NIGHT DISPATCHES.

Repealers of Virginia Prose Repudiation.

Hanlan, the American Oarsman, Badly Beaten.

Arrest of a Party of Mexican Conspirators.

Reported Declaration of War by China.

The Anti-Monopoly Ticket Completed.

Hadley Denies Forging the Morey Letter.

Arrest of Mexican Conspirators.

St. Louis, August 16.—A special from the City of Mexico says, forty of the persons arrested in connection with the conspiracy, including Gen. Echezary, chief of artillery department, and Gen. Echezary, are imprisoned.

Chautauque, August 16.—Logan arrived at noon and received a cordial greeting as he landed. He was received at Mayville by Lewis Miller, president of the Chautauque assembly and other leading gentlemen; also by the Young Men's Chautauque and Logan Club of Jamestown and escorted to a hotel where he was greeted by cheers from a large number of ladies and gentlemen.

Paris, August 16.—Neither the French government nor the Chinese legation are aware that war has been declared by China, as asserted in the Foo Chow dispatch in the London Times. This morning the Chinese legation had not halted down its flag.

London, August 16.—A dispatch from Paris to the Exchange Telegraph company denies the report that China declared war against France. It is expected, on the other hand, that negotiations will be resumed.

As Found in Our Clean-Up of the Territorial Exchanges.

The surface of the Carson river is covered with floating wood for miles above Empire City, that a duck can't get a drink of water without danger of having its head pinched off.

Cholera Notes.

Paris, August 16.—Hardly a day passes but reports reach us of the appearance of cholera in one or two additional towns in France. Sanitary precautions appear to be powerless to check the progress of the disease.

London, August 16.—Two deaths from cholera in the suburbs last night.

Dynamite in Iowa.

Burlington, Ia., August 16.—Early yesterday morning W. E. Blake, who has been acting as an attorney in the prosecution of saloon keepers since the prohibitory law went into effect, was killed by a bright flash and a light, sharp explosion.

Chicago, August 16.—An anti-monopolist committee, composed of C. C. Post, H. R. Harris, John F. Henry, Horatio Root and C. G. Dixon, was appointed as a national committee to advise Congress.

Striking Bricklayers.

Chicago, August 16.—Striking bricklayers of the city to the number of 1,500 who ceased work a month ago, owing to a reduction in their wages from two and a half to a dollar and eighty-seven cents a day, held a mass meeting this afternoon.

London, August 16.—P. H. Morris, acting for John Teemer, writes the Sunday Herald and makes this proposition: John Teemer will now with Edward Hanlan or William Beach for $2,500 a side over any suitable lake course in England within four months.

London, August 16.—Arrived, Republic, at New York. Five hundred thousand dollars British gold bars and $125,000 American gold coin arrived from Europe to-day.

London, August 16.—Fred M. Seward shot and killed D. H. H. loop, salmonist, this afternoon, then loop himself fatally. Cause, a dish-pate over money due Seward.

London, August 16.—A dispatch from Sydney, New South Wales, reports the sculling match between Hanlan and Beach, for the championship of the world and £500 a side, took place to-day on Parlatimetia river. Beach won by seven lengths.

VOLUME 7.

BUTTE, MONTANA, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 20, 1884.

WHOLE NO 563

Local News.

Miss Dora Buck's Request. LINCOLN, Neb., August 16.—The following despatch, sent out from here to-day, explains itself:

Coroner Robinson, Long Island City, N. Y.—Dear Sir,—I see by the papers that you have addressed me regarding the exhuming and examination of my brother's remains. It is my desire that the full facts be known. You will please have the body exhumed and examined as soon as possible.

DORA BUCK. [Signed] Miss Buck was almost heartbroken at the report that her brother was shot for stealing rations and refused to see a reporter. The possibility that such reports are untrue, since the Kinslingbury developments, have revived her spirits and she is now very anxious that the matter be sifted to the bottom, believing that it will vindicate her brother's reputation.

Irish Nationalists. BOSTON, August 16.—Patrick Egan will remove the headquarters of the Irish National League to Lincoln, Nebraska. He left Boston to-night for Lincoln. Sexton and Redmond of the English parliament will return to Ireland soon. They or some other representative of the party will return to America after the autumn session of parliament.

