PARLER AND TOOLE.

"There are many laboring men in Montana, and they will approve of Judge Parker's opinion that an eight-hour law is constitutional. In view of the conditions in Colorado, it is important for the people of Montana to have in the governor's office a man like Governor Toole. He should and will be re-elected, and in the other state offices to uphold his Democratic politics and help him on the state boards, they should be Democrats, and put into effect the demands and pledges of the Democratic platform, the legislature should be Democratic.

Edwin Norris.

Havre theater goers are going to have a treat when "A Romance of Coon Hollow" comes here next Wednesday, Nov. 2nd. This is the first big city show that has ever played here and will undoubtedly have a large attendance. The play has just finished a tour of the coast cities and only makes five stops from Spokane to St. Paul. The Tacoma Ledger gave the following notice. "A Romance of Coon Hollow" a play of wholesome hearts and virtue triumphant, began an engagement of two nights at the Lyceum Theater last night, and was received with special favor by a large appreciative and sympathetic audience. The organization includes a splendid quartette and a troupe of plantation sernaders. Don't miss Coon Hollow the best show of the season.
