

The Semi-Weekly Miner.

BUTTE, FEB. 18, 1884.

The Ohio river is going down. So are the Ohio politicians.

The Arthur boom seems to be frozen up somewhere. It has not been heard of lately.

Cetewayo, the Zulu chieftain, is dead again. This time he died of heart disease. The chances are he won't stay dead, but will soon be heard of again at the head of some disturbing element in South Africa.

The Queen of Tahiti deserves a medal. It is said she is traveling in this country under an assumed name and successfully eluded the Chicago reporters when she passed through that city.

It now looks as though Frank James would escape the meshes of the law and soon be a free man again. He has evidently recovered from his late severe illness as nothing more is heard about it.

It is said that R. B. Hayes will have nothing to do with interviews. And it may be added that if he were ever so communicative the public cares nothing what he might say. R. B. Hayes is the dearest live man in America.

Judge Buckner, Chairman of the Committee on Banking, says the assaults upon silver have ceased, because its enemies see that it is already helping the country out of its financial difficulty. This is cheering news for silver miners throughout the country.

The Queen's new book is issued and copies have been distributed to the London press. The book is simply a recital of the Queen's domestic affairs, reference to political matters being only incidental. The book would command a large sale in America if an edition could be issued here.

It begins to look as if the recent crusade upon the trade dollar was not so much a scare as a conspiracy. Most tradesmen who have traded dollars took them at a reduction of fifteen cents, and few tradesmen have them. They are generally in the hands of speculators, who expect the Government to redeem them at par.

Dorsey is in Washington City in high feather. He has satisfactorily adjusted his financial difficulties in New Mexico and is still the half owner of a million dollar cattle ranch. The weather is cool and now the news currents of the country are rather sluggish. It would seem to be a favorable moment for Mr. Dorsey to continue his revelations.

It is well known that during the past two decades bonds, stocks and mortgages have been created by the hundreds, if not by thousands of millions of dollars. How can this anomalous condition of affairs be accounted for? It is not possible that as a nation we are growing poorer. The census disproves this assumption, and bank statements throughout the country show an increase of deposits.

Then where can the explanation be found? Only in one assumption, and that is, wealth is concealing itself behind false statements. There can be no other sensible solution of the riddle. The figures cannot be disputed. There is more money locked up in bank vaults to-day than ever before and still the assessed valuation of the people shows a falling off of 35 per cent. during the past twenty years.

The effect of this hiding of capital is plainly seen. Under burdens, in the shape of increased taxation are thrown upon all, the poor—the ones least able to bear them—feeling them the most. The remedy is not easily found. A tax upon large incomes and inheritances is suggested, but false statements of these may be made with the same impunity as in other cases. It is a matter which demands the serious consideration of law makers and the enactment of some measure which will cover the evil referred to.

The Portland, Oregon, Board of Trade, came to the rescue of the Northern Pacific in requesting the Senators and Representative of that State to oppose the forfeiture of any part of the land grant of that road. This move on the part of the Board of Trade was caused by the report of the sub-committee on public lands which report recommended the forfeiture of certain lands granted to the Oregon system of the Northern Pacific.

An exchange says: Mr. Keely has asked for another extension of time for his stockholders until March 1. When the machines will positively work. He will then demonstrate the power of one drop of water, in running a train of cars from Philadelphia to New York and return. This smacks a little of the Blanchard Electric Power that runs a steamer to Liverpool and back in the photograph of a ton of coal.

Among the changes to be made in the Cabinet, which Dame Rumor is constantly foretelling, is the putting of Judge Folger in Attorney-General Brewer's place, and Brewer in Morton's place as Minister to France, and Morton in Folger's place as Secretary of the Treasury. We presume the object of the changes is to give each a position better suited to his tastes. It is hardly worth while, however, to make the changes. Before each could accommodate himself to his new position a Democratic administration will retire them all to private life. Won't some kind friend whisper the news in President Arthur's ear?

Mr. Townsend's resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for the election of the President and Vice-President by a majority vote of the people, is a move in the right direction. The present generation of men fall to see why those officers should not be elected by the people as Governors are elected. United States Senators should also be elected by a popular vote. The people are the source of all political power and the more direct the application of that power is the nearer is our approach to true Democracy. The people should delegate no power to others which they themselves may properly exercise.

A SERIOUS MATTER.

The report of Doctors Mitchell and Musgrave of the Montana Insane Asylum for the year ended Dec. 31, 1883, develops facts which demand investigation by the proper authorities. These gentlemen have the contract of taking care of the insane of the Territory, when such insane are placed in their charge. When the proper county authorities pronounce a person insane and order him to the asylum at Warm Springs, the physicians must receive him whether he has resided one day or ten years in the Territory. They have no option in the matter.

