HELENA, MONTANA

HELENA NOTES.

Helena, Mont., July 9, 1902.—Among the visitors in the city during last week was Col. Jas. Collins, and his many friends were delighted to see him again.

Mr. Arthur Palmer entertained Mr. Morris O'Brien Friday evening at a family dinner at his home.

Messrs. Charles Dorsey and Ed. Mosely were seen calling Sunday evening on the Elite of Helena in a handsome victoria.

Mr. Ed. Mosely entertained Messrs. Chris. Dorsey, Jas. Collins, and Mr. Arthur Palmer at ping pong in his handsome bachelor apartments on Saturday. It is rumored the Butte experts have not yet mastered the difficult Helena stroke.

Mrs. Willis, of Butte, who spent the fourth in Helena as the guest of Mrs. E. G. Cole, is now the guest of Mrs. Johnson, of Bald Butte. She expects to spend a short time in Helena on her way home.

Miss Gertrude Simms, Miss Molly Simms and Miss Odessa Knott were visitors in the city during the celebration of last week.

Mr. Chris. Dorsey was in Helena last week renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. B. J. Foulkerson gave a breakfast Monday morning in honor of the young ladies visiting Helena from Great Falls. Breakfast was served at 9:30 a. m. Covers were laid for ten. The table was beautifully decorated with American Beauty roses and carnations. After a delicious repast was served in five courses, the young people repaired to the parlor and danced until almost noon, at which time the young ladies departed for their homes in Great Falls. Music was furnished for the occasion by the Mandolin club. Those who assisted Mrs. B. J. Foulkerson in entertaining were: Mrs. P. D. Lee, Miss Blanche Woodcock and Miss Jessie Woodcock. Those invited were: The Misses Gertrude Simms, of Great Falls; Molly Simms, of Great Falls; Odessa Knott, of Great Falls; Minnie Johnson, of Woodcock; Luella Duncan, Messrs. Jesse Cook, Thos. Huff, Geo. Lee, Jr., and Master Julian Lee.

Mrs. Miles York gave a dinner Monday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. Willis, of Butte.

Rev. Baker, of Great Falls, delivered two very interesting sermons at St. James' A. M. E. church, corner Fifth avenue and Hoback street, Sunday morning and evening. They were greatly enjoyed by all who heard them.

Mr. Morris O'Brien, of Butte, was in Helena, a few days, to see the sights and old friends. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Crump.

Mrs. Sidney and her niece, Miss Price, were in from Townsend to see the new capitol dedicated.

Mr. Scott was in the city a few days. He returned last week to his home in Townsend.

Mr. Howard Porter, of Great Falls, was in Helena the fourth.

Mrs. Robertson and children, of Great Falls, were the guests of Mrs. Edward Johnson during the last week.

Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Engleman and mother, Miss Simms, Miss Molly

Simms and Miss Knott and Rev. Baker were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Watson last week.

Mrs. Chas. Johnson, of Bald Butte, and sons, Mr. Arthur and Mr. Charles ohnson, were in the city last week.

Helena, Montana, July 11, 1902.—To the New Age: Mr. L. J. Thompson entertained a few friends Thursday evening at dinner at the Monticello Cafe. Those present were Misses Gertrude Hynes, Glydas Alexander, Meda Lindsey, Florence Seals, Messrs. L. J. Thompson, G. Mason, William Jirton and George Alexander. After enjoying the generous hospitality of Mr. Thompson all trustig soon the compliment should be returned to Mr. Thompson.

HAIR CUT OR ARREST.

Desperate Trade Measure Adopted by a West Indian Barber.

The large crops of newspaper correspondents which went down to the West Indies after the volcano disaster brought back any number of interesting stories of their adventures at St. Vincent and Martinique. The best of these, perhaps, is one concerning two well-known correspondents who started to explore the streets of St. Vincent town. One of them went into a hat shop and the other waited outside for his companion to emerge. While basking in the hot sunlight a great 6-foot West Indian negro came up to him and inquired if he was from the United States ship, Dixie. The correspondent replied in the affirmative, whereupon the negro informed him that he represented the St. Vincent board of health, and that the correspondent must have his hair cut immediately or return to his ship. The newspaper man smiled scornfully. The negro did not, but firmly told him that he must take him back to the ship if he refused to lose his back locks. And the negro looked as if he could do it. At this juncture the correspondent's friend came out of the hat store and joined them. The big negro presented the same ultimatum to the newcomer, and finally both correspondents were escorted down the street by the alleged health official.

As they turned into an intersecting thoroughfare the trio met with a policeman, and in a twinkling the stalwart negro had become but a flying black streak away down the avenue. The two men told the story to the guardian of the peace, who smiled sardonically. "Why, that man is a barber," he said, "and keeps a shop right down on the next corner."

HEINZE CHANGES FRONT.

Montana Mining Magnate Announces That He is a Democrat.

