

LOCAL MENTION

Arthur Sharp was a visitor from Big Sandy Saturday.

List your sheep and other livestock with Cowell & Allen.

Under Sheriff X. Pepin was in the city Friday on his way to Harlem.

FOR SALE—One fancy saddle horse about nine years old. For particulars inquire at Swanton's livery barn.

Mrs. L. E. Samson, mother of C. C. Samson, of this city, passed through here Saturday enroute to Chinook.

But little rain has fallen here in the past six weeks and as a result there will be a considerable shortage in the hay crop.

Eddie Dineen, of baseball fame in the east, passed through the city Saturday enroute from Kalispell to the Twin Cities.

Albert Latusky dropped into town Saturday to renew acquaintances. He leaves for Spokane Sunday to be absent several months.

Ike Peacock has bought F. J. O'Donald's interest in the blacksmith shop on Second street, and will continue the business as heretofore.

Barney Hicks and John Harrington were members of a party who made a catch of 208 trout on Box Elder creek between Friday and Sunday of last week.

Dr. Jas. Madden, of Masonic Temple fame, Chicago, authority on Eyes and inventor of "Ezy-Eye-Spex," is in Havre. Office at Mrs. Raymond's house.

Chinook is soon to have a creamery. A sufficient amount of money has been subscribed and the work of building will commence at once. The new enterprise should receive the patronage of every rancher within a distance of twenty miles.

C. A. Downie, formerly in the butcher business at Great Falls, is here, preparatory to stocking his ranch directly east of the machine shops. He will engage in handling sheep, hogs and poultry for the home market.

The Havre ball team will give a dance at the opera house next Friday evening, the proceeds to go for the equipment and running expenses of the club. Havre has a fine team and they are deserving of the patronage of everyone.

Geo. Yanks left for Harlem yesterday, where he has contracted to put up a frame building. Mr. Yanks just completed the erection of five houses in the Pepin & Demars addition, finishing his contract with an investment company.

Richard Waters, formerly brakeman on the Great Northern, has purchased E. J. Pepin's interest in the Havre meat market and the firm will hereafter be known as Fecker & Waters. Both the boys have the right kind of hustling material to make the business a winner and here's hoping they meet with success.

Gourley Brothers have arranged to put up a building on the lot between F. A. Buttrey's new brick building and Richardson & Richardson's grocery store. The new firm will start a bakery and confectionery store as soon as the building is completed. Bert Gourley is an express messenger on the Great Northern, between Kalispell and Minot and his brother is at present running a bakery at Devil's Lake, N. D. The Gourley brothers will make a valuable addition to the Citizen's Band of Havre—one being a snare drummer, while the other manipulates the baritone.

Charley Barrett is relieving Joe Gleasner in the railroad yards while Mr. Gleasner is visiting at Minot.

Louis Bowers and family are visiting this week in Spokane. Jno. Inberg is relieving Mr. Bowers as engineer on the Great Northern.

The carpenters met at their hall Friday night and initiated James Manning into the union. C. G. Tubbs was chosen walking delegate.

C. E. Chase, Chas. Sunday and F. X. Juneau made a trip to Glasgow Saturday, where they assisted in installing a lodge of the Eagles.

The iron has arrived for The Fair, Skylestead and Burke buildings, now under course of construction, and the work is being pushed along as fast as possible.

Samuel Hanley, who has been at Great Falls, recuperating from the accident he received while working on the school house last November, returned to Havre Sunday.

State Veterinarian Knowles was in the city the first of the week to inspect the horses of A. G. Staton and Jack Ryan, which are soon to be shipped to North Dakota. Mr. Ryan will spend several months there, helping to gather in the crop.

The Misses Rose and Viola Lepper, Misses Ada and Eva DeLorimer, Miss Nellie Barrett, Miss Sophia Schulpe and Miss Margaret Lidke, Messrs. W. B. Pyper, M. J. Hurley, G. H. Shanley, G. R. Gentry, C. H. Steward, comprised a jolly party who picniced on Beaver creek Sunday.

Lou Hop Lee, Chinaman, who has been confined in the city bastille pending deportation, was sent to Assiniboine Monday, where he will be used as a government witness in a court martial case. Lou Hop Lee was arrested at the post and will be returned to Chief of Police Bickle as soon as the trial is over.

Why pay rent, when you can own your own home, is a question very easy and satisfactorily explained by Goodrich & Newman. We will build you a neat, cozy, comfortable house, in our addition. Instead of receiving a landlord's receipt we will give you a receipt of credit for your money, and apply same to your account. See L. Newman.

ASSINNIBOINE.

The troops at the post are hard at drill, preparing to be present at the state fair at Great Falls in October. The troops will give exhibition drills, bareback riding, Roman races and squadron drills. These features will add much to the attractions at the fair.

Squadron Sergt-Maj. Lenhard, of Fort Assiniboine, went to Great Falls Friday on recruiting service.

Spike Riley has taken Geo. Siddons in tow and is putting him in condition for a prospective boxing contest with Kid Lee, which will be pulled off at the Post.

On August 1st the Infantry and Calvary of the Post will go out on a field manouevring expedition. They will be stationed along Beaver creek as far as the Bear Paws.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the Machinists, Blacksmiths and Boiler-makers, for their kind assistance and sympathy during the trials attending the death and funeral of Mrs. Geo. Martin, wife of our brother.

By Committee.
C. M. JOHNSON,
JNO. SKINNER.
