Ed. Trainor, a well known freighter, was found alone on foot and demented on the prairie twenty miles from Assinaboine, last week. The gentleman who found him was unable to bring him in, and a party was sent from the Fort to take care of him.

A thousand visitors to Marens gulch last Sunday were entertained by the dare devil feat of a workman known as "Frenchy" who walked a rope 30 feet in length suspended 225 feet from the ground, and performed gymnastic feats while crossing.

Windsor B. Cone, a Park City, M. T. miner, was found dead in his bed Sunday morning. His death is supposed to have been caused by heart disease. The deceased was fifty-years of age. He had no relations in Montana. His sister lives at Los Angeles, Calif.

Fort Walsh advices indicate that a party of American Indians are on a marauding expedition in the border and are committing in their way, in retaliation for the depredations recently committed on this side by the Canadian Creeks. Sixty head of horses are reported to have been run off by them so far.

"Old Jack" is a black horse which has pulled the iron car for every foot of rail laid by the Northern Pacific west of Mandan. He will continue to work the tracklayers until the gap is closed, and after appearing in the flags and garlands at the railroad celebration in Helena, will be honorably retired and liberally pensioned for life.

Some young reprobates recently entered the store of Mr. Price at Skalkaho and, forcibly ejecting the clerk, took possession of the place, tearing goods from the shelves and helping themselves to what they wanted. The store was closed, and a little while ago a party of men, some of whom were armed with revolvers, entered the store and drove the party out. A little while ago a party of men, some of whom were armed with revolvers, entered the store and drove the party out.

On Saturday a young mechanic at work on the Bedford bridge lost his footing and fell backward into the river. He was drowned. It is said the unfortunate man was a good swimmer and made resolute efforts to stem the flood, but without success. His body was recovered and taken to the shore. A little while ago a party of men, some of whom were armed with revolvers, entered the store and drove the party out.

Horace F. Brown of the Missoula Lumber Company, had his right shoulder dislocated and his ankle and thigh crushed, recently in Missoula, by an engine which he was moving. THE TORNADO.

CINCINNATI, May 30.—Reports are still coming in from the storm district of the Little Miami valley something like a cloud burst occurred, driving the people off the first floor with the flood. At Freestone, the bridge across the river was torn from the piers and wrecked a flouring mill. In Shelby, Dekatur and Bartholomew counties, Indiana, the destroyed of barns, fences, timber and growing crops is almost unmeasurable, yet not a single person was hurt. In Butler county, Ohio, a family near Westfield were badly injured by falling walls. A great number of barns was unroofed and two or three dwellings demolished. At Lancaster, Owen county, Indiana, W. R. Williams' wife and child and four Croft brothers were killed by timber falling on them. Several other points in Ohio and Indiana report high wind, and extraordinary rain hail and lightning.

A Destructive Fire.

LYNCHBURG, VA., May 30.—The most disastrous fire which ever visited this city broke out at 10 o'clock this morning and is now raging furiously. Over $200,000 worth of property is already destroyed, including the daily Lynchburg building and fixtures, Commercial Bank, large hardware establishment of Jones, Watts, Bros. & Co., large tobacco manufactory of Flood & Stevens, and other business houses. Several residences were also destroyed. A strong wind is blowing, and the fire department is unable to cope with the flames. Telegrams have been sent to Richmond for assistance.

Funeral of the Dead Striker—Testimony at the Inquest.

ST. LOUIS, MAY 30.—The funeral of William Anderson, the miner killed by the military, took place at three o'clock this afternoon. Over fifteen hundred miners attended the funeral. At the inquest this morning several witnesses were examined; among others deputy sheriffs Ragland and Anthony. The testimony was conflicting as to who began firing, although deputy sheriff Ragland stated he saw a man pointing a revolver at him and then shots were immediately fired. All quiet at Belleville and other mines to-day. It is believed that some way out of the difficulty will be found and work resumed at all the mines next week.

STANFORD, CONN., MAY 29.—Engineer Rose is found guilty of manslaughter for killing a man with his train.
