Theodore Hansen, the wool grower from the north fork of Clear Creek, was in the city Saturday on business errands.

Kid Fredericks, who has made this city his home since his fight with Jack Clifford at Great Falls, will start training the first of the month. He contemplates getting on a contest about January 1st with either Kid Lee or Louis Long.

Swanson & Marcoe have been awarded the contract for placing the heating apparatus in the new Hotel Havre for a consideration of $3,000. The vapor system of heating, which has not heretofore been introduced in the city will be used.

The third annual ball of the I. A. of M., No. 499, of Havre, will be given at McIntyre's opera house on New Years eve, December 31st. The event will be looked forward to with assurance of the best kind of a time, as all who are acquainted with the manner in which the machinists carry out their functions, know that they are past masters in the art of entertaining.

Considerable activity is manifested in the sheep and cattle market and ranchers are finding a good steady sale at fair prices for their product. Abe Crosson, the big rancher of Milk river, made a shipment of ten carloads of sheep and one carload of cattle from this point to eastern markets this week. A number of ranchers from the Bear Paws also contemplate making extensive shipments next week.

A sweet girl graduate in a Missouri city thus describes the way in which a goat butted a boy out of a front yard: "He hurled the previous end of his anatomy against the boy's afterward with an earnestness and velocity, which, backed by the goat's avoirdupois, imparted a momentum that was not relaxed until the instigator of the vehement exasperation landed on terra firma beyond the pale of the goat's jurisdiction."

RAILROAD NOTES

From Glasgow News—
Brakemen John McKinty is laying off.

Henry Spooner laid off a couple of trips last week.

Engineer Enfield has rented A. J. Wedum's Market street residence and will take possession this week.

Conductor M. D. Tierney moves his family to Havre this week. Everyone regrets to see them leave Glasgow.

Engineer Wm. Wofford has taken the 738 again and will work on the road until he takes charge of the county treasurer's office the first of March.

Brakeman McCue had his shoulder broken Tuesday night near White Earth station. The train broke in two, and the action of the air caused McCue to be thrown against the cupola of the caboose with the result as stated.

WHITE MEN CRAZY.

P. H. Barrett tells a good story of an incident which occurred in our city on Labor Day, as follows:

A noble red man was in Havre on labor day, an interested and not a little mystified spectator as the big parade passed up the main street.

He was a good specimen of the race, a rare thing nowadays—tall, straight, slender, with a classical bronze face that might grace a statue of Hiawatha. He viewed the marching hundreds as they filed by, and the gaudy flags of the organizations seemed to have a particular fascination for him. Gay colors always appeal to the barbarian.

At last he broke the silence. "What all white men walk for?" he asked a bystander.

"This is labor day, and they are parading."

"What dat for?" and the aborigine seemed more mystified than ever.

"Oh just because they have been working. Now they want to have a good time."

"Are they going to work any more?" "Oh, yes; they'll go back to work tomorrow."

"Huh! I thought day quit forever, I don't see what they celebrating for. Day fool. Indian never work. Always parade. Squaw always work, never parade. Dat best way. White man crazy." And Lo turned away with disgust.