Helena, Mont., July 5.—F. August Heinze, the Butte mining magnate who has taken a prominent part in Montana politics ever since he began his remarkable war upon the Standard Oil-Amalgamated Copper interests in this state, announced at a banquet given by him at the Helena hotel last night that he would hereafter affiliate with the Democrats. He had been considered a republican up to the present time, although as a matter of fact his strength has been largely in labor circles.

Since Mr. Heinze arrived here Thursday to attend the capitol dedication he has been entertaining lavishly, giving a luncheon and a dinner each day, at which he has entertained many of the leading men of the state. Persons of all political faiths have been his guests on these occasions.

Late last night United States Senator Paris Gibson had just responded to a toast when one of the guests proposed a toast to the host. Mr. Heinze, in responding, announced that he would hereafter be considered a democrat, and himself proposed a toast to democracy. Six republicans at the board refused to drink the toast, but the other guests did so with great show of enthusiasm. Mr. Heinze's change of front will probably play an important part in future political campaigns in this state.

ATTACKED BY HOODLUMS.

Buffalo, N. Y., Special.—While returning home from the Central depot about 1 a. m., June 14, William P. Rhodes, proprietor of the hotel, No. 55 William street, in company with his bartender, Wm. Dorsey, and his housekeeper, coming up Michigan street near the corner of Eagle, they were insulted and set upon by a gang of white hoodlums, Mr. Rhodes being badly beaten. After a few minutes an officer appeared on the scene and had Rhodes sent to the Emergency hospital, then arrested the other two, his companions, and Judge Rockefeller fined them both $5.00 apiece next morning. The white brutes even escaped arrest. There was a meeting held in Mr. Rhodes' parlors on the evening of the 21st and a number of colored citizens formed resolutions to denounce such justice and further the unity of the better class of colored and white citizens of Buffalo.

LOCAL NOTES

Room to rent. Mrs. Lucas, 116 South Idaho street.

Mrs. J. E. Wilds returned last Wednesday from Salt Lake, where she was called by the death of her mother.

Col. Jas. Collins will begin active development work on his recently bonded mine in a few days. There are several applications on file from those who wish to be the colonel's valet and private secretary when he is a copper king.

Miss Eliza Johnson has accepted the position of chief chef at Mr. A. P. Heinze's establishment and summer home about nine miles out of the city.

Mr. Charley Brown has accepted a position with Mr. A. P. Heinze, at his summer home.

Strangers who visit the city for a short time should not go away without visiting Columbia Gardens, the most delightful resort in Montana. Cars leave Park and Main street every ten minutes. Admission free.

The Cricenda Club will give a grand inaugural ball at the Auditorium Wednesday evening, Aug. 6th. Mr. J. Williams, president; Mr. J. Fletcher, secretary; Mr. R. Lawrence, treasurer; W. H. Spriggs and F. A. Fletcher, executive committee.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson entertained in honor of Mrs. Ben Adams of Billings last Monday evening. The guests present were Mrs. Ben Adams, of Billings; Mrs. and Miss Nelson, late of Milwaukee; Mr. Charles Lier. An elaborate dinner was prepared for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Selle Reeves entertained a number of friends last Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. R. C. Logan, who will leave shortly for Chicago, where he expects to unite with the Knights of the Operabouffe singers. The guests present that enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Reeves are as follows: Mrs. L. S. Sheets, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. J. I. Jacobs, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. Nicolls, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Wm. Jones, Mrs. Estes, Misses Nelson, Scott, Williams, Messrs. J. Smith, H. Pugh, E. C. Atkinson, C. A. Davis, Rogers, J. S. Zancy, Chas. Leir, Wm. Jones, F. Pearl. Card playing was the amusement of the evening, after which lunch was prepared, in which everyone partook of quite freely. A handsome silver shaving mug and brush was presented to Mr. Logan by Mr. and Mrs. Reeves.

THE DOPE BOOK. SIDELIGHTS ON FORM.

Mr. Chris. Dorsey leaves Wednesday for Helena. Again!! We fail to understand these constant trips to the capital. Our esteemed colleague avers that it is always on business for the copper Napoleon, but we are rather inclined to the opinion that he is endeavoring to get a lease and bond on something in Helena himself.

The capitol building at Helena was dedicated without any disastrous effects to the Butte contingent who went over. Messrs. Jas. Collins, Chris. Dorsey, Morris O'Brien, all of Butte, and Messrs. Ed. Mosely, Arthur Palmer, Chris. Smith, Jim Howard, White, Fields and a few more of the Helena boys took in the town, with the result that the church fairs and bazaars and festivals disposed of their complete stock of lemonade.

Mr. John Montgomery is doing a rushing business and his popular place of business is a prime favorite among the Afro-Americans who drop into Helena.

Mr. Morris O'Brien worked at the Grandon hotel a while last week, during his visit among old friends in Helena.

Anybody desiring to work afternoons during the races, barbering, valeting, Turkish bath work, saloon work, dental work, shining shoes, or almost any vocation, leave their applications at the office of the New Age. There has been a general strike declared, led by Mr. Robert Lawrence, with a host of followers, that there shall be no work during race hours.

