TWO SUBJECTS FOUND DEAD.

Florence Mackey was found dead Monday morning just west of town. Florence was an Indian girl that had created considerable notoriety in Indian society circles as being the heroine of a shooting affray last summer which resulted in the death of a breed.

On the same morning an unknown white man was also found dead in his bunk at the post, where civilian employers are lodged. Coroner Pyper conducted an inquest on the bodies, the verdict in both cases being that death was caused by the excessive use of alcohol.

The Holland Mercantile company is the name of the new firm which will throw open its doors to the good people of Havre next week. James and J. J.
