

LOCAL NEWS.

From the Daily Herald of July 9.

Personal.

Among the arrivals from the east at Bismarck, on the 25th ult., were the following Montanians: A. J. McKiernan, Richard Bassett, Pierce Ryan, Frank Day, J. R. Newberry, and J. B. LeBeau.

Fred. Linwedell, in from Silver, reports mining affairs promising in that camp. Operations at the head of the creek are showing well, and gold quartz of good quality and large quantity is coming from the leads. Fred is about building an addition to his house to better accommodate the increasing public patronage.

Several Helena ladies will leave the present week for Benton, en route to the States, on visits to relatives and friends at the old homes. Among these are Mrs. Wm. Guthrie, who goes to Dubuque, Iowa; Mrs. M. E. Clarke, whose journey extends to Rochester, N. Y., and Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Norris, who returns to Illinois, after a visit of a year with Montana friends. These ladies expect to take passage by one of the Peck line of steamers to Sioux city, and thence by rail to their several destinations. Joy go with you.

Thieves at Work.

Sunday night some thief or thieves broke into the Overland Hotel and tapped the office till. In the absence of money which was elsewhere more safely cared for, a supply of meal tickets was taken, as also some cigars and drinkables which were too temptingly exposed to be left behind. The authorities have their eyes upon several suspicious characters, whose movements are closely watched, and who will come to grief if detected in larcenies or other crimes. Evil-doers never did and never will prosper in Helena, and if there are any such now here who are not fully posted in reference to this point, the best thing they can do is to quickly inform themselves and seek elsewhere a more congenial atmosphere than can be found in these parts.

Sad Accident.

On the Fourth, says the Madisonian, a terrible accident happened to Charles Clifton, by which his right arm was blown to atoms. It appears that a number of men were celebrating at Strawberry City, and Clifton held a piece of Giant powder in his hand with a fuse and cap attached, intending to throw it away before it exploded. He held it too long, however, and the powder exploded with terrific force, tearing his hand and arm to shreds. The unfortunate fellow was immediately taken to Pony and placed under the care of Dr. Schmalhausen. It was a foolhardy exploit and met with a terrible result, and it is to be hoped will act as a warning to others who are fond of taking such useless risks.

Carried Away in the Flood.

The coach for Helena leaving Lincoln on Friday last met with a disaster in attempting to ford the Blackfoot. The coach, while in mid stream, was caught by the swollen and swift running water and swept, with horses and driver, off from the ford and into the swimming depths below. The Juhu, unable to manage his team or reach a landing, was fortunately able to save his own life by doing some lusty swimming. Both horses—valuable American animals—were drowned, and the Lincoln mail sack was swept down stream and lost.

Indian Scare in Southern Idaho.

Advices received here from Bannack state that reports from Salmon City show that the Indian alarm is spreading to Southern Idaho. Signal fires, or what have been taken for such, have been seen on the mountain ranges near Salmon, causing considerable alarm to the settlers, a few of whom have already left their ranches.

At the Head.

Masters Willie Word, Lewis Yager, Charles Barber and Alton Bower, four Virginia City boys who have been in attendance at the Kemper Family School, Boonville, Missouri, during the last year, were, in the examination at that institute, on the 18th ult., distinguished above all the school for excellence in scholarship and deportment during the academic year.

Coeur d'Alene Indians—Advices Sent by Father Giordi.

From a private letter written by Father Giordi, at Hangman's creek, Nez Perse country, Idaho, June 27, we learn that after the fight with Joseph's band, when the settlers in the Spokane country were flying into Colfax and other central points, the Coeur d'Alene chief sent immediately an expressman to notify the settlers that there was no cause of alarm from the Coeur d'Alenes, as they were all peaceful with the whites. On the 23d of June a runaway Indian from Snake river came that way and killed a harmless old man by the name of John Richie. The Coeur d'Alenes were the first to hear of the murder and sent the news to the settlers, and captured and returned the horse of the old man. To-day Jettie, a very intelligent and peaceful chief, went with all the other chiefs to pay a visit to the settlers to assure them that they have nothing to fear from his tribe. The settlers have returned to their homes, and have no fears from any source except from straggling Indians from the seat of war. The Father concludes that there is no reason of any apprehension from the Catholic Indians, and that they are imbued with a spirit of Christian friendship for the American people.

Personal.

—Mr. Thos. Allen, of Butte, and Mr. Jos. A. Hyde, of Deer Lodge, are in town.

—Our young friend, George T. Hale, and lady, over from Butte, are registered at the Cosmopolitan.

—Mr. E. B. Shaw, of the Cutting Fruit Packing Company, arrived in Helena yesterday, on his annual Territorial visit.

—After a several months' tour through the States, Moses Morris, of the firm of Morris Bros., returned home by the coach arriving here on Sunday evening last. Mr. Morris is in rugged health, and friendly greetings show he is cordially welcomed back.

—We were pleased this morning to receive a call from Mr. Nathan S. Vestal, one of the leading quartz miners of Upper Silver. Mr. Vestal owns several of the valuable gold leads in the new mining district now springing into prominence, and has in operation there a new ten stamp mill and astrate, both of which are showing most encouraging results.

Hymeneal.

A matrimonial event transpires at Benton on the 19th inst., the contracting parties being Miss Mollie M. Douglass, daughter of J. G. Douglass, and Mr. Robert R. Mills, the well known and popular hotel man at Headwaters. We have cards of invitation to the wedding, for which remembrance we cannot fail in turn to remember our friends. Happiness be with you, says the HERALD, should we happen not to be present to render in person our congratulations.

