AMALGAM.

As Found in Our Clean-Up of the Territorial Exchanges.
About 6,000 cattle were shipped from St. Paul to Montana last Sunday and Monday. The total shipment for the season bid fair to reach 100,000.

Health.
Jim Eastman's little boy is now considered out of danger. Aside from him we know of no other cases of diphtheria in town.

Personal.
Hank Helm, of Nevada Creek, and Mr. Vineyard, of Anaconda, county commissioners, were in town this week. The former is here yet, and will bust up Sam Scott before he gets away.

Glendale Items.
An Exciting Runaway—Shepherd Recovering.
Pedestrian picnic parties are indulged in by the ladies these lovely spring days. A party went up into the hills this week, built a fire, made coffee and roasted potatoes to add to the usual picnic fare.

The monstrosity of our quiet camp was broken last week by an exciting runaway, in which common sense, guided by Providence, prevented a serious accident. A young man visiting here from the east, obtained permission to take out one of our prettiest girls for a ride. The team was pronounced safe by the owner, although all the residents knew it to be a runaway.

Candidates for county offices are coming to the front in good shape. Jim McMaisters, present incumbent is again in the field, and Tommy McTague, his under sheriff, proposes also to measure lances with him.

Roundbeuh and Argyle of this city are doing well on their claim. A company has been organized to put the trail between Eagle and Trout Creek in first class condition.

There is now a daily mail to Eagle and saddle trains from Kingston also arrive daily. There is no city organized, but law and order prevail! A term of court for Shoshone county, in which the mines are situated, will be held in July.

There are no church or school buildings there at present, but the Rev. W. C. Shippen preaches every Sunday in a building offered for the purpose. He and Mr. Platte Burre are cabining together.

There are quite a number of families in the mines and a school building and a church will probably be erected this summer.

Roundbeuh and Argyle of this city are doing well on their claim. A company has been organized to put the trail between Eagle and Trout Creek in first class condition.

Mr. Shelton thinks it will be the main trail from Eagle. King Emerson still keeps his half-way station upon it. A pack train will run over the trail during the season.

Freight can be laid down at Eagle for eight cents per pound. The following are the market rates for necessities.

Flour, $13 per hundred; bacon, 30 cents per pound; sugar, 35 cents; tea, $1.00; nails, 30 cents; coffee, 60 cents; beans, 30 cents; fresh beef, 30 to 35 cents; pork, 30 to 35 cents; shovels, $2.50; picks, $5.00 to $6.00; gum boots, $8.00 per pair.

A silver lode has been discovered near Eagle which assays $190 per ton. Mr. Shelton thinks the quartz of the district, though not yet developed, will be the main stay of the camp.

Mr. Shelton is not an enthusiast, but a practical business man who knows whereof he speaks and is very careful to say nothing which will mislead any one.

Butcher shops are well supplied with fresh meats which are driven over the Jackson trail and will soon be brought down to a fair price. Snow is still plenty in the mountains though there is but little around Eagle.

There is enough, however, to supply all the water needed for mining purposes.

Rodda and Owens will contest for stakes and the "honors" at the Amphitheatre to-night. Montana hand gloves will be used. Marquis of Queensbury rules to govern, and no nonsense allowed. A full house is assured.

Receiver No. 2.
St. Paul Globe, 2d: Geo. B. Hulme has been appointed receiver of National Park Improvement company, by the court of Wyoming Territory, so that the company has now a double-headed receiver. Mr. Love, appointed by the New Jersey courts, represents the Hatch interest, and Hulme the Hobart-Douglas interest.

Neither of the receivers, however, are in possession of the hotel, which seems to be the bone of contention, and which is still in possession of the unpaid employes. Arrangements have been fully consummated by which the hotel will be opened on the 15th of June next, without regard to either of the receivers. Both or either of the receivers are ready to pay the employes in full.

For Congress, I believe we have no aspirants. Dr. Mitchell, who would make a popular candidate, is not in quest of political honors. Hon. J. C. Robinson has "gone up the dune," and while he would make us a good candidate, he would prefer to unravel legal questions and look after his private business. Hon. W. Y. Pemberton is evidently the choice of the Democracy of this county. And if reports are true, he is the favorite on this side of the range. The able manner in which he has conducted the office of District Attorney, coupled with his extremely genial and social disposition renders him the admired of all hereabouts. He has not evinced a disposition to enter the race, however, and it may be considered a piece of presumption on my part to herald his name before the public in that connection. It was pretty generally conceded at the last Democratic Territorial Convention that this side would be entitled to the Delegate this year, and we hope our Democratic brethren "over the hills" will be considered in their action and accord to us only what we claim would be fair and right. The Hon. W. A. Clark would be acceptable to us, but it is pretty generally understood that his private business is of such a nature he cannot think of entering the field this year. Thus it would appear that Mr. Pemberton is the only available candidate we have and the Democracy might go a long way further and do worse than extending to him the nomination. Of course this is the opinion of Joe Bush and the Democracy of this county so far as he has had an opportunity to ascertain it.

Judge Waterbury, of Anaconda, was in Deer Lodge the fore part of his week. He reported things lively in the town.

John R. Quigly, who was a candidate for county assessor two years ago, and who is now merchandising at Blackfoot City, was up to see us yesterday. He is a genial, wholesome gentleman, and has lots of friends in this neck of the woods.

GLENDALE ITEMS.
An Exciting Runaway—Shepherd Recovering.

Pedestrian picnic parties are indulged in by the ladies these lovely spring days. A party went up into the hills this week, built a fire, made coffee and roasted potatoes to add to the usual picnic fare. They also penetrated the snow line and had a rare game of snow-talling.

The monstrosity of our quiet camp was broken last week by an exciting runaway, in which common sense, guided by Providence, prevented a serious accident. A young man visiting here from the east, obtained permission to take out one of our prettiest girls for a ride. The team was pronounced safe by the owner, although all the residents knew it to be a runaway.

The young couple were not seated at the lady's door before the fractious team started and ran down hill all the way. The young man soon grasped the situation—and the reins and pulled for life. The carriage bounded and bounced and tipped, rolled over stones and alward's drug store. Everyone expected to see them dashed to pieces. Indeed, once the young man was thrown over the wheel, when his companion with prompt and steady hands pulled him back. All through that terrible ride the young lady sat quiet and calm, quite sure she ought not to jump. At last the driver turned the horses and forced them uphill. They ran into a post, broke the buggy and skinned one of the horses, but the young people were unharmed, to the surprise and joy of the excited and bare-headed crowd that gathered. The citizens insisted the young man should not pay for the damage done, knowing the character of the team and observing for themselves his admirable management. The heroic young lady went home and relieved her nerves by a good cry.

A Miss McKee, from Bozeman, a teacher at that place, is in Glendale, and wishes to start a private school of two months. It would be well for some of the children to be at their studies that length of time.

Prof. G. A. Hoyt and Geo. Byrnett are making active preparations and will soon leave for the Coeur d'Alene country.

I hear that Mr. Shepherd is around town, and seemingly well. His recovery is something of a miracle, and proves he has an unusual constitution and rare case.

Bullion Shipments.
The following are the bullion shipments from Butte for the week ended May 10, 1884:

We were shown yesterday a beautiful silver brick, containing about twelve or fifteen ounces of the metal, which was presented to Captain Shepherd by his old time friend Mr. James Talbott. It was intended the presentation should be made on the evening of the Captain's benefit, but circumstances prevented. During the early days of the civil war Mr. Talbott served under the Captain in the Quartermaster's department, and the friendship then commenced has been cemented by subsequent years of close fellowship. The Captain prizes the gift very highly.
