The princess is a beautiful and accomplished lady, about eight years of age, and a perfect blonde.

She is a daughter of Lord and Lady Dacey, her mother being a native Tahitian princess and her father an English nobleman of distinguished ancestry.

She has had all the advantages of education in France, Germany and England.

She is the possessor of immense wealth in her own right, and receives a large annuity from France under treaty stipulations.

As she naturally is supposed, the princess has not lacked suitors for her fair hand, all of whom, including the Earl of Dudley, she has refused.

Lord Dacey was the last of the suitors, and she has graciously yielded to the wishes of his lovely and only child to accept as her son-in-law a young man of noble lineage in the United States Navy.

He comes from a good family, his father, now deceased, was a prominent citizen of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Anderson was one of the most prominent railroad men of the country.

Philadelphia, May 15.—General Adna Anderson of New York, aged 60, committed suicide by shooting in a room at a hotel last night.

General Anderson was one of the best known railroad men in this country.

He entered the railway service as chairman of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad twenty years ago.

He was chosen as second vice president of the Northern Pacific Co., remaining there until January 1, 1887.

Secret Conference of Copper Producers. New York, May 15.—A secret conference of the representatives of the large American copper mines is being held.

One of the delegates attending the conference is a member of the treasury department, and is regarded as the most influential man in the treasury department.

What It Will Cost to Run the Government for the Current Year.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—A statement showing the result of the acts of the second session of the fiftieth congress upon the finances of the government has been prepared by Thomas F. Cleaves and James C. Courts, clerks respectively of the senate and house committees on appropriations.

They show that the total amount appropriated by congress was $286,646,460, while the permanent and specific and indefinite appropriations were estimated by the secretary of the treasury at $108,691,056, making a total of estimated expenditures of the government for 1889—$90,495,339.516.

The estimated revenue for the same time are $434,500,658.

Acts were passed providing for 350 offices, the salaries of which aggregate $443,800, while the increased salaries of old offices amount to $1,025,980.

Sixty-nine new offices were created, the salaries of which amount to $127,972, and the salaries of other offices are reduced $72,000.

The postoffice appropriation bill increases the appropriation for compensation for clerks in the postoffices, from $5,975,000 to $6,550,000, and that for railway postoffice clerks, from $5,246,590 to $5,600,000, with $50,000 deficiency.

TO WAR SECRET SOCIETIES.

A Christian Church Ready to Fight Anything but Sin.

York, Pa., May 15.—Bishop Weaver presided over the majority of the conference of the United Brethren church, to-day.

The question of licensing women to preach was adopted after a long discussion.

A motion was adopted that no minister should be allowed to preach more than three consecutive years at one point without the consent of the conference.

The minority conference was presided over by Bishop Wright. It was agreed that four bishops should be elected, one for the Pacific coast and three for the East.

It was recommended to call a congress of Christian churches in the fall, in some large city, to urge a war against secret societies.

At a meeting of the visiting ministers and laymen of the United Brethren General Conference held in the afternoon, resolutions were adopted expressing the hearty approval of the action of the general conference in ratifying the work of the church commission appointed by the last general conference, thus bringing into force the revised constitution of faith and the amended constitution of the church made by the conference.

MADAME JANUSCHK. The Chicago Telegram contains the following complimentary notice of the above mentioned tragic actress who will appear at Maguire's Opera house Monday evening:

"Last evening a large number of admirers of profound and subtle art acting assembled at the Columbia to witness the world renowned tragedienne Januschek in a grand production of the musical and romantic play, a dramatization of Walter Scott's novel of 'The Two Rovers,' entitled 'Meg Merrilies.'"

The character of Meg Merrilies is one calling for the most difficult and arduous lines of professional labor and gifted with the genius peculiarly adapted to the dramatic art. She is an actress who combines in her own person an infinite variety of dramatic qualities. She has a power and emotional intensity equal to Rachel, and a skill for elaboration and finish only equaled by Bernhardt.

The story is well known to all readers of English fiction.

A TIN BREAST PLATE.

AMOOTH-MANNERED YOUNG MAN TAKES IN CHICAGO PEOPLE.

He Had a Wonderful Whiskey for Converting 'Forty Rod' Whisky into the Finest Liquor—How He Operated—Telling a Detective as a Partner Spelling Canning Scheme.

CHICAGO, May 15.—A scheme rivaling in some respects the great electric fraud, was exposed here to-day. The perpetrator is a smooth-mannered young man named John Archibald, whose papers indicate that he has been operating in Kansas City, St. Louis, Cincinnati and other places as well as at Chicago.

He is now making a good many thousands of dollars belonging to various distillers and liquor dealers have disappeared also.

It is stated by the authorities that he pretended to possess a compound which would change poor whisky into the finest brandy, that a gallon sample of the vilest whisky, being analyzed, was placed in a refrigerator, and ten minutes were taken out transformed.

INTO THE PINEST BOUQUON. It objection was made to the refrigerator he would accompany the doubter to any place desired, and then enter a private room and accomplish the same feat.

It now turns out, however, that the refrigerator was a simple device by which a bottle containing good whisky was substituted for the bad. The trick, which was performed cleverly than the refrigerator, was done by means of a tin breast plate.

AN ARMOR WORN BY HIS CLOTHING. The armor was double, and was in reality a receiver which, by means of a concealed tube, could be emptied or filled at will.

He was invited into taking a detective into partnership with him, but when the street was contemplated in 'smelled a mouse' and fled, leaving behind the refrigerator, but carrying off the armor.

THE DIVORCE MILL. Parties Who Have Found Marriage an Able Bodied Failure.

But four divorce cases loomed up in the district court yesterday and disposition of them was made as follows: Charlotte Harvey who thinks that her earthly happiness can be complete only by being released from her 'civil contract' with Samuel Harvey had her complaint granted.

Missoula, M. T., May 16.—[Special to the Miner.]—Missoula still proves to be a fertile field for the divorce mill. Major Short's wife was recovered at noon. One leg and arm had been torn from the body by the explosion, and were found some distance from the scene.

St. Sauveur is a separate municipality from Quebec, but separated from the city by only the width of a street. It has a population of 15,000. Only last night St. Sauveur officials refused the offer of the city to supply them with water.