It appears there were sixty-one new patients admitted to the asylum last year. Of these, it is stated, that at least three fourths or 45, had been in the Territory for only four days to eight months. It cannot be supposed for a moment that insane persons from contiguous Territories or from States beyond are impelled by some invisible power to come to Montana to be cared for. They are sent here. There can be no question about it. The increase is not produced by natural causes.

Dr. Musgrave's report shows there were 75 inmates of the asylum the first day of the present year. On the 20th of January the number was 80, an increase of five. At this rate 90 new patients would be received by the close of 1884. The expenses of the asylum to the Territory for last December was $2,875, or a little over $35 per head per month counting the number at 75. Should the rate of increase keep up a few figures will show that the cost of keeping the insane of Montana will seriously tax the resources of the people to meet it.

It is said the Governor proposes to look into the matter and, if it be found the Territory is being made the dumping ground for the insane of other Territories, to take such measures as the case demands. This is all well enough as far as the Governor is concerned, but in the meantime would it not be well for the counties to send non-resident insane to the place from whence they came rather than to the asylum at Warm Springs?

It is well known that during the past two decades bonds, stocks and mortgages have been created by the hundreds, if not by thousands of millions of dollars. How can this anomalous condition of affairs be accounted for? It is not possible that as a nation we are growing poorer. The census disproves this assumption, and bank statements throughout the country show an increase of deposits.

Then where can the explanation be found? Only in one assumption, and that is, wealth is concealing itself behind false statements. There can be no other sensible solution of the riddle. The figures cannot be disputed. There is more money locked up in bank vaults to-day than ever before and still the assessed valuation of the people shows a falling off of 35 per cent. during the past twenty years.

The effect of this hiding of capital is plainly seen. Under burdens, in the shape of increased taxation are thrown upon all, the poor—the ones least able to bear them—feeling them the most. The remedy is not easily found. A tax upon large incomes and inheritances is suggested, but false statements of these may be made with the same impunity as in other cases. It is a matter which demands the serious consideration of law makers and the enactment of some measure which will cover the evil referred to.

The Portland, Oregon, Board of Trade, came to the rescue of the Northern Pacific in requesting the Senators and Representative of that State to oppose the forfeiture of any part of the land grant of that road. This move on the part of the Board of Trade was caused by the report of the sub-committee on public lands which report recommended the forfeiture of certain lands granted to the Oregon system of the Northern Pacific.

An exchange says: Mr. Keely has asked for another extension of time for his stockholders until March 1. When the machines will positively work. He will then demonstrate the power of one drop of water, in running a train of cars from Philadelphia to New York and return. This smacks a little of the Blanchard Electric Power that runs a steamer to Liverpool and back in the photograph of a ton of coal.

Among the changes to be made in the Cabinet, which Dame Rumor is constantly foretelling, is the putting of Judge Folger in Attorney-General Brewer's place, and Brewer in Morton's place as Minister to France, and Morton in Folger's place as Secretary of the Treasury. We presume the object of the changes is to give each a position better suited to his tastes. It is hardly worth while, however, to make the changes. Before each could accommodate himself to his new position a Democratic administration will retire them all to private life. Won't some kind friend whisper the news in President Arthur's ear?

Mr. Townsend's resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for the election of the President and Vice-President by a majority vote of the people, is a move in the right direction. The present generation of men fall to see why those officers should not be elected by the people as Governors are elected. United States Senators should also be elected by a popular vote. The people are the source of all political power and the more direct the application of that power is the nearer is our approach to true Democracy. The people should delegate no power to others which they themselves may properly exercise.

Mr. Townsend's resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for the election of the President and Vice-President by a majority vote of the people, is a move in the right direction. The present generation of men fall to see why those officers should not be elected by the people as Governors are elected. United States Senators should also be elected by a popular vote. The people are the source of all political power and the more direct the application of that power is the nearer is our approach to true Democracy. The people should delegate no power to others which they themselves may properly exercise.

Mr. Townsend's resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for the election of the President and Vice-President by a majority vote of the people, is a move in the right direction. The present generation of men fall to see why those officers should not be elected by the people as Governors are elected. United States Senators should also be elected by a popular vote. The people are the source of all political power and the more direct the application of that power is the nearer is our approach to true Democracy. The people should delegate no power to others which they themselves may properly exercise.