Don't Know About It. PARIS, August 16.—Neither the French government nor the Chinese legation are aware that war has been declared by China, as asserted in the Foo Chow dispatch in the London Times. This morning the Chinese legation had not halted down its flag.

Another Denial. LONDON, August 16.—A dispatch from Paris to the Exchange Telegraph company denies the report that China declared war against France. It is expected, on the other hand, that negotiations will be resumed.

AMALGAM. As Found in Our Clean-Up of the Territorial Exchanges. The surface of the Carson river is covered with floating wood for miles above Empire City, that a duck can't get a drink of water without danger of having its head pinched off.

About forty car loads of bit-um to twenty tons each, of base bluffs, have been shipped from Halley this summer. No more will, however, be shipped from this point at present, as the up-country smelters will ship by rail from Ketchikan on this time.

Independent. It will be remembered that about six weeks ago a man named Collier, who lived on Beaver Creek, was ordered to leave because of his suspected connection with the thieves who ran off a band of horses from that section a week or two previously. On receiving his orders Collier came to Helena, and has remained here since. Sunday morning the 3-777 organization notified him to get out of town in ten minutes of that time, however, (yesterday) he was still here. He was again warned to leave, and given only ten minutes to do it. He went. There is no use talking—the atmosphere here is unhealthy for such chaps.

A Legend of the Cour d'Alene. A correspondent writing from Murraysville to the Roseau Courier says: Every mining camp has its legend of wonderful diggings, which has been worked in times past, but which can never be found when looked for (got Jack Baromet to tell you his Lost Cabin tale). This camp has also its story, which will relate. During the fall of the year 1886, a negro came into Missoula with a large lot of gold dust, which he sold royally, with the remark that he knew where there was plenty more. The next spring he with three horses, went out again, and the next fall came back with a larger quantity of the precious metal than the season before. The next spring he went out accompanied by a Fishhead Indian, and the two were seen in July by a party of emigrants who were going to Oregon via the Mullen road, living in a log cabin which the negro had built in a small opening, which is now called Nigger pen, and it is situated about five miles from the head of the Cour d'Alene south fork. A week afterwards the negro was found by another emigrant party, shot dead. They buried his body and went on.

The next fall the Fishhead was seen having the negro's bones, and it was supposed that he buried the unlucky negro dead at his head a rude cross, and when I was there a few days ago, I found that some one had, with more humor than propriety, put a hearse shaft at the foot, with this inscription: "Here lies the coo."

A Breeze in the Opera House in Helena. Frequent complaints from prominent parties and the loud conduct of two frail characters, provoked an order from Manager Maguire a few days ago, that the demi-monde were not to have seats in the Helena opera house, and that the first three rows in the parquette circle. This order was not received with kindness by that class. On the 13th inst five women dressed in the garb of Sisters of Charity, including bonnets, rosaries and full black veils, seated themselves at the door of the opera house with tickets calling for seats in one of the rows designated for the demi-monde. Mr. Maguire happened to be at the door at the time sent them back telling them that the opera that evening was not to be a masquerade ball. The Helena papers only express the sentiment of every right thinking person when they convey the action of these women appearing in the uniform of a society whose character and work all grades of society and every religious sect hold in high esteem.

The Plegan Indians. River Press, August 15th: The straits to which this once powerful tribe are reduced is pitiful. With no provisions and starvation staring them in the face, would it be a wonder if they should make war on the needs of the adjacent tribes? A famine in Ireland, or any part of the world, entitles the sympathy of all Americans, while in our midst are more than 3,000 people actually starving, and not a finger raised to help them. This does not speak well for our effective aid should at once be given them. In fact, or the matter brought before the department in such a way that assistance will speedily be rendered.

Eye and Ear.—Dr. Bacon. 56

Wanted. An A. No. 1 upholsterer, none other need apply. Call on B. Pettit, West Broadway.

Glendale Notes. Since our last communication from this camp there have been few changes, but those few are for the better.

The new stone office of the Hecla company is very neat and convenient, and an ornament to our monotonous street.

Many of the unsightly sheds around the smelter buildings have been removed and the whole place is improved.

