A GOOD DAY FOR MOBS.

Mighty London at the Mercy of the Socialists.

OUR OWN SETTLE

Under Martial Law—Scenes in the Two Cities—Police and Militia—The Coal Miners.

LONDON, February 8.—The starving mechanics of London today held a mass meeting in Trafalgar Square around the Nelson Monument, and it resulted in a riot.

APPEALING TO THE CROWD to resist the interference with the exercise of popular rights. The officers, however, were determined, and they pushed their way through the excited and persisting mob.

A RED FLAG, and he waved it to the assemblage as a sign of his triumph. The crowd, however, was not so easily satisfied.

ATTACKING BAKERS' SHOPS next, if the Government did not come to their relief. Burns himself, in one of these places, was surrounded by a mob.

FLOUR, BREAD AND GARBAGE. The officers behaved admirably under this abuse and showed no resentment.

ABANDONED TO THE RIOTERS, who, finding themselves no longer opposed, vented their ill-will against well-to-do persons and against clubs.

AMONG THE RIOTERS.

Notes From the Various Points of Trouble Yesterday.

SEATTLE STILL BAD.

The President Concludes to Take a Hand—London Still Bad—The Coal Miners.

LONDON, February 9.—Fears are entertained that the riots of yesterday will be renewed today. This is what would naturally be expected when the immunity enjoyed by the mob in its work of destruction yesterday is considered.

UNABLE TO WALK, or defend himself from the stray kicks which the rioters gave him, as he was pushed and trod.

BECAME VERY VIOLENCE, Of course there was no use to try to make any arrests against such odds.

SOME POPULAR LEADER prevents the mob from exerting its strength in some organized movement which might result in a riot.

THE SITUATION AT SEATTLE. PORTLAND, Oregon, February 9.—The riotous past in comparative quiet at Seattle, and no demonstration of any kind is reported.

COLD WEATHER IN MEXICO. CITY OF MEXICO, (via Galveston) February 8.—Unusually cold winter prevails in the valley of Mexico.

NATIONAL CALAMITY.

Unlooked-for Death of General Winfield S. Hancock.

ANOTHER PATRIOT

Gathered to His Fathers—The Last Scenes—General Burrow—Sketch of the Illustrious Dead.

NEW YORK, 4 p. m., February 9.—The following official notification of the death of Gen. Hancock has just been received.

THE GENERAL'S FAMILY. The General leaves his widow and three grandsons, two girls and one boy.

THE NEWS IN WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON, February 9.—A telegram announcing the dangerous illness of Gen. Hancock was received by the President.

THE PRESIDENT TO MRS. HANCOCK. The President also sent the following to Mrs. Hancock.

SKETCH OF THE GENERAL. Winfield Scott Hancock was born in Montgomery county, Pa., on February 14, 1824.

THE CHAMPION VETOIST. SALT LAKE, Utah, February 9.—Gov. Murray today again vetoed the bill which amended an act relating to the convict.

STILL THE CRY IS SILVER.

Congress Engage In a Long Debate.

NOTHING DONE YET.

The Senate Devotes Its Session to a Discussion on the Question of Certificates.

WASHINGTON, February 10.—The debate on the silver question was resumed.

MR. EDMUNDS said that the action of the treasury officials in the case was in every respect sound, and in compliance with the law.

MR. EDMUNDS inquired why the Administration did not turn this Republican race out and put a Democrat in his place.

MR. COKE—Is he a Republican? I suppose he is. I don't know. I suppose Mr. Coke said he did not care what a man's politics were.

MR. EDMUNDS then closed and the matter was taken up by Mr. Sherman's silver bill, which was ordered to be read.

MR. EDMUNDS provided that the amount of coin certificates at any time outstanding shall not exceed the value of the bullion.