Mr. Townsend's resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for the election of the President and Vice-President by a majority vote of the people, is a move in the right direction. The present generation of men fall to see why those officers should not be elected by the people as Governors are elected. United States Senators should also be elected by a popular vote. The people are the source of all political power and the more direct the application of that power is the nearer is our approach to true Democracy. The people should delegate no power to others which they themselves may properly exercise.

Mr. Townsend's resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for the election of the President and Vice-President by a majority vote of the people, is a move in the right direction. The present generation of men fall to see why those officers should not be elected by the people as Governors are elected. United States Senators should also be elected by a popular vote. The people are the source of all political power and the more direct the application of that power is the nearer is our approach to true Democracy. The people should delegate no power to others which they themselves may properly exercise.

Mr. Townsend's resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for the election of the President and Vice-President by a majority vote of the people, is a move in the right direction. The present generation of men fall to see why those officers should not be elected by the people as Governors are elected. United States Senators should also be elected by a popular vote. The people are the source of all political power and the more direct the application of that power is the nearer is our approach to true Democracy. The people should delegate no power to others which they themselves may properly exercise.

Mr. Townsend's resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for the election of the President and Vice-President by a majority vote of the people, is a move in the right direction. The present generation of men fall to see why those officers should not be elected by the people as Governors are elected. United States Senators should also be elected by a popular vote. The people are the source of all political power and the more direct the application of that power is the nearer is our approach to true Democracy. The people should delegate no power to others which they themselves may properly exercise.

Mr. Townsend's resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for the election of the President and Vice-President by a majority vote of the people, is a move in the right direction. The present generation of men fall to see why those officers should not be elected by the people as Governors are elected. United States Senators should also be elected by a popular vote. The people are the source of all political power and the more direct the application of that power is the nearer is our approach to true Democracy. The people should delegate no power to others which they themselves may properly exercise.

Mr. Townsend's resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for the election of the President and Vice-President by a majority vote of the people, is a move in the right direction. The present generation of men fall to see why those officers should not be elected by the people as Governors are elected. United States Senators should also be elected by a popular vote. The people are the source of all political power and the more direct the application of that power is the nearer is our approach to true Democracy. The people should delegate no power to others which they themselves may properly exercise.

Mr. Townsend's resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for the election of the President and Vice-President by a majority vote of the people, is a move in the right direction. The present generation of men fall to see why those officers should not be elected by the people as Governors are elected. United States Senators should also be elected by a popular vote. The people are the source of all political power and the more direct the application of that power is the nearer is our approach to true Democracy. The people should delegate no power to others which they themselves may properly exercise.

Mr. Townsend's resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for the election of the President and Vice-President by a majority vote of the people, is a move in the right direction. The present generation of men fall to see why those officers should not be elected by the people as Governors are elected. United States Senators should also be elected by a popular vote. The people are the source of all political power and the more direct the application of that power is the nearer is our approach to true Democracy. The people should delegate no power to others which they themselves may properly exercise.

Mr. Townsend's resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for the election of the President and Vice-President by a majority vote of the people, is a move in the right direction. The present generation of men fall to see why those officers should not be elected by the people as Governors are elected. United States Senators should also be elected by a popular vote. The people are the source of all political power and the more direct the application of that power is the nearer is our approach to true Democracy. The people should delegate no power to others which they themselves may properly exercise.

A SINGULAR FACT.

In the history of political parties in the United States the student fails to find the record of one that has been held together by the same power and influences which have controlled the Republican organization. As a political party it is an anomaly. The offspring of decayed parents it inherited their corruption without their virtues. It has fallen to pieces by its own weight in nearly every State in the Union but at the approach of every National contest, like the joint snake, it puts itself together and presents a solid front to its enemy. It has outgrown and outlived the vital principles which sustained it during the first few years of its existence, yet it still hangs together. It has its faction fights for spoils but when a contest involves the retention of power all minor questions are held subordinate to that consideration.

The explanation of this is found in the fact that the party truckles to fanaticism; that extremists of all sorts pin their faith and their political hopes to the party, and that capital, represented by huge monopolies and soulless corporations, is from self-interest with it. No matter how far it may wrangle and fight for spoils of office and how little it regards the welfare of the laboring poor, when the party bugle is sounded to close ranks the order is obeyed. This is singular, but nevertheless, it is true. Republicans of intelligence and integrity deplore the degeneracy of their party. They acknowledge the worthlessness of its leaders and the corruption of its leaders. They know that its great issues are dead and that long continued power has given it over to the hands of unscrupulous managers. They talk about and decry Credit Mobiliers, Star Route robberies, official frauds, bribery, and the well known corruption of its party leaders and the failure of the Government to bring public thieves to justice and still vote the Republican ticket. They forget their virtuous indignation as soon as the question of spoils arises and go with their herd of corruptionists to the polls. This is singular, but nevertheless it is true.

