The people of Big Sandy and vicinity held a picnic at McNamara's ranch on the Fourth. The sport consisted of horse racing, a base ball game between Big Sandy and Box Elder which resulted in a victory for Big Sandy with a score of 7 to 9. In the evening a dance was given, which was well attended. The celebration was conceded to be the finest ever given in that section.

KILLED BY A TRAIN

No. 2, east bound passenger struck a soldier, R. D. Bratton, of Troop M, Third cavalry, about a mile west of this city Sunday morning, killing him almost instantly. Engineer Ben Davidson had just rounded the curve and applied the air as quickly as he came in view of the man lying with his head on the rail. He was too close, however, to stop the train and the engine struck the sleeping soldier's head. When the train stopped the man was still alive, but died in a few minutes without regaining consciousness. He was taken to Fort Assiniboine and Coroner Pyper is conducting an inquest on the remains this afternoon.

HOTEL FOR HAVRE

Arrangements have been completed for the construction of a much needed hotel in Havre. The new hotel building will cost in the neighborhood of $60,000, a structure that will give ample accommodations to the to the traveling public. At a meeting held Saturday afternoon in the office of Carnal & Carruth, $31,000 was subscribed and arrangements for a loan for the remaining $30,000 will be made in the east. A stock company will be formed and the company will run the hotel as well as own it.
