FROM THE DAILY HERALD OF JUNE 3. GREETING THE GUESTS.

Welcome Extended to the Y. M. C. A. Delegates—An Enjoyable Evening at the Association Rooms.

At the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, last evening, many of the business people of Helena had the pleasure of meeting and greeting the party of notabilities returning by the Northern Pacific route from the recent convention in San Francisco of the International Y. M. C. A.

On the part of the City Council, Aldermen Howe, Wallace and Hoback received the party at the depot, on their arrival at 5 o'clock.

A Sad Accident.

In the Salt Lake Tribune of the 26th ult. we find the following. Mrs. Wallace will be remembered as Miss Lizzie Ellis, a cousin of Mrs. F. J. Shaffer and a resident of Helena for many years.

Died of Pneumonia.

A telegram this morning was received at Police Headquarters from the depot, that there was a man dying near there and to bring a physician.

Life no Longer Endurable.

We learn from Mr. Ben Malben, who has just arrived from up the gulch, the scene of a suicide committed last night by Herman Stenes, a German better known by the name of King William, a name given to him from the fact that he claimed he did military duty in the body guard of William, King of Germany.

TOWN AND TERRITORY.

—In the national drill contest the Toledo cadets carried off the sweepstakes prize.

—County Treasurer Baldwin has moved into his elegant quarters in the new court house, and to-day is receiving cash for licenses and other revenues.

—Now that the Mullan tunnel is in disuse, it is an occasion to indulge the hope that it will not be used again until it is arched with heavy masonry from end to end.

—The announcement that the Lexington shaft has reached a depth of 150 feet is interesting and important to mining and business men. It is now the deepest property in the Territory.

—The graduating class of 1887 of the Helena High School is composed of Chas. R. Sanders, Emma Hedges, Nellie Gremm, Orvis L. Evans, Nannie M. Woodman, Laura E. Brown, Anna Spitzzen, and Alma Alden.

—Sheriff Hathaway and Under Sheriff Chas. D. Hard are to-day holding down their respective positions in the new court house and superintending the removal of the archives of the clerk of the courts into his new office.

—Theodore H. Kleinschmidt, Jr., has been appointed Collector in the First National Bank in place of George Perkins, resigned, a position of great trust and responsibility which the young banker, no doubt, is fully competent to fill.

—The Territory of Utah has again been added to Montana and Idaho as a United States revenue collection district, by order of the President and James Shields in charge with headquarters at Helena. The new order goes into effect July 1st.

—Helena consumes six hundred gallons of milk every day. Of this, four hundred gallons are brought to the city by country dairymen, and two hundred gallons come from the town retailers, which at 25 and 35 cents per gallon, will reach $170 per day.

—William Bailey, who died so suddenly at his father's house near Boulder last Saturday, was a son of Mr. Bailey, who lives and has a saw mill on the Muskat. The young man was about 21 years of age, and died in a few minutes after an attack of some throat trouble.

—E. B. Shaw, a well known traveling man in Montana for fifteen years, representing the fruit packing establishment of Cutting & Co., San Francisco, committed suicide on the 23d ult. at Alameda, Cal., by shooting himself with a pistol. The deceased was 55 years of age and leaves a wife, two daughters and a son.
