NEWS NOTES.

Captain Nutt was righteously slain in Pennsylvania yesterday, by the father of the girl he had seduced.

Langtry, with her damaged reputation, appears to be making in the shackle pretty fast, her Philadelphia and Brooklyn receipts aggregating $27,400.

Ex-Senator Spencer has such pressing business engagements that it will be impossible for him to appear in Washington to testify in the Star route cases.

General Chalmers has been appointed Assistant United States Attorney to prosecute parties in Mississippi charged with violating the election laws.

The friends of the Mexican War Pension bill have agreed to sacrifice Jeff Davis for the purpose of getting the bill through the House. He will be excepted from the bill.

Payson, the member of the House Judiciary committee, who has in charge the matter of declaring forfeited the unearned land grants of the Pacific railroads, has strong hopes that the matter will be speedily acted on by the Judiciary committee.

The Vermont Legislature did not believe that telegraph and telephone companies had a right to disfigure towns and villages with their ugly poles. So it passed a law providing that all poles on the highways in incorporated villages be painted.

The city authorities of Louisville claim to have discovered a defalcation of not less than $50,000 in 1879. The deficiency is said to have occurred in the tax collection office. By some it is claimed the defalcation will reach as high as $200,000.

A Washington dispatch, speaking of the argument of Hecox Conkling in the case of San Mateo versus the Southern Pacific railroad, says there was a great deal more oratory than law in his argument, but that he was warmly congratulated by Senators and prominent officials who were present.

The New York Tribune publishes the suicide statistics of that city during the last twelve years. In that time, 1,087 persons took their own lives; 1,220 were men and 261 were women. These figures are rather suggestive. They seem to bear testimony to the patient endurance of the "weaker."

A possible war cloud is growing between France and China. A Paris dispatch of the 29th says: The Chinese Ambassador here states that party relations in China may compel his government to declare war with France.

A land of forty brigands made a sudden attack on the town of Ahuacatlan, Mexico, yesterday, and by a display of firearms overawed the inhabitants, who fled, terrorized, to their homes. The brigands then seized and bound the Mayor, Justice and Alderman and carried them away as captives, intending to hold them for a large ransom.

The question of forfeiture of the unearned land grants to the Pacific railroads is to be reviewed in the House Judiciary Committee after the Christmas recess. The members of the committee who are in favor of forfeiture say they do not intend to let the question rest, if they can prevent it by passing it for definite action by the committee.

Mrs. Langtry speaks highly of the women of Philadelphia, considering them handsomer than any others she has seen in America. Last Friday, while out shopping, being annoyed by curiosity seekers, she fairly ran her carriage to avoid the crowd. The spirited team of bays was driven at a rattling gait, and just as the crossing of the Reading railway was reached, the warbling bell rang and the gates were lowered. The horses dashed under the descending gate on the north side, but did not reach the southern gates until they were down, so that the team was fairly at the mercy of the approaching locomotive. At this critical moment the gateman threw up the gate and gave the team time to escape. Mrs. Langtry dined with (Gehardt) in the evening.

There seems to be a growing feeling in Washington that Mormonism can only be stamped out by taking away from the people of Utah entirely the right of suffrage. A Washington dispatch of the 29th says: Ex-Senator Pendock of Nebraska, a member of the Utah Commission, estimates some radical views in regard to the means to be adopted for the suppression of polygamy. He wants Congress to say to the people of the Utah Territory that the Legislative Assembly shall abolish the elective assembly, in his judgment all the officers in the Territory should be nominated by the government and confirmed by the commission. He also favors Federal control of immigration into Utah, and liberal appropriations for the development of the material interests of the Territory.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

New Telegraph Consolidation. New York, Dec. 29.—Reports are current that the Baltimore and Ohio Telegraph company will be allowed to extend their lines to a connection with the French and direct cables, with an agreement to pool all business under the control of Pender.

