SALT LAKE NEWS.

Special to the New Age.

"Asleep in Jesus."

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them." We believe that from the past life of Sister Lloyd, she died in the full triumph of a living faith. "And when Christ shall descend with the voice of the archangel and the triumph of God" that she will be with the children and friends who are left to mourn her loss, in the Apostle's language, "Sorrow not as others which have no hope, for if we believe that Jesus died and rose, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him; wherefore comfort ye one another with these words."

Hark, I hear another rattle On the mighty stream of death One more servant has been summoned, One more soul is laid to rest.

And we hear the master whisper, In these words both true and kind, I will carry her work forward Let her rest for she is mine.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Francis Lloyd was held last Saturday, conducted by Rev. J. W. Washington. Mrs. Emma Wilds and Mr. Henry Goodbar of Butte, daughter and son of Mrs. Lloyd, attended the funeral.

Mrs. Mozee of Leavenworth, Kans., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Russell, on South State street, and is accompanied by her daughter, Miss Mozee.

Mr. and Mrs. Sellars of Denver are in the city.

There is talk of a literary-musical club being organized in the near future, which, we trust, will add much to the entertaining of friends and strangers.

Mrs. Mattie Stead entertained a few friends at luncheon last Sunday.

Miss Meda Lindsey and Miss Florence Seals of Helena, Montana, will visit our city soon.

Church News.

The new chapel room at Calvary Baptist church was opened for service for the first time Sunday, June 29, at 3:30 p. m. Rev. Bruce Kenney the general missionary, preached the opening sermon. Rev. D. A. Brown of the First Baptist church, and Rev. Mr. Barrett of the East Side Baptist church, were present and spoke words of encouragement. At 8 p. m. a sacred concert was given by the Calvary choir, a special quartette and others. A large audience was present and a liberal offering was lifted.

Monday, June 30, the members of Calvary Baptist church held a reception and house warming in their chapel room and the parsonage above, and over 300 persons attended during the afternoon and evening. Pink and white ice cream with assorted cake and fruit punch were served. A musical programme was rendered throughout the reception under the management of Mr. Oscar Thurman, the participants being as follows: Instrumental solo, Mrs. E. Smith; duet, Messrs. Edwards and Mills; welcome address, Rev. J. W. Washington; solo, Mr. Willis Green; solo, Edith Williams; address, O. Thurman; solo, Mrs. E. Jackson; instrumental solo, E. Howell; solo, J. C. Lindsey; solo, Mrs. Mattie Green; address, D. Ford; quartette, Messrs. Lunn, Mills, Deres and Edwards; address, W. P. Hough; quartette, Messdames Robinson, Barker, Washington, and Mr. William Robinson.

Prof. Willis presided at the piano in the afternoon and Mrs. Sellars presided at night. The chapel was beautifully decorated and the electric lights showed up everything lovely. Everybody that attended the reception and house warming was pleased; and Rev. Washington has a smile on his face that makes one forget his own sadness.

In Montgomery, Ala., where the city council enacted a separate street car law some months ago, the Afro-Americans so effectively boycotted the entire street car system that the city council and street car people have had their eyes opened to such an extent that, seemingly, by the mutual consent of all parties, the law has ceased to be enforced, and the Afro-Americans now ride where they see fit. One line had to be abandoned during the boycott. The quickest way to overcome a white man's absurd prejudice is through his pocketbook; smash that flat and you have him.—N. Y. Age.

The total white population of the South in 1860, according to the census, it is noted, was 8,099,760, of which 24,864 owned the 8,952,696 slaves in the country, including 2 owned in Kansas, 15 in Nebraska, 29 in Utah and 18 in New Jersey. One man alone owned more than 1,000 slaves, and he was a South Carolinian. Eighty-eight owners in nine states had more than 300 each, and 39 of the 80 were South Carolina.