General notice—Before visiting Helena practice on your ping pong and lawn tennis strokes.

Mr. Tom Hammer, one of Helena's most progressive business citizens is running a very fine up-to-date saloon is becoming very popular among the drinking fraternity in the capital city.

NEGRO LAWYERS ELECT OFFICERS.

Special dispatch to the Globe-Emocrat, Little Rock, Ark., July 5.—The Colored State Bar association has adjourned, after electing the following officers: T. P. Johnson, honorary president; S. A. Jones, president; N. H. Nichols, vice-president; L. J. Brown, secretary; M. W. Gibbs, treasurer; R. S. Stout, chaplain.

GONE TO HIS REWARD.

Surrounded by his sons, family and friends, impressive funeral services were conducted by Rev. Jordan Allen over the remains of Mr. Henry C. Parsons, Sr., who died very suddenly last Sunday night at 438 South Arizona street, which was a great shock to his friends. He was found dead in a cabin on South Arizona street by Mr. J. Tagon, who conducts a boot and shoe shop in the same building. He showed no evidence of being ill the previous day, and he was until a late hour assisting his son, H. C. Parsons, Jr., to pack to go on a fishing and hunting trip, and from all appearance was well as usual. He died at the age of 58 years, was born in Holly Springs, Mississippi, in antebellum days, in which place he lived until a young man of twenty. Then he left for Memphis, Tennessee, where he lived and followed his chosen profession as barber for 35 years, until two years ago he came west to live with his son. He leaves one son and two daughters to mourn his loss, Mrs. Fannie Nance, of Chicago; Miss Louella Parsons, of Memphis, Tennessee, and Mr. H. C. Parsons, Jr., of Butte. The New Age extends sympathy to the family in this their sad hour of bereavement, and to the absent members, who were not present to pay the last sad rites to their departed father. May he rest in peace while in the sweet repose into which he has fallen.

JONES AND WRIGHT, GIDEON BAND AND RHODES.

THE BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH.

There will be a grand rally at the Baptist church Sunday, July 20, for the building fund. Everybody are requested to give liberally for the enterprise. The Band of Gideon, Band of Hope and Sunday school are all expected to give something in the rally.

Mr. J. W. Jones and Mrs. Nancy Wright were united in marriage by Rev. C. C. X. Laws Sunday, July 6, at their residence, 927 Montana street, at 6 p. m. The bride was dressed in a summer silk and the groom in black. Both of them were very tastefully dressed. Those who were present: Mr. and Mrs. H. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, Mr. Randolph, Mr. Cook and Mr. H. Pugh. The table was spread with many good things, which were consumed by the participants. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves very extensively, and after supper Messrs. Pugh, Randolph and Alexander furnish the hosts with lovely music.

The hosts remained until eleven o'clock, when they all retired to their homes and left the couple as happy as two doves in one nest, and bid them God speed on life's voyage.

Sister Rhodes, the evangelist, will preach at Bethel Baptist church Sunday. Let everyone come out and hear her.

There is some talk of revival meetings. How about it? Will you come? The road is broad that leads to hell. Will you come? Where thousands walk together there will you go. How long, O Lord, how long, before the people stop to listen and take heed?

A choir has been called for Sunday evening and will be permanent. Bros. E. J. Brown, Chas. Davis, J. W. Duncan, Mr. McMurray and Pearl Mrs. Nettie Smith, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. D. Lewis, Miss Gladys Brown and Mrs. Collins. Mr. Randolph and his string band will be present to enliven the occasion.

If the citizens had put that $5,000 in the Colored Baptist church of this city instead of burning it up on the hill the evening of the ninth God would have been pleased with them.

NOTICE.

Preaching at Shaffer's Chapel, A. M. E. Church, Platinum street, at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., by Rev. Jordan Allen, pastor. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m., Mrs. S. Reeves, superintendent, Willie Ward, secretary. On next Thursday night Shaffer's church will have a chair brigade. Each person coming will be expected to get a chair from up stairs and present it at the basement door, as an admission fee, which entitles them to supper and other refreshments. All are invited to join the chair brigade. On the fourth Sunday, the 27th, will be the grand opening of the new A. M. E. church. There will be three services during the day, under the management of the ministerial union. See program in bills. At the three services Rev. Allen wants to raise $200 to go toward the final completion of the church. The choir is making grand preparations to furnish us with music on the occasion. The choir will also have in their possession the new imitation pipe organ. It will be a grand opening indeed. There is a great deal of work to be done on the church yet, before it is dedicated in August. Hence, the pastor will be kept very busy until leaving to meet the annual conference at Leadville some time in September.

Mo., where they have just completed the establishment of a new chapter of Royal Arch Masons and a new Commandery of Knights Templars. While there they took preliminary steps for the proper entertainment of the annual convocation of the grand commandery and grand chapter of Missouri and jurisdiction, which are to be held August 19.
