DAY DISPATCHES.

WILLIAMS GROVE, Pa., Aug. 29.—Gen. Butler arrived to-day. He was received by 5,000 people and escorted to the grand headquarters, where he held a short reception. At 2 o'clock he was escorted to the grand stand by a large number of people.

Usually a speech to farmers commences in telling them how happy they are and how much their lot is to be desired before they get to the ground, and drive cows and milk them, and to make butter and have other people eat it.

Now won't you vote for yourself awhile? We have got to start a new party. "A people's party." The people must come up and stand together and renovate the old parties.