The Glendale Hotel is now controlled by Jack Reynolds, who runs a comfortable back from Melrose for the benefit of travelers who patronize his house, or the well known Avery House.

Mrs. May Cook, after the fashion of young married ladies, has come home for a visit to her parents, but being so well satisfied with Butte, and her own pleasant home there, she will hardly favor us long with her presence.

Rev. Dwight Spencer, who has charge of the Baptist mission work in Montana, Idaho and Utah, was with us last Sunday, a listener to the morning discourse of Rev. O. W. Minter, who courteously tendered him the use of his pulpit for the evening service. Mr. Spencer's sermon was eloquent and unusually impressive, from the words: "Who knowest but thou art come into the kingdom for such a time as this?"

The public schools will open early next month in charge of Prof. H. S. Reynolds, whose enthusiasm as a student and varied experience as a teacher render him especially fitted for the position.

The primary department will be in charge of Miss Ida Minter, a lady of fine ability and education. Miss Minter tested herself here last summer in a two months' school, winning the love of the little ones, and the respect of the parents.

There is every prospect of good work for the next school year. During a recent thunder shower, the electricity was conducted into the office on the telegraph wires, illuminating the room in a brilliant manner, and completely spoiling the instruments. Ed. is willing to replace them, seeing he is still alive to do it.

At a meeting of the stockholders of this association last evening, Mr. George W. Irvia II was called to the chair and Mr. John H. Curtis was elected Secretary.

Messrs. John F. Forbis, Joseph A. Hyde and John H. Curtis were elected trustees to manage the affairs of the association for the next six months.

The trustees were authorized to incorporate and were empowered to transact all the business of the corporation until their successors should be elected.

The new plans of the opera house revised and enlarged are now at the office of Mr. J. H. Curtis for the inspection of all contractors who wish to bid on it. The bids will be open until Wednesday.

The association have bought more ground so that they will have a frontage of fifty-seven and a half feet. They have applied to the city council for five feet of the alley immediately back of the lot upon which they propose to build and which it is hoped the council will grant. This will give the association a plot of ground 57 1/2 by 105 feet, every inch of which will be occupied by the building.

The enterprise will certainly be carried through as the stockholders include many of our most substantial and most public spirited citizens. These men have taken hold of the matter in earnest and intend to carry it out. The house is to be the finest of the kind in the Territory—a public convenience and an ornament to the city.

Pemberton a Candidate. The paragraph which was going the rounds of the West Side press to the effect that District Attorney Pemberton would not be a candidate for re-nomination and re-election was circulated through the knowledge of "Little Pem," who was attending to professional business in the Cour d'Alene country. Since his return to Butte he has denied the statement. In a private and pious letter to a friend at Dillon, he says: "I am a candidate, and hope by the grace of God and the help of the boys to get there."

The pressure of advertisements in the columns of the MINER has compelled us to enlarge its size. The daily is now as large as the semi-weekly has been. We are glad of this change and as long as the liberal patronage will enable us to do it we propose to keep up the size of the paper and to add to it by giving more news and more varied reading matter.

Card of Thanks. The members of the City Fire Department hereby desire to tender their hearty thanks to the citizens of this city, who so liberally contributed in aid of Mr. Chas. Wing, who was injured while in the discharge of duty on Thursday last.

Important. Any one suffering from chronic diseases will do well to consult the famous specialist, Dr. Mintie, of San Francisco, who is in the city at rooms four and six, Bonner building. See advertisement on fourth page. Cures guaranteed in all curable cases. Charges reasonable. 8-17-ecd

Another Attempt to Break Jail. Last Thursday night the guard in the yard of the penitentiary at Deer Lodge thought he saw the ground beginning to give away in a certain spot outside of the log house in which some of the prisoners are kept. He kept his eye on the place. Pretty soon the bottom fell out, and the head of a prisoner appeared. The guard turned loose with his gun and the head ducked back in short order. Some of the prisoners tired of such a monotonous life thought they would tunnel their way out and this time would try and take chances on getting over the fence instead of under it. Such is life, however, they were disappointed again and doubtless will always be disappointed in such attempts as long as warden Creel has charge of the institution.
