

THE SEMI-WEEKLY MINER

FORD HELD FOR TRIAL

BUTTE, JUNE 10, 1885.

CITY BREVITIES.

The early blossoms were nipped by the snow. Mr. Andrews of New York will take charge of the tailoring department of E. L. Bonner & Co.

On the Charge of Shooting Alexander Hennigar.

HIS BAILS FIXED

At $10,000. The Other Accused are Dismissed. Close of the Preliminary Examination.

Saturday the case of the killing of the five men arrested by the Territory was taken up by the Court of Hennigar and the cattle company. Judge Lippincott at 10 o'clock.

The Court room of the county Court House which has been used for some time past, was filled with spectators.

The proceedings were opened with a brief discussion of the motion for a separate trial in the case of Hennigar and the cattle company.

The witness for the prosecution was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the defense was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the cattle company was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the Territory was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the cattle company was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the Territory was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the cattle company was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the Territory was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the cattle company was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the Territory was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the cattle company was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the Territory was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the cattle company was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the Territory was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the cattle company was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the Territory was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the cattle company was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the Territory was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the cattle company was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the Territory was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the cattle company was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the Territory was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the cattle company was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the Territory was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the cattle company was called and testified to the facts of the case.

The witness for the Territory was called and testified to the facts of the case.

and given him an opportunity to say whether he was guilty or not guilty. A defendant was killed, and each of the defendants was killed.

Frank U. Dorwood testified that Hennigar had the explosives, but he did not know to what use he expected to put them.

The prosecution insisted, when the witness asked permission to make a general statement, so far as he was personally concerned, that he was not a witness.

LARKIN ALLEGED. He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

was intended for use against the Ford party. He was afterwards told that the shooting was to be done by the cattle company.

Frank U. Dorwood testified that Hennigar had the explosives, but he did not know to what use he expected to put them.

The prosecution insisted, when the witness asked permission to make a general statement, so far as he was personally concerned, that he was not a witness.

LARKIN ALLEGED. He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

He started at once for the cabin, and with the way met Larkin, and together they went to the camp, and together they went to the upper diggings.

He was about the time of the shooting at the upper diggings, where one of the employees came and told him that Mr. Larkin had been shot.

"PERSONAL MEMOIRS."

A Glance at General Grant's Forthcoming Work.

REVIEW OF THE WAR

He Expresses Himself in a Manly Straightforward Way and to the Point.

New York, June 8.—The Commercial Advertiser publishes nearly a page of extracts from General Grant's "Personal Memoirs," which will be published within a few months.

The first volume is completed and the second nearly so. The extracts given show the general's opinion of the war, and of the various phases of it.

He begins by saying that he is of American stock on both sides for many generations. Matthew Grant, from whom he is a descendant in the eighth generation, reached Dorchester, Mass., in 1630, from Dorchester, England.

He speaks of his grandfather, General Grant, held a commission in the British army, and his grandfather, also named Grant, served in the Revolution.

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

He speaks of his appointment to West Point through the influence of the Hon. Thomas Morris, (Congressman from Ohio, who was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.)

DEFEATED AT LAST.

The "Grand Old Man" Overthrown in the Commons.

HIS FATAL MOVE.

The Most Intense Excitement in London—Opinions of the City Press.

LONDON, June 8.—In the House of Commons, after "Children's Statement" touching the spirits tax, Mr. Childers had no sooner explained the Government's reason for not at present refunding the tax, than the Right Honorable Sir Michael Edwards Hicks Beach (Conservative), rose quickly and asked the Government a liberal Government which ought to be economical had to resort to extreme forms of taxation in order to meet an extraordinary expenditure of £100,000,000, by General Sir Peter Lumsden.

Childers moved a second reading of the budget in his supporting speech explained the total increase in the beer and spirit duties England pays seven-eighths, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax. He said that he was already taxed enough, and asked the Government to refund the tax.

Mr. Andrew of New York will take charge of the tailoring department of E. L. Bonner & Co.

Mr. Bogk, of the Revere House, has purchased a gray hen, weighing 2,250 pounds, for his new bus.

George Bros., of Dillon, will have a sale of Pulled Angus Aberdeen cattle at that place June 10th.

The graceful dancing and magnificent costumes of Miss Lydia Rosa are a marvel to the patrons of the Arion.

Carl Kleinhardt, of the Blackfoot Horse and Cattle Company, has bought of George Bros. five stallions, three of which are Clydes, one Shire and one English coach horse.

Thomas Moffatt of the Little Orphan Home has given the contract for his new dwelling house on Washington near Quartz Street to Oliver & Dyer. Value of house, $2,000.

The recent storm and a defective, leaky roof on the building has seriously spoiled the beautiful frescoes on the walls of the new opera house. This is as much of a shame as a pity.

J. J. McLaughlin, of the Butte Hardware Co., was taken to the St. James Hospital where he is in a very critical condition.

The funeral of Alexander Hennigar, the man murdered in German gulch, will take place from Mr. Singer's Undertaking establishment to-day (Saturday) at 2 o'clock P. M. Friends are invited to attend.

The funeral of Walter F. Burke which took place Thursday, was conducted by his brother, J. F. Burke, of 160 West Broadway. The deceased was buried in the Catholic cemetery.

Mr. McDonald, the man who in company with D. D. McMillan is working a lease near Wheatcroft, has had the limb amputated and is getting along nicely. He is under the care of Dr. Bergeron.

Saturday night Luigi Raffaelli, who is working in the wood camp above Meadorville, while walking stepped on a stone and falling sustained a severe sprain of the ankle. He was attended by Dr. Bergeron, but it will be several weeks before he can chop wood again.

John H. Curtis has just exchanged with C. J. Jenks, his property at the corner of Jackson and West Granite streets, for a forty-acre farm adjoining the town-site of Fort Lee. Mr. Jenks will at once begin construction of two fine dwellings on the property.

John Tudor has just leased the latter shop adjoining the Theater Company building, and will use it as a saloon in the rear. Mr. Tudor will take possession Monday and begin to erect a building which he expects to be ready to open in two weeks.

The charming dances, Miss Lydia Rosa, pretty and accomplished; Miss Mable Ford, suitable songs and a drawing; Mrs. W. Wood, one of the Queens of the Vaudeville stage and all the old favorites remain at the Arion. Grand matinee tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The program on Monday evening. Mr. Ritchie remains to the fore.

The Liederkrantz held a business meeting last night which adjourned at the corner of Jackson and West Granite streets, for a date from June 21st to June 14th, and Meadorville Grove (formerly Bogk's garden) was selected as the place for the picnic. Other special inducements for two guests, but the programme has not yet been fully arranged.

The horse dealers of Butte are just now doing a good business in medium-priced horses, over twenty head having been sold yesterday. The entire sale was made by James King, president of the Bell Telephone Company, has returned from the East.

Robert Reynolds is lying very ill with the quincy. He has the sympathy of a host of friends.

T. W. Luke, a prominent traveling man from Cleveland, Ohio, is stopping at the St. Nicholas.

William Warfield started on the fourth bound train yesterday, for a three or four days' trip.

J. W. Staples, representing one of the leading insurance firms of the Golden State, is in the city.

William P. Schneider, representing The Miner, will leave for Anaconda on Wednesday, the 10th inst. He is accompanied by J. F. Keating of the Safety-Nitro Powder Company, San Francisco, leaves this afternoon for the Golden State.