Penalty for Drunkenness. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—A Portland (Oregon) dispatch says: Last night a dwelling house situated near Corvallis, Benton county, was destroyed by fire. Two young men were burned to a crisp and a third party was so badly injured that he is not expected to recover. The parties went to bed drinking a large quantity of wine, which communicated to the building. The other inmates escaped.

Red Cloud in Washington. WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Red Cloud made a friendly visit to Commissioner Price at the Bureau to-day. He desires to visit the Indian school at Hampton and Carlisle before going West.

Commissioner Price is very indignant at the stories that he is interested in the transportation of supplies to the Ping River agency. He says no relative of his is connected with the charge of their transportation.

Mrs. Langtry's Movements. CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—A New York special says: Marcus R. Mayer, agent for the Jersey Lily, reports Langtry's receipt in Philadelphia last week at $10,000. In Philadelphia, where she opened yesterday, the advance sales amounted to $11,000. Langtry leaves New York next Sunday morning with a company of 25 people, and Henry E. Abbey as manager, by the New York Central limited express, and will get here next Monday morning.

The Star Route Cases. WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—In the criminal court this morning the Government proceeded with the prosecution of the Star Route case. During the examination of the witness Sweney, of the Post-office department, Mackel objected to a question of the witness which was sustained, and Wilson charged that the judge in sustaining the objection, assumed that Brady had done something wrong before he had proof of it. The case is adjourned till to-morrow on account of the illness of a juror.

In the Dickson case, Dickson was called and further examined. In his efforts to secure Bowen's arrest he said he had made application for a warrant on September 1st, and that it was about to be issued, when the investigation was transferred to Wells. That upon making further application he was censured for advising the Department of Justice and Martin of the Star Route jury were then examined after which the court adjourned.

Squaring the Railroads. WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—M. I. E. Payson (Ill.), a member of the House committee on judiciary, who has taken a very active part in the matter of lapsed railroads and grants, and who has declared himself in favor of forfeiting all unearned lands, is devoting the holiday recess to collecting additional details bearing on the subject. At the Department of Justice, he is ascertaining that the Oregon Central road has constructed a very few miles under his grant, and that it contains upwards of $200,000 worth of bonds. Payson and Astoria, upon which settlers are very desirous of entering. With the view of throwing this land open to settlement, Mr. Payson has prepared a resolution declaring it forfeited, and hopes to have it acted upon by the House Judiciary committee at a next meeting.

In conversation with a representative of the press to-day on the general question of the forfeiture of land grants, Mr. Payson said the members of the committee who are in favor of forfeiture say they do not intend to let the question rest, if they can prevent it by passing it for definite action by the committee.

Alleged Larceny from a Room. CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—Thomas Hughes was charged before Justice Scully this morning with having stolen from his room-mate, Theo. Geggan, in the hotel on Sunday night, a gold watch and a pocket watch. The case was made interesting particularly from the able manner in which the accused, a young man apparently a laborer, conducted the examination of the witnesses. The two had come from San Francisco together and stopped at Portland, Oregon, on the way. When they arrived in Chicago they went to a hotel together and secured a double-bedded room. According to Geggan's evidence, he went to bed about nine o'clock, placing a skin bag in which was $207 in gold, between the mattress of his bed, and the revolver under his pillow. They had some conversation, but he did not suspect anything wrong; but in the morning he found the money and returned Hughes of stealing it. The examination was so shrewd on the part of Geggan, that he gained the sympathy of the spectators, and some other guests, who left the hotel at unusual hours, were the real culprits, and the prisoner, though held as a suspect, was fairly treated. He is going to New York.

A Contumacious Witness. CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—A Dec Moines special says: It is barely possible that Senator Spencer might be found in Iowa, where he is supposed to have fled. The people here think he will be detained here by the Legislature, and that he will be taken from Washington by urgent business as long as there is a prospect of his being convicted in the Star Route cases.

Boston, Dec. 28.—The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe has just signed a loan with the Federal Government for $15,000,000, issuing that amount in its new six per cent. collateral trust bonds.