The Bannacks.

Considerable uneasiness is still felt in Beaverhead county. The people are preparing to meet the emergency of a possible invasion of Idaho Indians. Settlers are procuring arms, and stock men are looking up their horses and driving them to ranges secure from depredation. No fears are entertained of the Bannacks, Ten Day, their head chief, being very friendly. He wished to go with his tribe to the Yellowstone, and there he will lead them, going from instead of toward the hostiles.

Large Sale of Cattle.

The Price & Ricker head of graded cattle was yesterday sold to Mr. John H. Ming, of Helena, for the sum of ten thousand dollars, cash. The band largely originates from the Guthrie importations of blooded stock brought to Montana some years ago. In amount this sale exceeds any other made in the Territory this year.

From the North

Rev. Hugh Duncan, from the Blackfoot Agency, via Benton, brings news of quietness and peace among the Northern Indians—Sitting Bull with 150 lodges, was in the neighborhood of Cypress Hills, according to the statement of Major Walsh, just down from the North, whom Mr. Duncan met at Benton. Buffalo was in great plenty, and the Indians were jubilant over their season's hunt.

Death of an Old Pioneer.

In the death of Frederick Kreitzer, announced in last evening's HERALD, Montana loses one of its earliest pioneers. Mr. Kreitzer had among our people a wide acquaintance and large number of friends whose devoted attachment he won by his generous acts and noble traits of character. He was nobody's enemy so much as his own. He secured in the early days of Alder a competence which he afterwards considerably increased by operations in stock. He purchased at one time in Colorado a large band of cattle and drove them to this Territory, and ever since has been a prominent man in the circle of stock-growers. In this business he was for some years associated with Mr. Sam. Hall, of Helena, and made money rapidly and often scattered it with a prodigal hand. Only a short time since he started a drove of upwards of a thousand head of fat beeves, with Mr. Travis in charge, Kreitzer remaining behind only to be overtaken by the sickness which resulted in his death. The remains this afternoon were followed to their final resting place by friends who will sincerely mourn his sudden and unexpected taking-off.

The Hot Springs.

EDITOR HERALD: I am surprised that the citizens of Helena are not more liberal in their patronage of this place. The baths are a confessed luxury, and at this season, flowers, and verdure, and other attractions are at their best. Judge Chumassero, Col. Broadwater and Major Boyce have their families here. Helena, isolated and distant from all other resorts, should more liberally sustain the only one within easy reach. The host and hostess are doing all in their power to please guests and patrons, and they deserve liberal encouragement.

VISITOR.

HELMBOLD'S REMEDIES.

BUCHU HELMBOLD'S Compound Fluid Extract of BUCHU THE GREAT DIURETIC.

A Specific remedy for all diseases of the Urinary Organs; Non-retention or Incontinence of Urine; Irritation of the Bladder and kidneys; stone in the Bladder, Gravel, or Brick-dust deposit, Bright's disease, Milky discharges, and all diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, or Prostate Gland, whether affecting Male, Female, or Child. For Weakness arising from youthful indiscretion or abuse, excess or dissipation, attended with some of the following symptoms: Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Indisposition to Exertion or Business, Loss of Power, Shortness of Breath, Trembling, Troubled with thoughts of disease, Dimness of Vision, Pains in the Back, Chest and Head, Rush of Blood to the Head, Skin Eruptions, Pale Countenance and Dry Skin. If these symptoms are allowed to go on, very frequently Epileptic Fits and Consumption follow. When the constitution becomes affected with organic weakness, it requires the aid of an invigorating medicine to strengthen and tone up the system, which HELMBOLD'S BUCHU does in every case. HELMBOLD'S BUCHU has no equal in diseases peculiar to females, Chronic or private practice, they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have given to the patient and practitioner the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed; whether in town or country, hospital or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unequalled satisfaction, and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects. Numerous letters have been received from some of the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, all recommending in the highest terms, the value of these medicines, and their superiority over other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor recommends. These medicines require considerable care in the preparation, and the employment of different menstrua in successive operations to take up the extractive matters, and in consequence are most frequently improperly made, and not infrequently much impaired, if not rendered totally inert by injudicious and unskillful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations. Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and of Buchu and various modes of preparing them, have been given, all of which, of course, will differ according to the mode of preparation which each individual may adopt. It is, therefore, of the highest consideration and importance to the public and to the faculty that they should be standard preparations of uniform strength, and possessing the most advantage. To effect this, and obviate the inconvenience alluded to, I have made a number of experiments to ascertain the most effectual means of extracting the virtues of Sarsaparilla and the Buchu, and to discover the most eligible form for their exhibition. The experiments have resulted most favorably, and it is with much pleasure I now offer to the public and the faculty my Compound Fluid Extracts, which contain all the virtues of the medicines, and are the most active preparations of either which can be made. Two tablespoonfuls of the extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet-Drink, and one bottle is fully equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the Decoction usually made.

Describe your symptoms in all communications. Cures Guaranteed. Advice Gratis. Medical depot, 104 South Tenth Street, below Chestnut, Philadelphia. Beware of counterfeiters and unprincipled dealers, who endeavor to dispose of their own and "other" articles of the reputation attained by Helmbold's Genuine Extract Buchu, Extract Sarsaparilla, and Improved Rose Wash. None genuine unless in steel engraved White Wrappers, fac-simile of chemical warehouse, and my proprietary stamp affixed. Successor to and manufacturer of H. T. HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS.