The fact is, the Republican party is held together to-day by the cohesive power of public plunder. It has an enormous array of Federal office-holders spread all over the country. These are ready to do battle for their bread and butter and for their party. The one depends upon the success of the other. No matter whether he be stalwart or half-breed, saint or sinner, when the nominating convention places him at the head of its ticket they all support him. Their motto is: "Better keep the spoils in our Republican hands than turn them over to Democrats." This is a singular fact. But we believe the day of the overthrow of the party is at hand. There is a silent but powerful force in the Republican party, ready to desert it. It is tired of hauling chestnuts out of the fire for those who are feeding upon them. That factor is the working power. Their votes will decide the next Presidential contest.

George Q. Cannon is after the scalp of Governor Murray, but thus far the Governor has escaped the bloody knife of the irate apostle. It is hoped the Administration will stand by the Governor in his fight against the Mormons. A man who would become the plant root of the Mormon hierarchy is not wanted as Governor of Utah during the present condition of affairs in that Territory. The fact that Governor Murray has incurred the enmity of such men as Cannon should be regarded as sufficient evidence of his eminent fitness for the office he holds. A man who would suit Cannon would not suit the Gentile portion of the population of that priest-ridden Territory.

The bill reported by Price, Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Land Grant Forfeiture, confirms all grants of land heretofore made to corporations in aid of the construction of railroads, where such railroads have been completed, notwithstanding the time may have expired before such railroads were constructed. All other lands are declared for sale. This settles the case with a great many railroads, and turns over to settlers millions of acres of former railroad lands. The Northern Pacific retains all its lands, except such as may be upon unconstructed portions of the road in Oregon.

The Tonguinese have turned their attention to murdering Christians in their midst. They have killed two hundred and fifty for the simple reason they were Christians. This act of the Tonguinese has dispelled every particle of sympathy which may have been felt for them by reason of their being the weaker party. The sooner such heathens are conquered and taught the first principles of humanity, the better it will be for the world.

Congress did a very generous act in appropriating $300,000 to the sufferers by the Ohio river flood. In the House only twelve negative votes were cast. Hancock (Rep.) of New York, thought Ohio was rich enough to take care of her own sufferers and seemed disposed to oppose the appropriation. The almost unanimous vote by which the bill passed attested the weakness of his opposition.

Last year the model State of Ohio stood third in the Union in the matter of crime, as it had a perfect right to do by virtue of its size and population. By way of keeping up the record it now follows it up with a sensational murder and a sensational lynching in Perry county. Ohio will not be outside even by the "barbarous" States of the South.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—The Mayor has called a meeting of citizens for to-morrow to arrange for assistance for sufferers by the western floods. The call for relief are urgent.

CRAB-FISHING.

Mrs. Spooendyke's Vain Attempt to Redeem Herself as a Fisherman.

[Brooklyn Eagle.] "Now you be careful," Mr. Spooendyke said. "Here's another varmint, and you mustn't let him get away. When I say 'steady,' you show the net under him and bring him aboard."

"Can you see him yet?" asked Mrs. Spooendyke, waving the net over her shoulder. "No, I can't see him. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

He must have been a crab of phenomenal size, for Mrs. Spooendyke, who had been fishing for some time, had not yet secured a single specimen. "What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

"What's the matter?" she asked. "The net is all right, and the water is just what you need. 'Wait! Wait! There he is! Careful, remember. Now, scalp!'"

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

The Flood in the Ohio Valley Still Increasing.

Contributions for the Relief of the Sufferers.

Many Houses Likely to be Washed Away.

Funding Bills and Coinage Acts in Congress.

MISCELLANEOUS, ETC., ETC.

Rough on Fitts John Porter.

Chicago, Feb. 11.—The Tribune published the following to-day from a prominent lawyer of this city, an intimate and personal friend of President Lincoln.

Editor of the Tribune: "As the question of Fitts John Porter is now pending before the attention of the public, I thought I would say a few words in regard to the man. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great talent, but he is a man of no great industry. He is a man of no great ability, but he is a man of no great honesty either. He is a man of no great courage, but he is a man of no great loyalty. He is a man of no great honor, but he is a man of no great integrity. He is a man of no great wisdom, but he is a man of no great judgment. He is a man of no great strength, but he is a man of no great endurance. He is a man of no great skill, but he is a man of no great industry. He is