention, for it is most interesting.

Thompson's Crossing, of Shannonsville, is now headquarters for railroad work on the Western Division of the Northern Pacific.

Three men were injured on the railroad grade near Hatley, Saturday, by premature explosions of powder.

Quite a lively town has sprung up at the Junction of the Bellevue branch of the Oregon Short Line railroad with the main line, on Little Wood river, known as the Junction, or Junction City.

Secretary Teller says he has not lessened the National Park, nor has he a right to do so.

Handicap race yesterday declared off. First race for three-year-olds, purse $150.

Second race—running; purse $200; handicap, three-quarter mile dash: Jockey, 1; Formosa, 2; Chantilla, 3.

Third race—running; purse $150; mile dash for beaten horses. Chantilla, 1; Formosa, 2; Jockey, 3.

In the case of Louis Heinbucke in the District Court yesterday, the Jury found a verdict of not guilty.

A good house again greeted the Nellie Boyd Company last night to witness the beautiful play of "Forget Me Not."

Mr. W. Y. Pemberton, who has just returned from a canvass of Missoula county, speaks enthusiastically of the political prospects in the garden county.

The livery stable of Connolly & Co. is on hand for business this morning.

From the Daily of Tuesday.

Over Work.

No woman should have so much to do that she can not enjoy her work, which she certainly can not do if she had to perform two day's work in one and then see enough undone for a third day's work.

J. D. Sterrett, Esq., has opened his Occoia Club Rooms. They are cozy and comfortable.

Granville Stuart, Esq., accompanied by Mrs. N. C. Stuart, and Miss Kate Stuart, of Deer Lodge, returned from Iowa yesterday on their way home.

Capt. S. Pixley, of Abell, Pixley & Co., bullion brokers, London, and one of the famous Wimbledon team, passed through the city yesterday en route to San Francisco.

Mr. W. Y. Pemberton, our next District Attorney, returned from Missoula last evening.

Instantaneous photography is apt to catch the amateur's attention, for it is most interesting.

Thompson's Crossing, of Shannonsville, is now headquarters for railroad work on the Western Division of the Northern Pacific.

Three men were injured on the railroad grade near Hatley, Saturday, by premature explosions of powder.

Quite a lively town has sprung up at the Junction of the Bellevue branch of the Oregon Short Line railroad with the main line, on Little Wood river, known as the Junction, or Junction City.

Secretary Teller says he has not lessened the National Park, nor has he a right to do so.

Handicap race yesterday declared off. First race for three-year-olds, purse $150.

Second race—running; purse $200; handicap, three-quarter mile dash: Jockey, 1; Formosa, 2; Chantilla, 3.

Third race—running; purse $150; mile dash for beaten horses. Chantilla, 1; Formosa, 2; Jockey, 3.

In the case of Louis Heinbucke in the District Court yesterday, the Jury found a verdict of not guilty.

A good house again greeted the Nellie Boyd Company last night to witness the beautiful play of "Forget Me Not."

Mr. W. Y. Pemberton, who has just returned from a canvass of Missoula county, speaks enthusiastically of the political prospects in the garden county.

The livery stable of Connolly & Co. is on hand for business this morning.

G. B. Sarchet, M. D., homo pathic physician and surgeon; office Granite street, south side, near Main Residence, Quartz street, north side, west of E. Church.

Advertisement for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, featuring an illustration of a man and a bottle of the medicine.